IN the Second Edition of my Hymns the Preface was omitted for several Reafons: The chief of which were these.

I thought the Account of my Experience was sufficiently published and dispersed in the first Edition; and therefore there needed no Repetition of it; especially as the Book was now more adapted, (by the Addition of the Supplement) to public Woxship, where Narratives of any kind are not very necessary: Nor was I without Apprebension that some ill Use might be made of it, as there are several Passages in it that may not suit the Condition of many Christians. It was therefore to be feared that Some foolish Men might take Liberty from it to turn the Grace of God into Lasciviousness; and that what was designed to display the Infinite Mercy of Goa to bis Children, might be made, by the Tempter's Craft, an Occasion of falling.

But the earnest and repeated Enquiries that were made after the Preface, and the the longing Defire some expressed for it, and (what was above all) the several Accounts I received from serious Christians, to whom it had been much blessed, did at lass (as so many Calls of Previdence, which I was unwilling to resist prevail upon me to reprint it in the Third Edition: and for the same Reasons it was judged proper to continue it.

I beseech Almighty God to make it surther useful to his Children, in making them see by it the Riches of his free Grace to the worst of Men; for which Intent it was written. And let those who may be tempted thereby to tempt God, or to backslide, in bopes of being so miraculously reclaimed, confider that the Repentance to Salvation given Me may not be given to Them. I charge them therefore in the Name of God to beware of any such diabolical Delusin; for they who fay, Let us sin that Grace may abound, Their Damnation is just. And the Damnation which Men incur by a presumptuous wilful Abuse and Contempt of the Gospel, is worse than that of Sodom and Gomorrah: For our God is a confurning Fire.

PREFACE

To the FIRST EDITION. HE following Hymns were composed, partly from several Passages of Scripture laid on my Heart, or opened to my Understanding from time to time by the Spirit of God, or else hinted to me by other Christians; (of which latter there are indeed but very few) partly from Impressions felt under different Frames of Spirit at the Times when they were respectively written; and partly from fpontaneous Impulses, or serious Reflections on such Subjects as accidentally occurred to my Mind. There are also Passages interspersed here and there, that were written many Years ago on various Occasions, and now thought worthy, after a long Suppression, of being revived and brought to Light; but these likewise are very few.

They were begun almost two Years ago; but have been greatly impeded, and often interrupted by Disorder and Darkness of Soul, Afflictions and Temptations of various Kinds, and other Hindrances. They are published not only in the same Order, but almost in the same Manner in which they were first written: For though they have since undergone a cursory Revital, and have been lightly retouched, the Alterations

I have made in them are neither very numerous nor material.

I defire wholly to submit them, with myself, to the all-wise Disposal of that God the sweet enlivening Influences of whose blessed Spirit I often selt while they were composing. All I would humbly wish is; that Jesus of Nazareth the mighty God, the Friend of Sinners, would be pleased to make them, in some Measure (weak and mean as they are) instrumental in setting forth his Glory, propagating and enforcing the Truths of his Gospel, chearing the Hearts of his People, and exalting his inestimable Righteousness, upon which alone the unworthy Author desires to rest the whole of his Salvation.

Tho' the rich Displays of God's free fovereign Grace, and electing Love to Me the chief of Sinners may be seen, by an enlightened Eye, in several Parts of the Compositions; and tho' one of them in particular (No. XXVII. Page 39. entitled, The Author's own Confession) be written professedly with that View; I shall nevertheless lay hold on the present Occasion to make my public Acknowledgment of God's unmerited Mercy to me, by giving a brief and summary furnmary Account of the great Things. he hath done for my Soul: I say, a brief and summary Account; for a minute and circumstantial Detail of them would more than fill an ample Volume.

A S I had the Happiness of being born of believing Parents, I imbibed the found Doctrines of the Gossel, from my Insancy; mor was I without Touches of Heart, Checks of Conscience, and Meltings of Affections by the secret Strivings of God's Spirit with me while very young: But the Impressions were not deep, nor the Insurences lasting; being frequently defaced and quenched by the Vanities and Vices of Childhood and Youth.

About the twenty-first Year of my Age, I began to be under great Anxiety concerning my Soul. The Spirit of Bondage distressed me fore; though I endeavoured (as I believe most under legal Convictions do) to commend myfelf to God's Favour, by Amendment of Life, virtuous Resolutions, moral Reclitude, and a firich Attendance on religious Ordinances. I strove to subdue my Flesh by Fasting, and other rigorous Acts of Penance and Mortification; and whenever I was captivated by it's Lusts (which indeed was often the Cafe) I endeavoured to reconcile myself again to God by Sorrow for my Faults; which, if attended with Tears, I hoped would pals as current Coin with Heaven; and then I judged myself whole again, and to stand on equal Terms with my Foes, till the next Fall; which 'generally succeeded in a short Time. Ιn

In this uneasy refflets Round of finning and repenting, working and dreading. I went out for above seven Years; when a great domestic. Affliction befalling me, In which I was a moderate Sufferer, but a monstrous Siriher I began to fink deeper and deeper into Comey viction of my Nature's Evil; the Deceitfulness and Hardness of my Heart, the Wickedness of my Life, the Shallowness of my Chilffia nity, and the Blindness of my Devotion. -faw that I was in a dangerous State; and that -I must have a better Religion than I had yet experienced, before I could, with any Propriety, call myself a Christian. How did I now long to feel the Merits of Christ applied to my Soul by the Holy Spirit! How often did I make my strongest Efforts to call God my -God! But alas! I could no more do this, than I could raise the Dead. I found now, by woful Experience, that Faith was not in my Power; and the Question with me now was, - not whether I would be a Christian or no : but , whether I might; not whether I should repent and believe; but whether God would give me I true Repentance, and a living Faith,

After some Weeks passed in this gloomy, - dreadful State, the Lord was pleased to comfort me a little, by enabling me to appropriate, in some measure, the Merits of the Saviour to my own Soul. This Comfort increased for fome Time: And my Understanding was also wonderfully illuminated in reading the holy Scriptures; fo that I could fee Christ in many Passages, where before I little imagined to find him; and was encouraged to hope I had an Interest

terest in his Merits, and the Benefits by him procured to his People.

In this bleffed State my Continuance was but fhort: For, rushing impetuously into Notions beyond my Experience, I hasted to make myfelf a Christian by mere Doctrine, adopting other Mens Opinions before I had tried them; and let up for a great Light in Religion, difre-garding the internal Work of Grace begun in my Soul by the Holy Ghost. This Liberty, assumed by myself, and not given by Christ, soon grew to Libertinism; in which I took large progressive Strides, and advanced to a dreadful Height, both in Principle and Practice. In a word, I ran such dangerous Lengths both of carnal and spiritual Wickedness, that I even out-went professed Infidels, and shocked the Irreligious and Profane with my horrid Blas-phemies, and monstrous Impieties. Hardness of Heart was, with me, a Sign of good Confidence; Carelessness went for Trust, empty Notions for great Light, a feared Conscience for Assurance of Faith, and rash Presumption for Christian Courage.

My Actions were, in a great measure, conformable to my Notions: For having (as I imagined) obtained by Christ a Liberty of sinning, I was resolved to make Use of it; and thought the more I could fin without Remorse, the greater Hero I was in Faith. A tender Conscience I deemed Weakness; Prayer I lest for Novices and Biggots; and a broken and contrite Heart was a Thing too low and legal for me to approve, much more to desire. Not to dwell on Particulars, I shall only say (what, though though shocking to hear, is too true!) that I committed all Uncleanness with Greediness.

In this abominable State I continued, a loofe Backflider, an audacious Apostate, a bold-faced Rebel, for nine or ten Years, not only committing Acts of Lewdness myself, but infecting Others with the Poison of my Delusions. I published several Pieces on different Subjects, chiefly Translations of the ancient Heathens; to which I prefixed Prefaces, and subjoined Notes of a pernicious Tendency; and indulged a Freedom of Thought far unbecoming a Christian.

But God, who is rich in Mercy, and whose Grace is, like himself, almighty, did not altogether give me up to Hardness and Impenitence: I felt, from time to time, Meltings of Heart and inward Compunction; and had a fecret Hope at the Bottom (which often rose above my gross Corruptions) that I should not always go on in this abandoned Manner, and run as reprobate to final Perdition.

About seven or eight Years ago, I began by degrees to reform a little, and to live in a more sober and orderly Manner. And now, as I retained the form of sound Words, and held the Doctrines of Free-Grace, Justification by Faith, and other orthodox Tenets, I was tolerably confident of the Goodness of my State; especially as I could now also add that other Requisite, a moral Behaviour. Surely thought I, though I have been so profligate and profane, yet as I am now reclaimed, and am not only sound in Principles, but sober and honest in Practice, I cannot but be in the right Way to the Favour of God.

