That man hath perfect blessednesse,
who walked not astray
in counsell of ungodly man,
nor stand in sinners way.
Nor sitteth in the scorners chaire.
But placeth his delight
Upon Gods Law, and meditates
on his Law day and night.
He shall be like a tree that growes
near planted by a river,
Which in his season yeelds his fruit,
and his leaf faideth never:
And all he doth shall prosper well,
that this man takes in hand.
4 The wicked are unto the chaff
which wind drives to and fro.
5 In judgement therefore shall not such as ungodly are, (stand Nor in th' Assembly of the just shall wicked men appeare.
6 For why? the way of godly men unto the Lord is known:
Whereas the way of wicked men shall quite be overthrown,

P S A L M I I.

WHY rage ye heathen? & vain things,
why do the people minde?
2 Kings of the earth do set themselves,
and Princes are combine
To plot against the Lord, and his Anointed, saying thus,
3 Let us asunder break their bands,
and cast their cords from us.
4 He that in heaven sits shall laugh:
the Lord shall scorne them all.
5 Then shall he speak to them in
in rage he vex them shall. (wrath, 6 Yet notwithstanding I have him
to be my King appointed:
And over Sion, my holy hill,
I have him King anointed.
7 The sure decree I will declare:
The Lord hath said to me,
Thou art my onely Son, this day
I have begotten thee.
8 Aske of me, and for heritage
the heathen I'll make thine,
And for possession I to thee
will give earths ut most line.

9 Thou shalt, as with a weightie rod of Iron; break them all,
And as a potters sheard thou shalt them dash in pieces small.
10 Now therefore Kings, be wise, be ye judges of the earth. (taught, 11 Serve God in fear, and see that ye joyne trembling with your mirth.
12 Kisse ye the Son, lest in his ire
ye perish from the way,
If once his wrath begin to burn,
Blasht all that on him stay.

P S A L M I I I.

Lord, how are my foes increast?
against me many rise.
2 Many say of my soul, for him
in God no succour lies.
3 Yet thou my shield, and glory art,
th' uplifter of my head.
4 I cry'd, and from his holy hill
the Lord me answer made.
5 I laid me down, and slept, I wa'kt,
for God sustained me.
6 I will not fear though thousands ten,
setround against me be.
7 Arise, O Lord, save me, my God,
for thou my foes hast stroke
All on the cheek-bone: and the teeth of wicked men hast broke.
8 Salvation doth appointain,
upon the Lord alone:
Thy blessing, Lord, for evermore thy people is upon.

P S A L M I V.

Give eare unto me when I call
God of my righteousnesse:
Have mercy, hear my pray'r, thou hast
enlarg'd me in distresse.
2 O ye the sons of men how long will ye love vanities?
How long my glory turn to shame,
and will ye follow lies?
3 But know that for himself the Lord
the godly man doth chuse;
The Lord when I on him do call,
to hear will not refuse.
4 Fear, and sin not, talk with your on bed, and silent be. (heart 5 Offerings present of rightteoutnesse:
and in the Lord trust ye.

PSALM V. VI.

6 O who will show us any good?
is that which many say:
For of thy countenance the light,
Lord, lift on us alway.
7 Upon my heart, bestow'd by thee
more goodnesse I have found,
Then they ev'n then, when corn and did most with them abound. (wine 8 I will both lay me down in peace,
and quiet sleep will I take;
Because thou onely me to dwell
in fastetie, Lord, dost make.

PSALM V.

Give care unto my words, O Lord,
my meditation weigh.
2 Hear my loud cry, my King, my for I to thee will pray. (God, 3 Lord, thou shalt early hear my voyce;
I early will direct
My pray'r to thee, and looking up an answer will expect.
4 For thou art not a God that doth
in wickednesse delight;
Neither shall evill dwell with thee.
5 Nor fools stand to thy sight.
All that ill-doers are thou hast ft.
6 Cut't off that liars be;
The bloody and deceitfull man
abhorred is by thee.
7 But I unto my house will come,
in thine abundant grace;
And I will worship in thy fear toward thy holy place.
8 Because of those mine enemies,
Lord, in thy righteousness
Do thou me lead, do thou thy way
make straight before my face.
9 For in their mouth there is no truth,
their inward part is ill;
Their throats an open sepulchre,
their tongue doth flatter still.
10 O God destroy them; let them be
by their own counsel quell'd;
Them for their many sins cast out,
for they' gainst thee rebell'd.
11 But let all joy that trust in thee;
and still make shouting noise;
For them thou sav'st; let all that love
thy Name in thee rejoyce.
12 For Lord unto the righteous man,
thou wilt thy blessing yield;
With favour thou wilt compass him about, as with a shield.

PSALM VI.

Lord in thy wrath rebuke me not,
Nor in thy hot rage chasten me.
2 Lord pitie me, for I am weak;

Heal me, for my bones vexed be.
3 My soul is also vexed fore; (make)
But, Lord how long stay wilt thou
4 Return, O Lord, my soul set free;
O save me for thy mercies sake.
5 Because those that deceas'd are,
Of thee shall no remembrance have;
And who is he that will to thee
Give praises lying in the grave?
6 I with my groining weary am,
I also all the night, my bed
Have caus'd for to swim, and I
With tears my couch have watered.
7 Mine eye consum'd with grief, grows
Because of all mine enemies. (old 8 Hence from me wicked workers all,
For God hath heard my weeping cryes.
9 God hath my supplication heard;
My pray'r received graciously. (foes,
10 Sham'd, and sore vext be all my Sham'd, and back-turned suddenly

Another of the same.

In thy great indignation,
O Lord, rebuke me not;
Nor on me lay thy chastening hand
in thy displeasure hot.
2 Lord, I am weak, therefore on me
have mercy, and me spare; Heal me, O Lord, because thou know'st
my bones much vexed are.
3 My soul is vexed fore; but Lord,
how long stay wilt thou make?
4 Return Lord, free my soul and save me for thy mercies sake.
5 Because of thee in death there shall no more remembrance be;
Of those that in the grave doe ly,
who shall give thanks to thee?
6 I with my groaning weary am,
and all the night my bed
I caus'd for to swim; with tears
my couch I watered.
7 By reason of my vexing grief,
mine eye consumed is;
It waxeth old, because of all that be mine enemies.
8 But now depart from me all ye that work iniquity; (voce,
For why? the Lord hath heard my
when I did mourn and cry.
9 Unto my supplication
the Lord did hearing give;
When I to him my prayer make,
the Lord will it receive.
10 Let all be sham'd, & troubled fore,
that enemies are to me;
Let them turn back, and suddenly ashamed let them be.

PSALM

PSALM VII. VIII. IX.

PSALM VII.

Lord my God, in thee doe I
my confidence repose;
Save and deliver me from all my persecuting foes.
2 Left that the enemy my soul
should like an lion tear,
in pieces renting it, while there is no deliverer.
3 O Lord my God, if it be so that I committed this;
If it be so, that in my hands
iniquity there is;
4 If I rewarded ill to him
that was at peace with me; (Yea, ev'n the man that without cause,
my foe was, I did free)
5 Then let the foe pursue, and take my soul and my life thrust Down to the earth, and let him lay mine honour in the dust.
6 Rise in thy wrath, Lord raise thy for my foes raging be: (self,
And to the judgement, which thou hast commanded, wake for me.
7 So shall th' Assembly of thy folk about compass thee:
Thou therefore for their sakes, return
unto thy place on hie.
8 The Lord he shall the people judge;
why judge, Jehovah, be,
After my righteousness, and mine
integrity in me.
9 O let the wicked malice end,
but stablish steadfastly
The righteous: for the righteous God
the heart and reins doth try.
10 In God who saves th' upright in is my defence and stay. (heart, 11 God just men judgeth, God is wroth
with all men every day.
12 If hee doe not return again,
then he his sword will whet,
his bow he hath already bent,
and hath it ready set.
13 He also hath for him prepar'd
the instruments of death;
Against the persecuters he his shafts ordained hath.
14 Echold, he with iniquity doth travail as in birth;
A mischief he conceived hath,
and falsehood shall bring forth.
15 He made a pit, and digg'd it deep,
another there to take,
But he is fallen in to the ditch
which he himself did make.
16 Upon his own head, his mischief

shall be returned home;
His violent dealing also down
on his own place shall come.
17 According to his rightousnesse
the Lord he is magnific;
And will sing praises unto the Name
of God, that is most hie.

PSALM VIII.

How excellent in all the earth,
Lord, our Lord, is thy Name?
Who hath thy glory for advanc'd
about the starry frame.
2 From infants & from sucklings thou dost strength ordain. (mouth
For thy foes cause, that so thou might'st sh avenging foe restrain.
3 When I look up on o the heavens,
with thine own fingers fram'd,
Unto the moon, and on the stars,
which were by thee ordain'd;
4 Then say I, what is man that he remembered is by thee?
Or what the son of man, that thou
so kinde to him should be?
5 For thou a little lower hast him then the angels made,
With glory and with dignitie
thou crownest him his head.
6 Of thy hand-works, thou mad'st him
all under 's feet didst lay; (Lord;
7 All sheep and oxen, yea and beasts
that in the field do stray;
8 Fowls of the air, fish of the sea,
all that passe through the same,
9 How excellent in all the earth,
Lord, our Lord, is thy Name!

PSALM IX.

Lord, thee I'll praise with all my
the wonders all proclaim. (heart 2 In thee most High I'll greatly joy,
and sing unto thy Name.
3 When back my foes were turn'd and perisht at thy sight, they fell, 4 For thou maintain'd my right & on throne fast judg'ing right; (use 5 The heathen thou rebuked hast,
the wicked overthrow'd;
Thou hast put out their names that may never more be known. (they 6 O enemy! now destruction, have an end perpetual:
Thou cities that didst perisht with them
in their memoriall.
7 God shall endure for ay, he doth for judgement set his throne;
8 In righteousness to judge words,
justice to give each one.

9 God will also a refuge be for those that are oppress,
A refuge will he be in times
of trouble to distress.
10 And they that know thy Name, in their confidence will place; (thee
For thou hast not forsaken them
that truly seek thy face.
11 O sing ye praises to the Lord,
that dwells in Sion hill;
And all the nations among his deeds record ye still; 12 When he enquireth after blood;
he then remembereth them:
The humble folk he not forgets,
that call upon his Name.
13 Lord pitie me, behold the grief,
which I from foes sustain.
Ev'n thou who from the gates of death
doth raise me up again, 14 That I, in Sions daughters gates,
may all thy praise advance,
And that I may rejoyce always in thy deliverance.
15 The heathen are sunk in the pit,
which they themselves prepar'd.
And in the net which they have hid their own feet fast are snar'd.
16 The Lord is by thy judgmēt known which he himself hath wrought,
The sinners hands do make the snares,
where with themselves are taught.
17 They, who are wicked into hell,
each one shall turned be,
And all the nations that forget to seek the Lord most hie.
18 For they that needy are, shall not forgotten be alway:
The expectation of the poor
shall not be lost for aye.
19 Arise, Lord, let no men prevail,
judge heathens in thy sight.
20 That they may know themselves
the nations Lord, a fright, (but men,

PSALM X.

Wherefore it is, that thou, O Lord,
doth stand from us afar?
And; wherefore hidest thou thy selfe,
when times to troublous are?
1 The wicked in his hostinelle,
doth persecute the poor:
In these devices they have fram'd
let them be taken sure.
3 The wicked of his hearts desire doth talk with boasting great;
He blest him that's covetous,
whom yet the Lord doth hate.
4 The wicked through his pride of on God be doth not call: (face.

And in the counsels of his heart
The Lord is not at all.

5 His wayes at all times grievous are;
thy judgement from his sight;
Removed are: at all his foes
he puffeth with despight.
6 Within his heart he thus hath said,
I shall not moved be:
And no adversary at all shall ever come to me.
7 His mouth with cursing, fraud,
is fill'd abundantly: (deceit,
And underneath his tongue, there is mischief and vanity.
8 He closely sits in villages:
he slayes the innocent:
Against the poor that passe him by his cruell eyes are bent.
9 He lyon like lurks in his den:
he waits the poor to take:
And when he draws him in his net,
his prey he doth him make.
10 Himself he humbleth very low,
he croucheth down with all,
That so a multitude of poor
may by his strong ones fall.
11 He this hath said within his heart,
the Lord hath quite forgot:
He hides his countenance, and he
for ever sees is not.
12 O Lord, do thou arise: O God,
lift up thine hand on hie:
Put not the meek afflicted ones
out of thy memorie.
13 Why is it that the wicked man
thus doth the Lord despise?
Because that God will it require,
he in his heart denies.
14 Thou hast it seen for their mischief
and spite thou wilt repay;
The poor commit himself to thee,
thou art the orphans stay.
15 The arme break of the wicked and of the evill one; (man,
Do thou seek out his wickednesse
until thou findest none.
16 The Lord is King through ages all,
ev'n to eternitie;
The heathen people from their land
are perisht utterly.
17 O Lord, of those that humble are thou the desire didst hear:
Thou wilt prepare their heart, & thou
to hear wilt bend thine eare; 18 To judge the fatherlesse, and those that are oppress'd fore.
That man, that is but sprung of earth,
may them oppresse no more.

PSALM XI.

In the Lord do I put my trust;
how is it then that ye Say to my soul, see as a bird unto your mountain hie?
1 For lo, the wicked bend their bow,
their shafts on string their fit,
That those who upright are in heart
they privily may hit.
3 If the foundation be destroy'd,
what hath the righteous done?
4 God in his holy Temple is,
in heaven is his throne:
His eyes do see, his eye-lids try & Mens sons. The just he proves:
But his soul hates the wicked man,
and him that violence loves.
6 Snares, fire & brimstone, furious on sinners he shall rain; storms
This, as the portion of their cup, doth unto them pertain.
7 Because the Lord most righteous in righteousness delight (doth
And with a pleasant countenance beholdeth the upright.

PSALM XII.

Help I pray, because the godly man
doth daily fade away;
And from among the sons of men
the faithful to decay.
1 Unto his neighbour every one doth utter vanitie:
They with a double heart do speak,
and lips of flatterie.
3 God shall cut of all flattering lips,
tongues that speak proudly thus.
4 Wee' w our tongue prevail, our lips
are ours; who's Lord ov'rus?
5 For pour oppress, and for the fight of needy rise will I, Saith God, and him in safety set from such as him defy.
6 The words of God are words most they be like silver try'd (pure,
In earthen furnace seven times
that hath been purify'd.
7 Lord thou shalt them preserve & for ever, from this race. (keep 8 On each side walk the wicked, when vile men are high in place.

PSALM XIII.

How long wilt thou forget me Lord,
shall it for ever be?
O how long shall it be, that thou wilt hide thy face from me?
2 How long take counsell in my soul,
kull said in heart, shall I?

How long exalted over me shall be mine enemy?

3 O Lord my God, consider well,
and answer to me make:
Mine eyes enlighten, lest the sleep
of death me overtake.
4 Lest that mine enemy should say against him I prevail'd;
And those that trouble me rejoyce
when I am mov'd and fall'd.
5 But I have all my confidence thy mercy set upon:
My heart within me shall rejoyce
in thy salvation.
6 I will unto the Lord my God
sing praises cheerfully, Because he hath his bounty shewn to me abundantly.

PSALM XIV.

That there is not a God, the fool
doth in his heart conclude:
They are corrupt, their works are vile,
not one of them doth good.
1 Upon mens sons the Lord from did cast his eyes abroad: (heaven
To see if any under stood,
and did seek after God,
3 They altogether filthy are,
they all hide are gone:
And there is none that doeth good,
yea, sure there is not one.
4 Those workers of iniquity
do they not know at all,
That they my people at as bread,
and on God do not call?
5 There fear'd they much for God is the whole race of the just. (with because God is his trust.
6 You shame the counsell of the poor,
because God is his trust.
7 Let Israels help from Sion come
when back the Lord shall bring,
His captives, Jacob shall rejoyce and Israel shall sing.

PSALM XV.

Within thy tabernacle Lord,
who shall abide with thee?
And in thy high and holy hill
who shall a dweller be?
2 The man that walketh uprightly,
and worketh rightousnesse,
And as he thinketh in his heart,
so doth the truth expresse.
3 Who doth not slander with his nor to his friend doth hurt (tongue, Nor yet against his neighbour doth take up an ill report.
4 In whose eye, vile men are despis'd
but those that God do fear,
A 4 He

He honoureth, and changeth not,
though to his hurt he wear.
5 His corne puts not to usury, nor take reward will he Against the guiltlesse. Who doth thus shall never moved be.

PSALM XVI.

Lord, keep me: for I trust in thee.
1 To God thus was my speech,
Thou art my Lord, and unto thee
my goodnesse doth not reach:
3 To fam's on earth, to th' excellent where my delight's all plac't.
4 Their sorrows shall be multiplid,
to other gods that haile;
Of their drink-offering of blood
I will no offering make,
Yea, neither I their very names
up in my lips will take.
5 God is of mine inheritance and cup the portion:
The lot that fallen is to me,
thou dost maintaine alone.
6 Unto me happily the lines
in pleasant places fell;
Yea, the inheritance I got,
in beauty doth excell.
7 I blesse the Lord, because he doth
by counsell me conduct:
And in the seasons of the night,
my reins do me instruct.
8 Before me still the Lord I set:
sith it is so, that he Doth ever stand at my right hand,
I shall not moved be.
9 Because of this my heart is glad,
and joy shall be express, Evn by my glory: and my flesh
in confidence shall rest.
10 Because my soul in grave to dwell,
shall not be left by thee;
Nor wilt thou give thine holy One corruption to see.
11 Thou wilt me shew a path of life:
of joy there is full store
Before thy face, at thy right hand are pleasures evermore.

PSALM XVII.

Lord, hear the right, attend my cry,
unto my prayer give heed,
That doth not in hypocrite
from feigned lips proceed.
1 And from before thy presence forth,
my sentence do thou send:
Toward these things that equall are,
do thou thine eyes intend.
3 Thou prov'dst mine heart, thou visit by night, thou didst me try. (test me

Yet nothing foundst; for that my shall not in purpose fly. [mouth 4 As for mens works, by the word that from my lips doth flow, Did me perceive out of the paths
wherein destroyers goe.
5 Hold up my goings, Lord me guid
in those thy paths divine,
So that my footsteps may not slide out of these wayes of thine.
6 I called have on thee, O God,
because thou wilt me hear;
That thou may'st hearken to my
to me incline thine ear. (speech, 7 Thy wondrous loving kinnesse thou that by thy righthand (show Say'st them that in thee trust, from that up against them stand. (those 8 As th' apple of the eye me keep;
in thy wings shade me close.
9 From lewd oppressors compassing me round, as deadly foes.
10 In their own fat they are inclos'd;
their mouths speaks loftily.
11 Our steps they compass, and to down bowing set their eye. (ground 12 He like unto a lion is, that's greedy of his prey,
Or lion young, which lurking doth in secret places stay.
13 Arise, and enspall my foe,
and cast him down, O Lord;
My soul save from the wicked man,
the man which is thy sword.
14 From men which are thy hand, O
from worldly men me save [Lord,
Which only in their present life
their part and portion have;
Whose belly with thy treasure hid thou fill'st, their children have In plentie of their goods the rest
they to their children leave.
15 But as for me, I thine own face
in righteousness will see;
And with thy likeness, when I wake,
I satisf'd shall be.

PSALM XVIII.

Thee will I love, O Lord, my strength,
2 My fortress is the Lord,
My rock, and he that do me deliverance afford;
My God, my strength, whom I will
a buckler unto me, (trust,
The horn of my salvation,
and my high tow'ris he.
3 Unto the Lord, who worthy is of praises, will I cry;
And then shall I preserved be safe from mine enemy.

4 Floods of ill men affrighted me,
deaths pangs about me went.
5 Hells sorrows me environed;
deaths snares did my prevent.
6 In my distresse I call'd on God,
cry to my God did I;
He from his Temple heard my voyce,
to his ears came my cry.
7 Th'earth, as affrighted, then did trembling upon it feised: [shake,
The hills foundations moved were,
because he was displeas'd.
8 Up from his nostrils came a smoke,
and from his mouth there came Devouring fire, and coals by it where turned into flame.
9 He also bowed down the heavens,
and thence he did defend;
And thickest clouds of darknesse did under his feet attend.
10 And he upon a cherub rode,
and thereon he did fly;
Yea, on the swift wings of the winde
his flight was from on hie.
11 He darknesse made his secret place,
about him for his tent.
Dark waters were and thickest clouds of th'airie Firmament.
12 And of the brightnesse of that light which was before his eye.
His thick clouds pass away hail-stones
and coals of fire did fly.
13 The Lord God also in the heavens,
did thunder in his ire,
And there the Highest gave his voyce,
hail-stones and coals of fire.
14 Yea, he his arrows sent abroad,
and them he scattered;
His lightnings also he shut out,
and them discomfited.
15 The waters chanel, then were seen,
the worlds foundation fast
At thy rebuke discovered were,
and at thy nostrils blast.
16 And from above the Lord sent down,
and took me from below,
From many waters he me drew,
which would me overflow.
17 He me reliev'd from my strong and such as did me hate; (feet, Because he saw that they for me too strong were, and too great.
18 They me prevented in the day
of my calamitie;
But even then the Lord himself
a stay was unto me.
19 He, to a place where libertie and room was, ha'st me brought;

Because he took delight in me,
he my deliverance wrought.
20 According to my righteousness
he did me recompense,
He me repay'd according to my hands pure innocencie.
21 For I Gods wayes kept from my did not turn wickedly; (God 22 His judgement were before me, I his lawes put not from me.
23 Sincere before him was my heart,
with him upright was I;
And watchfully I kept my self from mine iniquity.
24 After my righteousness the Lord
hath recompensed me,
After the cleanness of my hands
appearing to his eye.
25 Thou gracious to the gracious art,
to upright men upright.
26 Pure to pure toward thouk thy unto the froward wight.
27 For thou wilt the afflicted save,
in grief that low do ly;
But wilt bring down the countenance
of them whose looks are hy.
28 The Lord will light my candle so,
that it shall shine full bright;
The Lord my God will also make my darknesse to be light.
29 By thee through troups of men I and them discomfit all; (break
And by my God assisting me,
I overleap a wall.
30 As for God perfect is his way:
the Lord his word is try'd;
He is a buckler to all those who do on him confide.
31 Who but the Lord is God? but he who is a rock and stay?
32 It's God that girdeth me w' strength,
and perfect makes my way.
33 He made my feet swift as a hindes
set me on my high places.
34 Mine hands to war he taught, mine brake bows of steel in pieces. (arms 35 The shield of thy salvation
thou didst on me bestow;
Thy right hand help me up, and great thy kinnesse made me grow.
36 And in my way, my steps thou hast enlarged under me,
That I go safely, and my feet
are kept from sliding free.
37 Mine enemies I pursued have,
and did them overtake,
Nor did I turn again, till I an end of them did make.

