PREFATORY NOTES.

THE EDITOR has earnestly sought in the selection and adaptation of the Music and Hymns in "SONGS OF THE KINGDOM," to give a place to such as seemed to him best to voice the praises, pleadings, and aspirations of Christian hearts in the worship of the Lord Jesus Christ.

Special acknowledgments are due to REV. ROBERT LOWRY, D. D., for his valuable contributions and assistance, also to THE BIGLOW & MAIN Co., New York, and others, for permission to use copyright music.

W. H. DOANE.

THE COMMITTEE of the Baptist Young People's Union of America, appointed to have general charge of the preparation of the Song-book, are gratified to present "SONGS OF THE KINGDOM" to the public. The primary purpose of the book is to supply an attractive collection of hymns and tunes for the use of Baptist Young People in their devotional meetings and in their rallies and conventions; also a popular song book for general use in Sunday Schools, Prayer Meetings, and in the Home. As a preliminary step a general request was made for lists of hymns suitable for use in such a collection. Replies were received from hundreds of pastors and active workers in all parts of the United States and Canada. The grand old hymns of the Church, the songs that have won immortality, were numerous represented in the lists, confirming the committee in their conviction that the book should contain a goodly representation of these tried and tested favorites; songs that represented the best evangelical sentiment were, by common consent, expected to have a large place in the book.

Appreciating the fact that after carefully winnowing the old favorites, new music must be added to make the book complete, we counted ourselves fortunate in being able to secure the services of W. HOWARD DOANE, Mus. Doc., to whom was entrusted the musical editorship of the entire work. He has rendered invaluable service. His well known musical talent is apparent throughout the book.

With this brief prefatory statement, "SONGS OF THE KINGDOM" is introduced to the public. More than fifty authors are represented in its pages. We congratulate the Baptist Young People on having a song book of their own, and pray that the Lord may bless its use to the good of the young in life and the young in heart throughout our Baptist Zion.

My Faith Looks Up to Thee.

"Stand fast in the faith."—1 COR. 16: 13.

DR. RAY PALMER.

DR. LOWELL MASON.

1. My faith looks up to Thee, Thou Lamb of Calvary, Saviour divine;

{ Now hear me while I pray ; }
{ Take all my guilt a-way ; } O let me from this day Be wholly Thine.

2 May thy rich grace impart
Strength to my fainting heart—
My zeal inspire ;
As Thou hast died for me,
O, may my love to Thee,
Pure, warm, and changeless be—
A living fire.

3 While life's dark maze I tread,
And griefs around me spread,
Be Thou my Guide ;
Bid darkness turn to day,

Wipe sorrow's tears away,
Nor let me ever stray
From Thee aside.

4 When ends life's transient dream,
When death's cold, sullen stream
Shall o'er me roll,
Blest Saviour, then, in love,
Fear and distress remove ;
O, bear me safe above,
A ransomed soul !

Interposed his precious blood.

3 O, to grace how great a debtor
Daily I'm constrained to be !
Let Thy goodness, like a fetter,
Bind my wandering heart to Thee ;
Prone to wander, Lord, I feel it,
Prone to leave the God I love ;
Here's my heart, O, take and seal it ;
Seal it from Thy courts above.

{ O'er all vic-to-ri-ous, } Come and reign over us, Ancient of days.

2 Come, Thou incarnate Word,
Gird on Thy mighty sword;
Our prayer attend;
Come, and Thy people bless,
And give Thy word success:
Spirit of holiness, on us descend.

3 Come, holy Comforter,
Thy sacred witness bear,
In this glad hour;
Thou, who almighty art,

Now rule in every heart,
And ne'er from us depart, Spirit of

 Stand in His strength alone;
 The arm of flesh will fail you—
 Ye dare not trust your own:
 Put on the gospel armor,
 And, watching unto prayer,
 Where duty calls, or danger,
 Be never wanting there.

3 Stand up!—stand up for Jesus!
 The strife will not be long;
 This day, the noise of battle,
 The next, the victor's song:
 To him that overcometh,
 A crown of life shall be;
 He with the King of glory
 Shall reign eternally.

1 The morning light is breaking;
 The darkness disappears!
 The sons of earth are waking
 To penitential tears;
 Each breeze that sweeps the ocean
 Brings tidings from afar,
 Of nations in commotion,
 Prepared for Zion's war.

2 Blest river of salvation,
 Pursue thine onward way;
 Flow thou to every nation,
 Nor in thy richness stay;
 Stay not till all the lowly
 Triumphant reach their home;
 Stay not till all the holy
 Proclaim—"The Lord is come!"

Far from the safe, quiet harbor we've rode, Seeking our Father's celestial abode,

2 Wildly the storm sweeps us on as it roars,
We're homeward bound, homeward bound;
Look! yonder lie the bright heavenly shores,
We're homeward bound, homeward bound;
Steady, O pilot! stand firm at the wheel,
Steady! we soon shall outweather the gale;
O, how we fly 'neath the loud-creaking sail!
We're homeward bound, homeward bound.

3 Into the harbor of heaven now we glide,
We're home at last, home at last;
Softly we drift on its bright silver tide,
We're home at last, home at last;
Glory to God! all our dangers are o'er,
We stand secure on the glorified shore;
Glory to God! we will shout evermore,
We're home at last, home at last.

Work thro' the morning hours;
Work while the dew is sparkling,

Work in the glowing sun;
Work, for the night is coming,
When man's work is done.

Work thro' the sunny noon;
Fill brightest hours with labor,
Rest comes sure and soon:

Give ev'ry flying minute
Something to keep in store;
Work, for the night is coming,
When man works no more.

3 Work, for the night is coming,
Under the sunset skies;
While their bright tints are glowing,
Work, for the daylight flies:
Work till the last beam fadeth,
Fadeth to shine no more;
Work, while the night is darkening,
When man's work is o'er.