For several Years I went on in this easy, cool, fmooth, and indolent Manner, with a lukewarm infipid

infipid kind of Religion, yet not without some fecret Whispers of God's Love, and Visitations of his Grace; and now and then warm Address es to him in private Prayer. But alas! all this while my Heart was whole; the Fountains of the great Deeps of my finful Nature were not broken up. I was therefore conscious that the written Word of God was against me, especially those Parts of it, that represent the Children of God as a poor, afflicted, mourning, brokenhearted People; of which Characteristics I was destitute: Nor was the Blood of Christ effectually applied to my Soul. I looked on his Death indeed as the grand Sacrifice for Sin; and always thought on him with Respect and Reverence; but did not fee the inestimable Value of his Blood and Righteousness clearly enough to make me abhor myfelf, and count all Things elfe but Daing and Drofs. On the contrary, when I used to read the Scriptures (which I now did constantly, both in English and the original Languages) though my Mindwas often affected, and my Understanding illuminated by many Passages that treated of the Saviour; yet I was for far from feeing, or dwning that there was fuch a Necessity for his Death, and that it could be of fuch infinite Value as is represented, that I have often resolved (O the horrible Depth of 'Man's Fall, and the desperate Wickedness of the human Heart!) that I never would believe it; and have been tempted to tell God himself, that he could not make me, without injuring my Reason, and imposing on my Understanding, by downright Violences and pervertive Power.

About three or four Years ago, I fell into a deep Despondency of Mind, because I had mever experienced grand Revelations and miraculous Discoveries. I was very melancholy, and shunned all Company, walking pensively alone, or fitting in private, and bewailing my fad and dark Condition, not having a Friend in the World, to whom I could communicate the Burden of my Soul; which was fo heavy, that I fometimes helitated even to take my necessary Food. But after many a gloomy doleful Hour fpent in Solitude and Sorrow, not without firong and frequent Cries and Tears to God, and befeeching him to reveal himfelf to me in a clearer Manner, I thought he asked me, in the midst of one of my Prayers; Whether I rather chofe the visionary Revelations, of which I had formed some wild Idea, or to be content with trusting to the low despised Mystery of a crucified Man? I was enabled to prefer the latter; and felt great Comfort in expecting the future

Effects of my Choice. The barrollow I again

But Gloom of Mind, and Dejection of Spirit ftill frequently overwhelmed me: From which I used to be relieved, by pouring out my Soul to Christ, and befeeching him, with Cries and Groans and Tears, to reveal himself to me; praying at the same Time it might bedone without Pain, for I was so much a Coward, that I preferred Ease to every other Consideration. I was often answered by such Portions of Scripture as these: Behold I come quickly: and my Reward is with Me .- That which thou hast already, hold fast till I come. To the latter of these, I closed my Hands fast, and cried, I would sooner part with every Drop of Blood, than let go the Hopes I already had in a crucified Saviour: And to the former, I used to reply, (after confidering the Words, My Reward is wish me:) "Come, "Lord Jefus, come quickly." For the I expected formerfore Visitation; yet, believing that Christ would bring Strength and Power with him, I waited and longed for his Coming.

The Week before Easter 1757, I had such an amazing View of the Agony of Christ in the Garden, as I know not well how to describe. I was lost in Wonder and Adoration; and the Impression it made was too deep, I believe, ever to be obliterated—I shall say no more of this; but only remark, that not with standing all that is talked about the Sufferings of Jesus, none can know any thing of them, but by the Holy Ghost; and, I believe, he that knows most, knows but very little. It was upon this I made the first Part of Hymn 1. On the Passon: Which however, I afterwards mutilated and altered.

I used to be often terribly cut down with those Words. And cast ye the unprositable Servant into outer Darkness: There shall be weeping and gnashing of Teeth, Matt. xxv. 30. Which sometimes funk me almost to utter Despair: and then again I used to receive some Comfort. At length, Despair began to make dreadful Head against me; Hopesgrew fainter, and Terrors stronger: Which latter were increased by a faithful Letter I received from a Friend, who had also run great Lengths of Impiety with me formerly, but was now reclaimed. The Convictions I now laboured under, were not like those legal Convictions I had formerly felt, but far worse, hortible beyond Expression. I looked on myself as a Gospel-Sinner; one that had trampled under Foot the Blood of Jesus; and for whom there remained no more Sacrifice for Sin, I shall not enlarge enlarge here, chusing rather to suppress than exaggerate; as I do not lay any Stress on my own Sufferings, or those of any other Man, except the Man Christ Jesus; but surely what I felt was very grievous. For so deep was my Despair, that I found in me a Kind of Wish, that I might only be damned with the common Damnation of Transgressors of God's Law. But, oh! I thought the hottest Place in Hell must be my Portion. All the evangelical Promises were so far from comforting me, that they were my greatest Tormentors; because they would only increase my Condemnation.

This Diffress and Anguish of Soul was like-wise attended with great Infirmity of Body. One Morning I was waked with intolerable Pain, as if Balls of Fire were burning my Reins. Amidst this excruciating Torure, which lasted near an Hour, one of the first Things I thought on was, the pierced Side of Jesus, and what Pain of Body, as well as Soul, he underwent. Soon after this fiery Stroke, I was seized in the Evening with a cold Shivering, which I concluded to be the icy Damp of Death, and that after That must come everlasting Damnation. In this Condition I went to my bed; but dared not close my Eyes, even when Nature was overcharged, left I should awake in Hell.

While these Horrors remained, I used to run backwards and forwards to Places of religious Worship, especially to the Tabernacle in Meerfields, and the Chapel in Tottenham-Court & Where, indeed I received some Comfort (which, tho' little, was then highly prized, because greatly needed) but in the general almost every Thing served only to condemn me; to make merue my own Backfidings; and envy chole Children of Gadz who had continued to walk honefully even fince their first Conversion. Notions of Religion I wanted no Man to teach me; I had Destring sough a but found by woful Experience, that dry Doctrine, the ever so sound, will not suffain a Soul in the Day of Trial. In this fad State I went moving about (and that I could, was next to a Miracle) having some little Hope at the Bottom under all, which now and then would glimmer, but was foon oxerwhelmed again with Clouds of Horror, till Whitfunday 1757; when I happened to go in the Afternoon, to the Moravian Chapel in Fetter-Lang, where I had been several Times before. The Minister preached on these Words; Bir cause thou hast kept the Word of my Patience, I al+ To will keep thee from the Hour of Temptation, which spall come upon all the World, to try them that dwell upon the Earth, Rev. iii. 10. Tho' the Text, and most of what was said on it, seemed to make greatly against me; yet I listened with much Attention, and felt myself deeply impressed by tering my Mind, returned to my own House.

I was hardly got home, when I felt myself melting away into a strange Sostness of Affection; which made me sling myself on my Knees before God. My Horrors were immediately dispelled, and such Light and Comfort slowed into my Heart, as no Words can paint. The Lord by his Spirit of Love came,—not in a visionary Manner into my Brain, but with such divine Power and Energy into my Soul, that I was lost in blisful Amazement. I cried out,

66 What

"What Men Lord?" His Spirit answered in me, Yes Thee. I objected, "But I have been for " unspeakably vile and wicked" The Answer was; I pardon thee fully and freely. Thy own Goodmes (for I had now set about a thorough Amendment, if peradventure I might be spared) cannot fave thee; nor shall thy Wickedness damn thee. I undertake to work all thy IV orks in thee and for thee; and to bring thee fafe through all. The Akes ration I then felt in my Soul, was as fudden and palpable, as that which is experienced by a Perfon flaggering, and almost finking under a Burden; when it is immediately taken from his Shoulders. Tears ran in Streams from my Eyes for a confiderable while; and I was to swallowed up in Joy and Thankfulness, that I hardly knew where I was. I threw my Soul willingly into my Saviour's Hands; lay weeping at his Feet, wholly refigned to his Will, and only begging that I might, if he was graciously please ed to permit it, be of some service to his Church and People.

Thenceforth I enjoyed sweet Peace in my Soul; and had such clear and frequent Manifestations of his Love to me, that I longed for no other Heaven. My Horrors were bandhed, and have not, I think, returned fines with equal Violence. And tho' I can fee little Signs, as yet, of his granting my Request concerning Usefulness; tho' I am very barren of Good, and full of Evil; tho' I have many fore Trials and Temptations in my Soul; yet it pleases the Lord to reveal himself often in me, to open the Mysteries of his Cross, and give me to trust in his precious Blood.

Note, This was written before the Author's Call to the Ministry.