1 I wounded them they could not rise,
they at my tent did fall. (war ;
2 Thou girded me with strength for my foes thou brought down all.
3 And thou hast giv'n to me 5 necks
of all mine enemies ;
That I might them destroy and slay whodid against me rise. (none 4 They cryed out, but there was that would or could them save Yea, they did cry unto the Lord,
but he no answer gave.
5 Then did I beat them small as dust
before the winde that flies ;
And they did cast them out like dirt
upon the streets that lies.
6 Thou mad'st me free from peoples and heathens head to be, (strife
A people whom I have not known,
shall service do to me.
7 At hearing they shall my obey,
to me they shall submit.
8 Strangers for fear thall fade away,
who in close places sit.
9 God lives, blest be my rock, & God
of my health praised be.
10 God doth avenge mee, and subdues
the people under me.
11 He save me from mine enemies ;
yea, thou hast lifted me Above my foes, and from the man of violence, sett me free.
12 Therefore to thee will I give the heathen folk among ; (thanks
And to thy Name, O Lord, I will sing praises in a song.
13 He great deliverance gives his his mercy doth extend. (King,
To David, his anointed One,
and his seed without end.

PSALM XIX.

1 The heav'ns Gods glory do declare,
the skyes his hand-works preach.
2 Day utters speech to day, and night
to night doth knowledge teach.
3 There is no speech nor tongue to their voyce doth not extend (which 4 Their line is gone through all 5 earth,
their words to the worlds end.
In them he set the sun a tent,
5 Who bringe room like forth goes From's chamber, as a strong man to run his race rejoyce. (doth, 6 From heav'ns on his his going forth,
circling to thens again.
And there is nothing from his heat
that hidden doth remain.
7 Gods law is perfect, and converts,
the soul in sin that lies :

Gods testimony is most sure,
and make the simple wise.
8 The statutes of the Lord are right,
and do rejoyce the heart
The Lords command is pure, and doth like to the eyes impart.
9 Unspotted is the fear of God,
and doth endure for ever :
The judgement of the Lord are true,
and righteous altogether.
10 They more then gold, yea, much fine
to be desired are, (gold,
Then hony, from the hony-combe
that droppeth sweeter far.
11 Moreover, they thy servant warn how he his life should frame ;
A great reward provided is for them that keep the same.
12 Who can his errors understand ?
O cleanse thou me within 13 From secret faults. Thy servant from the presumptuous sin, (keep
And do not suffer them to have dominion over me :
Then righteous and innocent
I from much sin shall be. (proceed 14 The words which from my mouth
the thoughts sent from my heart, Accept, O Lord, for thou my strength and my redeemer art.

PSALM XX.

1 Jehovah hear thee in the day when trouble he doth send.
And let the Name of Jacobs God thee from all ill defend.
2 O let him help send from above,
out of his sanctuary :
From Sion his own holy hill
let him give strength to thee.
3 Let him remember all thy gifts accept thy sacrifice. (fill 4 Grant them thine hearts wish, & ful-thy thoughts and counsell wise.
5 In thy salvation we will joy :
in our Gods Name we will Display our banners, and the Lord thy prayers all fulfill 6 Now know I, God his king doth he from his holy heaven (save :
Will hear him with the saving strength
by his right hand that's given.
7 In chariot, some put confidence,
some horses trust upon :
But we remember will the Name
of our Lord God alone.
8 We rise, & upright stand when they are bowed down and fall.
9 Deliver, Lord, and let the king us hear, when we do call.

PSALM

PSALM XXI.

1 He king in thy great strength, O thall very joyfull be, (Lord,
In thy salvation rejoyce
how vehemently shall he !
2 Thou hast bestowed upon him
all that his heart would have,
And thou from him didst not behold
what e'er his lips did crave.
3 For thou with blessings him prevent
Of goodnesse manifold :
And thou hast set upon his head
a crown of purest gold.
4 When he desired life of thee,
thou life to him didst give :
Ev'n such a length of dayes, that he
for evermore should live.
5 In that salvation wrought by thee,
his glory is made great.
Honour and comly majesty
thou hast upon him set.
6 Because that thou for evermore
most blessed hast him made ;
And thou hast with thy countenance
made him exceeding glad :
7 Because the king upon the Lord
his confidence doth lay.
And through 5 grace of the most High shalt not be mov'd away.
8 Thine hand shall all those men find that enemies are to thee, (out, Ev'n thy right hand shall find out those of thee that haters be.
9 Like fier y ov'n thou shalt them when kindled is thine ire : (make,
God shall them swallow in his wrath,
devour them shall the fire.
10 Their fruit from earth thou shalt their feed men from among. (destroy, 11 For they beyond their might, gainst did plot mischief & wrong (thee
12 Thou therefore shalt make them [turn back,
when thou thy shafts shalt place Upon my strings, made ready all to fie against their face.
13 In thy great power & strength, O be thou exalted hie : (Lord,
So shall we sing with joyfull hearts
thy power prayse shall we.

PSALM XXII.

1 MY God, my God, why hast thou me forsaken ? why so far Art thou from helping me and from my word : that roaring are ?
All day, my God, to thee I cry,
yet am not heard by thee :

And in the season of the night

I cannot silent be.
2 But thou art holy, thou that dost inhabit Israels praise.
3 Our fathers hop'd in thee they hop'd,
and thou didst them release.
4 When unto thee they sent their cry,
to them deliverance came :
Because they put their trust in thee,
they were not put to shame.
5 But as for me, a worm I am,
and as no man am prisd :
Reproch of men I am, and by the people am dispisd.
6 All that me see laugh me to scorn,
shoot out the lip do they,
They nod and shake their heads at me,
and mocking thus do say :
7 This man did trust in God that he would free him by his might :
Let him deliver him sith he had in him such delight.
8 But thou art he out of the womb,
that didst me safely take :
When I was on my mothers breast,
thou me to hope didst make.
9 And I was cast upon thy care :
ev'n from the womb till now ;
And from my mothers belly, Lord,
my God, and guid art thou.
10 Be not far off, for grief is near,
and none to help is found.
11 Bulls many compass me, strong of Bashan me surround. (bulls 12 Their mouthes they op'ned wide upon me gape did they, (on me,
Like to a lion ravening
and roaring for his prey.
13 Like water I am pour'd out, my all out of joynt do part. (bones Amidst my bowels as the wax,
so melted is my heart. [dried, 14 My strength is like a pottheard
my tongue it cleaveth fast Unto my joynt, and to the dust
of death thou brought me hast.
15 For dogs have compass me abouts
the wicked that did meet
In their assembly, me inclosed,
thy pierc'd my hand and feet.
16 I all my bones may tell, they do upon me look and stare.
17 Upon my vesture loes they cast,
and clothes among them share.
18 But be not far, O Lord my strength,
haste to give help to me.
19 From sword my soul, from pow'r
my darling set thou free. [of dogs 20 Out of the roaring lions mouth do thou me shield and save ;
For

For from the horns of unicorne
an ear to me thou gave.
I will shew forth thy Name unto those that my brethren are ;
Amidst the congregation
thy praise I will declare.
Praise ye the Lord, who do him
him glorifie, all ye [fears,
The seed of Jacob, for him all that Isra'els children be.
For he despis'd not, nor abhor'd
th'afflicted misery ;
Nor from him hid his face, but heard
when he to him did cry.

Within the congregation great
my praise shall be of thee ;
My vows before them that him fear ;
shall be perform'd by me.
The meek shall eat & shall be fill'd,
they also praise shall give Unto the Lord that do him seek your heart shall ever live.
All ends of th'earth remember and turn the Lord unto : [small,
All kindreds of the nations
to him shall homage do.
Because the kingdom to the Lord
doth appertain as his :
Likewise among the nations
the governour he is.
Earths fat ones eat and worship
all who to dust descend [shall,
Shall bowe to him; none of them can his soul from death defend.
A seed shall service do to him,
unto the Lord it shall Before a generation
reckned in ages all. [clare
They shall come, & they shall de-his truth and righteousnesse Unto a people yet unborn,
and that he hath done this.

PSALM XXIII.

The Lord's my shepherd, P'le not
He makes me down to ly (want,
In pastures green ; he leadeth me
the quiet waters by.
My soul he doth restore again :
and me to walk doth make
Into the paths of righteousnesse, ev'n for his own Names sake
Yet though I walk in death dark yet will I fear none ill : [vale,
For thou art with me, and thy rod and staff me comfort still.
My table thou hast furnished
in presence of my foes :

My head thou dost with oyl an oint,
and my cup overflows.
Goodnesse and mercy all my life,
shall surely follow me :
And in Gods house for evermore
my dwelling-place shall be.

PSALM XXIV.

The earth belongs unto the Lord,
and all that it contains :
The world that is inhabited,
and all that there remains.
For the foundation thereof
he on the seas did lay,
And he hath it established
upon the floods to stay.
Who is the man that shall ascend into the hill of God ?
Or who within his holy place
shall have a firm abode ?
Whose hands are clean, whose heart
and unto vanity [is pure,
Who hath not lifted up his soul,
nor sworn deceitfully.
He from th'Eternall shall receive
the blessing him upon,
And righteousnesse, ev'n from the God
of his salvation.

This is the generation
that after him inquire,
O Jacob, who do seek the face
with their whole hearts desire.
Ye gates lift up your heads on high,
ye doors that last for ay
Be lifted up, that so the King
of glory enter may.
But who of glory is the King ?
the mighty Lord is this Ev'n that same Lord that great in and strong in battell is. [might,
Ye gates lift up your horns, ye doors that do last for ay [doors,
Be lifted up, that so the King
of glory enter may.
But who is he that is the King of glory ? who is this ?
The Lord of hosts, and none but He
the King of glory is.

PSALM XXV.

To thee I lift my soul :
O Lord, I trust in thee,
My God, let me not be asham'd,
nor foes triumph ov'r me.
Let none that wait on thee,
be put to shame at all :
But those that without cause trans-let shame upon them fall. [graffe Shew me thy wayes, O Lord, thy paths, O teach thou me.

And do thou lead me in thy truth,
therein my teacher be :
For thou art God that dost
to me salvation send,
And I upon thee all the day expecting do attend.
Thy tender mercies, Lord,
I pray thee to remember,
and loving kindnesse; for they have been of old for ever.
My sins and faults of youth
do thou, O Lord, forget :
After thy mercie think on me,
and for thy goodnesse great.
God good and upright is :
thy way he'll sinners show.
The meek in judgement he will
and make his path to know. [guide,
The whole paths of the Lord
are truth and mercy sure
To those that do his covenant keep,
and testimonies pure.
Now for thine own Names sake,
O Lord, I thee intreat
To pardon mine iniquitie ;
for it is very great.
What man is he that fears
the Lord, that doth him serve ?
Him shall he teach the way that he shall choose and still observe.
His soul shall dwell at ease :
and his posterity Shall flourish still, and of the earth
inheritous shall be.
With those that fear him, is the secret of the Lord :
The knowledge of his covenant
he will to them afford.
Mine eyes upon the Lord continually are set:
For it is he that shall bring forth
my feet out of the net.
Turn unto me thy face,
and to me mercy show :
Because that I am desolate,
and am brought very low.
My hearts griefs are increas'd :
me from distresse relieve.
See mine affliction and my pain,
and all my sins forgive.
Consider thou my foes,
because they many are.
And it a cruell hatred is,
which they against me beare :
O do thou keep my soul,
do thou deliver me,
And let me never be asham'd,
because I trust in thee.
Let uprightnesse and truth
keep me, who thee attend.

Redemption, Lord, to Israel
from all his trouble send.

Another of the same.

To thee I lift my soul, O Lord :
My God, I trust in thee :
Let me not be asham'd : Let not
my foes triumph ov'r me, Yea, let them not ashamed be
that do on thee attend :
Ashamed let them be, O Lord,
who without cause offend [paths.
Thy wayes, Lord, shew to teach me thy Lead me in truth teach me :
For of my safety thou art God,
all day I wait on thee.
Thy mercies that most tender are,
do thou, O Lord, remember,
And loving kindnesse: for they
have been of old for ever.
Let not the errors of my youth,
nor sins rememb'd be :
In mercie, for thy goodnesse sake,
O Lord, remember me,
The Lord is good and gracious,
He upright is also.
He therefore sinners will instruct in wayes that they should go.
The meek and lowly he will guide
in judgements just alway :
To meek and poor afflicted ones
he'll clearly teach his way.
The whole paths of the Lord our are truth and mercy sure, [God
To such as keep his covenant,
and testimonies pure.
Now for thine own Names sake, O
I humbly thy intreat [Lord,
To pardon mine iniquitie :
for it is very great.
When man fears God: him shall he
the way he shall choose. [teach His soul shall dwell at ease, his seed
the earth as heirs shall use.
The secret of the Lord is with such as do fear his Name,
And he his holy covenant
will manifest to them.
Towards O Lord my waiting eyes
continually are set :
For he it is that shall bring forth
my feet out of the net.
O turn thee unto me, O God,
have mercy me upon :
Because I solitary am,
and in affliction.
Enlarge thy griefs are of my heart
me from distresse relieve.
See mine affliction and my pain,
and all my sins forgive.

PSALM XXVI. XXVII. XXVIII.
 14 Consider thou mine enemies,
 because they many are,
 And it a cruell hatred is,
 which they against me beare.
 15 O do thou keep my soul, O God,
 do thou deliver me:
 Let me not be asham'd, for I do put my trust in thee.
 16 O let integrity and truth
 keep me, who thee attend.
 17 Redemption, Lord, to Israel
 from all his troubles send.

PSALM XXVI.

Judge me, O Lord, for I have walkt
 in mine integrity:
 I trusted also in the Lord:
 slide therefore shall not I.
 2 Examine me, and do me prove:
 my heart, and reins, O God.
 3 For thy love is before mine eyes,
 thy truths paths I have trod.
 4 With persons vain I have not fat,
 nor with dissemblers gone.
 5 Th' assembly of ill men I hate:
 to sit with such I shun.
 6 Mine hands in innocence, O Lord,
 I'll wash and purify:
 So to thine holy altar go
 and compass it will I.
 7 That I, with voyce of thanksgiving,
 may publish and declare,
 And tell of all thy mighty works,
 that great and wondrous are,
 8 The habitation of thy house,
 Lord, I have loved well
 Yea, in that place I do delight,
 where doth thine honour dwell, 9 With sinners gather not my soul,
 and such as blood would spill:
 10 Whose hands mischievous plots,
 corrupting bribes to fill [right hand 11 But as for me, I will walk on
 in mine integrity:
 Do thou redeem me: and, O Lord,
 be mercifull to me.
 12 My foot upon an even place
 doth stand with stedfastnesse:
 Within the congregation
 th' Eternall I will blesse.

PSALM XXVII.

The Lord's my light, & saving health,
 who shall make me dismayd?
 My life, strength is the Lord, of whom then shall I be afraid.
 2 When as mine enemies and foes,
 most wicked persons all,
 To eat my flesh against me rose
 they stumbled and did fall.

3 Against me though an host encamp,
 my hears yet fearlesse is:
 Though war against me rise, I will be confident to this.
 4 One thing I of the Lord desir'd,
 and will seek to obtain,
 That all dayes of my life I may within Gods house remain,
 That I the beauty of the Lord
 behold may and admire,
 And that I in his holy place
 may reverently enquire.
 5 For he in his pavilion shall me hide in evill dayes:
 In secret of his Tent me hide,
 and on a rock me raise.
 6 And now, ev'n at this present time mine head shall lifted be Above all those that be my foes,
 and round encompassse me:
 Therefore unto his tabernacle
 I'll sacrifices bring.
 Of joyfulness I'll sing, yea, I
 to God will praises sing.
 7 O Lord, give eare unto my voyce,
 when I do cry to thee:
 Upon me also mercy have,
 and do thou answer me.
 8 When thou didst say seek ye my face,
 then unto thee reply.
 Thus did my heart above all things
 thy face, Lord seek will I.
 9 Far from me hide not thou thy put not away from thee [face.
 Thy servant in thy wrath: thou hast
 an helper been to me:
 O God of my salvation,
 leave me not, nor forsake.
 10 Though me my parents both should the Lord will me uptake [leave.
 11 O Lord, instruct me in thy way, to me a leader be In a plain path, because of those that hatred heare to me.
 12 Give me not to mine enemies will,
 for witnesses, that he,
 Against me risen are and such as breath our cruelty 13 I fainted had, unless that I believed had, to see The Lords own goodnesse in the land
 of them that living be.
 14 Wait on the Lord, & be thou strong and he shall strength afford Unto thine heart, yea, do thou wait,
 I say, upon the Lord.

PSALM XXVIII.

To thee, I'll cry, O Lord, my rock,
 hold not thy peace to me:

Left

PSALM XXIX. XXX.

the mountain Sirion
 7 Gods voyce divides & flames of fire;
 8 The desert it doth shake:
 The Lord doth make the wildernesse
 of Kadesh, all to quake.
 9 Gods voyce doth make & bindes to it makes the Forrest bare: [calve;
 And in his Temple every one
 his glory doth declare.
 10 The Lord sits on & Floods, the Lord sits King and ever shall [strength 11 The Lord will give his people and with pece blesse them all.

PSALM XXX.

Lord, I will thee extoll, for thou hast lifted me on high.
 And over me thou to rejoyce
 mad'st not mine enemy.
 2 O thou who art the Lord my God,
 I in distresse to thee
 With loud cries lifted up my voyce,
 and thou hast healed me. [up, 3 O Lord, my soul thou hast brought and rescu'd from the grave:
 That I to pit should not go down,
 alive thou didst me save.
 4 O ye that are his holy ones,
 sing praise unto the Lord.
 And give unto him thanks when you
 his holinesse record.
 5 For, but a moment lasts his wrath:
 life in his favour lyes:
 Weeping may for a night endure,
 in morn doth joy arise.
 6 In my prosperity, I said,
 that nothing shall me move.
 7 O Lord, thou hast my mountain to stand strong by thy love [made But when that thou, O gracious God, didst hide thy face from me.
 Then quickly was my prosperous
 turn'd into misery. [state
 8 Wherefore unto the Lord, my cry
 I caused to ascend.
 My humble supplication
 I to the Lord did send.
 9 What profit is there in my blood,
 when I go down in pit?
 Shall unto thee the dust give praise.
 thy truth declare shall it? [Lord,
 10 Hear Lord, have mercy help me
 11 From me thou turn'd my sadnesse
 To dancing: yea, my sackcloth loof'd and girded me with gladnesse.
 12 That sing thy praise my glory may,
 and never silent be:
 O Lord, my God, for evermore
 I will give thanks to thee.

God shall not build, but them de-who would not understand [stroy
 The Lords own works, nor did regard the doing of his hand.
 6 For ever blessed be the Lord,
 for graciously he head
 The voyce of my petitions,
 and prayers did regard.
 7 The Lord's my strength & shield,
 upon him did rely. [my heart,
 And I am helped, hence my heart
 doth joy exceedingly.
 And with my song I will him praise,
 8 Their strength is God alone;
 He also is the saving strength of his anointed One.
 9 O thine own people do thou save,
 blesse thine inheritance:
 Them also do thou feed, and them
 for evermore advance.

PSALM XXXIX.

Give ye unto the Lord, ye sons
 that of the mighty be,
 All strength and glory to the Lord,
 with cheerfulness give ye,
 Unto the Lord the glory give,
 that to his Name is due:
 And in the beauty of holinesse,
 unto Jehovah bow.
 3 The Lords voyce on the water is:
 the God of majesty
 Both thunder, and on multitudes of waters sitteth He.
 4 A pow'rfull voyce it is, that come out from the Lord most high:
 The voyce of that great Lord, is full of glorious, majestic.
 5 The voyce of the Eternall doth afunder cedars tear:
 Yea, God the Lord doth cedars break
 that Lebanon doth bear.
 6 He make them like a calve to skip:
 ev'n that great Lebanon,
 And like to a young unicorn

PSALM XXXI.

IN thee, O Lord, I put my trust, thine mercies are never be:
 According to thy righteousness,
 do thou deliver me.

1 Bowe down thine ear to me with send me deliverance: [stead,
 To save me, my strong rock both thou,
 and my house of defence

3 Because thou art my rock, and thee
 I for my fortress take:
 Therefore do thou me lead and guide,
 ev'n for thine own Names sake.

4 And sith thou art my strength there-pull me out of the net, [fore
 Which they in subtilty for me
 so privily have set:

5 Into thine hands, I do commit my spirit: for thou art he,
 O thou Jehovah, God of truth,
 that had redeemed me.

6 Those that do lying vanities
 regard, I have abhor'd:
 But as for me, my confidence is fixed on the Lord.

7 Ple in thy mercy gladly joy:
 for thou, my miseries Considered hast, thou hast my soul
 known in adversities;

8 And thou hast not inclosed me
 within the enemies hand;
 And by thee have my feet been made in a large room to stand.

9 O Lord, upon me mercy have,
 for trouble is on me;
 Mine eye, my belly, and my soul
 with grief consumed be.

10 Because my life with grief is spent,
 my years with sighs and groans:
 My strength doth fail; and for my sin consumed are my bones.

11 I was a scorn to all my foes,
 and to my friends a fear,
 And specially reproacht of those that were my neighbours near:
 When they me saw, they from me fled.
 12 Ev'n so I am forgot,
 As men are out of minde, when dead:
 I'm like a broken pot.

13 For slanders I of many hear'd, fear compass me, while they Against me did consult and plot,
 to take my life away.

14 But as for me, O Lord, my trust,
 upon thee I did lay:
 And I to thee; thou art my God,

die confidently say.

15 My tunes are wholly in thine hand:
 do thou deliver me
 From their hands, that mine enemies and persecuters be.

16 Thy comminacion to shine, do thou upon thy servant make:
 Unto me give salvation,
 for thy great mercies sake.

17 Let me not be ashamed, O Lord,
 for on thee call'd I have:
 Let wicked men be sham'd, let them
 be silent in the grave.

18 To silence put the lying lips:
 that grievous things do say,
 And hard reports, in pride and scorn,
 on righteous men do lay.

19 How great's thy goodness thou for that fear thee kept in store; [them And wroughst for them that trust in the sons of men before [thee,

20 In secret of thy presence, thou shalt hide them from mans pride:
 From strife of tongues, thou closely as in a tent, them hide. [shalt

21 All praise & thanks be to the Lord;
 or he hath magnifi'd,
 His wondrous love to me, within a city fortifi'd.

22 For from thine eyes cut of I am,
 (in my haste had said) [thee
 My voice yet heardst thou when to with cries my moan I made.

23 O love the Lord all ye his saints:
 because the Lord doth guard
 The faithfull and he pientiously proud doers doth reward.

24 Be of good courage, and he strength unto your heart shall send,
 All ye whose hope and confidence
 doth on the Lord depend.

PSALM XXXII.

OBlessed is the man, to whom is freely pardoned
 All the transgression he hath done,
 whose sin is covered.

2 Blessed is the man, to whom the Lord
 imputeth not his sin,
 And in whose spirit there is no guile,
 nor fraud is found therein.

3 When as I did refrain my speech,
 an: silent was my tongue,
 My bones then waxed old, because I roared all day long.

4 For upon me both day and night,
 thine hand did heavie lie,
 So that my moisture turned is in summers drought thereby.

5 I the-

I there upon have unto thee
 my sin acknowledged,
 And lik wife mine iniquity,
 I have not covered:
 I will confesse unto the Lord
 my trespasses, said I:
 And of my sin thou freely didst
 forgive th' iniquity.

6 For this shall every godly one,
 his prayer make to thee,
 In such a time he shall thee seek,
 as found thou mayest be.

Surely, when floods of waters great,
 do swell up to the brim,
 They shall not overwhelm his soul,
 not once come neare to him.

7 Thou art my hiding place, thou from trouble keep me free: [shalt Thou with songs of deliverance,
 about shall compass me.

8 I will instruct thee, and thee teach the way that thou shalt go.
 And, with mine eye upon thee set,
 I will direction show.

9 Then be not like thy horse and mules which do not understand: [thee Whose mouth, lest they come near to a bridle must command.

10 Unto the man that wicked is,
 his sorrows shall abound:
 But him that trusteth in the Lord,
 mercy shall compass round.

11 Ye righteous, in the Lord be glad;
 in him do ye rejoyce:
 All ye that upright are in heart,
 for joy lift up your voice.

PSALM XXXIII.

YE righteous in the Lord rejoyce:
 it comely is, and right, [voice,
 That upright men with thankful should praise the Lord of might.

2 Praise God with harp: and unto him
 sing with the psalterie.
 Upon a ten-string'd instrument make ye sweet melodie.

3 A new song to him sing, and play with loud noise skillfully.

 a love He beareth still:
 The loving kindnesse of the Lord
 the earth throughout doth fill.

5 The heavens by the Word of God,
 did their beginning make;
 And by the breathing of his mouth,
 He all their hosts did make.

7 The waters of the seas He brings together as an heap:
 And in store-houses, as it were,
 He layeth up the depth.

8 Let earth, and all that live therein,
 with reverence fear the Lord:
 Let all the worlds inhabitants
 dread him with one accord.

9 For he did speak the Word, and done:
 it was, without delay,
 Established, it firmly stood
 what ever he did say. [rought, which heathen folk do take:

 And what the people do devise,
 of none effect doth make.

11 O! but the counsell of the Lord,
 doth stand for ever sure,
 And of his heart the purposes,
 from age to age endure.

 their doings he observes.

17 An horse for preservation,
 is a deceitfull thing:
 And by the greatnesse of his strength,
 can no deliverance bring.

18 Behold, on these that do him fear,
 the Lord doth set his eye;

 with confidence rely.

19 From death to free their soul is life unto them to yeeld. [death,

20 Our soul doth wait upon the Lord,
 he is our help and shield.

21 Sith in his holy Name we trust,
 our heart shall joyfull be.

22 Lord, let thy mercy be on us,
 as we do hope in thee.

PSALM XXXIV.

God will I blesse all times: his praise
 my mouth shall still expresse.

2 My soul shall boast in God: the meek shall hear with joyfulness.

3 Extol the Lord with me, let us
 exalt his Name together:

4 I fought the Lord, he heard, and did:
 me from all fear deliver. [were not shamed were their faces:

6 This poor man cri'd, God heart, and him from all his distresse. [fear'd
7 The angel of the Lord escampes, and round encompasseth
All those about that do him fear, and them delivereth.

8 O taste and see, that God is good: who trusts in him is blest.

9 Fear God his saints none that thim shall be with want oppress'd. [fear'd

10 The lions young may hungry be, and they may lack thier food:

But they that truly seek the Lord, shall not lack any good.

11 O children, hither do ye come, and unto me give ear;
I shall you teach to understand how ye the Lord should fear.

12 What man is he that life desires, to see good would live long? [guile,

13 Thy lips refrain from speaking and from ill words thy tongue.

14 Depart from ill, do good, seek pursue it earnestly. [peace,

15 Gods eyes are on the just, his eyes are open to their cry.

16 The face of God is set against those that do wickedly.

That he may quite out from the earth cut off their memorie.

17 The righteous cry unto the Lord, he unto them gives ear:

And they out of their troubles all, by him delivered are 18 The Lord is ever nigh to them that be of broken spirits

To them he safety doth afford, that are in heart contrite.

19 The troubles that afflict the just, in number many be:

But yet at length, our of them all, the Lord doth set them free.

20 He carelessly his bones doth keep, what ever can befall:

That not so much as one of them can broken, be at all.

21 Ill shall the wicked say: bad wast shall be, who hate the just.

22 The Lord redeems his servants souls, none perish that him trust.

PSALM XXXV.

Plead Lord, with those that plead, & with those y fight with me. [fight

2 Of shield & buckler take thou hold, stand up mine help to be.

3 Draw also out the spear, and do against them stop the way,

That me pursue unto my soul, I'm thy salvation, say.

4 Let them confounded be, & sham'd, that for my soul have sought:

Who plot my hurt turn'd back be and to confusion brought. [they,

5 Let them be like unto the chaff, that flies before the winde.

And let the angel of the Lord pursue them hard behinde.

6 With darknesse cover thou their and let it slipperie prove. [way,

And let the angel of the Lord pursue them from above

7 For without cause have they for me their net hid in a pit,

They also have without a cause, for my soul digged it.

8 Let ruine saise him unawares, his net be hid with all

Himself let catcht: and in the same destruction let him fall.

9 My soul in God shall joy: and glad in his salvation be.

10 And all my bones shall say, O Lord, who is like unto thee,

Which dost the poor set free from him that is for him too strong:

The poor and needy from the man that spoils and does him wrong?

11 False witness' stole: to my charge things I not knew they laid

12 They, to the spoiling of my soul, me ill for good repair'd.

13 But as for me, when they were sick, in sack cloth sad I mourn'd:

My humbled soul did fast, my pray'r into my bosom turn'd.

14 My self I did behave, as he had been my friend, of brothers:

I heavily bow'd down, as one that mourneth with his mother.

15 But in my trouble they joyc'd, gathering themselves together:

Yea, objects vile, together did themselves against me gather;

I knew it not, they did me tear, and quiet would not be.

16 With mocking hypocrites, at feasts they gnash their teeth at me.

17 How long Lord, lookst thou on? destructions they intend from thee

Rescue my soul, from lions young, my darling do defend.

18 I will give thanks to thee, O Lord, within th' assembly great:

And,

And, where much people gathered thy praises forth will set. [are,

19 Let not my wrongful enemies proudly joyce ov'r me:

Nor, who me hate without a cause, let them, wink with the eye

20 For peace they do not speak at all: but crafty plots prepare

Against all those within the land, that meek and quiet are 21 With mouths set wide, they gainst Ha, ha, our eye doth see. [me said,

22 Lord, thou hast seen, hold not thy Lord, be not far from me. [peace,

23 Stir up thy self, wake y thou maist judgement to me afford:

Ev'n to my cause, O thou that art my onely God and Lord.

24 O Lord my God, do thou me judge after thy righteousness.

And let them not their joy gainst me triumphantly expresse. [hearts,

25 Nor let them say within their Ah, we would have it thus,

Nor suffer them to say, that he is swallow'd up by us

26 Sham'd & confounded be they all that at my hurt are glad:

Let those against me that do boast, with shame and scorne be clad.

27 Let them y love my righteous cause be glad, shout, and not cease,

To say the Lord be magnif'd, who loves his servants peace.

28 Thy righteousness shall also be declared by my tongue.

The praises that belong to thee, speak shall it all day long.

PSALM XXXVI.

The wicked mans transgression, within my heart thus sayes.

Undoubtedly the fear of God is not before his eyes.

2 Because himself he flattereth in his own blinded eye,

Untill the hatefulnesse be found of his iniquity.

3 Words from his mouth proceeding, fraud and iniquity: are

He to be wise and to do good, hath left off utterly.

4 He mischief, lying on his bed, most cunningly doth plot,

He sets himself in wates not good; ill he abhorreth not.

5 Thy mercy, Lord, is in the heavens thy truth doth reach the clouds,

6 Thy justice is like mountains great;

thy judgements deep as floods; Lord, thou preservest man and beast.

7 How precious is thy grace! Therefore on shadows of thy wings, mens sons their trust shall place.

8 Thy with the fanesse of thy house, shall be well satisfi'd:

From rivers of thy pleasures thou wilt drink to them provide,

9 Because of life the fountain pure remains alone with thee:

And in that hurest light of thine, we clearly light shall see.

10 Thy loving kindnesse unto them continue that thee know;

And still on men upright in heart, thy righteousness bestow.

11 Let not the foot of cruell pride come, and against me stand;

And let me not removed be, Lord, by the wicked hand.

12 There fall'n are they, and ruine'd, that work iniquities:

Cast down they are, and never shall be able to arise.

PSALM XXXVII.

For evil doers fret thou not thy self, unquietly.

Nor do thou envy bear to those that work iniquity.

2 For, even like unto the grasse, soon be cut down shall they,

And like the green and tender herb, they wither shall away

3 Set thou thy trust upon the Lord, and be thou doing good,

And so thou in the Lord shalt dwell, and virily have food.

4 Delight thy self in God, he'll give thine hearts desire to thee.

5 Thy way to God commit, him trust, it bring to pass shall he.

6 And like unto the light he shall thy righteousness display; [forth

And he thy judgement shall bring like noon tide of the day.

7 Rest in the Lord, and patiently wait for him: do not fret

For him, who prospering in his way, successe in sin doth get.

8 Do thou from anger cease, and see thou forsake also. [wraim

Fret not thy self in any wise, that evil thou should'st do.

9 For those that evil doers are, shall be cut off and fall:

But those that wait upon the Lord, the earth inherit shall:

10 For, yet a little while, and then the wicked shall not be:
His place thou shalt consider well, but it thou shalt not see.

11 But, by inheritance the earth the meek-ones shall possess: They also shall delight themselves in an abundant peace.

12 The wicked plots against the just, and at him whets his teeth.

13 The Lord shall laugh at him, because his day he coming feeth. [cause]

14 The wicked have drawn out a and bent their bow to slay [sword], The pour and needy, and to kill men of an upright way.

15 But their own sword, which they shall enter their own heart [have drawn] Their bows, which they have bent, and into pieces part. [shall break]

16 A little that a just man hath, is more, and better far
Then is the wealth of many such as lewd and wicked are.

17 For sinners arms shall broken be: but God the just sustains.

18 God knows y^e just mans dayes and their heritage remains. [still]

19 They shall not be ashamed when the evil time do fee:
And when the dayes of famine are, they fastish'd shall be.

20 But wicked men, and foes of God, as fat of lambs decay.
They shall consume; yea, into smoke they shall consume away.

21 The wicked borrows, but the same again he doth not pay:
Whereas the righteous mercy shows, and gives his own away.

22 For such as blessed be of him, the earth inherit shall;
And, they that cursed are of him, shall be destroyed all.

23 A good mans footsteps by the Lord are ordered aright:
And in the way wherein he walks, he greatly doth delight.

24 Although he fall, yet shall he not be cast down utterly:
Because the Lord with his own hand upholds him mightily.

25 I have been young, and now am yet have I never seen [old],
The just man left, nor that his feed

for bread have beggers been?

16 He is ever mercifull, and leads; his feed is blest therefore.

17 Depart from evil and do good: and dwell forevermore.

18 For God loves judgement, and his leaves not in any cafe, [saints] They are kept even: but cut off shall be the sinners race.

19 The just inherit shall the land, and ever in it dwell.

20 The just mans mouth doth wisdom [speak]; his tongue doth judgement tel;

21 In's heart the Law is of his God, his steps slide not away.

22 The wicked man doth watch y^e just, and seeketh him to slay.

23 Yet him the Lord will not forsake, nor have him in his hands, The righteous will he not condemn, when he in judgements stands.

24 Wait on the Lord, & keep his way and thee exalt shall He,
The earth to inherit: when cut off the wicked thou shalt see.

25 I saw the wicked great in pow'r: spread like a green bay-tree.

26 He past, yea, was not: him I sought, but found he could not be.

27 Mark thou the perfect, and behold the man of uprightnesse:
Because that surely of this man the latter end is peace.

28 But those men that transgressours, shall be destroy'd together, [are].
The latter end of wicked men shall be cut off for ever.

29 But the salvation of the just is from the Lord above,
He, in the time of their distresse, their stay and strength doth prove.

30 The Lord shall help and them deliv- he shall them free and save [ver]:
From wicked men: because in him their confidence they have.

P S A L M XXXVIII.

IN thy great indignation,
O Lord, rebuke me not:
Nor on me lay thy chastening hand, in thy displeasure hot.

2 For in me fast thine arrows stick, thine hand doth presse me fore.

3 And in my flesh there is no health nor soundnesse any more,
This grief I have, because thy wrath is forth against me gone:
And in my bones there is no rest, for sin that I have done:

P S A L M XXXIX.

Because, gone up above my head, my great transgressions be:
And as a weighty burden, they to heavy are for me.

My woun is doth sink, & are corrupt: my folly makes it so.

1 I troubled am and much bow'd all day I mourning go, [down]:
For a d'ease that lo' home is, so fills my loyns with pain,
that in my weak and waste flesh no soundnesse doth remain.

2 So feeble and infirm am I, and broken am so fore:
that through disquiet of my heart, I have been made to roare.

3 O Lord, all that I do desire, is still before thine eye:
And of my heart the secret groanes not hidden are from thee.

4 My heart doth pant incessantly, my strength doth quite decay:
And for mine eyes, their wonted light is from me gone away.

5 My lovers and my friends do stand at distance from my fore:
And those do stand aloof, that were kinsmen, and kind before. [snares]

6 Yea, they that seek my life, lay who seek to do me wrong speak things mischevous, & deceits imagine all day long.

7 But, as one deaf, that heareth nor, I suffered all to passe:
As a dumb man did become, whose mouth not opened was.

8 As one that hears not, in whose are no reproofs at all. [mouth]

9 For, Lord I hope in thee, my God, thou'lt bear me when I call.

10 For: I said, hear me, lest they should joyce ov'r me with pride:
And ov'r me magnifie themselves when as my foot doth slide.

11 For, I am near to hair, my grief is still before mine eye.

12 For I'll declare my sin; and grieve for mine iniquity.

13 But yet mine enemies lively are, and strong are they beside:
And they that hate me wrongfully, are greatly multipl'd.

14 And they, for good that render ill, as enemies me withstood:
Yea, ev'n for this because that I do follow what is good.

15 Forsake me not, O Lord, my God, far from me never be.

16 O Lord, thou my salvation art, haste to give help to me.

P S A L M XL.

I waited for the Lord my God, and patiently did bear;
At length to me he did incline my voice and cry to hear.

2 He took me from the myrie pit, and from the myrie clay,
And on a rock he set my feet, establishing my way.

3 He put a new song in my mouth, our God to magnify:
Many shall see it and in it fear, and on the Lord rely.

4 O blessed is the man whose trust upon the Lord relies: Respecting not the proud, nor such as turn aside to lies.

5 O Lord my God, full many are the wonders thou hast done? Thy gracious thoughts, to upward, abode all thoughts, are gone: [far in order none can rack on them to thee: if them declare. And speak of them I would they more then can be numbered are.

6 No sacrifice, nor offering, didst thou at all desire, [thou Mine eares thou bor'd: sin offering and burnt, didst not require:

7 Then to the Lord these were my I come, behold and see: [words, Within the volume of thy book, it written is of me:

8 To do thy will, I take delight, O thou my God that art: Yea that most holy law of thine, I have within my heart.

9 Within the congregation great, I righteousness did preach: Lo, thou dost know, O Lord, that I refrained not my speech.

10 I never did within my heart conceal thy righteousness: I thy salvation have declar'd, and shown thy faithfulness: Thy kindness, which most loving is, concealed have not I, Nor from the Congregation great have hid thy verity.

11 Thy tender mercies, Lord, from me, O do thou not restrain: Thy loving kindness and thy truth, let them me still maintain.

12 For ills, past reck'ning compass and mine iniquities [me, Such hold upon me taken have, I cannot lift mine eyes: [head, They more then hairs are on mine thence is my heart dismay'd.

13 Be pleased, Lord to rescue me: Lord hasten to mine aid.

14 Sham'd & confounded be they all that seek my soul to kill: Yea, let them backward driven be, and sham'd that wish me ill.

15 For a reward of this their shame, confounded let them be, That in this manner scoffing say, Aha, aha to me.

16 In thee let all be glad and joy, who seeking thee abide Who thy salvation love, say still, the Lord be magnifi'd.

17 I'm poor and needy, yet the Lord of me a care doth take, Thou art my help and Saviour, my God no tarrying make,

P S A L M XLI.

Bless'd is he that wisely doth the poor mans case consider; For, when the time of trouble is, the Lord will him deliver.

2 God will him keep; yea, save alive, on earth he blest shall live; And to his enemies desire, thou will him not up-give.

3 God will give strength where he on of languishing doth mourn, [bed And in his sickness sore, O Lord, thou all his bed will turn.

4 I said, O Lord, do thou extend thy mercy unto me; O do thou heal my soul, for why, I have offended thee.

5 Those that to me are enemies, of me do evil say; When shall he die, that so his name I may perish quite away?

6 To see me if he comes, he speaks vain words: but then his heart Helps mischief to it, which he tells, when forth he doth depart.

7 My haters, joyntly whispering, gainst me, my hurt devise.

8 Mischief say they, cleaves fast to him: he lyeth, and shall not rise.

9 Yea even mine own familiar friend, on whom I did rely, Who ate my bread, ev'n he is heel against me lifted hie.

10 But, Lord, be merciful to me, and up against me raise, That I may justly them requite according to their ways.

11 By this I know, that certainly I favoured am by thee: Because my hateful enemy triumphs not over me.

12 But as for me, thou me upholdst in mine integrity: And, me before thy countenance thou sett continually.

13 The Lord, the God of Israel, be blest for ever then, From age to age eternally, Amen, yea, and amen.

P S A L M XLII.

Like as the hart for water-brooks in thirst doth pant and bray: So pant my longing soul, O God, that come to thee I may.

My soul for God, the living God, doth thirst: when shall I near into thy countenance approach. and in Gods sight appear: My tears have unto me been meat, both in the night and day. While unto me continually, where is thy God, they say? My soul is poured-out on me, when this I think upon: Because that with the multitude I heretofore had gone: With them into God, house I went, with voice of joy and praise, Yea, with the multitude, that kept the solemn holy dayes.

1 O why art thou cast down, my soul, why on me so dismay'd: Trust God, for I shall praise him yet, his countenance is mine aid. My God, my soul's cast down in me: thee therefore minde I will from Jordans land, the Hermonites, and ev'n from Mizar hill.

2 At the noise of the water-spout, deep unto deep doth call: The breaking waues passe over me, yea that thy bollovs all His loving kindness yet the Lord command will in the day: His song's with me by night, to God, by whom I live, I'll pray.

3 And I will say to God my rock, why me forgets thou so? Why, for my foes oppression, thus mourning do I go?

4 It's as a sword within my bones, when my foes me upbraid: Ev'n when by them, Where is thy it's dayly to me said. [God]

5 O why art thou cast down my soul? why, thus with grief oppress, art thou disquieted in me? In God still hope and rest: For yet I know I shall him praise, who graciously to me The health is of my countenance, yea, mine own God is he.

P S A L M XLIII.

Judge me, O God, and plead my cause against th'ungodly nation: From the unjust and craftie man, O be thou my salvation.

2 For thou the God art of my strength why in trusts thou mee thee fro? For th' enemies oppression, why do I mourning go?

3 O send thy light forth & thy truth, let them be guides to me.

And bring me to thine holy Hill, ev'n where thy dwelling be.

4 Then will I to Gods Altar go, to God my chiefest joy: Yea, God, my God thy Name to praise, my harp I will employ. [soul?]

5 Why art thou then cast down my that we should discourag thee? And why, with vexing thought, art disquieted in me? [thou]

Still trust in God, for him to praise good cause I yet shall have: He of my countenance is the health, my God that doth me save.

P S A L M XLIV.

O God, we with our ears have our fathers have us told, [heard, What works thou in their dayes hadst ev'n in the dayes of old. [done,

2 Thy hand did drive the Heathen out, and plant them in their place: Thou didst afflict the nations, but them thou didst increase.

3 For neither got their sword the land, nor did their arms them save: But thy right hand arm, countenance: for thou them favour gave:

4 Thou art my king, for Jacob, Lord, deliverances command.

5 I through thee, we shall push tread that do against us stand: [down foes We, through thy Name, shall not trust, that risen against us have. [thou]

6 For in my bow I shall not trust, nor shall my sword me save.

7 But, from our foes thou hast us our haters put to shame. [sav'd,

8 In God we, all the day do boast, and ever praise thy Name.

9 But now we are cast off by thee, and us thou putt to shame: And, when our armies do go forth thou go'st not with the same.

10 Thou mak'st us from the enemy, faint-hearted, to turn back: And they who hate us for themselves our spoils away do take.

11 Like sheep for meat thou gavest us: 'mough Heathen cast we be. [sell,

12 Thou didst for nought thy people their price enrich'd not thee.

13 Thou mak'st us a reproach to be unto our neighbours near: Derision, and a scorn to them that round about us are.

14 A by-word also thou dost us among the Heathen make: The people; in contempt and spite, at us their heads do shake.

14 Before me my confusion continually abides:
 And, of my bashfull countenance, the shame me ever hides.
 15 For voice of him y doth reproach, and speaketh blasphemy:
 By reason of th' avenging foe, and cruell enemy.
 17 All this is come on us: yet we have not forgotten thee, Nor falsely in thy covenant behav'd our selves have we.
 18 Back from thy way out heart not for God, thy God most hie Above thy fellows hath, wit th'oyl of joy, anointed thee.

 8 Of aloes, myrrhe, and cassia, a smell thy garment had:
 Out of thy ivory places, whereby they made thee glad.
 9 Amongh the women honourable Kings daughters were at hand:
 Upon thy right hand and the queen, in gold of Ophir stand.
 10 O daughter, hearken and regard, and do thine ear incline:
 Likewise forget thy fathers house, and people that are thine.
 11 Then of the King desir'd shall be thy beautie vehemently:
 Because he is thy Lord, do thou him worship reverently.
 12 The daughter there of Tyre shall with gifts and offerings great:
 Those of the people that are rich thy favour shall intreat.
 13 Behold the daughter of the King all glorious is within:
 And, with embroyderies of gold, her garments wrought have bin.
 14 She shall be brought unto the King, in robes, with needle wrought:
 Her fellow-virgins following, shall unto thee be brought.
 15 They shall be brought with gladnes and mirth on every side. [great, Into the palace of the King, and there they shall abide.
 16 In stead of those thy fathers dear, thy children thou mayest take,
 And in all places of the earth, them noble Princes make.
 17 Thy Name remembered I will through ages all, to be: [make, The people therefore evermore shall praises give to thee.

Another of the same.

PSALM XLV.
 MY heart brings forth a goodly my works that I endite [thing: Concern the King: my tongue's a pen of one that swift doth write.
 2 Thou faster art then sons of men: into thy lips is store
 Of grace insul'd: God therefore thee hath blest for evermore.
 3 O thou that art the mighty One, thy sword gird on thy thigh:
 Ev'n with thy glory excellent, and with thy Majestic. [ness, 4 For meeknesse, truth & righteous: in state ride prosperouslie:
 And thy right hand shall thee instruct in things that fearfull be.
 5 Thine arrows sharply pierce y hearts of th' enemies of the King:
 And under thy subjection the people down do bring.
 6 For ever and for ever is. O God, thy throne of might:
 The scepter of thy Kingdom is a scepter that is right,
 7 Thou lovest right, and hatest ill:

MY heart enditing is good matter in a song: I speak the thing that I have made which to the King belongs:
 My tongue shall be as quick his honour to endite, AS is the pen of any scribe that useth fast to write.
 2 Thou art fairest of all men, grace in thy lips doth flow:
 And therefore blessings evermore on thee doth God bestow.
 3 Thy sword gird on thy thigh, thou that art most of might:

Appear

PSALM XLVI.