Not long after this my-Shall I call it Reconversion? I was terribly infested with Thoughts fo monstrously obscene and biasphemous, that they cannot be spoken, nor so much as hinted; and, I believe, fuch as hardly ever entered into the Heart of any other Man; tho' I am sensible that most of God's Children are sometimes attacked in like Manner: But mine were foul and black beyond Example, and seemed to be the Master-pieces of Hell. They haunted me fome Months; and used to make me weep bitterly, and cry earnestly to my God to remove them: Which at last he was pleased to do in a great measure; tho' they would often be returning still, like intruding Visitants, but are not permitted to come with much Power. In short. I feel myfelf now as poor, as weak, as helplefe, and dependent as ever; but now my Weakness is my greatest Strength: I now rejoice, tho? I rejoice with Trembling.

I foon began to be visited by God's Spirit in a different Manner from whatever I had felt before. I had constant Communion with him in Prayer. His Sufferings, his Wounds, his Agonies of Soul were imprest upon me in an amazing Manner. I now believed my Name was sculptured deep in the Lord Jesus's Breast, with Characters never to be erased. I saw him, with the Eye of Faith, stooping under the Load of my Sins; groaning and grovelling in Gethsemans for Me. The incarnate God was more and more revealed to me; and I had far other Notions of his Sufferings, than I had entertained before. Now I saw that the Grief of Christ was the Grief of my Maker; that his Wounds were the Wounds of the Almighty God; and the least Drop of his Blood now appeared to me more valuable than ten Thousands of Worlds. As I had before thought his Suffer ings too little, they now appeared to me to be teo great; and I often cried out, in Transports of blissful Astonishment; "Lord, tis too much; 46 'tis too much; furely my Soul was not worth " so great a Price." I had also such a Spirit of fympathetic Love to the Lord Jesus given me, that after I had left off to forrow for myfelf, for fome Months I grieved and mourned bitterly for Him. I looked on him whom I had pierced, and felt fuch sharp Compunction, mixt at the fame time with fo much Compassion, that the Pain and the Pleasure I experienced, are much better felt than exprest.

Jesus Christ, and He crucified, is now the only Thing I desire to know. In that incarnate Mystery are contained all the rich Treasures of divine Wisdom. This is the Mark, towards which I am still pressing forward. This is the Cup of Salvation, of which I wish to drink deeper and deeper. This is the Knowledge, in which I long to grow; and desire at the same time a daily Increase in all true Grace and God-liness. All Duties, Means, Ordinances, &c. are to me then only rich, when they are enriched with the Blood of the Lamb; in Comparison of which, all Things else are but Chass and Husks.

PHARISAIC ZEAL, and ANTINOMIAN SECURITY, are the two-Engines of Satan, with which he grinds the Church in all Ages, as the twixt the upper and the nether Milstone. The Space between them is much narrower and harder harder to find, than most Men imagine. It is a Path which the Vulture's Eye hath not seen; and none can show it us but the Holy Ghost. Here, let no one trust the Directions of his own Heart, or of any other Man; lest by being warned to shun the One, he be dashed against the Other. The D stinction is too fine for Man to discern: Therefore, let the Christian ask Direction of his God. These two hideous Monsters continually worry and perplex my Soul: Nor is the Former, tho' appearing in a holice Shape, one Whit less, but (if possible) more odious to me than the Latter. Therefore, from the wonderful Dealings of God towards me, I endeavour to draw the following Observations.

On the one Hand, I would observe; That it is not of bim that willeth, nor of bim that runnetb; but of God which sheweth Mircy-That none can make a Christian, but he that made the World-That it is the Glory of God to bring Good out of Evil. That whom he loveth, he loveth unto the End .- That tho' all Men feek, more or less, to recommend themfelves to God's Favour by their Works, yet 19 him that worketh not, but believeth on Him that justifieth the Ungodly, his Faith is counted for Righteoufness .- That the Blood of the Redeemer, applied to the Soul by his Spirit, is the one Thing needful .- That Prayer is the Task and Labour of a Pharisee; but the Privilege and Delight of a Christian-That God grants not the Requests of his People, because they pray; but they pray, because he designs to answer their Petitions.-That Self-Righteousness, and legal Holiness rather keep the Soul from, than draw it to Christ .- That they who feek Salvation by them

xvi PREFACE.

them, pursue Shadows; mistake the great End of the Law, and err from the Way, the Truth. and the Life .- That God's Defign is to glorify his Son alone, and to debase the Excellence of every Creature.-That no Righteousness befides the Righteousness of Jesus (that is, the Righteousness of God) is of any Avail towards Acceptance. - That to be a moral Man, a zealous Man, a devout Man, is very thort of being a Christian. That the Eye of Faith looks more to the Blood of Jefus, than to the Soul's Victory over Corruptions. That the Dealings of God with his People, tho' fimilar in the general, are nevertheless so various, that there is no chalking out the Paths of one Child of God by those of another; no laying down regular Plans of Christian Conversion, Christian Experience, Christian Usefulness, or Christian Conversation.—That the Will of God is the only Standard of Right and Good .- That the Sprinkling of the Blood of a crucified Saviour on the Conscience, by the Holy Ghost, sanctifies a Man: without which the most absternious Life and rigorous Discipline is unholy. - Lastly, That Faith and Holiness, with every other Blesfing, are the Purchase of the Redeemer's Blood; and that he has a Right to bestow them on whom he will, in fuch a Manner, and in fuch a Measure, as he thinks best; tho' the Spirit in all Men lusteth to Envy.

On the other Hand, I would observe; that it is not so easy to be a Christian, as some Men seem to think.—That for a living Soul really to trust in Christ alone, when he sees nothing in himself but Evil and Sin, is an Act as supernatural, as for Peter to walk the Sea.—That mere Doctring, tho ever fo found, will not alter the Heart; confequently that to turn from one Set of Tenets to another, is not Christian Conversion.—That as much as Lazarus coming out of his Grave, and feeling himself restored to Life, differed from those who only saw the Miracle, or bolieved the Fact when told them; forgreat is the Difference between a Soul's real Coming out of himfelf, and Having the Rightsouffnels of Christ imputed to him by the precious Faith of God's Elect, and a Man's bars Relieving the Doctrine of imputed Righteoninels because he sees it contained in Scripture, or affenting to the Truth of it when proposed to his Understanding by Others .- That a whole-hearted Disciple can have but little Communion with a broken-hearted Lord,— That if any Man bave not the Spirit of Christ, be is some of his. - That a prayerless Spirit, is not the Spirit of Christ; but that Prayer to a Christian, is as necessary and as natural as Food to a natural Man .- That the usual Way of going to Heaven is through much Tribulation .- I'hat the Siraer, which is drawn to Christ, is not he that has bearnt that he is a Sinner by Head-Knowledge, but that feels himself such by Heart-Contrition:-That he that believeth, hath an Unction from the Holy-One.—That a true Christian is as vitally united to Christ. as my Hand or Foot to my Body; consequently fuffers and rejoices with him. That a Believer talks and converses with God. - That a dead Faith can no more cherish the Soul, than a dead Corpse can perform the Functions of Life. That where there is true Faith, there will be Obedience and the Fear of God .-That

That he that lives by the Faith of the Son off God, eateth his Flesh, and drinketh his Bloods That he that bath the Son, hath Life; and he that bath not the Sen of God, bath not Life .- I hat many imagine themselves great Believers, who have little or no true Faith at all: And many who deem themselves void of Faith, cleave to Christ by the Faith of the Operation of Godst That Faith, like Gold, must be tried in the Fire, before it can be safely depended on. Lastly, that Christians are sealed by the Holy Ghost to the Day of Redemption : And to this Seal they trust their eternal Welfare, not to naked Knowledge, or speculative No-tions, the ever so deep. They dread to dream they are rich, when they are blind and poor; to have a Name to live, and yet be dead; or to be forced to fly for precarious Refuge to the conjectural Scheme of universal Salvation, with those who hope to be faved, because they think there will be none loft.

For my own Part, I confess myself a Sinner still; and tho' I am not much tempted to outward gross Acts of Iniquity, yet inward Corruptions andspiritual Wickedness continually harrais and perplex my Soul, and often make me cry out, "O wretched Man that I am; who shall deli-" ver me from the Body of this Death!" From Me they are not yet removed; tho' I once hoped, with many Others, that I should soon get rid of them. All I can do is to look to Jesus through them all; cling fast to his wounded. Side; long to be clothed with his Righteoutness; pray him to plead my Cause against these spiritual Énemies that rise up against me; and, tho' I feel myself leprous from Head to Foot, believe

Believe that I am clean thro' the Word which he hath spoken unto me. In short, I rejoice, not because the Spirits are always subject to me (for, alas! I find they are often too strong for me to controul) but because my name is written in Heaven.