Appear in dreadful Majestic, and in thy glory bright.
 4 For meeknesse, truth and right, ride prosperouslie in state:
 And thy right hand shall teach to thee things terrible and great.
 5 Thy shafts shall pierce their hearts that foes are to the King:
 Whereby unto subjection the people thou shalt bring.
 6 Thy royall fear, O Lord, for ever shall remain:
 The scepter of thy Kingdom doth all righteousse maintain.
 7 Thou lovest right, and hatest ill: for God, the God most hie, Above thy fellows, hath with th'oyl of joy anointed thee.
 8 Of myrrhe and spices sweet a smell thy garment had:
 Out of thy ivory palaces, whereby they made thee glad.
 9 And, in thy glorious train, Kings daughters waiting stand:
 And thy fair queen, in Ophir gold, doth stand at thy right hand.
 10 O daughter, take good heed, incline, and give good ear:
 Thou must forget thy kindred all, and fathers house most dear.
 11 Thy beautie to the King, shall then delightfull be:
 And, do thou humbly worship him, because thy Lord is he.
 12 The daughter then of Tyre There with a gift shall be.
 And all the wealthy of the land shall make their sute to thee.
 13 The daughter of the King all glorious is within:
 And, with embroyderies of gold, her garments wrought have bin.
 14 She cometh to the King, in robes with needle wrought:
 The virgins that do follow her shall unto thee be brought.
 15 They shall be brought with joy, and mirth on every side
 Into the palace of the King, and there they shall abide.
 16 And, in thy fathers stead, thy children thou may'st take,
 And, in all places of the earth, them noble Princes make.
 17 I will shew forth thy Name to generations all:
 Therefore thy people evermore to thee give praises shall.

PSALM XLVI.
 God is our refuge, and our strength, in straits a present aid.
 2 Therefore, although the earth rewe will not be afraid: [move, Though hills amidst the sea be cut,
 3 Though waters roaring make, And troubled be, yea though the hills by swelling seas do shake.
 4 A river is, whose streams do glad the City of our God:
 The holy place wherein the Lord most hie hath his abode.
 5 God in the midst of her doth dwell, nothing shall her remove,
 The Lord to her an helper will, and that right early, prove.
 6 The heathen rag'd tumultuously, the Kingdoms moved were:
 The Lord God utter'd his voice, the earth did men for fear.
 7 The Lord of nobles upon our side doth constantly remain:
 The God of Jacob's our refuge, us safe to maintain [works, 8 Come, and behold what wondrous have by the Lord been wrought:
 Come, see what desolations he on the earth hath brought.
 9 Unto the ends of all the earth wars into peace he turns:
 The bow he breaks the spear he cuts, in fire the chariots burns.
 10 Be still, and know that I am God: among the heathen I will be exalted, I on earth will be exalted hie.
 11 Our God, who is the Lord of Host, is full upon our side:
 The God of Jacob our refuge: for ever will abide.

PSALM XLVII.

ALL people clap your hands, to God with voice of triumph shout.
 2 For dreadfull is the Lord most hie, great Kings, the earth throughout.
 3 The heathen people under us he surely shall subdue:
 And he shall make the nations under our feet to bow.
 4 The lot of our inheritance choose out for us shall he,
 Of Jacob whom he loved well, ev'n the excellencie. [Lord 5 God is with plouts gone up, the with trumpets sounding hie.

6 Sing praise to God, sing praise, sing
praise to our King sing ye: [praise, 7 For God is King of all the earth,
with knowledge praise expresse.
8 God rules the nations. God sits on his throne of holinesse.
9 The princes of the people are assembled willinglie Ev'n of the God of Abraham,
they who the people be.
For why, the shields that do defend the earth, are onely his:
They to the Lord belong. yea He exalted greatly is.

PSALM XLVIII.

Great is the Lord, and greatly He is to be praised still.

Within the City of our God,
upon his holy hill.

1 Mount Zion stands most beautiful,
the joy of all the land;

The City of the mighty King
on her north-side doth stand.

3 The Lord, within her palaces,
is for a refuge known:

4 For lo, the Kings that gathered were together by have gone.

5 But, when they did behold the same,
thy wondering, would not stay;

But, being troubled at the sight,
they thence did haste away. [them

6 Great terrour there took hold on they were possel'd with fear,
Their grief came like a womans pain,
when she a childe doth bear.

7 Thou Tarshish ships with east-wind
8 As we have heard it told; [breaks:

So in the City of the Lord
our eyes did it behold,

In our Gods City, which his hand
for ever stablish will.

9 We, of thy loving kinnesse thought Lord, in thy Temple still.

10 O Lord, according to thy Name,
through all the earth's thy praise:

And thy right hand, O Lord, is full of righteousnesse alwayes.

11 Because thy judgements are made let Zion mount rejoyce: [known,

Of Judah let the daughters all send forth a chearfull voice.

12 Walk about Zion, and go round,
the high towers there of tell:

13 Consider ye her palaces,
and mark her bulwarks well,

That ye may tell posteritie,
14 For this God doth abide

Our God for evermore he will ev'n unto death us guide

PSALM XLIX.

Hear this all people, and give ear
all in the world that dwell,
2 Both low & high, both rich & poor,
3 My mouth shall wisdom tell,
My heart shall knowledge meditate.
4 I will incline mine ear

To parables, and on the harp
my sayings dark declare.

5 Amidst those dayes, that evil be,
why should I, fearing doubt?

When of my heels th' iniquitie shall compasse me about.

6 Who e're they be: that in their wealth
their confidence do pitch,
And boast themselves, because they become exceeding rich. [are

7 Yet none of these his brother can redeem by any way.

Nor can he unto God, for him sufficient ransom pay:

8 (Their souls redemption precious is and it can never be)

9 That still he should for ever live,
and not corruption see.

10 For why the feeth that wisemen die,
and brutish fools also

Do perish, & their wealth, when dead,
to others they let go. [house,

and dwelling-places shall [lands

Stand through all ages: they their 12 But yet in honour shall not man abide continually:

But passing hence, may be compar'd unto the beasts that dy.

13 Thus, brutish folly plainly is their wisdom, and their way:

Yet, their posteritie approve what they do fondly say.

14 Like sheep, they in y grave are laid,
and death shall them devour:

And, in the morning, upright men
shall over them have pow'r:

Their beautie, from their dwelling, consume within the grave. [shall

15 But, from hells hand God will mee
for he shall me receive. [free,

16 Be thou not then afraid, when one enriched thou dost see.

Nor when the glory of his house advanced is on hie.

17 For, he shall carry nothing hence,
when death his dayes doth end:

Nor shall his glory after him into the grave descend.

18 Although he his own soul did blesse
whilst he on earth did live,

(And when thou to thy self dost well, men will thee praises give)

19 He to his fathers race shall go, they never shall see light. [ledge is 20 Man honour'd wanting know-like beasts that perish quite.

PSALM L.

The mighty God, the Lord hath spoken, and did call

The earth, from rising of the sun,
to where he hath his fall.

2 From out of Sihon hill, which, of excellency

And beautie the perfection is,
God shined gloriously.

3 Our God shall surely come,
keep silence shall not He;

Before Him fire shall waste, great shall round about Him be. [storms

4 Unto the heavens clear,
He from above shall call.

And to the earth likewise, that He may judge his people all.

5 Together let my saints unto me gathered be,

Those that by sacrifice have made a covenant with me.

6 And then the heavens shall his righteousness declare;

Because the Lord himself is He,
by whom men judged are.

7 My people Israel hear,
speak will I from on hie,

Against thee I will testifie,
God, ev'n thy God am I.

8 I, for thy sacrifices,
no blame will on thee lay,

Nor burnt-offrings, which unto me
thou offer'dst every day.

9 I'll take no calf nor goats,
from house or fold of thine:

10 For beasts of forrests, cattell all
on thousand hills are mine.

11 The fowls on mountains high,
are all to me well known,

Wilde beasts, which in the fields do ly,
ev'n they are all mine own.

12 Then if I hungry were,
I would not tell it thee:

Because the world, and fulnesse all thereof belongs to me.

13 Will I eat flesh of buls?
or goats blood drink will I?

14 Thanks offer thou to God, and pay thy vows to the most hie:

15 And call upon me, when in trouble thou shalt be.

I will deliver thee, and thou
my Name shalt glorifie.

16 But to the wicked man
God faith, my laws and truth

Shouldst thou declare? how darst thou my covenant in thy mouth? [take

17 Sith thou instruction hates, which should thy wayes direct.

And, sith my words behinde thy back thou casts, and dost reject.

18 When thou a thief didst see,
with him thou didst consent:

And with the vile adulterers partaker on thou went.

19 Thou gav'st thy mouth to ill,
thy tongue deceit doth frame:

20 Thou sith, and gainst thy brother thy mothers son doeth shame.

21 Because I silence kept, [wrought:
while thou these things hast

That I was altogether like thy self, hath been thy thought

Yet I will thee reprove,
and set before thine eyes

1 In order ranked thy misdeeds, and thine iniquities.

22 Now, ye that God forget,
this carefully consider:

Left I in pieces tear you all,
and none can ye deliver.

23 Who so doth offer praise, me glorifies, and I

Will show him Gods salvation, that orders right his way.

Another of the same.

The mighty God y Lord hath spoke,
and call'd the earth upon,

Ev'n from the rising of the sun,
unto his going down.

2 From out of Sihon, his own hill
where the perfection hie

Of beauty is from thence the Lord hath shined gloriously.

3 Our God shall come, & shall no more,
be silent, but speak out,

Before him fire shall waste, great
shall compasse him about. [storms

4 He, to the heavens from above;
and to the earth below

Shall call, that He his judg'ment may before his people show.

5 Let all my saints together be unto me gathered,

Those, that by sacrifice, with me
a covenant have made.

6 And then the heavens shall declare
His righteousness abroad;

G 2

Because the Lord himself doth come,
none else is judge but God.

- 7 Hear, O my people, and I'll speak
O Israel by name.
Against thee I will testify,
God, even thy God I am.
- 8 I, for thy sacrifices few,
reprove thee never will:
Nor for burnt-offerings to have been before me offered still.
- 9 I'll take no bullock, nor hee-goats
from house, nor folds of thine:
10 For, beasts of forreins, cattell all
on thou sand hills are mine.
- 11 The fountains are all to me well known that mountains high do yield;
And I do challenge us mine own,
the wide beails of the field.
- 12 If I were hungry, I would not to thee for need complain:
For earth, and all its fruitness, doth
to me of right pertain.
- 13 That I, to eat the flesh of bulls
take pleasure, dost thou think?
Or, that I need to quench my thirst,
the blood of goats to drink?
- 14 Nay, rather unto me thy God,
thanksgiving offer thou,
To the most high perform thy word,
and fully pay thy vow.
- 15 And, in the day of trouble great,
see that thou call on me:
I will deliver thee, and thou
my Name shalt glorifie.
- 16 But, God unto the wicked said,
why shouldst thou mention make
Of my commands? how dar'st thou in thy mouth my covenant take?
- 17 Sigh it is so, that thou dost hate
all good instruction:
And sith thou casts behind thy back,
and slightest my words each one.
- 18 When thou a thief didst see, then thou joynd' with him in sin; straight
And, with the vile adulterers,
thou hast partaker bin:
- 19 Thy mouth to evill thou dost give,
thy tongue deceit doth frame
- 20 Thou sicut, and gainst thy brother
thymothers son to shame; [speak st,
- 21 These things thou wickedly hast
and I have silent bin: [done,
- Thou thought that I was like thy self,
and did approve thy sin:
But I will sharply thee reprove,
and I will order right, Thy sins and thy transgressions
in presence of thy sight.

- 22 Consider this, and be afraid,
ye that forget the Lord,
Left I in pieces tear you all
when none can helpe afford.
- 23 Who offereth praise, me glorifies:
I will shew Gods salvation
To him that ordereth aright
his life, and conversation.

P S A L M L I.

After thy loving kindnesse, Lord,
have mercy upon me:
For thy compassions great, blot out
all mine iniquitie.

2 Me cleanse from sin & thoroughly from mine iniquitie. [wash

3 For my transgressions I confesse, my sin I ever see.

4 Gainst thee, thee onely, have I sinn'd,
in thy sight done this ill.
That, when thou speaks, thou may be
and clear in judging still. [just,

5 Behold, I in iniquity was form'd the womb within:
My mother also me conceiv'd
in guiltinesse and sin:

6 Behold, thou, in the inward parts with truth delighted are:
And wisdom thou shalt make me
within the hidden part. [know

7 That thou with hyssop sprinkle me:
I shall be cleansed so:

Yea, wash thou me, and then I shall be whiter then the snow.

8 Of gladnesse, and of joyfulness make me to hear the voice:
That, so these very bones, which thou hast broken, may joyce.

9 All mine iniquities blot out,
thy face hide from my sin.

10 Create a clean heart: Lord, renew a right spirit me within.

11 Cast me not: from thy sight, nor take thy holy spirit away:

12 Restore me thy salvations joy:
with thy free spirit me stay:

13 Then will I teach thy ways unto those that transgressors be:
And those that sinners are shall then be turned unto thee

14 O God of my salvation, God,
me from blood guiltinesse Set free: then shall my tongue aloud
sing of thy righteousness.

15 My closed lips, O Lord, by thee
let them be opened:

Thou

Thou shall thy praises by my mouth abroad be published.

16 For thou desirest not sacrifice,
else would I give it thee:

Nor wilt thou with burnt-offering at all delighted be.

17 A broken spirit is to God
a pleasing sacrifice.

A broken, and a contrite heart,
Lord, thou wilt not despise.

18 Shew kindnesse & do good, O Lord,
to Sion thine owne hill:

The walls of thy Jerusalem build up, of thy good will. [please,

19 Then righteous offrings shall thee and offrings burnt which they,
With whole burnt-offrings & with shall on thine altar lay. [calves,

P S A L M L I I.

Why dost thou boast, O mighty of mischief and of ill? [man,
The goodnessse of Almighty God
endureth ever still.

2 Thy tongue mischievous calumnies
deviseth subtilly,

Like to a razor, sharp to cut,
working deceitfully. [truth

3 All more then good, and more then thou lovest to speak wrong:

4 Thou lovest all devouring words,
O thou deceitfull tongue.

5 So God shall thee destroy for ay, remove thee, pluck thee out

Quite from thy house out of the land of life he shall thee root.

6 The righteous shall it see and fear,
and laugh at him they shall:

7 Lo, this the man is, that did not make GOD his strength at all:

But he, in his abundant wealth,
his confidence did place:

And he took strength unto himself
from his own wickednesse.

8 But I am in the house of God
like to an olive green:

My confidence for ever hath upon God mercy been.

9 And I for ever will thee praise,
because thou hast done this:

I on thy Name will wait for good before thy saints it is.

P S A L M L I I I.

That there is not a God the fool
doth in his heart conclude:
They are corrupt, their works are vile,
not one of them doth good.

2 The Lord upon the sons of men from heav'n did cast his eyes,

To see if any one there was,
that fought God, and was wise.

3 They altogether filthy are,
they all are backward gone:

And there is none that doeth good,
no not so much as one.

4 These workers of iniquity
do they not know at all,

That they my people eat as bread
and on God do not call.

5 Ev'n there they wee afraid & stood with trembling all dismayd.

Whereas there was no cause at all,
why they should be afraid.

For God his bones that thee besieg'd hath scattered all abroad,

Thou hast confounded them, for they despised are of God.

6 Let Israels help from Sion come,
when back the Lord shall bring:

His captives, Jacob shall joyce,
and Israel shall sing.

P S A L M L I V.

Save me, O God, by thy great Name,
and judge my by thy strength.

2 My prayer hear, O God, give care unto my words at length.

3 For they that strangers are to me,
do up against me rise:

Oppressours seek my soul and God
set not before their eyes.

4 The Lord my God my helper is,
lo, therefore I am bold,

He taketh part with every one that doth my soul uphold.

5 Unto mine enemies he shall mischief and ill repay,

O for thy truths sake cut them off,
and sweep them clean away.

6 I will a sacrifice to thee give with free willingness:

Thy Name, O Lord, because it's good,
with praise I will confesse.

7 For he hath me delivered from all adversities:

And his desire mine eyes hath seen upon mine enemies.

P S A L M L V.

Lord hear my pray'r, hide not thy from my intreating voice: [scilicet

2 Attend and hear me in my plaint
I mourn and make a noise.

3 Because of th' enemies voice, and for lewde mens oppression great:

On me they cast iniquities,
and they in wrath me hate.

4 Sore pain'd with in me is my heart,
deaths terrors on me fall,

5 On me come trembling fear & dread
o'whelmed me withall.
6 O that I like a dove had wings,
said I, then would I flee Far hence, that I might find a place where I in rest might be.
7 Lo then far off I wancer would
and in the desert stay;
8 From windy storm and tempest I would haste to scape away.
9 O Lord, on them destruction bring,
and to their tongues divide;
For in the city violence,
and strife I have espide.
10 They day and night upon the wall,
do go about it round;
There mischief is, and sorrow there
in mist of it is found.
11 Abundant wickednesse there is within her in ward part;
And from her streets deceiffulness
and guile do not depart.
12 He was not foe that me reproach'd,
then that endure I could,
Nor hater that did gainst me boast,
from him me hide I would.
13 But thou man, who mine equal & mine acquaintance wast, guide, 14 We joy'd sweet counsels, to Gods
in company we pass. [house 15 Let death upon them seize, & down
let them go quick to hell;
For wickednesse doth much abound
among them where they dwell.
16 He call on God, God will me save,
17 I'll pray and make a noise
At evening, morning and at noons, and he shall hear my voice.
18 He hath my soul delivered,
that it in peace might be,
From battell, that against me was,
for many were with me.
19 The Lord will hear, & them afflict,
of old who hath abode:
Eccuse if they never changes have,
therefore they fear not God.
20 Griefe to those I were at peace with he hath put forth his hand; [him,
The covenant that he had made,
by breaking he prophan'd.
21 More smooth then butter were his words in his heart was war; [words,
His speeches were softer then oyl,
and yet draw'n sword they are.
22 Cast thou thy burden on the Lord,
and he shall thee sustain;
Yea, he shall cause the righteous man
unmoved to remain.
23 But thou, O Lord, I say, those men
in justice shalt O'rethrow,

And in destructions dungeon dark
at last shalt lay them low.
The bloody and deceitfull men shall not live half their dayes,
But upon thee with confidence
I will depend alwayes.

PSALM LVI.

Shew mercy, Lord, to me: for man
would swallow me outright:
He me oppresseth while he doth against me dayly fight.
2 They dayly would me swallow up,
that hate me spitefully:
For they be many that do fight against me, O most high.
3 When I'm afraid, I'lle trust in thee:
4 In God I'lle praise his word,
I will not fear what flesh can do,
my trust is in the Lord.
5 Each day they wrest my words, their gainst me are all for ill, [thoughts 6 They meet, they lurk, they mark my waiting my soul to kill. [steps 7 But shall they by iniquitie escape thy judgement o?

O God with indignation, down
do thou the people throw.
8 My wanderings what they have been thou know'st, their number took.
Into thy bottle put my tears,
are they not in thy book?
9 My foes shall, when I cry, turn back,
I know't, God is for me.
10 In God his word I'lle praise, his in God shall praised be. [word 11 In God I trust, I will not fear
what man can do to me.
12 Thy vows upon me are, O God:
I'lle render praise to thee.
13 Wilt thou not who from death me
my feet from falls keep free? [saw'd,
To walk before God in the light of those that living be.

PSALM LVII.

Be mercifull to me, O God,
thy mercy unto me
Do thou extend, because my soul
doth put her trust in thee.
Yea, in the shadow of thy wings
my refuge I will place, Until these sad calamities
do wholly overpass.
2 My cry I will cause to ascend unto the Lord most high,
To God, who doth all things for me perform most perfectly.
3 From heav'n he shall send down, &
from his reproach defend [me Tha

That would devour me: God his truth
and mercy forth shall send.
4 My foul among fierce lions is,
I sickebrands live among.
Mens sons, whose teeth are spears and a sharp sword is their tongue [darts, 5 Be thou exalted very high above the heav'ns, O God:
Let thou thy glory be advanc'd
o're all the earth abroad.
6 My foul's bow'd down for they a net
have laid, my steps to snare:
Into the pit which they have dig'd
for me, they fallen are.
7 My heart is fixt, my heart is fixt,
O God, I'lle sing and praise.
8 My glory wake wake psaltry, harp:
my self I'lle early raise 9 I'lle praise thee among the people,
among nations sing will I: [Lord, 10 For great to heav'n they mercy is,
thy truth is to the sky.
11 O Lord, exalted be thy Name,
above the heav'ns to stand:
Do thou thy glory far advance above both sea and land.

PSALM LVIII.

Doye, O congregation
indeed speak righteousnesse?
O ye that are the sons of men,
judge ye with uprightnesse:
2 Yea, ev'n within your very hearts
ye wickednesse have done:
Audy the violence of your hands
do weigh the earth upon.
3 The wicked men estranged are
ev'n from the very womb:
They speaking lies do stray, as soon
as to the world they come.
4 Unto a serpents poyson like their poyson doth appear:
Yea, they are like the adder deaf,
that closely stops her ear:
5 That so the may not hear the voice of one that charm her would,
No not though he most cunning were,
& charm most wisely could.
6 Their teeth, O God, within their breath thou in pieces small, [mouth
The great teeth break thou out, O
of these young lions all. [Lord, 7 Let them like waters melt away,
which downward still do flow:
In pieces cut his arrows all,
when he shall bend his bow.
8 Like to a snail that melts away,
let each of them be gone:
Like womans birth untimely, that
ey thever see the sun,

9 He shall them take away, before your pois the thorns can finde.
Both living, and in fury great,
as with a stormy winde.
10 The righteous when he vengeance
he shall be joyfull then; [cees,
The righteous shall wash his feet
in blood of wicked men.
11 So men shall say, & righteous man
reward shall never misse;
And verily, upon the earth
a God, to judge there is.

PSALM LIX.

MY God deliver me from those that are mine enemies:
And do thou me defend from those that up against me rise.
2 Do thou deliver me from them
that work iniquity;
And give me safety from the men
of bloody cruelty.
3 For lo, they for my foul lay wait,
the mighty do combine Against me Lord, not for my fault,
nor any sin of mine.
4 They run, and without fault in me themselves do ready make:
Awake to meet me with thy help,
and do thou notice take.
5 Awake therefore, Lord God of hosts,
thou God of Israel,
To visit Heathen all spare none
that wickedly rebell.
6 At evening they go to and fro,
they make great noise, and sound
Like to a dog, and often walk
about the city round.
7 Behold, thy belch out with their
& in their lips are swords; [mouth,
For they do say to us, who is he that now doth hear our words?
8 But thou, O Lord, shalt laugh at them
and all the Heathen mock.
9 While he's in pow'r I'lle wait on for God is my high rock. [these 10 He of his mercy that is God, berimes shall me prevent:
Upon mine enemies God shall let me see mine hearts content.
11 Them say not, lest my folk forget:
but scatter them abroad [down,
By thy strong power, and bring them to thou our shield, and God.
12 For their mouths sin, & for the
that from their lips do fly, [words
Let them be taken in their pride,
because they curie and fly.
13 In wrath consume them, them
that to they may not be [consume,
C 4 And

And that in Jacob God doth rule
to the earths ends let them see.
14 At evening let thou them return, making great noise, and found
Like to a dog, and often walk
about the city round
15 And let them wander up & down
in seeking food, to eat;
And let them grudge when they shall be fatis'd with meat. [not 16 But of thy pow'r I'll sing aloud
at morn thy mercy praise:
For thou to me my refuge wast
and tow'r in troublous dayes.
17 O God that art my strength, I will sing praises unto thee;
For God is my defence, a God
of mercy unto me.

PSALM LX.

Lord, thou hast rejected us,
and scattered us abroad,
Thou justly had displeas'd been,
return to us, O God. [made,
2 The earth to tremble thou hast therein didst breaches make:
Do thou thereof the breaches heal,
because the land doth shake.
3 Unto thy people thou hard things hast shew'd, and on them sent:
And thou hast caus'd us to drink
wine of astonishment.
4 And yet a banner thou hast given to them who thee do fear:
That it by them, because of truth
displayed may appear.
5 That thy beloved people may delivered be from thrall;
Save with the pow'r of thy right hand
and hear me when I call 6 God in his holiness hath spoke,
herein I will take pleasure:
Shechem I will divide, and forth
will Succoths valley measure.
7 Gilead I claime as mine, by right,
Manasse mine shall be,
Ephraim is of mine head the strength,
Judah gives lawes for me.
8 Moab's my washing-pot, my shoe
I'll over Edom throw:
And over Palestina's land
I will triumph go.
9 O who is he will bring me to the city fortifi'd?
O who is he that to the land
of Ephraim will me guide?
10 O God which hiddest us cast off,
this thing wilt thou not do?
Ev'n thou, O God, which didst not forth with our armies go

11 Help us from trouble: for the help is vain which man supplies.
12 Through God wee'll do great acts:
tread down our enemies. [he shall

PSALM LXI.

God, give ear unto my cry
unto my pray'r attend.
2 From th' utmost corner of the land
my cry to thee I'll send.
What time my heart is overwhelm'd,
and in perplexity:
Do thou me lead unto the Rock that higher is then I 3 For thou hast for my refuge been a shelter by thy pow'r.
And, for defence against my foes,
thou hast been a strong tow'r.
4 Within thy Tabernacle I for ever will abide:
And under covert of thy wings
with confidence me hide.
5 For thou the vows that I did make,
O Lord, my God, didst hear:
Thou hast given me the heritage of those thy Name that fear.
6 A life prolong'd for many dayes thou to the King shalt give:
Like many generations be the years which he shall live.
7 He in Gods presence, his abod,
for evermore shall have:
O do thou truth and mercy both prepare that may him save.
8 And so will I perpetually
sing praise unto thy Name, That, having made my vows, I may each day perform the same.

PSALM LXII.

MY soul with expectation
depends on God in need;
My strength and my salvation both from him alone proceed.
2 He onely my salvation is,
and my strong rock is He:
He onely is my sure defence;
much mov'd I shall not be.
3 How long will ye against a man plot mischief? ye shall all be slain, ye like a tottering fence
shall be, and bowing wall.
4 They onely plot to cast him down
from his excellency; [bless,
They joy in lies with mouth they
but they curse inwardly.
5 My soul wait thou with patience
upon thy God alone:
On him dependeth all my hope and expectation.

6 He onely my salvation is,
and my strong Rock is He:
He onely is my sure defence:
I shall not moved be.
7 In God my glory placed is,
and my salvation sure:
In God the Rock is of my strength,
my refuge most secure.
8 Ye people place your confidence
in him continually:
Before him pour ye out your heart:
God is our refuge he.
9 Surely mean men are vanitie,
and great men are a lie:
In balance laid, they wholly are more light then vanitie.
10 Trust ye not in oppression,
in robbery be not vain:
On wealth set not your hearts, when as increas'd is your gain.
11 God hath it spoken once to me,
yea, this I heard again,
That power to Almighty God alone, do appertain.
Yea mercy also unto thee
belongs, O Lord, alone:
For thou, according to his work
rewardest every one.

PSALM LXIII.

Lord, thee my God I'll early seek:
my soul doth thirst for thee.
My thirstings in a dry parcht land,
wherein no water be.
2 That I thy power may behold,
and brightnesse of thy face,
As I have seen thee heretofore,
within thy holy place.
3 Since better is thy love then life,
my lips thee praise shall give.
4 In thy Name will lift my hands,
and bless thee while I live.
5 Ev'n as with marrow and with fat,
my soul shall filled be:
Then shall my mouth with joyfull
sing praises unto thee: [lips, 6 When I do thee upon my bed
remember with delight,
And when on thee I meditate
in watches of the night.
7 In shadow of thy wings I'll joy,
for thou mine help hast been.
8 My soul thee follows hard, and me
thy right hand doth sustain.
9 Who seek my soul to spill shall sink
down to earths lowest room:
10 They by the sword shall be cut off,
and foxes prey become.
11 Yet shall the King in God joyce,
and each one glory shall

That swear by him, but slop shall be the mouth of liers all.

PSALM LXIV.

When I to thee my prayer make,
Lord, to my voyce give ear:
My life save from the enemy
of whom I stand in fear.
2 Me from their secret counsell hide
who do live wickedly;
From insurrection of those men
that work iniquity. [whet, 3 Who do their tongues with malice
and make them cut like swords;
In whose bent bows are arrows set,
even sharp and bitter words:
4 That they may at the perfect man
in secret aim their shot:
Yea suddenly they dare at him
to shoot, and fear it not.
5 In ill encourage they themselves,
and their snare close to lay.
Together conference they have,
who shall them see? they say.
6 They have searcht out iniquities,
a perfect search they keep:
Or each of them the inward thought,
and very heart is deep.
7 God shall an arrow shoot at them,
and wound them suddenly.
8 So their own tongue shall them con-
all who them see shall fly: [found:
9 And on all men a fear shall fall;
Gods works they shall declare:
For they shall wisely notice take what these his doings are.
10 In God's righteous shall rejoyce,
and trust upon his might,
Yea, they shall greatly glory all;
in heart that are upright.

PSALM LXV.

Raise waits for thee in Sion, Lord,
to thee vows paid shall be.
2 O thou that hearer art of pray'r,
all flesh shall come to thee.
3 Iniquities, I must confesse, prevail against me do:
But as for our transgressions,
them purge away shalt thou.
4 Blest is the man whom thou dost [choose,
and mak' st approach to thee:
That he within thy courts, O Lord,
may still a dweller be:
We surely shall be fatis'd
with thy abundant grace,
And with the goodness of thy House,
ev'n of thy holy place.

5 O God of our salvation,
thou in thy righteousness
By fearfull works unto our pray'rs thine answer doth expresse;
Therefore the ends of all the earth,
and those afar that be Upon the sea, their confidence,
O Lord, will place in thee.
6 Who being girt with pow'r, sets fast,
by his great strength the hills, 7 Who noise of seas, noise of their
and peoples tumult stills. [waves 8 Those in y' upmost parts that dwell
are at thy signes afraid;
Th' outgoings of the mourn and even

With Gods full flood, thou corn pre-

10 Her ridges thou dost water much,
her furrows settelest;
With showers thou dost her mollifie,
her foring by thee is blest.
11 So thou the year most liberally
dost with thy goodness crowne:
And all thy paths abundantly
on us drop fatnesse down.
12 They drop upon the pastures wide,
that do in deserts ly:
The little hills on every side
rejoyce right pleasantly.
13 With flocks y' pastures clothed be,
the vales with corn are clad;
And now they shout and sing to thee,
for thou hast made them glad.

PSALM LXVI.

ALL lands to God in joyfull sounds aloft your voices raise.
2 Sing forth the honour of his Name,
and glorious make his praise.
3 Say unto God, How terrible in all thy works art thou? [these Through thy great pow'r thy foes to shall be constrain'd to bow.
4 All on the earth shall worship thee,
they shall thy praise proclaim,
In songs: they shall sing cheerfully unto thy holy Name.
5 Come, and the works that God hath with admiration see: [wrought
In 's workings to the sons of men
most terrible is he.
6 Into dry land the sea he turn'd,
and they a passage had,
Ev'n marching through the flood on
there we in him were glad. [seet, 7 He ruleth ever by his power,
his eyes the nations see;

O let not the rebellious ones
lift up themselves on hie.

8 Ye people blese our God, aloud
the voyce speak of his praise.
9 Our soul in life who safe preserves
our foot from sliding stays.
10 For thou didst prove and try us
as men do silver try; [Lord, 11 Broughtst us into y' pit, and mad'st
bands on our loins to ly.
12 Thou hast caus'd men ride o're our

Through fire and water, yet thou

14 When my lips uttered, my mouth
when trouble on me lay. [spake 15 Burnt sacrifices of fat rams with incense I will bring;
Of bullocks and of goats I will present an offering.
16 All y' fear God come hear, I'll tell what he did for my soul.
17 I with my mouth un'o him cry'd
my tongue did him extoll.
18 If in my heart I sin regard,
the Lord me will not hear:
19 But surely God me heard, and to my prayers voice gave ear.
20 O let the Lord, our gracious God,
for ever blese'd be.
Who turned not my pray'r from him,
nor yet his grace from me.

PSALM LXVII.

Lord, blese and pity us,
shine on us with thy face;
2 That th' earth thy way, & nations all may know thy saving grace.
3 Let people praise thee, Lord,
let people all thee praise.
4 O let the nations be glad,
in songs their voices raise;
Thou'lt justly people judge,
on earth rule nations all.
5 Let people praise thee, Lord, let them praise thee both great and small.
6 The earth her fruit shall yeeld,
our God shall blessing send.
7 God shall us blese, men shall him unto earths utmost end. [fear

Another of the same.

Lord, unto us be mercifull,
do thou us also blese:
And graciously cause shine on us
the brightness of his face.
2 That so thy way upon the earth
to all men may be known,

Also

Also among the nations all thy saving health be shewn.
3 O let the people praise thee, Lord,
let people all thee praise.
4 O let the nations be glad,
and sing for joy always;
forrightly thou shalt people judge,
and nations rule on earth.
5 Let people praise thee, Lord let all the folk praise thee with mirth.
6 Then shall y' earth yeeld her increase,
God, our God blese us shall.
7 God shall us blese, and of the earth
the ends shall fear him all.

PSALM LXVIII.

Let God arise, and scattered
let all his enemies be:
And let all those that do him hate
before his presence see.
2 As smoke is driven, so drive thou as fire melts wax away, [them Before Gods face let wicked men
so perish and decay.
3 But let the righteous be glalet them before Gods sig h
Be very joyfull, yea let them
rejoyce with all their might.
4 To God sing to his Name sing praise,
extoll him with your voice,
That ride on heav'n by his Name JAH,
before his face rejoyce.
5 Because the Lord a Father is unto the fatherlesse:
God is the widows judge, within his place of holinesse.
6 God doth the solitary set in families; and from bands
The chain'd doth free, but rebels do inhabit parched lands.
7 O God, what time thou didst go before thy peoples face; [forth
And when through the great wilder-thy glorious marching was, [nesse, 8 Then at Gods presence strook the then drops from heaven fell. [earth,
This Sinai shook before the Lord,
the God of Israel.
9 O God, thou to thine heritage
didst send a plentiful rain; Whereby thou when it weary was,
didst it refresh again.
10 Thy congregation then did make their habitation there:
Of thine own goodness for the poor,
O God, thou didst prepare.
11 The Lord himself did give y' world,
the word abroad did spread;
Great was the company of them
the same who published

12 Kings of great armies foiled were,
and forc'd to flee away,
And women, who remain'd at home
did distribute the prey. [spots, 13 Though ye have lyeen among the like doves ye shall appear;
Whose wings with silver, & with gold,
whose feathers covered are. [Kings, 14 When there th' Almighty scatt' red like Salmons snow, it was White.
15 Gods hill is like to Bashan hill,
like Bashan hill for height.
16 Who do ye leap ye mountains high?
this is the hill where God Desires to dwell, yea God in it for ay will make abode.
17 Gods chariots twenty thousand are,
thousands of Angels strong;
In 's holy place God is as in mount Sinai, them among.

18 Thou hast, O Lord, most glorious ascended up on hie.
And in triumph victorious led captive captivite:
Thou hast received gifts for men,
for such as did rebel, Yea, ev'n for them: that God the Lord
in midst of them might dwell.

19 Blest be the Lord, who is to us of our salvation God, Who daily with his benefits
us plentifully doth load.
20 He, of salvation is the God,
who is our God most strong:
And, unto God the Lord from death
the issues do belong.

21 But surely God shall wound y' head
of those that are his foes:
The hairy scalp of him that fill
on in his trespass goes.

22 God said, my people I will bring again from Bashan hill;
Yea, from the seas devouring deeps,
them bring again I will.

23 That in the blood of enemies thy foot imbrued may be;
And, of thy foes dipt in the same,
the tongues thou mayest see.

24 Thy going, ay have seen, O God, thy steps of Majesty
Of my God, and my mighty King,
within the sanctuary.

25 Before went singers, players next
on instruments took way;
And them among the damsels were
that did on umbrels play.

26 Within the congregations
blese God with one accord:
From

From Isra'ls fountain do ye blesse
and praise the mighty Lord 27 With their Prince little Benjamin, Princes and conceal there
Of Iudan were, there Zibulons & Nephthales Princes were.
28 In y^e God commands thy strengths [make strong what thou wrought'st for us, Lord, 29 For thy house at Ierusalem
Kings shall thee gifts afford.
30 The spear mens host, the multitude of bulis which fiercely look.
Those calves which people have forth
O Lord our God rebuke, [sent,
Till every one submit himself,
and silver pieces bring :
The people that delight in war, d' perse, O God, and King.
31 Those that be Princes great shall come out, of Egyptland, [then And Ethiopia to God
shall soon stretch out her hands.
32 O all ye King, sons of the earth,
sing praises to this King ;
For he is Lord that ruleth all,
unto him praises sing.
33 To him that rides on heav'ns of [heav'ns, which he of old did found ;
Lo, he sends out his voice, a voice
in might that doth abound.
34 Strength unto God do ye ascribe :
for his excellencie
Is over Israel his strength is in the clouds most hid.
35 Thou'rt from thy Temple dread-
Isra'ls own God, is he [full, Lord ;
Who gives his people strength &
O let God blessed be. [pow'rs

S AVE me O God, because the flood,
do so environ me,
That ev'n into my very soul
come in the waters be.
2 I downward in deep m^e red do sink,
where standing there is none :
I am into deep waters come,
where floods have o're me gone.
3 I weary with my crying am,
my throat is also dry'd :
Mine eyes do fail, while for my God
I waiting do abide.
4 Those men that so without a cause
bear hatred unto me :
Then are the hairs upon my head,
in number moe they be,
They that would me destroy, and are mine enemies wrongfully

5 Lord, thou me fully know'st, my not covered are from thee [ans 6 Let none y^e wait on thee he sham'd,
Lord, God of Hosts for mee,
O Lor', the God of Israel,
let none, who search do make
And seek thee be at any time confounded for my sake.
7 For I have born reproach for thee,
my face is hid with shame.
8 To brethren strange, to mothers
an alien I became, [sons 9 Because the zeal did eat me up which to thy House I bare :
And the reproaches cast at thee,
upon me fallen are.
10 My tears and sists cast, & my soul
were turned to my shame 11 When sackcloth I did wear, to them a proverb I became 12 The men, that in the gate do sit against me evil spake :
They also, that vile drunkards were,
of me their song did make.
13 But in an acceptable time
my pray'r, Lord, is to thee :
In truth of thy salvation, Lord,
and mercy great, hear me.
14 Deliver me out of the mire,
from sinking do me keep :
Free me from those that do me hate,
and from the waters deep.
15 Let not the flood on me prevail,
whose waters overflow :
Not deep me swallow, nor the pit
her mouth upon me close.
16 Hear me, O Lord, because thy love and kindnesse is most good :
Turn unto me, according to thy mercy multitude.
17 Not from thy servant hide thy face,
I'm troubled, soon attend
18 Draw near my soul, and it redeem me from my foes derend.
19 To thee is my reproach wel
my shame, & my disgrace, [knows,
Those that mine adversaries be,
are all before thy face.
20 Reproach hath broke my heart, I'm of grief, I look'd for one [full
To pity me, but now I found :
comforters hinder I none.
21 They also bitter gall did give unto me for my meat :
They gave me vinegar to drink,
when as my thirst was great.
22 Before them let thy table prove a snare : and do thou make

Their

Their welfare and prosperitie
a trap themselves to take.

23 Let thou their eyes so darkned be,
that sight may them forsake :
And let their loins be made by thee continually to shake.
24 Thy fore wrath pour thou out on
and indignation : [them,
And let thy wrathfull anger, Lord,
fast hold take them upon.
25 All waste and desolate let be their habitacion,
And in their tabernacles all inhabitants be one.
26 Because him they do persecute,
whom thou didst smite before :
They talk unto the grief of those whom thou hast wounded fore.
27 Adde thou iniquity unto their former wickednesse :
And do not let them come at all into thy righteousness.
28 Out of the book of life let them be raz'd, and blotted quite,
Among the just an d righteous
let not their names be writ.
29 But now, become exceeding poor,
and sorrow full am I :
By thy salvation, O my God,
let me be set on high.
30 The Name of God, I with a song,
most cheerfully will praise :
And I, in giving thanks to him,
his Name shall highly raise.
31 This to the Lord a sacrifice more gracious shall prove,
Then bullock, ox or any beast
that hath both horn and hoof.
32 When this all humble men shall it joy to them shall give : [see,
O all ye, that do seek the Lord,
your heart shall ever live.
33 For God y^e poor heares, & will not his prifonners contemn.
34 Let heav'n, and earth, and seas him
and all that move in them [praise, 35 For God will Judahs cities build,
and Ile will Sion save :
That they may dwell therein, and it
in sure possession have.
36 And they that are his servants seed,
inherit shall the same :
So shall they have their dwelling there that love his blessed Name.

PSALM LXXII.

Or, can there in the Highest be knowledge of things below?
- 12 Behold, these are the wicked ones,

in worldly things they do increase in wealth and riches still.
- 13 I verily have done in vain

To no effect in innocence washed my hands have I.
- 14 For dayly, and all day throughout

to raise brought are they;
With fearfull terrors utterly
they are consum'd away.
- 20 Ev'n like unto a dream, when one
from sleeping doth arise;
So thou, O Lord, when thou awak'st,
their image shall despise.
- 21 Thus grieved was my heart in me,
and me my reins opprest.
- 22 So rude was I, and ignorant,
and in thy sight a beast.
- 23 Nevertheless continually,
O Lord, I am with thee:
Thou didst me hold by my right hand,
and still upholdest me.
- 24 Thou with thy counsell while I live
wilt me conduct and guide,
And to thy glory afterward receive me, to abide.
- 25 Whom have I in the heavens high
but thee, O Lord, alone?
And in the earth, whom I desire beside thee, there is none.
- 26 My flesh & heart doth faint & fail,
but God doth fail men ever:
For of my heart God is the strength,
and portion for ever.
- 27 For lo, those that are far from thee,
they quickly perish shall:
Them that a whoring from thee go,
thou hast destroyed all.
- 28 But surely it is good for me,
that I draw near to God:
In God I trust, that all thy works
I may declare abroad.

is it for evermore?
Against thy pasture sheep, who doth thine anger smoke lo fore?
- 2 O call to thy remembrance
thy congregation
Which thou hast purchas'd of old:
still think the same upon.

D. 2.

Tho

The rod of thine inheritance,
 which thou redeemest hath,
 This Zion hill, wherein thou hast thy dwelling in times past.
 3 To these long desolations
 thy feet lift, do not tarry:
 For all the ill thy foes have done
 within thy Sanctuary.
 4 Amidst thy congregations
 thine enemies do roar:
 Their enings they set up, for fight
 of triumph, thee before.
 5 A man was famous, and was had in estimation
 According as he lifted up
 like axe thick trees upon.
 6 But all that once with axes now and hammers, they go to,
 And down the carved work thereof
 they break, and quite undo.
 7 They fired have thy Sanctuary,
 and have desil'd the fame,
 By casting down unto the ground,
 the place where dwell thy Name.
 8 Thus said they in their heart, Let us destroy them out of hand:
 They burnt up all the Synagogues
 of God, within the land.
 9 Our signes we do not now behold:
 there is not us among A prophet more, nor any one that know the times how long.
 10 How long, Lord, shall the enemy
 thus, in reproach exclaim;
 And shall the adversary thus alwayes blaspheme thy Name?
 11 Thy hand, ev'n thy right hand of [might how dost thou thus draw back?
 O From thy bosome pluck it out for our deliverance sake.
 12 For certainly God is my King,
 ev'n from the times of old,
 Working in midst of all the earth
 salvation manifold.
 13 The sea by thy great pow'r to part
 sunder, thou didst make:
 And thou the dragons heads, O Lord,
 within the waters brake.
 14 The Leviathans head thou brake in piece, and didst give him to be meat unto the folk in wilderness that live.
 15 Thou clove'st fountains & founts,
 which did with streams abound:
 Thou dry'st the mighty waters up unto the very ground.
 16 Thus onely is the day, O Lord,

thine also is the might;
 And thou alone prepared hast
 the sun and shining light.
 17 By thee the borders of the earth
 where set led every where:
 The summer and the winter both by thee created were.
 18 That th'enemy reproached hath,
 O keep it in record:
 And that the foolish people have blasphem'd thy Name, O Lord.
 19 Unto the multitude do not thy turtles soul deliver:
 The congregation of thy poor
 do not forget for ever.
 20 Unto thy covenant have respect:
 for earths dark places be Full of the habitations of horrible crueltie.
 21 O let not these that be oppress return again with shame:
 Let those that poore and needy are give praise unto thy Name.
 22 Do thou, O God, arise and plead
 the cause that is thine own:
 Remember how thou art reproacht
 still by the foolish one.
 23 Do not forget the voice of those that are thine enemies:
 Of those the tumults ever grows
 that do against thee rise.