I am daily more and more convinced, that the Promises of God, to bis People, are absolute; and defire to build my hopes on the free electing Love of God in Christ Jesus to my Soul, before the World began; which, I can experimentally and feelingly fay, he hath delivered from the lowest Hell. He hath plucked me as a Brand out of the Fire. Tho' my Ways were dreadfully dangerous to the last Degree, his Eye was all along upon me for Good, He hath excited me to love much, by forgiving me much. He hath shewed me, and still daily shews me, the abominable Deceit, Luft, Enmity, and Pride of my Heart, and the inconceivable Depths of hisMercy; how far I was fallen, and how much it cost him of Sweat and Blood to bring me up. He hath proved himself stronger than I; and his Goodness superior to all my Unworthiness. He gives me to know and to feel too, that without him I can do nothing. He tells me, (and he enables me to believe it) that I am all fair, and there is no Spot in me. Though an Enemy, he calls me his Friend; tho' a Traitor, his Child; tho' a beggar'd Prodigal, he cloaths me with the best Robe, and has put a Ring of endless Love and Mercy on my Hand. And tho' I am often forely distrest by spiritual internal Foes, afflicted, tormented, and bowed down almost to Death, with the Sense of my own present Barrenness, Ingratitude, and Proneness to Evil; he secretly shews me his bleeding Wounds; and softly, but powerfully whispers to my Soul, "I am thy great "Salvation."

His free distinguishing Grace is the Bottom on which is fixt the Rest of my poor weary tempted Soul. On this I ground my Hope, oftentimes when unsupported by any other Evidence, fave only by the Spirit of Adoption received from him. He hath chosen me out from everlasting, in whom to make known the inexhaustible Riches of his free Grace and long Suffering, Tho' I am a Stranger to Others, and a Wonder to Myself; yet I know Him, or rather am known of him. Tho' poor in myself, I am rich enough in Him. my dry, empty, barren Soul is parched with Thirst, he kindly bids me come to him, and drink my Fill at the Fountain-head. Word, he empowers me to fay, with experimental Evidence; Where Sin abounded, Grace did much more abound. Amen and Amen.

My faithful Friend, my Father reconcil'd, Accept an Off'ring from thy feeble Child: Whose helpless Hand this Token, mean and small,

Would fondly give to Thee, who giv'st him

Take both the Gift and Giver to thy Care: May both thy Bounty, and thy Love declare, By Thee be Both directed to fulfil The holy Counsels of thy HEAV'NLY WILL.

HYMN I.

On the Passion.

- 1. OME, all ye chosen Saints of God, That long to seel the cleanling Blood, In pensive Pleasure join with Me, To sing of sad Gethsemane.
- 2. Gethsemane, the Olive-Press !

  (And why so call'd, let Christians guess)
  FitName! fit Place! where Vengeance strove,
  And grip'd and grappled hard with Love.
- 3. 'Twas here the Lord of Life appear'd,
  And figh'd, and groan'd, and pray'd, and fear'd;
  Bore all Incarnate God could bear,
  With Strength enough—and none to spare.
- 4. The Pow'rs of Hell united press'd, And squeez'd his Heart, and bruis'd his Breast. What dreadful Conslicts rag'd within, When Sweat and Blood forc'd thro' the Skin!
- 5. Dispatch'd from Heav'n an Angel stood. Amaz'd to find him bath'd in Blood, Ador'd by Angels and obey'd; But lower now than Angels made.

C.

- 6. He stood to strengthen, not to fight:
  Justice exacts its utmost Mite.
  This Victim Vengeance will pursue:
  He undertook; and must go thro.
  - 7. Three favour'd Servants, left not far, Were bid to wait and watch the War:
    But Christ withdrawn, what Watch we keep!
    To shun the Sight, they Junk in Sleep.
  - 8. Backwards and forwards thrice he ran, As if he fought fome help from Man; Or wish'd, at least, they would condole ('Twas all they could) his tortur'd soul.
  - 9. Whate'er he fought for, there was none;
    Our Captain fought the Field alone;
    'Soon as the Chief to Battle led,
    That Moment ev'ry-Soldier fled.
  - 10. Mysterious Constit! Dark Disguise!

    Hid from all Creatures peering tyes.

    Angels astonish'd view'd the Scene;

    And wonder yet, what all could mean.
- D. O. Maunt of Olives, Tacred Grove!

  O. Garden, Scene of eragic Love!

  What bitter Herbs thy Beds produce!

  Howrank their Scene! how harfhtnein Juice!
- 12. Rate Virtues now these Herbs contain:
  The Saviour suck'd out at their Batte.
  My Mouth with these if Conscience crass,
  I'll gat them with the Passhal Lamb.
- 13. O Kedron, gloomy Brook, hew foul Thy black polluted Waters roll!

No Tongue can tell (but some can taste)
The Fifth that into thee was east.

14. In Edge's Garden there was Food
Of ev'ry kind for Man, while good;
But, banish'd thence, we say to Thee,
O Garden of Gablemane.

PART 2

- 1. A ND why dear Saviour, tell me why, Thouthus would'st suffer, bleed, and die! What mighty Motive could thee move? The Motive's plain; 'twas all for Love.
- 2. For Love of whom? Of Sinners hale, A harden'd Herd, a Rebel-Race; That mock'd and trampled on thy Blood, And wanton'd with the Wounds of God.
- 3. When Rocks and Mountains rentwith Dread.
  And gaping Graves gave up their dead.
  When the fair Sun withdrew his Light,
  And hid his Head, to thun the Sight,
- 4. Then stood the Wretch of human Race, And rais'd his Head, and shew'd his Face, Gaz'd unconcern'd, when Nature fail'd; And scoff'd, and sneer'd, and curs'd, and rail'd.
- 5. Harder than Rocks and Mountains are, More dull than Dirt and Earth by far, Man view'd unmov'dthyBlood's richStream, Nor ever dream'd it flow'd for him.
- 6. Such was that Race of finful Men, That gain'd that great Salvation then. Such,

Such, and fuch only, this we fee. Such they were all : And fuch are We.

- 7. The Jews with Ehorns his Temples known'd; And lash'd himywhen his Handsiwere bound: But Thorns, hand knowed Whips, and Bands By Us were furnished to their Hands.
- 8. They nail'd him to th' accurfed Tree.
  They did, my Brethren: so did We.
  The Soldier pierc'd his Side. 'Tis true:
  But We have pierc'd him thro' and thro'.
- 9. O Love of unexampled Kind!
  That leaves all Thought fo far behind:
  Where Length, and Breadth, and Depth,
  and bleight,
  Are loft to my aftonish'd Sight.
- Drain'd ev'ry Drop of vital Blood.
  Long time I after Idols ran;
  But now my God's a manty'd Man.

the fair Sun withdrew his Light.

The doubting Christian.

1. I F Unbelief's that Sin-accurst,
Abhorr'd by God above,
Because, of all Opposers worst,
It fights against his Love;

2. How shall a Hears, that doubts like mine, Dismay'd at every Breath,
Pretend to live the Life divine;
Or fight the Fight of Faith!

3. Conscience accuses from within, And Others from without; I feel my Soul the Sink of Sin; And this produces Doubt.

4. When thousand Sins of various Dyes,
Corruptions dark and foul,
Daily within my Bosom rise,
And blacken all my Soul;

5. I groan, and grieve, and cry, and call
On Jesus for Relief;
But that delay'd to Doubting fall,
Of all my Sins the chief.

6. Such dire Disorders vex my Soul,
That Ill engenders Ill:
And when my Heart I feel so foul,
I make it fouler still.

7. In this Distress, the Course I take
Is, still to call and pray;
And wait the Time, when Christ shall speak,
And drive my Foes away.

8. For that bleft Hour I figh, and pant,
With wishes warm and strong:
But, dearest Lord, lest these should faint,
Oh! do not tarry long.

To the Holy Ghost.

Let thy bright Beams arife,
Dispel the Darkness from our Minds;
And open all our Eyes,

2. Chear

- 2. Chear our desponding Hearts,
  Thou heav'nly Paraclete;
  Give us to lie, with humble Hope,
  At our Redeemer's Feet.
- 3. Revive our drooping Faith;
  Our Doubts and Fears remove;
  And kindle in our Breafts the Flames
  Of never-dying Love.
- Then lead to Jefu's Blood:
  And to our wond'ring View reveal
  The fecret Love of God.
- 5. Shew us that loving Man,
  That rules the Courts of Blifs,
  The Lord of Hofts, the mighty God,
  Th' eternal Prince of Peace.
- 'Tis thine to cleanse the Hourt,
   To fanctify the Soul,
   To pour fresh Life on ev'ry Part,
   And new create the Whole.
- 7. If thou, celeftial Dove,
  Thine Influence withdraw,
  What easy Victims soon we fall
  To Conscience, Wrath, and Law!
- 8. No longer burns our Love;
  Our Faith and Patience fail;
  Our Sin revives; and Death and hell
  Our feeble Souls affail.
- 9. Dwell therefore in our Hearts;
  Our Minds from Bondage free.
  Then shall we know, and preise, and love,
  The Father, Son, and Thee.
  V.

Another.

- I. B LEST Spir't of Truth, eternal God
  Thou meek and lowly Dove,
  Who fill'ft the Soul, thro' Jefu's Blood,
  With Faith, and Hope, and Love;
- Who comfortest the heavy Heart
   By Sin and Sorrow prest;
   Who to the Dead can'ft Life impart,
   And to the Weary, Rest.
- Thy fweet Communion charms the Soul:
   And gives true Peace and Joy,
   Which Satan's pow'r cannot controul,
   Nor all his Wiles destroy.
- 4. Come from the blissful Realms above; Our longing Breasts inspire With thy soft Flames of heav'nly Love: And fan the sacred Fire.
- Let no false Comfort lift us up To Confidence that's vain: Nor let their Faith and Courage droop, For whom the Lamb was flain.
- Breathe Comfort, where Diffress abounds, Make the whole Conscience clean.
   And heal, with Balm from Jesu's Wounds, The fest'ring Sores of Sin.
- 7. Vanquish our Lusts; our Pride remove;
  Take out the Heart of Stone.
  Shew us the Father's boundless Love,
  And Merits of the Son.

8. The Father fent the Son to die;
The willing Son obey'd;
The Witness thou, to ratify
The Purchase Christ has made.

VI.

Another.

- 1. D'Escend from Heav'n, celestial Dove; With Flames of pure Seraphic Love Our ravish'd Breasts inspire.
  Fountain of Joy, blest Paraclete,
  Warm our cold Hearts with heav'nly Heat,
  And set our Souls on Fire.
- 2. Breathe on these Bones so dry and dead. Thy sweetest softest Influence shed In all our Hearts abroad. Point out the Place, where Grace abounds: Direct us to the bleeding Wounds Of our Incarnate God.
- 3. Conduct, bleft Guide, thy Sinner-Train To Calv'ry, where the Lamb was flain; And with us there abide.

  Let us our lov'd Redeemer meet,

  Weep o'er his pierced Hands and Feet,

  And view his wounded Side.
- 4. From which pure Fountain if thou draw Water to quench the fiery Law,
  And Blood to purge our Sin,
  We'll tell the Father, in that Day,
  (And thou shalt witness what we say)
  "We're clean, just God, we're clean."

B 2 5. Teach

- 5. Teach us for what to pray; and how; And fince, kind God, 'tis only Thou The Throne of Grace can move, Pray thou for Us; that we thro' Faith May feel th' Effects of Jesu's Death, Thro' Faith that works by Love.
- 6. Thou with the Father and the Son Art that mysterious Three-in-One, God blest for evermore: Whom tho' we cannot comprehend, Feeling thou art the Sinner's Friend, We love thee, and adore.

VII.

Christ very God and Man.

- Man there is, a real Man,
  With Wounds still gaping wide,
  (Fromwhich, richStreams of Blood onceran)
  In Hands, and Feet, and Side.
- ('Tis no wild Fancy of our Brains, No Metaphor we speak: The same dear Man in Heav'n now reigns, That suffer'd for our Sake.)
- 3. This wond'rous Man, of whom we tell,
  Is true Almighty God.
  He bought our Souls from Death and Hell;
  The Price his own Heart's Blood.
- 4. That human Heart he still retains,
  Tho' thron'd in highest Bliss;
  And feels each tempted Member's Pains:
  For our Affliction's his.

5. Come

- 5. Come then, repenting Sinner, come;
  Approach with humble Faith:
  Owe what thou wilt, the total Sum
  Is cancell'd by his Death.
- His Blood can cleanfe the blackest Soul;
   And wash our Guilt away.
   He shall present us found and whole
   In that tremendous Day.

VIII.

Salvation by Christ alone.

- To see, what none e'er saw,
  Salvation by the Works obtain'd
  Of Sinai's fiery Law?
- 2. There ye may toil, and weep, and fast;
  And vex your Heart with Pain;
  And when ye've ended, find at last
  That all your Toil was vain.
- 3. That Law but makes your Guilt abound, Sad Help! and (what is worst) All Souls, that under that are found, By God himself are curst.
- 4. This Curse pertains to those who break One Precept e'er so small. And where's the Man, in Thought or Deed, That has not broken all?
- 5. Fly then, awaken'd Sinners, fly;
  Your Case admits no Stay;
  The Fountain's open'd now for Sin.
  Come, wash your Guilt away.

  B 2 6. See

itized by Google .

- 6. See how from Jesu's wounded Side
  The Water flows, and Blood!
  If you but touch that purple Tide,
  You make your Peace with God.
- 7. Only by Faith in Jesu's Wounds
  The Sinner gets Release:
  No other Sacrifice for Sin
  Will God accept but this.

IX.

Of Sanctification.

- Expressly in one Part,

  (Speaking by Peter's Mouth) * "By Faith

  "God purifies the Heart."
- 2. Now what in holy Writ he fays,
  In Part, or thro' the Whole,
  The felf-fame Truths, by various Ways,
  He teaches in the Soul.
- 3. Experience likewise tells us this;
  Before the Saviour's Blood
  Has wash'd us clean, and made our Peace,
  We can do nothing good.
- But here, my Friends, the Danger lies;
  Errors of diff'rent Kind
  Will still creep in; which Dev'ls devise
  To cheat the human Mind.

5. " I

5. "I want no Work within, (fays one) " 'Tis all in Christ the Head." Thus careless he goes bindly on, And trusts a Faith that's dead.

6: "Fis dangerous (another cries) "To trust to Faith alone:

"Christ's Righteousness will not suffice, " Except I add my own."

7. Thus he, that he may fomething do To shun th' impending Curse, Upon the old will patch the new, And makes the Rent still worse.

8. Others affirm the Spir't of God, To true Believers giv'n, Makes all their Thoughts and Acts so good, They're always fit for Heav'n.

a. The Babe of Christ, at hearing this, Is fill'd with anxious Fear: Conscience condemns, Corruptions rise, And drive him near Despair.

10. These Trials Weaklings suffer here, Censure and Scorn without ; And from within (what's worse to bear) Despondency and Doubt.

11. But gracious Lord, who once didft feel What Weakness is, and Fears; Who got'ft thy Vict'ry over Hell With Groans, and Cries, and Tears;

12. Do thou direct our feeble Hearts. To trust thee for the Whole. The Work of Grace in all it's Parts, Accomplish in the Soul.

13. Thy Holy Spir't into us breathe.

A perfect Saviour prove.

Lord, give us Faith; and let that Faith
Work all thy Will by Love.

X.

The enlightened Sinner.

- Y God, when I reflect,
  How all my Life-time path
  I ran the Roads of Sin and Death
  With rash impetuous Haste;
- My Foolishness I hate,
   My Filthiness I loath;
   And view, with sharp Remorse and Shame,
   My Filth and Folly both.
- 3. With Some the Tempter takes
  Much Pains to make them mad;
  But Me he found, and always held,
  The eafiest Fool he had.
- 4. His deep and dang'rous Lies
  So grossly I believ'd,
  He was not readier to deceive,
  Than I to be deceiv'd.
- 5. His light and airv Dreams
  I took for folid Good;
  And thought his base adult rate Coin
  The Riches of thy Blood.
- 6. And dost thou still regard,
  And cast a gracious Eye
  On one so foul, so base, so blind,
  So dead, so lost, as I?

7. Then

Digitized by Google

7. Then Sinners black as Hell
May hence for Hope have Ground:
For who of Mercy needs despair,
Since I have Mercy found?

XI.

Jesus our All.

- JESUS is the chiefest Good;
  He has sav'd us by his Blood.
  Let us value nought but Him;
  Nothing else deserves Esteem.
- Jefus, when stern Justice said,
  " Man his Life has forseited,
  " Vengeance follows by Decree,"
  Cried, " Instict it all on Me."
- 3. Jefus gives us Life and Peace, Faith, and Love, and Holiness; Every Bleffing, great or small, Jesus for us purchased all.
- 4. Jesus therefore let us own.

  Jesus we'll examples.

  Jesus has our Sins forgiv'n.

  Jesu's Blood has bought us Heav'n.

XIL

Christ's Nativity.

NOME, ye Redeemed of the Dord, a Your grateful Tribute brings;
And celebrate with one accord
The Birth-day of our Kinge

2. Let

- 2. Let us with humble Hearts repair (Faith will point out the Road) To little Betblehem; and there Adore our Infant-God.
- 3. In swaddling Bands the Saviour view I Let none this Weakness scorn.

  The feeblest Heart shall Hell subdue, Where Jesus Christ is born.
- 4. No Pomp adorns, no Sweets perfume
  The Place where Christ is laid.
  A Stable serves him for his Room;
  A Manger is his Bed.
- 5. The crouded Inn, like Sinners Hearts,
  (O Ignorance extreme!)
  For other Guefts of various Sorts
  Had Room; but none for Him.
- 6. But see what diff'rent Thoughts arise
  In ours and Angels Breasts;
  To hail his Birth They left the Skies;
  We lodg'd him with the Beasts.
- Yet let Believers cease their Fears, Nor envy heav'nly Pow'rs:
   If finless Innocence be theirs, Redemption all is ours.