To thee, O God, do we give thanks
 we do give thanks to thee:
 Because thy wondrous works declare thy great Name near to be.
 2 I purpose, when I shall receive the congregation
 That I shall judgement uprightly render to every one 3 Dissolved is the land with all that in the same do dwell;
 But I the pillars thereof do bear up and stablish well.
 4 I, to the foolish people said,
 Do not deal foolishly;
 And unto those that wicked are,
 list not your horn on hie.
 5 Lift not your horn on hie nor speak,
 6 With stubborn neck, but know That not from East, nor West, nor promotion doth flow. [South

 1 IN Judah's land God is well known,
 In his Name's in Israel great:

 My trouble is so great, that I and oft did think upon

 The times and ages, that are past full many years agoe.
 6 By night my song I call to minde,
 and commune with my heart,
 My spirit did carefully inquire
 how I might ease my smart.
 7 For ever will the Lord cast out and gracious be no more?
 8 For ever in his mercy gone?
 falls his word evermore?
 9 Is't true that to be gracious
 the Lord forgotten hath?
 And that his tender Mercies He hath shut up in his wrath?

 is mine infirmitie.
 I'll minde the years of the right hand
 of Him that is most hie.

 great pleasure I will take.

 within thy Sanctuary:

 asis our God most hie?

 by thy right hand most strong:
 Thy mighty pow'r thou hast declar'd,

A Tend my people, to my Law,
there to give thou an ear:
The words that from my mouth pro-
attentively do hear. [ceed, 2 My mouth shall speake a parable,
and sayings dark of old:
3 The same which we have heard, & and us our fathers told. [known 4 We also will them not conceal from their posteritie:
Them to the generation
to come declare will we:
The praises of the Lord our God,
and His Almighty strength,
The wondrous works y^e He hath done
we will shew forth at length.
5 His testimony and His law
in Israel he did place,
And charg'd our fathers it to show
so their succeeding race.
6 That fo^y gace which was to come,
might well them learn & know,
And sons unborn, who should arise,

7 That they might set their hope in and faster not to fall. [God,
His mighty works out of their minde,

whose sp^{ir}it not stedfast was

which He to them did show,

their fathers them beheld, [passe,
Within the land of Egypt done,
yea ev'n in Ezans field.
13 By him divided was the sea,
He caus'd them through to passe;
And he the water made to stand,
that like a heap it was.
14 With cloud by day with light of fire
at night he did them guide 15 In desert reels He laye, and drank
as from great depths supply'd.
16 He from the rock brought streams like founte

made waters to run down, 17 Yet sinnih more, in desert they provok'd the Highest One.
18 For in their heart they tempted and speaking with mistrust [God,
They greedily did meat require to fatisse their lust.
19 Against y^e Lord himself they spake,
and murmuring said thus,
A table in the wilderness
can God prepare for us?
20 Behold, He smote y^e rock & thence came streams and waters great,
But can He give His people bread?
and send the flesh to eat?
21 The Lord did hear & waxed wrath
so kinuled was a flame Gainst Iacob, and gainst Israel
up in indignation came.
22 For they believ'd not God, nor trust,

23 Though fouds above He did com-
and heav'ns doors open made 24 And Manna rain'd on them & gave them corn of heav'n to eat.
25 Men Angels food did eat, to them
He to the full sent meat.
26 And in the heaven He did cause
the Easterne winde to blow;
And by his power He let out
the Southern winde to go.
27 Then flesh as thick, as dust He made to rain down, them among;
And feathered fowl, like as the sand
which lyeth y^e shore along. [camp

All round about the tabernacles and tents where they did dwell.
29 So did they eat abundantly,
and had of meat their fill:
For He did give to them wat was their own desire and will.
30 They from their lust had not their heart & their desire, [strang d
But while y^e meat was in their mouth,

Even the High Almighty God had their Redeemer been.
36 Yet with their mouth they flatter'd and spake but fainedly. [Him,
And they unto the God of truth
with their false tengues did ly.
37 For, though their words were [good their heart
with Him was not sincere:
Unstedfast and perfidious
they in his covenant were.
38 But full of pyre He forgave
their sin, them did not slay:
Nor stir'd up all His wrath, but oft his anger turn'd away.
39 For that they were but fading flesh
to minde His did recall.
A wise that passeth soon away,
and not returns at all.
40 How often did they Him provoke,
within the wilderness?
And in the desert did Him grieve
with their rebelliousness?
41 Yea, turning back they tempted and limts set upon, [God,
Him who in midst of Israel is the onely Holy One.
42 They did not call to minde His nor yet the day when He: [pow'r, Delivered them out of the hand
of their fierce enemy.
43 Nor how great signes in Egypt land
He openly had wrought.
What miracles in Ezans field
His hand to passe had brought.
44 How lakes and rivers every where He turned into blood:
So that no man, nor beast could drink
of standing lake or foud.
45 He brought among them swarms
[of flies,
which did them fore annoy,
And divers kindes of fishy frogs,
He sent them to destroy.

the fruits of all their fouds:

from death He did not save;
But over to the pestilence
the lives of them He gave.
51 In Egypt-land the first-born all
He smote down every where:
Amongst the tents of Ham, ev'n these chief of their strength that were.
52 But His own people like to sheep thence to go forth He made;
And he amidst the wilderness
them, as a flock dip lead.
53 And he them safely on did lead,
so that they did not fear:
Whereas their enemies by the sea
quite overwhelmed were.
54 To borders of his Sanctuary
the Lord his people led,
Ev'n to y^e mount, which His right hand
for them had purchased.
55 The nations of Canaan
by his Almighty hand
Before their face He did expell
out of their native land.
Which for inheritance to them
by line He did divide,
And made the tribes of Israel
within their tents abide.
56 Yet God most high they did proand tempted ever still, [voke
And to observe His testimonies did not incline their will.
57 But like their fathers turned back,
and dealt unfaithfully:
Aside they turned, like a bow
that shoo's deceitfully.
58 For they to anger did provoke
Him with their places hie:
And with their graven images
moov'd Him to jealousy [wroth, 59 When God heard this He waxed and much loath'd Israel then.
60 So Shilos tent He left, the tent
which He had plac'd with men:
61 And He his strength delivered into captivity.
He left his glory in the hand
of his proud enemy.
62 His people also he gave over unto the swordes fierce rage:
So sore his wrath inflamed was against his heritage [young men, 63 The fire consum'd their choice their maids no marriage had.

And like a Gyant that by wine refreft, a shout doth make.

He made his froke to fall;
And fo upon them he did put a shame perpetual.
- 67 Moreover He the tabernacle
of Joseph did refuse,
The mighty tribe of Ephraim
He would in no wife chufe.
- 68 But he did chufe Jehudahs tribe
to be the rest above,
And of mount Sion he made choice
which He fo much did love.
- 69 And His His Sanctuary built,
like to a palace high.
Like to the earth which He did found

He also choice did make;
And even from the folds of sheep
was pleased him to take.
- 71 From waiting on the ewes with

He brought them forth to feed
Israel, His inheritance,
His people Jacobs seed.

of His heart He them fed?
And by the good skill of His hands
them wisely governed.

PSALM LXXIX.

- God, the heathen entred have thine heritage, by them Defiled is Thy house, on heaps they laid Jerusalem.
- 2 The bodies of thy Servants they have cast forth to be meat
To ravenous souls, thy dear saints flesh,
they give to beasts, to eat.
- 3 Their blood about Jerusalem
like water have they shed:
And there was none to bury them
when they were slain and dead.
- 4 Unto our neighbours a reproach
most base become are we:
A scorn and laughing-stock to them
that round about us be.
- 5 How long, Lord shall thine anger last,
wilt thou still keep the same?
And shall thy fervent jealousie
burnt like unto a flame?
- 6 On heathens pour thy fury forth,
that have thee never knowne.

And on those kingdoms wth thy Name have never call'd upon.

7 For these are they which Jacob have devoured cruelly.

And they his habitation
have caused waste to ly.

8 Against us minde not former sins,
thy tender mercies show,
Let them prevent us speedily,
for we're brought very low.

who hast our Saviour been;

PSALM LXXX.

HEAR Israels shepherd, like a Rock
thou that dost Joseph guide; Shine forth, O thou that dost between the Cherubims abide.

2 In Ephraims and Benjamins,
and in Manasses sight,
O come for our salvation,
stir up thy strength and might.

3 Turn up again, O Lord, our God,
and upon us vouchsafe,
To make thy countenance to shine,
and so we shall be safe.

4 O Lord of hosts, Almighty God,
how long shall kindled be Thy wrath against the prayers made of thine own folk to thee?

5 Thou tears of sorrow giv'st to them,
instead of bread to eat;
Yea tears instead of drink thou giv'st
to them in measure great.

6 Thou makest us a strife unto our neighbours round about:
Our enemies amongst themselves
at us do laugh and flout.

7 Turn us again, O God of hosts,
and upon us vouchsafe
To make thy countenance to shine,
and so we shall be safe.

- 8 A vine from Egypt brought thou
by thine outstretched hand: [hast,
And thou the heathen out did cast,
to plant it in their land.
- 9 Before it thou a room didst make,
where it might grow and stand:
Thou causedst it deep root to take,
and it to fill the land.
- 10 The mountains vall'd were with its
as with a covering: [shade,
Like goodly Cedars were the boughs,
which out from it did spring.

her boughs she did out send:

and ranc her hedge away?
So that all passengers do pluck,
and make of her a prey.
- 13 The Bore who from y^e forest comes doth waste it at his pleasure:
The wilde beast of the field also devours it out of measure.
- 14 O God of host we thee beseech return now unto thine;
Look down from heav'n in love, be-
and visit this thy vine: [hold hath planted us among: [right hand

And that same branch which for thy thou hast made to be strong. [self
- 16 Burnt up it is with flaming fire,
it also is cut down:
They utterly are perished
when as thy face doth frown.
- 17 O let thy hand be still upon
the man of thy right hand,
The son of man, whom for thy self thou madest strong to stand.
- 18 So henceforth we will not go back,
nor turn from thee at all:
O do thou quicken us and we upon thy Name will call.
- 19 Turn is again, Lord God of hosts,
and upon us vouchsafe
To make thy countenance to shine,
and so we shall be safe.

PSALM LXXXI.

7 Thou didst in trouble on me call,
and I delivered thee:
In secret place of thundering
I did, thoe answer make;

8 O thou my people, give an ear,
I'lle refuse to thee:
To thee, O Israel, if thou wilt but hearken unto me.

9 In midst of thee there shall not be any strange god at all;
Nor unto any god unknown,
thou bowing down shalt fall.

10 I am the Lord thy God, which did from Egypt-land thee guide:
I'lle fill thy mouth abundantly,
dothou it open wide.

11 But yet my people to my voice would not attentive be;
And ev'n my chosen Israel
he would have none of Me.

12 So to the lusts of their own hearts
I them delivered:
And then in counsels of their own
they vainly wndered:

Isra'ls my waies had chose:

my hand turn'd on their foes.

15 The haters of the Lord, to Him

But as for them their time should

PSALM LXXXIII.

Keepe not, O God, wee the intreat, O keep not silence now, Do thou not hold thy peace, O God, and still no more be thou.

2 For lo, thine enemies a noise tumultuously have made; And they that haters are of thee, have lifted up the head.

3 Against thy chosen people they do crafty counsel take: And they against thy hidden ones do consultations make.

4 Come let us cut them off, said they, from being a nation; That of the name of Israel may no more be mention.

PSALM LXXXIV.

How lovely is thy dwelling-place O Lord of hosts to me: The Tabernacles of thy grace how pleasant, Lord they be:

2 My thirsty soul longs vehemently, yea, faints thy Courts to see; My very heart and flesh cry out, O living God, for thee,

3 Behold, the sparrow findeth out an house wherein to rest; The swallow also for her self hath purchased a nest;

O Lord, thou hast been favourable to thy beloved Land: Jacobs captivity thou hast recall'd with mighty hand.

2 Thou pardoned thy people hast all their iniquities, Thou all their trespasses and sins hast covered from thine eyes.

3 Thou tookst of all thine ire, and from thy wrath furiousnesse.

8 I'l hear what God, the Lord, will to His folke He'l speak peace, And to his saints: but let them not return to foolishnesse.

O Lord, do thou bowe down thine and hear me graciously: [ear, Because I fore afflicted am, and am in poverty.

2 Because I'm hoily, let my soul by thee preserved be: O thou my God, thy servant save that puts his trust in thee,

11 Teach me thy way, & in thy truth, O Lord, then walk will I: Unite my heart, that I thy Name may fear continually.

12 O Lord my God, with all my heart to thee I will give praise: And I the glory will ascribe unto thy Name alwaies.

13 Because thy mercy towards me in mercy doth excell: And thou delivered had my soul out from the lowest hell.

14 O God, the proud against me rise, and violent men have met, That for my soul have fought: & thee before them have not set.

15 For thou art full of pity, Lord, to God most gracious Long-suffering, and in thy truth and mercy pteous

16 O turn to me thy countenance, God mercy on me have: Thy servant strengthen and the son of thine own hand-maid save.

17 Shew me a sign for good, that they which do me hate may see, And be asham'd: because thou, Lord, didst help and comfort me.

PSALM LXXXVII.

Upon the hills of holinesse He His foudnation sets 2 God more then Jacobs dwellings delights in Zions gates [all,

3 Things glorious are said of thee, Thou City of the Lord. 4 Rahab and Babel I, to those that know me, will record:

Behold, ev'n Tyrus, and with it The Land of Palestine, And likewise Ethiopia: this man was born therein.

5 And it of Zion shall be said, This man, and that man there. Was born: and He that is most high himself shall stablish her. [count

6 When God the people writes; He'l that this man born was there. 7 There be that sing and play: and all my well-springs in thee are.

PSALM LXXXVIII.

Lord God, my Saviour day & night before thee cry'd have I. 2 Before thee let my prayer come, give ear unto my cry.

3 For troubles great do fill my soul: my life draws nigh the grave. 4 I'm counted with those y go down to pit, and no strength have.

5 Ev'n free among the dead, like them that slain in grave do ly, Cut off from thy hand, whom no more thou hast in memory.

6 Thou hast me laid in lowest pit,
in ceeps, and darksome caves.
7 Thy wrath lyes hard on me, thou me prest with all thy waves. [hast 8 Thou hast put far from me my [friends

thou mad'st them abhor me:
And I am fo shut up, that I
finde no evasion free, 9 By reason of affliction
mine eye mourns dolefully:
To thee, Lord, do I call and stretch
my hands continually.

10 Wilt thou shew wonders to thy dead shall they rise and the blesse?
11 Shall in thy grave thy love be told?
in death thy faithfulness?
12 Shall thy great wonders in thy dark or shall thy righteousness
Be known to any in the land
of deep forgetfulness? [pray'r,

13 But, Lord, to thee I cry'd my at morn prevent shall thee.
14 Thy, Lord, dost thou cast off my [soul?

and hid'st thy face from me?
15 Distress am I, and from my youth
I ready am to dy;
Thy terrors I have born, and am distracted fearfully.

16 The dreadful fierceness of thy quite over me doth go: [wrath Thy terrors great have cut me off,
they did pursue me so.

17 For round about me every day
like water they did roul:
And, gathering together, they have compassed my soul.
18 My friend thou hast put far from
and him that did me love: [me,
And those thy mine acquaintance were to darkness didst remove.

P S A L M LXXXIX.
G Ods mercies I will ever sing,
and with my mouth I shall Thy faithfulness make to be known to generations all.

2 For mercy shall be built, said I,
for ever to endure;
Thy faithfulness ev'n in the heav'n
thou wilt establish sure.

3 I with whom chosen one have made a covenant graciously?
And to my servants whom I lov'd,
to David sworn have I:

4 That I thy seed establish shall
for ever to remain:
And will to generations all thy Throne build and maintain,

5 The praises, of thy wonders, Lord,
the heavens shall expresse:
And in the congregation
of saints, thy faithfulness,

9 For who in heaven with the Lord
may once himself compare?
Who is like God among the sons
of those that mighty are?
7 Great fear in meetings of the saints
is due unto the Lord;
And He, of all about Him, should with reverence be ador'd.

8 O that that art the Lord of hosts,
what Lord in mightiness
Is like to thee? who compass round
art with thy faithfulness.

9 Ev'n in the raging of the sea
thou over it dost reign:
And when thy waves thereof do swell,
thou stillest them again.

10 Rahab in pieces thou didst break,
like one that slaughtered is:
And with thy mighty arm thou hast
dispers'd thine enemies. [thine own 11 The heav'n's are thine, thou for the earth dost also take:
The world and fulness of the same,
thy pow'r did found and make.

12 The North and South from thee their first beginning had: [alone
Both Tabor mount, and Hermon hill shall in thy Name be glad.
13 I thou hast an arm that's full of thy Hand is great in might: [pow'r,
And thy right hand exceedingly exalted is in height.

14 Justice & judgement of thy Throne
are made the dwelling-place:
Mercy, accompani'd with truth,
shall go before thy face.

15 O greatly blest the people are,
the joyfull sound that know:
In brightness of thy face, O Lord,
they ever on shall go,
16 They in thy Name shall all the day
rejoyce exceedingly.
And in thy righteousness shall they exalted be on hy.

17 Because the glory of their strength
doth only stand in thee,
And in thy favour shall our horn
and power exalted be.

18 For God is our defence, and He
to us doth safety bring:
The Holy One of Israel
is our Almighty King.

19 In vision to thy holy one thou saidst, I help upon
A strong one laid; out of the folk
I rais'd a chosen one.

10 Ev'n David, I have found him out a servant unto Me:
And with my holy oyl My King
anointed him to be. [be, 11 With whom my hand shall flourish
mine arm shall make him strong.

12 On him the foe shall not exalt,
nor son of mischief wrong.
13 I will beat down before his face
all his malicious foes:
I will them greatly plague, who do with hatred him oppose.

14 My mercy, and my faithfulness with him yet still shall be:
And in my Name his horn and pow'r,
men shall exalted see.

15 His hand & pow'r shall reach afar,
I'll set in the sea:
And his right hand established
shall in the r'vers be.
16 Thou art my father, he shall cry,
thou art my God alone:
And he shall say, Thou art the rock
of my salvation.

17 I'll make him My first-born more then Kings of any land: [high 18 My love I'll ever keep for him,
My cov'nant fast shall stand.
19 His seed by My power will make
for ever to endure:

And as thy days of heav'n, his Throne
shall stable be and sure.
20 But if his children shall forsake,
My Lawes, and go astray,
And in my judgement shall not walk,
but wander from My way.

21 If they my Lawes break, & do not keep my Commandments.
22 I'll visit then their faults with rods,
their sins with chastisements.
23 Yet I'll not take My love from nor promise I did make: [him, 24 My cov'nant I'll not break, nor [change

what with my mouth I spake.
25 Once by my holiness I swear:
to David I'll not ly.
26 His seed and throne shall as the son
before Me last for ay.

27 It like the moon shall ever be establish'd stedfastly,
And like to that which is in the heav'n

doth witness faithfully.
38 But thou displeas'd, hast cast off,
thou didst abhor and loath:
With him that thine anointed is thou hast been very wroth.

39 Thou hast thy servants covenant made void and quiet cast by,
Thou hast profan'd his crown, while it cast on the ground doth ly. [down 40 Thou all his hedges hast broke his strong holds down hast torn.

41 He to all passers by a spoil,
to neighbours is a scorn.
42 I thou hast set up his foes right
mad'st all his enemies glad. [hand, 43 Turnst his sworde edge & him to in battell hast not made. [stand

44 His glory thou hast made to cease,
his throne to ground down cast:
45 Shortned his dayes of youth & him
with shame thou covered hast.
46 How long, Lord, wilt thou hide for ever in thine ire? [thy self And shall thine indignation burn like unto a fire?

47 Remember, Lord, how short a time
I shall on earth remain:
O wherefore is it so, that thou hast made all men in vain?
48 What man is ne that liveth here,
and death shall never see?
Or from the power of the grave
what man his soul shall free?

49 Thy former loving kindnesses,
O Lord, where be they now?
Those which in truth & faithfulness
to David sworn hast thou.

50 Minde, Lord, thy servants sad re-how I in bosome bear, [proach
The scorning of the people all who strong and mighty are.

51 Wherewith the raging enemies
reproach'd, O Lord think on.
Wherewith they have reproach'd the of thine anointed one. [steps 52 All blessing to the Lord, our God, let be ascribed then:
For ever more so let it be,
Amen, yea, and Amen.

P S A L M XC.
L Ord, thou hast been our dwelling-
in generations all [place
2 Because thou ever hast brought [forth

the mountains greater or small.
Ere ever thou hadst form'd the earth,
and all the world abroad.
Ev'n thou, from everlasting art to everlasting God.

3 Thou dost unto destruction
man that is mortal turn:
And unto them thou say'st again
ye sons of men return.

4 Because a thousand years appear no more before thy sight
Then yesterday when it is past, or then a watch by night.

5 As with an overflowing flood thou carriest them away:
They like a sleep are, like the grass that grows at morn are they.

6 At morn it flourishes and grows,
cut down at ev'n doth fade:
7 For by thine anger we consume thy wrath makes us afraid.

8 Our sins thou and iniquities
dost in thy presence place,
And set our secret faults before the brightness of thy face.

9 For in thine anger all our dayes
do passe on to an end;
And, as a tale that hath been told,
so we our years do spend.

10 Threecore & ten years do somme
our dayes and years we see: [up Or if by reason of more strength
in some fourescore they be:
Yet both the strength of such old men
but grief and labour prove:
For it is soon cut off, and we fly hence, and soon remove.

11 Who knows the power of thy according to thy fear: [wrath?
12 So is thy wrath, Lord teach thou us
our end in mind to bear:
And so count our dayes, that we
our hearts may still apply
To learn thy wisdom and thy truth,
that we may live thereby.

13 Turn yet again to us, O Lord,
how long thus shall it be?
Let it repent thee now for those that servants are to thee.

14 O which thy tender mercies, Lord,
us early satisfie:
So we rejoyce shall all our dayes,
and full be glad in thee.

15 According as the dayes have been wherein we grief have had,
And years wherein we ill have seen,
so do thou make us glad.

16 O let thy works and pow'r appear thy servant's face before:
And the vnto the children dear
thy glory evermore.

17 And let the beauty of the Lord
our God be us upon:
Our handie-work establish thou,
establish them each one,

P S A L M XCL.

HE that doth in the secret place
of the most High reside.

Under the shade of Him, that is th' Almighty shall abide.

2 I of the Lord, my God will say,
He is my refuge still

Me is my fortresse, and my God,
and in him trust I will.

3 Assuredly He shall thee save,
and give deliverance
From subtil fowlers snare, and from the noysome pestilence.

4 His feathers shall thee hide thy trust,
under His wings shall be:

His faithfulness shall be a shield
and buckler unto thee.

5 Thou shalt not need to be afraid
for terrours of the night,
Nor for the arrow that doth fly
by day, while it is light:

6 Nor for the pestilence, that walks
in darkness secretly.

Nor of destruction that doth waste
at noon-day, openly,

7 A thousand at thy side shall fall,
at thy right hand shall ly

Ten thousand dead, yet unto thee,
it shall not once come nigh.

8 Only thou with thine eyes shalt look,
and behold be:

And thou therein the just reward
of wicked men shall see.

9 Because the Lord, who constantly my refuge is alone.

Even the most High is made by thee
thy habitation.

10 No plague shall neer thy dwelling no ill shall thee befall: [come,
I will him set on high. [known

11 For thee to keep in all thy waies,
His Angles charge He shall.

12 They in their hands shall bear thee still waiting thee upon: [up

Lest thou at any time should dash thy foot against a stone.

13 Upon the adder thou shalt tread,
and on the Lyon strong:

They feet on Dragons trample shall,
and on the Lions young:

14 Because on me he set his love,
I'll save, and set him free:

Because my great Name he hath
I will him set on high.

15 He'll call on me, I'll answer him,
I will be with him still,

In trouble to deliver him,
and honour him I will.

16 With length of daies unto his minde
I will him satisfie:

I also

I also my salvation
will cause his eyes to see.

P S A L M XCII.

TO render thanks unto the Lord
it is a comely thing,

And to thy Name, O thou most High
due praise aloud to sing.

2 Thy loving kindesse to show forth
when shines the morning light:

And to declare thy faithfulness,
with pleasure every night.

3 On a ten stringed instrument,
upon the Psaltery:

And on the harp, with solemn sound and grave-sweet melody. [word

4 For thou, Lord by thy mighty haste made my heart right glad:

And I will triumph in the works
which by thine hand were made.

5 How great Lord, are thy works?
of thine a deep it is: [each thought

6 A brutish man it knoweth not,
fools understand not this.

7 When those y' lewd & wicked are,
spring quickly up like grass,

And workers of iniquity
do flourish all apace.

It is that thy for ever may destroyed be and slain:

8 But thou, O Lord, art the most High
for ever to remain.

9 For lo, thine enemies, O Lord, thine enemies perish shall:

The workers of iniquity shall be dispersed all.

10 But thou shalt, like unto the horn of th'unicorn, exalt,

My horn on high: thou with fresh oyl anoint me also shalt.

11 Mine eye shall also my desire see on mine enemies:

Mine ears shall of the wicked hear,
that do against me rise.