1. HOW bleft is the Season,
At which we appear!
Bow down, Sense and Reason;
Faith only reign here,

Tiə,

'Tis heard by mere Nature With Coldness and Scorn, That God our Creator An Infant was born.

2. Lost Souls to recover
And form them afresh,
Our wonderful Lover
Took Flesh of our Flesh:
Then let each dull Dreamer
Awake to this Morn,
And hail the Redeemer

3. Ye Drunkards, ye Swearers,
Ye Muckworms of Earth,
Repent, and be Sharers
In this bleffed Birth.
From Sin to release us,
That Yoke so long worn,
The holy Child Jesus
Of Mary was born.

Christ the Believer's All.

- AMB of God, we fall before thee,
  Humbly trusting in thy Cross.
  That alone be all our Glory;
  All Things else are Dung and Dross.
  Thee we own a perfect Saviour;
  Only Source of all that's good.
  Ev'ry Grace and ev'ry Favour
  Come to Us thro' Jesu's Blood.
- 2. Jesus gives us true Repentance By his Spirit sent from Heav'n.

Jesus whispers this sweet Sentence, "Son, thy Sins are all forgiv'n." Faith he gives us to believe it: Grateful Hearts his Love to prize. Want we Wisdom? He must give it; Hearing Ears; and steing Eyes.

- 3 Jesus gives us pure Affections;
  Wills to do what he requires;
  Makes us follow his Directions;
  And what he commands, inspires.
  All our Pray'rs, and all our Praises
  Rightly offer'd in his Name,
  He that dictates them, is Jesus;
  He that answers, is the same.
- 4. When we live on Jesu's Merit,
  Then we worship God aright:
  Father, Son, and Holy Spirit,
  Then we savingly unite.
  Hear the whole Conclusion of it.
  Great or good, whate'er we call,
  God, or King, or Priest, or Prophet,
  Jesus Christ is All in All.

Immensely great! Immensely small!
Yet one strange Work exceeds them all.

The narrow Way.

PART I.

- 1. WIDE is the Gate of Death;
  The Way is large and broad:
  And many enter in thereat,
  And walk that beaten Road.
- 2. Because the Gate of Life
  Is narrow, low, and small;
  The Path so prest, so close, so strait,
  There seems no Path at all.
- This Way, that's found by few, Ten thousand Snares beset,
   To turn the Seeker's Steps aside, And trap the Tray'ler's Feet.
- 4. Before we've journy'd far,
  Two dang'rous Gulphs are fixt,
  Dead Sloth, and Pharifaic Pride,
  Scarce a Hair's Breadth betwixt.
- 5. False Lights delude the Eyes,
  And lead the Steps astray:
  That Trav'ler treads the surest here,
  That seldom sees his Way.
- 6. Guides cry, Lo here! lo there!
  On this, on that Side keep.
  Some over-drive; some frighten back;
  And others lull to sleep.
- 7. On the left Hand, and right, Close cragged Rocks are seen,

Distrust,

Distrust, and self-wrought Confidence: Tis hard to squeeze between.

8. Sometimes we feem to gain Great Lengths of Ground by Day; But find, alas! when Night comes on, We quite mistook the Way.

Sometimes we have no Strength;
Sometimes we want the Will;
And fometimes, left we might go wrong;
We chuse to stand quite still.

10. Again, thro' heedless Haste, We catch some dang'rous Fall. Then fearing we may move too fast, We hardly move at all.

11. Deep Quagmires choak the Way, Corruptions foul and thick! Whose Stench infects the Air, and makes. The strongest Trav'ler sick.

12. Thro' these we long must wade;
And oft stick fast in Mire.
Now Heat consumes; now Frost benumbs
As dang'rous as the Fire.

13. Spectres of various Forms
Allure, enchant, affright.
Prefumption tempts us ev'ry Day;
Despair affaults by Night.

14. Companions if we find,
Alas! how foon they're gone!
For 'tis decreed that most must pass
The darkest Paths alone.

The Author's own Confession.

- I. COME hither, we that fear the Lord.
  Disciples of God's suff'ring Son;
  Let me relate, and you record,
  What he for my poor Soul has done.
- 2. The Way of Truth I quickly mis'd; And further stray'd, and further still: Expected to be say'd by Christ; But to be holy had no Will.
- 3. The Road of Death with rash Career I ran; and gloried in my Shame:
  Abus'd his Grace; despis'd his Fear;
  And Others taught to do the same.
- 4. Far, far from Home on Husks I fed, Puft up with each fantastic Whim. With Swine a beastly Life I led: And serv'd God's Foe instead of Him.
- 5. A forward Fool, a willing Drudge, I acted for the Prince of Hell:

Did all he bid without a Grudge; And boasted, I could fin so well.

- 6. Bold Blasphemies employ'd my Tongue.
  I heeded not my Heart unclean;
  Lost all Regard of Right or Wrong,
  In Thought, in Word, in Act, obscene.
- 7. My Body was with Lust defil'd.

  My Soul I pamper'd up in Pride:

  Could fit and hear the Lord revil'd,

  The Saviour of Mankind deny'd.
- 8. I strove to make my Flesh decay
  With foul Disease, and wasting Pain.
  I strove to sling my Life away,
  And damn my Soul—but strove in vain.
- 9. The Lord, from whom I long backflid,
  First check'd me with some gentle Stings:
  Turn'd on me, look'd, and softly chid;
  And bid me hope for greater things.
- 10. Soon to his bar he made me come.
  Arraign'd, convicted, cast, I stood,
  Expecting from his Mouth the Doom.
  Of those, who trample on his Blood.
- 11. Pangs of Remorfe my Conscience tore.
  Hell open'd hideous to my View.
  And what I only heard before,
  I found by sad Experience true.
- 12. Oh! what a difmal State was this!
  What Horrors shook my seeble Frame!
  But, Brethren, surely you can guess:
  For you, perhaps, have felt the same.

- 3. But O the Goodness of our God!
  What Pity melts his tender Heart!
  He saw me welt'ring in my Blood;
  And came, and eas'd me of my Smart.
- 14. While I was yet a great Way off, He ran, and on my Neck he fell. My short Distress he judg'd enough; And snatch'd me from the Brink of Hell.
- 15. What an amazing Change was here!
  I look'd for Hell; he brought me Heav'n.
  Chear up, faid he; dismiss thy Fear;
  Chear up; thy Sins are all forgiv'n.
- 16. I would object; but faster much
  He answer'd Peace. What Me? Yes, Thee.
  But my enormous Crimes are such—
  I give thee Pardon full and free.
- 17. But for the future, Lord—I am Thy great Salvation, perfect, whole. Behold, thy bad Works shall not damn, Nor can thy good Works save thy Soul.
- 18. Renounce them both. Myself alone Will for thee work, and in thee too.

  Henceforth I make the Cause my own;

  And undertake to bring thee thro.
- 19. He said. I took the full Release.
  The Lord had sign'd it with his Blood.
  My horrors fled; and persect Peace
  And Joy unspeakable ensu'd.
- 20. I only begg'd one humble Boon; (Nor did the Lord offended feem)

Some

Some Service might by Me be done To Souls that truly trust in Him.

- 21. Thus I, who lately had been cast, And fear'd a just but heavy Doom, Receiv'd a Pardon for the past, A Promise for the Time to come.
- 22. This Promise oft I call to Mind,
  As thro' some painful Paths I go;
  And secret Consolation find,
  And Strength to fight with ev'ry Foe.
- 23. And oft-times when the Tempter fly Affirms it fancied, forg'd, or vain, Jesus appears; disproves the Lie; And kindly makes it o'er again.

Corruptions.

- From Egypt's Bondage brought,
  They should obtain the promis'd Place;
  And find the Rest they fought.
- Strong Nations now posses the Land;
   Yet yield not thou to Doubt;
   With Arm outstretch'd, and mighty Hand,
   Thy God shall drive them out.
- 3. Not all at once; for fear thou find The rav nous Beafts of Prey Rifing upon thee from behind, As dang rous Foes as They.

- 4. By little and by little, he
  Will chace them from thy Sight.
  Believers are not call'd, we see,
  To sleep or play, but fight.
- Spiritual Pride, that rampant Beaft, Would rear its haughty Head.
   True Faith would foon be dispossest, And Carelasses succeed.
- Corruptions make the Mourners shun Presumption's dang'rous Snare;
   Force us to trust to Christ alone, And sly to God by Pray'r.
- 7. By them we feel how low we're left;
  And learn, in some Degree,
  How dear that great Salvation cost,
  Which comes to Us so free.
- 8. If such a Weight to ev'ry Soul
  Of Sin and Sorrow fall;
  What love was that, which took the Whole;
  And freely bore it all!
- 9. O when will God our Joy complete, And make an End of Sin! When shall we walk the Land, and meet No Canaanite therein?
- Or must we wait till then?—
  Ye struggling Souls, be strong in Faith,
  And quit yourselves like Men.

This is a faithful Saying, and worthy of all Acceptation, that Christ Jesus came into the World to save Sinners. I Tim. i. 15.

1. WHEN Adam by Transgression fell, And conscious sled his Maker's Face, Linkt in clandestine League with Hell He ruin'd all his suture Race.

The

2. This lurking Leav'n ferments the Mass.
All Nature's fick; Creation's spoil'd;
Each Sin-infected Sire, alas!
Begets a Sin-infected Child.
Thes Propagation spreads the Curte:
And Man, born bad, grows worse and worse.

3. But lo, the fecond Adam came,
The Serpent's third Head to bruife.
He cancels his malicious Claim,
And disappoints his devisible Views;
Ranforms poor Prisiners with his Blood;
And brings the Sinner back to God.

4. To understand these Terms aright,
This grand Distinction should be known;
Tho' all are Sinners in God's Sight,
There are but few so in their own.
To such as these our Lord was sent:
They're only Sinners, who repent,

5. What Comfort can a Saviour bring
To those who never selt their Woe?
A Sinner is a sacred Thing;
The Holy Ghost has made him so.
New Life from Him we must receive,
Before for Sin we rightly grieve.

6. Let the Self-righteous hence beware,
Left he this great Salvation fcorn.
Let ev'ry careless Soul take Care;
For they that laugh shall one Day mourn.
High-slying Lights, learn hence to stoop;
Dry Knowledge only puffs Men up.

7. This faithful Saying let us own;

That Christ into the World came down,
That Sinners might by him be sav'd.
Sinners are high in his Esteem:
And Sinners highly value Him.

  We have Reason to rejoice.
  Let us fing, with Saints in Heav'n,

  Glory, and eternal Laud
  Be to our incarnate God.
- 2. Now look up with Faith, and see Him that bled for You and Me, Seated on his glorious Throne, Interceeding for his own.

  What can Christians have to fear, When they view their Saviour there? Hell his vanquish'd, Heav'n appeas'd; God is reconcil'd, and pleas'd.

Praying for Relations.

- I. IN D Souls, who for the Mis'ries moan
  Of those who seldom mind their own;
  But treat your Zeal with cold Disdain;
  Resolv'd to make your Labours vain;

  To help your dear, ungrateful Friends,
  That think you Foes, or mad, or Fools,
  Because you fain would save their Souls;

  But often think, and sometimes say,
  They'll never go, if that's the Way;

  Or ridicule your Faith in Christ;
  Tho' they blaspheme, oppose, contemn;
  And hate you for your Love to Them;

  Effectual fervent Pray'r prevails,
  When ev'ry other Method fails.

Faith is the Victory.

- I. WHoe'er believes aright,
  In Christ's atoning Blood,
  Of all his Guilt's acquitted quite;
  And may draw near to God.
- But Sin will still remain, Corruptions rise up thick;
   And Satan says the Med'cine's vain, Because we yet are sick.
- But all this will not do;
   Our Hope's on Jesus cast:
   Let all be Li'rs, and him be true;
   We shall be well at last.

Faith and Repentance.

JESUS is our God and Saviour, Guide, and Counfeller and Friend, Bearing all our Misbehaviour, Kind, and loving to the End.

Trust

Trust him; he will not deceive us, Tho' we hardly of him deem: He will never, never leave us; Nor will let us quite leave Him.

- 2. View him in the doleful Garden; View him on the bloody Tree, Dearly purchasing a Pardon, For his People, full and free. View him now in Heaven sitting, Interceeding for us there, Not a Moment intermitting His Compassion and his Care.
  - 3. Nothing but thy Blood, O Jesus,
    Can relieve us from our Smart;
    Nothing else from Guilt release us;
    Nothing else can melt the Heart.
    Law and Terrors do but harden,
    All the while they work alone;
    But a Sense of Blood-bought Pardon
    Soon dissolves a Heart of Stone.
- 4. 'Tis a fafe, tho' deep Compunction,
  Thy repenting People feel.
  Love and Grief compound an Unction,
  Both to cleanse our Wounds and heal.
  Balm is useless to th' Unseeling:
  And Repentance without Faith
  Is a Sore, that never healing
  Frets and rankles unto Death.
  - 5. Jesus, all our Consolations
    Flow from Thee the Sov'reign Good.
    Love, and Faith, and Hope, and Patience,
    All are purchas'd by thy Blood.

From thy Fulness we receive them; We have nothing of our own: Freely thou delight'st to give them; To the Needy, who have none.

- 6. Teach us, by thy patient Spirit,
  How to mourn, and not despair.
  Let us, leaning on thy Merit,
  Wrestle hard with God in Pray'r.
  Whatsoe'er Afflictions seize us,
  They shall profit, if not please:
  But defend, defend us, Jesus,
  From Security and Ease.
- 7. Softly to thy Garden lead us,
  To behold thy bloody Sweat.
  Tho' thou from the Curse hast freed us,
  Let us not the Cost forget.
  Be thy Groans and Cries rehearsed,
  By the Spirit, in our Ears;
  'Till we, viewing whom we've pierced,
  Melt in sympathetic Tears.

For Wishes I have none;
All my Desires are now content
To be comprised in One.

And thence return again,

Jesus oft-times resorted thither, with his Disciples. John xviii. 2-

zed by Google

I. JESUS, while he dwelt below,
As divine Historians say,
To a Place would often go;
Near to Kedron's Brook it lay;

In this Place he lov'd to be a And 'twas nam'd Gathfonens.

At the Foot of Olivet,
Low, and proper to be made
The Redeemer's lone RetreatWhen from Noise he would be free,
Then he sought Gethlemane.

3. Thither, by their Master brought, )
His Disciples likewise came.
There the heav'nly Truths, he taught
Often set their Hearts on Flame.
Therefore they, as well as He,
Visited Gethsemane.

4. Here they oft converling fat;
Or might join with Christ in Pray'r.
Oh, what blest Devotion shat;
When the Lord himself is there!
All Things to them seem'dit' agree
To endear Gethlemans.

But the Prince of Peace could fit;
Chear'd with facred Solitude,
Wrapt in Contemplation fweat:
Yet how little could they see.
Why he chose Gethjemane.

6. Full of Love to Man's lost Race
On h s Conflict much he thought.
This he knew the destin'd Place:
And he lov'd the facred Spot.
Therefore 'two he lik'd to be
Otten in Gethjemane.

  Had incurr'd the Wrath divine;
  And their Lord, with Pity prest,
  Long'd to hear their Lords—and mine.
  Love to them, and Love to Me
  Made him love Cerplanara.
  - 8. Many Woes had he endur'd,
    Many fore Temptations met,
    Patient, and to Pains inur'd:
    But the forest Trial yet
    Was to be sustain'd in Thee,
    Gloomy sad Gribsenone.
    - 9. Came at length the dreadful Night. Vengeance with it's Iron Rod Stood, and with collected Might Bruis'd the harmless Lamb of God. See, my Soul, thy Saviour see, Grov'ling in Gethsemane!

        View thy Maker's deep Diffress!
        Hear the Sighs and Groans of God!
        Then reflect, what Sin must be,
        Gazing on Gethsemane.
      - 11. Poor Disciples, tell me now,
        Where's the Love ye lately had?
        Where's that Faith ye all could vow?—
        But this Hour is too too fad.
        'Tis not now for such as Ye
        To support Gethsmane.

I will bear the Indignation of the Lord, because I have sinned against him. Mic. vii. 9.

- I. COME, ye backfliding Sons of God,

  (For many such there are)

  Who long the Paths of Sin have trod,

  Come, cast away Despair.

  Return to Jesus Christ; and see,

  There's Mercy still for such as We.

  Notion is empty, cold, and dead:
  And Fancy's never fixt.
- 4. True Faith's the Life of God.
  Deep in the Heart it lies.
  It lives, and labours under Load;
  Tho' dampt, it never dies.
- 5. A weak'ning, emptying Grace;
  That makes us strong and full.
  False Faith, tho' stout and full in Face,
  Weakens and starves the Soul.
- 6. Opinions in the Head
  True Faith as far excels;
  As Body differs from a Shade,

Good Works. 3 Hymns.

I. I N vain Men talk of living Faith,
When all their Works exhibit Death,
When they indulge fome finful View
In all they fay, and all they do.

2. The true Believer fears the Lord;
Obeys his precepts; keeps his Word;
Commits his Works to God alone;
And feeks His Will before his own.

3. A barren Tree, that bears no Fruit,
Brings no great Glory to its Root.
When on the Boughs rich Fruit we fee,
'Tis then we cry, "A goodly Tree!"