12 But like the palm-tree, flourishing shall be the righteous one;

He shall like to the Cedar grow
that is in Lebanon.

13 Those that within thy house of God
are planted by his grace,

They shall grow up and flourish all in our Gods Holy place.

14 And in old age, when others fade,
thy fruit still forth shall bring,

They shall be fat, and full of sap
and ay be flourishing.

15 To shew that upright is the Lord,
He is a rock to me:

And He from all unrighteousness is altogether free.

P S A L M XCIII.

THE Lord doth reign, & cloth'd to with majesty most bright: [He His works do shew him cloth'd to be,
and girt about with might.

The word is also stablished,
that it cannot depart.

2 Thy Throne is fixt of old, and thou from everlasting art.

3 The floods, O Lord, have lifted up,
they lifted up their voice:

The floods have lifted up their waves,
and made a mighty noise.

4 But yet the Lord, that is on high,
is more of might by far,

Then noise of many, waters is,
or great Sea-billows are.

5 Thy testimonies, every one,
in faithfulness excell:

And holiness for ever, Lord,
thine House becometh will.

P S A L M XCIV.

○ Lord, God, unto whom alone
all vengeance doth belong.

O mighty God, who vengeance own'st,
shine forth avenging wrong:

2 Lift up thy self, thou of the earth
the Sovereign Judge thou art,

And unto those that are so proud
a due reward impart.

3 How long, O mighty God, shall they who lewd and wicked be,

How long shall they who wicked are thus triumph haughtily?

4 How long shall things most hard by be uttered and told [them

And all that work iniquity to boast themselves be hold?

5 Thy folk they break in pieces, Lord,
thine heritage oppress:

6 The widow they and stranger slay,
and kill the fatherless

7 Yet say they, God it shall not see,
nor God of Jacob know.

8 Ye brutish people understand,
fools, when wife will ye grow?

9 The Lord did plant the ear of man and hear then shall not lie?

He onely form'd the eye, and then shall he not clearly see?

10 He that the nations doth correct,
shall He not chastise you?

He know ledge unto man doth teach,
and shall himself not know?

11 Mens thoughts to be but vanity,
the Lord doth well discern.

1² Blest is y man thou chastest, Lord,
and mak' st thy Law to learn.
13 That thou may' st give him rest of sad adversitie. [from dayes Untill the pit be dig'd for those that work iniquitie.
14 For sure the Lord will not cast off
those that his people be, Neither His own inheritance quit and forsake will He.
15 But judgement unto righteousesse shall yet return again.
And all shall follow after it
that are right-hearted men.
16 Who will rise up for me, against those that do wickedly?
Who will stand up for me, 'gainst
those that work iniquity?
17 Unless y Lord had been my help,
when I was fore oppress'd.
Almost my soul had in the house
of silence been at rest.
18 When I had uttered this word,
My foot doth slip away,
Thy mercy help me up, O Lord,
thy goodness did me stay.
19 Amidst the multitude of thoughts,
which in my heart do fight,
My soul, lest it be overcharg'd,
thy comforts do delight.
20 Shall of iniquity the throne
have fellowship with thee
Which mischief cunningly contriv'd,
doth by a law decree? [joyn, 21 Against the righteous souls they they guiltlesse bloud condemn:
22 But of my refuge God's the rock,
and my defence from them.
23 Of them their own iniquity
the Lord shall bring and lay,
And cut them off in their own sin,
our Lord God shall them slay.

PSALM XCV.

○ Come, let us sing to the Lord,
come, let us every one,
A joyfull noise make to the Rock
of our salvation
2 Let us before His presence come,
with praise and thankfull voyce:
Let us sing Psalms to Him with grace,
and make a joyfull noise.
3 For God, a great God & great King, above all gods He is.
4 Depths of the earth are in His hand
the strength of hills is His.
5 To him the spacious sea belongs.
for He the same did make:
The dry land also from His hands
is from at first did take.

6 O come, and let us worship Him,
let us bowe down withall,
And on our knees before the Lord,
our maker, let us fall.
7 For He's our God, the people we
of his own pasture are,
And of His hand the sheep; to day
if ye His voyce will hear.
8 Then harden not your heart, as in the provocation.
As in the desert off the day
of the tentation
9 When me your fathers tempt'd, and
and did my working see: [prov'd, 10 Ev'n for the space of forty years
this race hath griev'd Me;
I said, This people erres in heart,
My wayes they do not know;
11 To whom I ware in wrath that to My rest they should not go.

PSALM XCVI.

all things on earth that are:
Above all other gods thou art

 and for his sheep he doth us take.

 Approach with joy His courts unto Praise, laud, and bless his Name al-
 for it is seemly so to do. [ways,
 For why? the Lord our God is good,
 His mercy is for ever sure:
 His truth at all times firmly stood,
 And shall from age to age endure.

Another of the same.

○ All ye lands, unto the Lord
 make ye a joyfull noise.
 2 Serve God with gladnesse, him become with a singing voice. [fore, 3 Know ye the Lord, that he is God,
 not we, but He us made,
 We are his people and the sheep
 within his pasture fed.
 4 Enter his gates and courts w praise,
 to thank him go ye thither,
 To him expresse your thankfulness,
 and blesse his Name together,
 5 Because the Lord our God is good,
 His mercy faileth never:
 And to all generations
 his truth endureth ever.

I Mercy will and judgement sing,
 Lord, I will sing to thee
 3 With wisdom to a perfect way shall my behaviour be,
 O when in kindnesse unto me,
 wilt thou be plac'd to come?
 I with a perfect heart will walk within my house, at home.
 3 I will endure no wicked thing
 before mine eyes to be:
 I hate their work that urn aside,
 it shall not cleave to me
 4 A stubborn a froward heart, depart quite from me shall:
 A person giv'n to wickednesse
 I will not know at all 5 He cut him off that standereth
 his neighbour privily:
 The haughty heart I will not hear,
 Nor him that looketh high 6 Upon the faithfull of the land mine eyes shall be, that they May dwell with me: he shall me serve that walks on perfect way.
 7 Who of deceit a worker is,

in my house shall not dwell;
 And in my presence shall he not remain, that lies doth tell.
 8 Yea, all the wicked of the land,
 early destroy will I:
 All from Gods city to cut off,
 that work iniquity.

○ Lord, unto my pray'er give ear,
 my cry let come to thee:
 2 And in the day of my distresse,
 hide not thy face from me:
 Give ear to me, what time I call,
 to answer me make haste,
 3 For as on earth my bones are burnt
 my dayes like smoke do waste, 4 My heart within me smitten is,
 and it is withered,
 Like very grasfe so that I do
 forget to eat my bread, 5 By reason of my groaning voice,
 my bones cleave to my skin:
 6 Like Pelikan in wilderness forsaken I have been:
 I like an owl in desert am,
 that mightly there doth moan:
 7 I watch and like a sparrow man
 on the house-top alone.
 8 My bitter enemies all the day
 reproaches cast on me:
 And being mad at me with rage,
 against me I worn they be, 9 For why, I ashes eaten have,
 like bread, in sorrows deep;
 My drink I also mingled have with tears that I did weep.
 10 Thy wrath and indignation
 did cause this griefe and pain:
 For thou hast lift me up on high,
 and cast me down again.
 11 My daies are like unto a shade,
 which doth declining passe:
 And I am dry'd and withered,
 ev'n like unto the grasfe.
 12 But thou, Lord, everlasting art, and thy remembrance shall Continually endure, and be
 to generations all.
 13 Thou shalt arise, and mercy have upon thy Zion yet:
 The time to favour her is come,
 the time that thou hast set.
 14 For in her rubbish, and her stones thy servants pleasure take,
 Yea, they the very dust thereof
 do favour, for her sake.
 15 So shall the heathen people fear
 the Lords most Holy Name:

And

And all Y Kings on Earth shall dread
 thy glory and thy fame.
 16 When Zion by the mighty Lord,
 built up again shall be,
 In Glory then, and Majesty to men appear shall He.
 17 The prayer of the destitute
 he surely will regard,
 Their prayers will he not despise,
 by him it shall be heard.
 18 For generations yet to come,
 this shall be on record:
 So shall the people, that shall be created. Praise the Lord.
 19 He from his Sanctuaries height
 hath down ward cast his eye,
 And from his glorious Throne in the Lord Y earth did spy: [heav'n, 20 That of the mornfull prisoner
 the groanings he might hear,
 To set them free that unto death
 by men appointed are:
 21 That they in Zion may declare
 the praises of the same:
 And publish in Jerusalem
 the praises of his fame?
 22 When as the people gather shall in troupes with one accord,
 When Kingdoms shall assembled be to serve the highest Lord.
 23 My wonted force and strength he abated in the way. [hath
 And he my dayes hath shortened:
 24 Thus therefore did I say,
 My God, in mid-time of my dayes,
 take thou me not a way:
 From age to age eternally
 thy years endure and stay.
 25 The firm foundation of the earth
 of old time thou hast laid.
 The heavens also are the work which thine own hands have made.
 26 Thou shalt for evermore endure,
 but they shall perish all:
 Yea, every one of them wax old,
 like to a garment, shall:
 Thou as a vesture shall them change,
 and they shall changed be.
 27 But Thou Y same art and thy years
 are to eternitie.
 28 The children of thy servants shall continually endure.
 And in thy sight, O Lord, their seed shall be establish sure.

Another of the same.

Lord, hear my pray'r, and let my
 Have speed access to thee. [cry
 2 In day of my calamity
 hide not thy face from me:

Hear when I call to thee, that day
 An answer speedily return: [away,
 3 My dayes like smoke consume
 And, as an hearth my bones do burn,
 4 Mine heart is wounded very fore,
 And withered like to grasfe doth [fade:
 I am forgetfull grown therefore
 To take and eat my daily bread.
 5 By reason of my smart within,
 And voice of my most grievous [groans
 My flesh consumed is, my skin
 All parched doth cleave to my 6 The Pelican of wilderness, [bones,
 The Owl in deserts I do match.
 7 And Sparrow like companion lesse,
 Upon the houses top I match.
 8 I all day long am made a scorn,
 Reproach'd by my malicious foes:
 The mad men are against me [sworn,
 The men against me that arose,
 9 For I have ashes eaten up,
 To me as if they had been bread:
 And with me drunk I in my cup
 Of bitter tears a mixture made.
 10 Because thy wrath was not ap-
 And dreadfull indignation, [peas'd,
 Therefore it was that thou me [rais'd
 And thou again didst cast me down.
 11 My dayes, are like a shade away
 Which doth declining swiftly passe:
 And I am withered away
 Much like unto the fading grasfe.
 12 But thou, O Lord, shalt still endure
 From change and all mutation free,
 And, in all generations, sure shall thy remembrance ever be.
 13 Thou shalt arise and mercy yet
 thou to mount Zion shalt extend:
 Her time for favour which was set,
 Behold, is now come to an end.
 14 Thy saints take pleasure in her
 Her very dust to them is dear, [stones,
 15 All heathen sands and Kingly [thrones
 On earth thy glorious Name shall [fear
 16 God in his glory shall appear,
 When Zion he builds and repairs.
 17 He shall regard and lend his ear
 Unto the needies humble pray'rs.
 Th'assidues pray'r he will not scorn
 18 All times this shall be in record,
 And generations yet unborn
 Shall praise and magnifie the Lord,
 19 He from his holy place look'd [down
 The

The earth he view'd from heav'n on [his :
20 To hear the prisoners mourning
[groan,
And free them y^e are dam'd to die.
21 That Zion and Jerusalem too
His Name and praise may well re[cord.
22 When people & the Kingdoms doe
Assemble all to praise the Lord,
23 My strength he weakened in y^e way,
My dayes of life be shortened.
24 My God, O take me not away
in mid-time of my dayes, I said :
Thy years throughout all ages last.
25 Of old thou hast established
The earths foundation firm & fast :
Thy mighty hands the heav'ns have [made.
26 They perish shall as garments do,
But thou shalt evermore endure :
As vestures thou shalt change them so,
And thy shall all be changed sure.
27 But from all changes thou art free,
Thy endless years do last for ay.
28 Thy servants & their feed who he,
Establish'd shall before thee stay.

PSALM CIII.

O Thou my soul blesse God, y^e Lord and all that in me is
Be stirred up his holy Name,
to magnifie and blesse.
2 Blesse, O my soul, y^e Lord, thy God,
and not forgetfull be
Of all his gracious benefits
he hats bestow'd on thee.
3 All thine iniquities who doth me ft graciously forgive,
Who thy diseases all and pains
doth heal, and thee relieve.
4 Who doth redeem thy life, that thou
in death may not go down ;
Who thee with loving kindnesse doth
and tender mercies crown.
5 Who with abundance of good things
doth faine thy mouth ;
So that, even as the Eagles age,
renewed is thy youth ;
6 God righteous judgement : executes for all oppressed ones
7 His way to Moses, he his acts
make know to Israels sons.
8 The Lord our God is mercifull,
and he is gracious,
Long suffering and slow to wrath,
to mercy plenteous,
9 He will not chide continually,

CIII. CIV.

nor keep his anger still,
10 With us he dealt not as we sin'd, nor did requite our ill.
11 For as the heaven in its height
the earth surmounteth far,
So great to those that do him fear,
his tender mercies are.
12 As far as East is distant from the West, so far hath He From us removed, in his love,
all our iniquitie.
13 Such pity as a father hath unto his children dear, Like pity shews the Lord to such as worship him in fear.
14 For He remembers, we are dust,
and He our frame well knows.
15 Faint man, his dayes are like the
as flow in field be grows [grasse, 16 For over it the winde doth passe,
and it away is gone
And of the place where once it was
it shall no more be known.
17 But unto them that do Him fear,
Gods mercy never ends,
And to their childrens children still
His righteousnesse extends ;
18 To such as keep his covenant,
and mindfull are alway
Of His most just commandements,
that they may them obey.
19 The Lord prepared hath His in heav'n firm to stand ! [Throne
And every thing that being hath
His Kingdom doth command.
20 O ye his Angels, that excell
in strength blesse ye the Lord, Ye who obey what he commands,
and hearken to his word.
21 O blesse and magnifie the Lord,
ye glorious host of his,
Ye ministers that do fulfill what ere his pleasure is.
22 O blesse the Lord, all ye his works,
where with the world is stor'd
In his dominions every-where ;
my soul blesse thou the Lord,

PSALM CIV.

Blesse God, my soul, O Lord my thou art exceeding great. [God,
With Honour and with Majestie
thou clothed art in state.
2 With light, as with a robe thy self thou coverest about ;
And like unto a curtain, thou
the heavens stretchest out.
4 Who of his chambers doth y^e beams
within the waters lay ;

Who

Who doth y^e clouds his chariot make,
on wings of winde make way.
4 Who flaming fire his ministers,
his Angels spirits doth make.
5 Who earths foundations did lay,
that it should never shake.
6 Thou didst it cover with the deep,
as with a garment spread ;
The waters stood above the hills,
when thou the word but said.
7 But, at the voice of thy rebuke
they fled, and woul' not stay ;
Thy, at thy thunders dreadfull voice,
didst halt them fast away.
8 They by the mountains do ascend,
and by the valley ground
Descend unto the very place,
which thou for them didst found.
9 Thou hast a bound unto them set,
that they may not passe over,
That they do not return again
the face of earth to cover.
10 He to the valley sends the springs,
which run among the hills ;
11 They to all beasts of field give drink,
wilde asses drink their fill.
12 By them the fowls of heav'n shall their habitation, [have Which do among the branches sing with delectation
13 He from his chamber watereth
the hills, when they are dry'd ;
With fruit and increase of thy worke
the earth is satisfied.
14 For cattell he makes grasfe to [grow,
he makes the herb to spring
For th' use of man ; that food to him,
he from the earth may bring.
15 And wine, that to the heart of man
doth cheerfulness impart,
Oil that his face makes shine, and [bread that strengtheneth his heart.
16 The trees of God, are fall of sap,
the Cedars that do stand In Lebanon, which planted were
by his Almighty hand.
17 Birds of the air upon their bough,
do choose their nests to make ;
As for the Stork, the fir trees the doth for her dwelling take.
18 The lofty mountains for wilde
a place of refuge be ; [gouts
The Conies also to the rocks
do for their safetie see.
19 He sets the Moon in heav'n, there-
the seasons to discern ; [by,
From Him the Sun, his certain time
of going down, doth learn.

20 Thou darknes mak'st 't is night,
[then beasts
of forrests creep abroad. [prey, 21 The Lions young roar for their
and seek their meat from God.
22 The Sun doth rise & home they down in their dens they ly [flock, 23 Man goes to work, his labour he doth to the evening ply.
24 How manifold, Lord, are thy in wisdom wonderful [works ;
Thou every one of them hast made ;
earth's of thy riches fall.
25 So in this great and spacious sea, wherein things creeping are Which numbred cannot be ; & beasts
both great and small are there.
26 There ships go, there thou mak'st that Leviathan great ! [to play
27 These all wait on thee that thou [may'st
in due time give them meat.
28 Thou, which thou givest unto them,
they gather for their food ;
Their hand thou op'nest liberally,
they filled are with good. [are 29 Thou mad'st thy face, they troubled their breath thou tak'st away, Then do they die, and to their dust return again do they.
30 Thy quickning Spirit thou sendest
then they created be ; [forth
And then the earths decayed face renewed is by thee.
31 The glory of the mighty Lord continue shall for ever,
The Lord JEHOVAH shall rejoyce
in all his works together.
32 Earth, as affrighted, trembleth all,
if He on it but looke ;
And if the mountains He but touch,
they presently do smoke.
33 I will sing to the Lord most high,
so long as I shall live ;
And while I being have, I shall
to my God praises give.
34 Of him my meditation shall sweet thoughts to me afford ;
And as for me, I will rejoyce
in God, my onely Lord.
35 From earth let sinners be consum'd,
let ill men no more be.
O thou my soul, blesse thou the Lord ;
praise to the Lord give ye.

PSALM CV.

GIVE thanks to God, cal on his [Name,
to men his deeds make known.

2 Sing

2 Sing ye to him, sing Psalms: proclaim his wondrous works abroad.
 3 See that ye in his holy Name to glory do accord,
 And let the heart of every one rejoyce that seeks the Lord.
 4 The Lord Almighty, & his strength with steadfast ears seek ye;
 His blessed and his gracious face seek ye continually.
 5 Think on the works he hath done which admiration breed,
 His wonders and the judgements all which from his mouth proceeded.
 6 O ye that are of Abrahams race, his servants well approv'd,
 And ye that Jacobs children are, whom he choos'd for his own.
 7 Because He, and He only, is the mighty Lord, our God;
 And his most righteous judgements in all the earth abroad. [are 8 His Covenant he remembred hath, that it may ever stand,
 To thousands generations the word he did command.
 9 Which Covenant he firmly made with faithful Abraham,
 And unto Isaac, by his oath he did renew the same;
 10 And unto Jacob for a Law, he made it firm and sure.
 A Covenant to Israel, which ever should endure,
 11 He said, I'll give Canaans land for heritage to you;
 12 While they were strangers there, & in number very few. [few,
 13 While yet they went from land to without a sure abode; [land,
 And while through sundry kingdoms, did wander far abroad; [they 14 Yet notwithstanding suffered he no man to do them wrong;
 Yea for their sakes, he did reprove Kings, who where great & strong.
 15 Thus did he say, Touch ye not those that mine anointed be,
 Nor do the Prophets any harme that do pertain to Me.
 16 He call'd for famine on the land, he break the staff of bread.
 17 But yet he sent a man before, by whom they should be fed:
 Ev'n Joseph, whom unnaturally sell for a slave did they.
 18 Whose feet with fetters they did and he in irons lay: [hurt

19 Until the time that his word came to give him liberty:
 The word and purpose of the Lord did him in prison try.
 20 Then sent y^e King & did command that he enlarg'd should be,
 He that the peoples ruler was, did send to let him free.
 21 A Lord to rule his family, he rais'd him as most fit;
 To him, of all that he possess, he did the charge commit.
 22 That he might at his pleasure binde the Princes of the land:
 And he might teach their Senatours wisdom to understand.
 23 The people then of Israel down into Egypt came:
 And Jacob also sojourned within the land of Ham.
 24 And he did greatly, by his power, increase his people there:
 And stronger then their enemies they by his blessing were 25 Their hearts he turned to envy his folk maliciously,
 With those that his own servants were to deal in subtilty.
 26 His servant Moses he did send, Aaron his chosen one.
 27 By these his signes & wonders great in Hams land were made known.
 28 Darkness he sent, & made it dark: his word they did obey.
 29 He turn'd their waters into blood, and he their fish did slay. [frogs 30 The land in plenty brought forth in chambers of their Kings.
 31 His word all sorts of flies and lice in all their borders brings.
 32 He hail for rain, and flaming fire into their land he sent. [smote, 33 And he their vines and fig-trees trees of their coasts he rent.
 34 He spake, and Caterpillars came, Locusts did much abound. [sum'd, 35 Which in their land all herbs contain'd and all fruits of their ground.
 36 He smote all first-born in their land, chief of their strength each one.
 37 With gold & silver brought them forth, [weak in their tsibes were none.
 38 Egypt was glad when forth they their fear on them did light. [went 39 He sprad a cloud for covering, and fire to shine by night.
 40 They

40 They askt, & he brought Quails: [with bread of heaven he filled them.
 41 He opened rocks, floods gush, & in deserts like a stream. [ran 42 For on his holy promise he, and servan: Abraham, thought.
 43 With joy his people, his elect with gladness forth he brought.
 44 And unto them the pleasant lands he of the heathen gave,
 That of the peoples labours they inheritance might have:
 45 That they his statutes might observe according to his word, [ye,
 And that they might his lawes obey, give praise unto the Lord.
 PSALM CVI.
 Give praise & thanks unto y^e Lord, for bountifull his He:
 His tender mercy doth endure unto eternitie. [preste?
 2 Gods mighty Works who can express or shew forth all his praise?
 3 Blessed are they y^e judgement keep, and justly do alwayes.
 4 Remember me, Lord, with y^e love which thou to thine dost bear:
 With thy salvation, O my God, to visit me, draw near:
 5 That thy chosen good may see, and in their joy rejoyce,
 And may with thine inheritance triumph with chearfull voice.
 6 We with our fathers sinned have, and of iniquity
 Too long we have the workers been, we have done wickedly.
 7 The wonders great which thou, O didst work in Egypt-land, [Lord,
 Our fathers, though they saw, yet they did not understand: [them
 And they thy mercies multitude kept not in memory.
 8 But at the sea, even the Red-sea, provok'd him grievously:
 Neverthelesse he saved them, ev'n for his own Names sake:
 That some might to be well known his mighty power, make.
 9 When he the Red-sea did rebuke, then dreyed up it was;
 Through depths, as through the wilderness, [dernesse,
 He safely made them passe.
 10 From hands of those that hated he did his people save. [them,
 And from the enemies cruell hand to them redemption gave 11 The waters overwhelmed their nor one was left alive, [floods,
 12 Then they believ'd his word, and to him in songs did give. [praise
 13 But soon did they his mighty works forget unthankfully.
 And on his counsel and his will did not wait patiently.
 14 But much did lust in wilderness, and God in desert tempt 15 He gave them what they sought, their soul he chasten'd sent. [but to 16 And against Moses, in the camp, their envy did appear.
 At Aaron they, the saint of God, envious also were.
 17 Therefore y^e earth did open wide, and Dathan did devour,
 And all Abrahams company did cover in that hour.
 18 Likewise among their company a fire was kindled then
 And so the hot consuming flame burn'd up these wicked men
 19 Upon the hill of Horeb, they and idol-calf did frame,
 A molten image they did make, and worshipp'd the same.
 20 And thus their Glory & their God, most vainly changed they
 Into the likeness of an ox that eateth grass or hay.
 21 They did forget the mighty God, that hath their Saviour been;
 By whom such great things brought they had in Egypt seen. [to passe 22 In Hams land he did wondrous things terrible did he, [works;
 When he his mighty hand and arm stretcht out at the Red-sea,
 23 Then said he, he would them dead nor his wrath to slay, [trovy,
 His chosen Moses stood in breach, that thim he should not slay.
 24 Yea, they dispos'd the pleasant land, believ'd not his word:
 25 But in their tents they murmured, not hearkning to the Lord
 26 Therefore in desire, them to slay he lifted up his hand:
 27 Among nations to o'rethrow their and scatter in each land. [feed, 28 They unobalpeor did themselves afflict:
 The sacrifices of the dead they did profinely eat.
 29 Thus by their few inventions, they did provoke his ire:
 And

63 And then, upon them suddenly the plague brake in as fire, 30 Then Phineas rose, & justice did,
and so the plague did cease:
31 This to all ages commended was to him for righteousnesse.
32 And at y^e waters where they strove,
they did him anger make,
In such sort, that it fared ill
with Moses for their sake.
33 Because they there his spirit meek provoked bitterly.
So that he uttered with his lips
words unadvisedly.
34 Now, as y^e Lord commanded them,
did they the nations slay:
35 But with y^e heathen mingled were,
and learn'd of them their way, 36 And they their do's serv'd which a snare unto them turn: [did 37 Their sons and daughters they to in sacrifice d'burn. [devils
38 In their own childrensguiltlesse [b'oud their hands they did embrew, Whom Chanaan's idols they
for sacrifices slew,
So was the and defil'd with blood:
39 They stain'd with their own
And with their own inventions [way,
a whoring they did stray.
40 Again't his people kindles was the wrath of God therefore,
In so much that he did his own inheritance abhorre.
41 He gave them to y^e heathens hand,
their foes did them command:
42 Their enemies them oppress, they made subiect to their hand. [were 43 He many times delivered them,
but with their counsel, so They him provok'd, that for their sin
they were brought very low.
44 Yet their affliction he beheld,
when he did hear their cry:
45 And he for them his Covenant
did call to memory:
After his mercies multitude
46 He did relent, And made Them to be pity'd of all those who them did captive lead.
47 O Lord our God us save, & gather the heathen from among,
That we thy holy Name may praise
in a triumphant song.
48 Bieffe be JEHOVAH, Israels God
to all eternitie.
Let all the people say, Amen.
Praise to the Lord give ye.