Repentance. 2 Hymns.

To give the Conscience Ease?
Some say, Believe; and Some Repent;
And some say, Strive to please.

2. But, Brethren, Christ and Christ alone
Can rightly do the Thing.
Nor ever can the Way be known,

'Till He Salvation bring.

3. What mean the Men that fay, Believe;
And let Repentance go?
What Comfort can the Soul receive

That never felt it's Woe?
4. Christ says, "That I might Sinners call

"To Penitence, I'm fent."

And, "Likewise ye shall perish all, "Except ye do repent."

5. Those who are call'd by Grace division.

Believe, but not alone:

Repentance to their Faith they join.

And so go safely on.

Epentance is a Gift bestow'd,
To save a Soul from Death.
Gospel-Repentance towards God
Is always join'd to Faith.

2. Not for an Hour, a Day, or Week,
Do Saints Repentance own;
But all the Time the Lord they seek
At Sin they grieve and groan.

 Nor is it fuch a difmal Thing, As 'tis by fome Men nam'd:
 A Sinner may repent and fing, Rejoice and be asham'd.

4. Tis not the Fear of Hell alone,
For that may prove extreme.
Repenting Saints the Saviour own;
And grieve for grieving Him.

I. WHEN the chosen tribes debated 'Gainst their God, as hardly treated, And complained their Hopes were spilt; God, for murmiring to requite them, Fiery Serpents sent to bite them.

Lively Type of deadly Guilt.

2 Stung by these they soon repented: And their God as soon relented. Moses pray'd: He Answer gave.

"Serpents are the Beafts that strike them, "Make, of Brass, a Serpent like them.

"That's the Way I chuse to save."

3. Vain was Bandage, Oil, or Plaister: Rankling Venom kill'd the faster; Till the Serpent Moses took,

Rear'd

Rear'd it high, that all might view it, Bid the Bitten look up to it?

Life attended evry Look.
4. Jesus thus, for Sinners smitten,

Wounded, bruised, sorpent-bitten, To his Cross directs their Faith. Why should I then Poison cherish? Why despair of Cure, and perish?

Look, my Soul, the stung to Death.

5. Thine's (alas!) a loft Condition.

Works cannot work Thee Remiffion:

Nor thy Goodness do thee Good.

Death's within thee, all about thee;

But the Remedy's without thee:

See it in thy Saviour's Blood.

6. See the Lord of Glory dying!
See him gasping! Hear him crying!
See his burden'd Bosom heave!
Look, ye Sinners, ye that hung him;
Look, how deep your Sins have stung him!
Dying Sinners, look, and live.

The Relative Duties.

Hristians, in your several Stations,
Dutiful to all Relations,
Give to each his proper Due.
Let not their unkind Behaviour
Make you disobey your Saviour:
His Command's the Rule for You.

2. Parents, be to Children tender.
Children, full Obedience render
To your Parents, in the Lord.
Never flight, nor differpect them;
Nor, thro Pride, when old reject them;
'Tis the Precept of the Word.

2 3. W

3. Wives, to Husbands yield Subjection,
Husbands, with a kind Affection,
Cherish, as Yourselves, your Wives.
Masters, sule with Moderation,
Sway'd by Justice, not by Passion:
To the Scriptures square your Lives.

4. Servants, serve your Masters truly,
Not unfaithful, not unfuly,
To the good—nor to the bad;
Not refusing what you 're bidden,
Nor replying, when you're chidden:
'Tis the Ordinance of God.

5. This shall solve th' important Question, Whether thou'rt a real Christian,

Better than each golden Dream.

Better far than Lip-Expression,

Tow'ring Notions, great Profession,

This shall show your Love to Him.

The Scriptures.

1. SAY, Christian; wouldst thou thrive
In Knowledge of thy Lord?

Against no Scripture ever strive;
But tremble at his Word.

2. Revere the facred Page.
To injure any Part
Betrays, with blind and feeble Rage,
A hard and haughty Heart.

3. If ought there dark appear,
Bewail thy Want of Sight:
No Imperfection can be there:
For all God's Words are right.

4. The Scriptures and the Lord
Bear one tremendous Name:

The written, and th' Incarnate Word In all Things are the same.

For Jesus is the Truth, As well as Life and Way.

The two-edg'd Sword that 's in his mouth, Shall all proud Reas'ners flay.

Why doft thou call him Lord; And what he fays refift? The Soul that stumbles at the Word, Offended is at Christ.

The Thoughts of Man are Lies. The Word of God is true. To bow to That is to be wife: Then hear, and fear, and Do.

Suffer the Word of Exhartation. Heb. xiii. 22.

MAKE heed, ye Christians, how ye hear. Pay ev'ry Truth Respect. The Word of Exhortation bear Not treat with cold Neglect.

2. Despise not those that would you warn: Remember, this is true; He that his Duty will not learn. His Duty will not do.

3. Who flights, in any Part, God's Word, Shews a too haughty Look. The flothful Soul will not be flirr'd: Nor Scorners hear Rebuke.

4. Better's a Babe, that would be wife, Than those who mind high Things: Whole long Profession fcorns Advice. Those old and foolish Kings. 41 5.1

Treature in Heaven. 2 Hymns.

Emember, Man, thy Birth;
Set not on Gold thy Heart.
Naked thou cam'st upon the Earth;
And naked must depart.

2. This World's vain Wealth despise:
Happines is not here.
To James life thy longing Eyes:

To Jesus lift thy longing Eyes; And seek thy Treasure there.

3. Be wife to run thy Race,
And call off every Load.
Strive to be rich in Works of C

Strive to be rich in Works of Grace:
Be rich towards thy God.

The Poor may thus be rich,
Their Means however small.
When rich Mon once gave very much,
Two Mites exceeded all.

J. If Profit be thy Scope,

Diffule thy Alms about:

"The Workling profpers laying up:

The Christian, laying out.

6. Refurns will not be feant;
With Honour in the High A:
For who relieves his Brothich's Want,
Bestows his Alms on Christ.

7. Give gladly to the Poor. The lending to the Land.

In fecret so increase thy Store: And hide in Heav'n the Hourd.

There thou mayst fear no Thies: No rankling Ruft nor Moth. Thy Treasure and thy Heart are fafe:

Where One is, will be Both.

r. T Ukewarm Souls, the Foe grows stronger, See what Hosts your Camp surround. Arm to Battle; lag no longer.

Hark! The Silver Trumpets found. Wake, ye Sleepers; wake. What mean you?

Sin besets you round about.

Up, and fearch. The World's within you Slay, or chase the Traitor out.

2. What enchants you; Pelf, or Pleasure? Pluck right Eyes; with right Hands part.

Askyour Conscience, where's your Treasures For, be certain, there's your Heart.

Give the fawning Foe no Credit.

Lo! the bloody Flag's unfurl'd. That base Heart (the Word has said it)

Loves not God, that loves the World

Pray without ceafing. I Thest. v. 17.

The Bleffings God deligns to give.
Long as they live should Christians pray:
For only while they pray, they hive.

2. The Christian's Heart his Pray'r indites; He speaks as prompted from within. The Spirit his Petition writes; And Christ receives, and gives it in.

3. And wilt thou in dead Silence lie,
When Christ flands waiting for thy Pray'r's
My Soul, thou hast a Friend on high:
Arise, and try thy Int'rest there.

4. If Pain afflict, or Wrongs oppress;
If Cares distract; or Fears dismay;
If Guilt deject; if Sin distress;
The Remedy's before thee. Pray.

5. 'Tis Pray'r supports the Soul that 's weak; Tho' Thought be broken, Language lame, Pray; if thou canst, or canst not, speak; But pray with Faith in Jesu's Name.

6. Depend on Him; thou canst not fail.

Make all thy Wants and Wishes known.

Fear not; his Merits must provail and the what thou wilts it shall be done.

The Lord's Prayer.

Ather of Spir'ts in Heav'n and Earth;
Higher than all that's high'st,
God of our first, and second Birth,
Father of Jesus Christ.

2. Let All, with Rev'rence, and with Love, Thy facred Name adore. Set up thy Throne all Thrones above;

And reign for evermore.

3. Help us thy Pleasure to fulfil, As done by heav'nly Pow'rs. Accomplish in us all thy Will: And let that Will be ours.

With Food that thou feeft best:
We ask our Portion for the Day;
And leave to Thee the rest.

6. Let Mercy pardon all our Crimes;
Which Juffice must condemn.
As Some have wrong'd us many time
And we would pardon Them.

6. Let not Temptation us befal, Temptation from the Dev'l; But rescue and defend us all From ev'ry Thing that's Ev'l.

7. Thine is the Kingdom, thine the Pow'r.
O'er Angels, and o'er Men;
The Glory too for evermore
Is thine. AMEN. AMEN.