PSALM CVII.

Praise God, for he's good, for still his mercies last'ing be. [he 1 For Gods redem'd' d'free, whom from th' ene nics hand d'free:
2 And gathered them out of y^e lands,
from North, South, East & West
4 They stray'd in d'iters pathlesse
no city found to rest [way,
5 For th' r'it & hunger in them fainte
6 their soul. When straits them presse
They cry into the Lord, and he them freed from their distresse.
7 Themselves a way to walk,
that right is, he did guide.
That they might to a city go,
wherein they might abide.
8 O that men to the Lord would give praise, for his goodnesse, then,
And for his works of wonders done
unto the sons of men.
9 For he the soul that longing is doth fully satisfie,
With goodnesse he the hungry soul
doth fill abundantly.
10 Such as shut up in darkness: deep,
and in deaths shade abide,
Whom strongly hath affliction bound,
and irons fast have ty'd.
11 (Because again't the word of God
they wrought rebelliously,
And they the counsell did contemne,
of him that is most hie)
12 Their heart he did bring down with they fell, no help could have. [grief, 13 In trouble then they cry'd to God,
he them from straites did save.
14 He: out of darknesse did them [bring,
and from deaths shade them take;
These bands where with they had been asunder quite he brake. [bound 15 O that men to y^e Lord would give
praise, for his goodnesse then,
And for his works of wonder done
unto the sons of men, 16 Because the mighty gates of brass
in pieces he did tear,
By him in sunder also cut
the bars of iron were.
17 Fools for their sin, & their offense,
do sore affliction bear. [abhors, 18 All kinde of meat their souls
they to deaths-gates draw near.
19 In grief they cry to God, he saves them from their miseries. [thems 20 He feeds his word them heals, and from their destruction frees.

21 O that men to y^e Lord would give
praise for his goodnesse then,
And for his works of wonder done
unto the sons of men.
22 And let them sacrifice to him
off'rings of thankesnesse,
And let them shew abroad his works,
in songs of joyfullnesse.
23 Who go to sea in ships, and in great waters trading be, [works, 24 Within the deep these men Gods
and his great wonders see.
25 For he commands, & forth in haste
the stormy tempest flies,
Which makes the Sea with rowling
aloft to swell and rise. [waves 26 They mount to heav'n, then to y^e
they do go down again. [depths
Their soul doth faint, and melt away
with trouble and with pain.
27 They reel and stagger like one at their wis end they be; [drunk, 28 Then they to God in trouble cry,
who them from straits doth free.
29 The storm is chang'd into a calm,
at his command and will.
So that the waves that rag'd before,
now quiet are and still.
30 Then are they glad, because at rest
and quiet now they be.
So to the haven he them brings
which they desir'd to see.
31 O that men to y^e Lord would give
praise, for his goodnesse then,
And for his works of wonder, done
unto the sons of men.
32 Among the people gathered,
let them exalt his Name;
Among assembled Elders spread
his most renowned fame.
33 He to dry land turns water-springs,
and floods to wilderness;
34 For sins of those that dwell therein
fat lands to barrenesse.
35 The burnt & parched wilderness,
to water-pools he brings.
The ground that was dry'd up before
he turns to water-springs.
36 And there, for dwelling, he a place
doth to the hungry give,
That they a city may prepare commodiously to live.
37 There sow they fields & vineyards
to yeeld fruits of increase. [plant, 38 His blessing makes them multiply,
let not their beasts decrease.
39 Again they are diminished,
and very low brought down,
Through sorrow and affliction,
and great oppression.
40 He upon Princes pours contempt,
and causeth them to stray
And wander in a Wilderness,
wherein there is no way.
41 Yet setteth he the poor on high
from all his miseries;
And he, much like unto a flock,
doth make him families.
42 They y^e are righteous shall rejoyce,
when they the same shall see,
And, as ashamed, stop her mouth
shall all iniquity.
43 Who fo is wife, & will these things
observe, and them record, Ev'n they shall understand the love
and kindnesse of the Lord.
PSALM CVIII.
MY heart is fixt, Lord, I will sing,
and will thy glory praise.
2 Awake up psaltery and harp,
my self I'll early raise.
3 I'll praise thee 'mongst the people,
'mong nations sing will I. [Lord,
4 For above heav'n thy mercie's great,
thy truth doth reach the sky.
5 Be thou above the heavens, Lord,
exalted gloriously:
Thy glory all the earth above
be lifted up on high.
6 That those who thy beloved are delivered may be:
O do thou save with thy right hand,
and answer give to me.
7 God in his holnesse hath said,
Herein I will take pleasure.
Shechem I will divide, and forth
will Succoths valley measure.
8 Gilead I claim as Mine by right,
Manasse mine shall be,
Ephraim is of my Head the strength,
Judah gives laws for me.
9 Mount My washing-pot, My shoe,
I'll over Edom throw,
Over the land of Palestine
I will in triumph go.
10 O who is he that will bring me to the City fortifi'd:
O who is he that to the land
Of Edom will me guide?
11 O God, thou who hast cast us off,
this thing wilt thou not do:
And wilt not thou, ev'n thou, O God,
forth with our armies go?
12 Do thou from trouble give us help
for helpless is mans aid.
13 Through God we shall do valiantly,
our foes He shall down tread.
PSALM CIX.
O Thou the God of all my praise,
do thou not hold thy peace:
F 2 For

2 For mouths of wicked men, to speak against me, do not cease:
The mouth of vile deceitfull men against me opened be:
And with a false and lying tongue
they have accused me.

3 They did beset me round about with words of hatefull spight:
And though to them no cause I gave,
against me they did fight.

4 They for my love became my foes,
but I me set to pray.

5 Evil for good, hatred for love
to me they did repay.

6 Set thou the wicked over him,
and upon his right hand

6 Give thou his greatest enemy,
ev'n Satan, leave to stand.

7 And when by thee he shall be judg'd,
let him condemned be:
And let his pray'r be turn'd to sin,
when he shall call on thee.

8 Few be his dayes, and in his room
his charge another take.

9 His children let be fatherlesse,
his wife a widow make.

10 His children let be vagabonds,
and beg continually:
And from their places desolate
seek bread for their supply.

11 Let covetous extortioners catch all they heape away;
Of all for which he labour'd hath let strangers make a prey.

12 Let there be none to pity him,
let there be none at all That on his children fatherlesse,
will let his mercy fall.

13 Let his posterity from earth
cut off for ever be,
And in the following age their name
be blotted out by thee.

14 Let God his fathers wickednesse still to remembrance call;
And never let his mothers sin
be blotted out at all.

15 But let them all before the Lord appear continually.
That He may wholly from the earth
cut off their memory.

16 Because he mercy minded not,
but persecuted still,
The poor and needy, that he might
the broken-hearted kill.

17 As he in cursing pleasure took,
so let it to him fall;
As he delighted not to blisse,
so blisse him not at all.

18 A cursing he like cloaths put on,
into his bowels so

Like water, and into his bones
like oyl down let it go.

19 Like to that garment let it be which doth himself aray,
And for a girdle wherewith he is girt about alway.

20 From God let this be their reward
that enemies are to me,
And their reward that speak against my soul maliciously.

21 But do thou, for thine own Names
O God the Lord, for me: (sake Sith good and sweet thy mercy is,
from trouble set me free.

22 For I am poor and indigent, afflicted sore am I,
My heart within me also is wounded exceedingly.

23 I passe like a declining shade,
am like the locusts soft.

24 My knees through fasting weakned my flesh hath fatnesse lost. (are, 25 I also am a vyle reproach unto them made to be:
And they that did upon me look,
did shake their heads at me.

26 O do thou help and succour me,
who art my God and Lord:
And, for thy tender mercies sake,
safety to me afford.

27 That thereby they may know, that is thy almighty hand, (this
And that thou Lord, hast done y' same they may well understand. (Lord 28 Although they curse with spite, yet blesse thou with loving voice:
Let them asham'd be, when they rise:
thy servant let rejoyce.

29 Let thou mine adversaries all with shame be clothed over,
And let their own confusion
them as a mantle, cover.

30 But as for me, I with my mouth will greatly praise the Lord;
And I among the multitude
His praises will record.

31 For he shall stand at his right hand
who is in poverty.
To save him from all those y' would condemn his soul to dy.

PSALM CX.

The Lord did say unto my Lord,
Sir thou at my right hand,
Until I make thy foes a stool,
whereon thy feet may stand,

2 The Lord shall out of Sion send the rod of thy great power:
In midst of all thine enemies,
be thou the Governour.

3 A wil-

A willing people, in thy day
of pow'r, shall come to thee,
In holy beauties, from morns womb:
thy youth like dew shall be.

4 The Lord himself hath made an oath,
and will repent him never,
Of th' order of Melchisedek
thou art a Priest for ever.

5 The glorious and mighty Lord,
that sits at thy right hand,
Shall, in his day of wrath, strike
Kings, that do him withstand.

6 He shall among the heathen judge.
He shall with bodies dead
The places fill, o're many lands,
He wound shall every head.

7 The brook that runneth in the way
with drink shall him supply:
And for this cause, in triumph he shall lift his head on high.

PSALM CXI.

Praise ye the Lord, with my whole
I will Gods praise declare, (heart, Where the assemblies of the just,
and congregation are. [God

Sought out they are of every one,
that do therein take pleasure.

3 His works most honourable is,
most glorious and pure,
And his untainted Righteousnesse
for ever doth endure.

4 His works most wonderful He hath made to be thought upon:
The Lord is gracious and He is full of compassion.

5 He giveth meat unto all those that truly do him fear;
And evermore His covenant
He in His minde will bear.

6 He did the power of His works unto His people shew,
When He the heathens heritage
upon them did bestow.

7 His handy-works are truth & right:
all His commands are sure.

8 And done in truth & uprightnesse,
they evermore endure.

9 He sent redemption to His folk,
His covenant for ay
He did command: Holy His Name
and reverend is alway,

10 Wisdoms beginning is God fear;
good understanding they Have all, that his commands fulfill;
His praise endures for ay.

PSALM CXII.

Praise ye the Lord, The man is blest
that fears the Lord aright,
He who in his commandements
doth greatly take delight.

2 His seed and off spring powerfull shall be the earth upon;
Of upright men blessed shall be the generation.

3 Riches and wealth shall ever be within his house in store:
And His unspotted righteousness
endures for evermore.

4 Unto the upright light doth rise,
though he in darkness be:
Compassionate and mercifull,
and righteous is he.

5 A good man doth his favour shew
and doth to others lend,
He with discretion his affairs
will guide unto the end.

6 Surely there is not any thing
that ever shall him move;
The righteous mans memoriall shall everlasting prove.

7 When he shall evil tidings hear,
he shall not be afraid;
His heart is fixt, his confidence
upon the Lord is laid.

8 His heart is firmly stablished, afraid he shall not be,
Until upon his enemies
he his desire shall see.

9 He hath dispersed, giv'n to the poor,
his righteousness shall be To ages all; with honour shall his horn be raised high.

10 The wicked shall it see, and fret,
his teeth gnash, melt away:
What wicked men do most desire shall utterly decay.

PSALM CXIII.

Praise God: ye servants of y' Lord,
O praise, the Lords Name praise.

2 Yea, blessed be the Name of God
from this time forth alwayes.

3 From rising Sun, to where it sets,
Gods Name is to be praif'd,

4 Above all nations God is high,
'bove Heav'n His glory rais'd.

5 Unto the Lord, our God, that dwells on high, who can compare?

6 Himself that humbleth things to see in heav'n and earth that are.

7 He from the dust doth raise y' poor,
that very low did ly,
And from the dung-hill lifts the man

Praise to the Lord give ye.

While as the presence of the God

did standing water bring.
And by His pow'r did turn the flint into a water-spring.

PSALM CXV.

Unto us, Lord, not to us,
but do thou glory take Unto thy Name, ev'n for thy truth,
and for thy mercies sake.
2 For wherefore should y^e heathen say,
where is their God now gone?
3 But our God in the heaven is,
what pleas'd him He hath done.
4 Their idols silver are and gold,
work of mens hands they be:
5 Mouths have they, but they do not
and eyes, but do not see. [speak:
6 Ears have they, but they do not hear:
noses, but favour not: [walk:
7 Hands, feet, but handle not, nor nor speak they through y^e throat, 8 Like them their makers are, & all on them their trust that build,
9 O Israel, trust thou in the Lord,
He is their help and shield.
10 O Aarons house, trust in the Lord,
their help and shield is He.
11 Ye that fear God: trust in y^e Lord,
their help and shield He'll be.

12 The Lord of us hath mindfull been,
and He will blesse us still.
He will the house of Isra'l blesse,
blesse Aarons house He will.
13 Both small & great y^e fear y^e Lord,
He will them surely blesse.
14 The Lord wil you, you & your seed
ay more and more encrease.
15 O blesse are ye of the Lord,
who made the earth and heaven.
16 The heav'n, ev'n heav'n us are Gods, [but He
earth to mens sons hath given.
17 The dead, nor who to silence go,
Gods praise do not record.
18 But henceforth we for ever will,
blesse God, Praise ye the Lord.

PSALM CXVI.

I Love the Lord, because my voyce
and Prayers he did hear.
1 I, while I live, will call on Him,
who bow'd to me His ear.
2 Of death the cords, & sorrows did about me compass round,
The pains of hell took hold on me,
I grief and trouble found.
4 Upon the Name of God, the Lord,
then did I call, and say,
Dellver thou my soul, O Lord,
I do thee humbly pray.
5 God mercifull and righteous is,
yea gracious is our Lord.
6 God saves the meek I was brought

I was afflicted sore.

That all men lyars be.
12 What shall I render to the Lord
for all His gifts to me?

within the midst of thee,
O City of Jerusalem,
Praise to the Lord give ye.

PSALM CXVII.

Give ye praise unto the Lord,
all nations that be;
Like wife, ye people all accord
His Name to magnifie.
2 For great to us-ward ever are
His loving kindneses:
His truth endures for evermore,
The Lord, O do ye blesse.

PSALM CXVII.

Praise the Lord, for He is good:
His mercy lasteth ever.
2 Let those of Israel now say,
His mercy faileth never.
3 Now let the house of Aaron say,
His mercy lasteth ever.
4 Let those y^e fear the Lord now say,
His mercy faileth never.
5 In distresse call'd on the Lord:
the Lord did answer me,
He in a large place did me fet:
from trouble made me free.
6 The mighty Lord is on my side.
I will not be afraid:
For any thing that man can do
I shall not be dismayd.
7 The Lord doth take my part with

Therefore on those that do me hate
I my desire shall see.

9 Better to trust in God, them make Princes our confidence.

10 The nations, joyning all in one,
did compass me about:
But in the Lords most Holy Name
I shall them all root out.
11 They compass me about I say,
they compass me about:
But in the Lords most Holy Name
I shall them all root out.
12 Like Bees they compass me about,
like unto thorns that flame,
They quenched are: for them shall I destroy in Gods own Name.

The right hand of the Mighty Lord

17 I shall not die, but live, and shall the works of God discover.
18 The Lord hath me chastised sore,
but not to death given over.

the gates of righteousness,
Then will I enter into them,
and I the Lord will blesse.
20 This is the gate of God, by it
the just shall enter in,

which builders did despise: (stone,

26 Blessed is He, in Gods great Name
that cometh us to saue.
We, from y^e house which to the Lord

hath made light to arise:
Binde ye unto the altars horns,
with cords, the sacrifice,

my God, I will thee praise.
29 Give thanks to God, for He is good,
His mercy lasts always.

PSALM CXIX.

ALEPH. The first part.

Blessed are they that undefil'd,
and straight are in the way:
Who in the Lords most holy Law
do walk and do not stray.
2 Blessed are they, who to observe
His statutes are inclin'd:
And who do seeke the living God
with their whole heart & minde.
3 Such in his wayes do walk, & they do no iniquitie.
4 Thou hast commanded us to keep thy precepts carefully.
5 O that thy statutes to observe thou wouldst my wayes direct:

9 Then shall I not be sham'd, when I thy precepts all respect.
 7 Then with integrity of heart thee will I praise and blesse.
 When I thy judgements all have learn'd of thy pure righteousnesse.

 O do not then, most gracious God, forsake me utterly.

 10 Unfaithfully Thee have I sought, with all my soul and heart:
 O let me not from the right path of thy commands depart.
 11 Thy word I in my heart have hid, that I offend not thee.
 12 O Lord, thou ever blessed art, thy statutes teach thou me.
 13 The judgements of thy mouth my lips declared have: (each one 14 More joy thy testimonies way, then riches all me gave.
 15 I will thy holy precepts make my meditation:
 And carefully I'll have respect unto thy way each one.
 16 Unto thy statutes my delight shall constantly be set:
 And by thy grace I never will thy holy word forget.

 To me, according to thy word, give strength, and send relief.

 And graciously thy holy Law do thou grant unto me.
 30 I chosen have the perfect way of truth and verity:
 Thy judgements that most righteous before me, laid, have I. [are,

 And in thy good and holy way be pleas'd to quicken me.

 According to thy gracious word be mercifull to me.
 59 I thought upon my former wayes, and did my life well try:
 And in thy testimonies pure my feet then turned I.
 60 I did not stay nor linger long, as those that slothfull are,
 But hastily thy Laws to keep my self I did prepare.

 148 Mine eyes do timously prevent the watches of the night, That in thy word, with careful minde, then meditate I might.
 149 After thy loving kindnesse hear my voice that call on thee: According to thy judgement, Lord, revive and quicken me.
 150 Who follow mischief they draw they from the laws are far: (nigh, I But thou art neere, Lord: most (from truth, all thy commandments are.
 152 As for thy testimonies, all, of old this have I try'd, That thou hast surely founded them, for ever to abide.
R E S H. The 20 part.
 153 Consider mine affliction, in safety do me let: Deliver me, O Lord, for I thy Law do not forget.
 154 After thy word revive thou me: save me, and plead my cause, 155 Salvation is from sinners far, for they seek not thy laws.
 156 O Lord, both great and manifold thy tender mercies be: According to thy judgements just revive and quicken me.

157 My persecuters many are,
and foes which do combine:
Yet from thy testimonies pure
my heart doth not decline.
158 I saw transgressours, & was griv'd:
for they keep not thy word.
159 See how I love thy Law: as Thou art kinde, me quicken Lord.
160 From the beginning all thy word hath been most true and sure:
Thy righteous judgements every one for evermore endure.

SCHIN. The 21 part.

161 Princes have persecuted me,
although no cause they saw;
But still of thy most holy Word
my heart doth stand in aw.
162 I at thy word joyce, as one of spoils that finds great store.
163 Thy law I love, but lying all
I hate and do abhorre.
164 Seven times a day it is my care
to give due praise to thee:
Because of all thy judgement, Lord,
which righteous ever be.

165 Great peace have they who love (thy law):
whence shall offence be none.
166 I hop'd for thy salvation, Lord,
and thy commands have done.
167 My foul thy testimonies pure observed carefully:
On them my heart is set, and them
I love exceedingly.
168 Thy testimonies and thy laws
I kept, with special care:
For all thy works, and wayes each one before thee open are.

T A U. The 22 part.

169 O let my earnest pray'r and cry
come near before thee, Lord:
Give understanding unto me
according to thy word.
170 Let my request before thee come,
after thy word me free.
171 My lips shall utter praise, when hast taught thy Laws to me. (thou shall speak, and it confesse:

Because all thy commandments are perfect righteousnesse.

173 Let thy strong hand make help to thy precepts are my choise. (me) 174 I long'd for thy salvation, Lord,
and in thy Law joyce.
175 O let my soul live, and it shall give praises unto thee:
And let thy judgements gracious be helpfull unto me.

176 I like a lost sheep went astray,
thy servant seek, and finde:
For thy commands I suffred not to slip out of my minde.

PSALM CXX.

I N my distresse to God I cry'd,
and he gave care to me.
2 From lying lips & guilefull tongue,
O Lord, my soul let free.
3 What shall be given thee? or what be done to thee false tongue?
4 Ev'n burning coals of Juniper,
sharp arrows of the strong.
5 Wo's me, that I in Mesech am a sojourner so long:
That I in tabernacles dwell
to Kedar that belong.
6 My soul with him that hateth peace
hath long a dweller been.
7 I am for peace: but when I speak for battell they are keen.

PSALM CXXI.

I To the hills will lift mine eyes,
from whence doth come mine aid,
2 My safety cometh from the Lord,
who heav'n & earth hath made.
3 Thy foot shall not slide, nor will he slumber that thee keeps:
4 Behold, He that keeps Israel,
He slumbers not, nor sleeps.
5 The Lord thee keeps, the Lord thy

7 The Lord shall keep thy soul, he shall preserve thee from all ill:

God keep for ever will.

PSALM CXXII.

I Joy'd, when to the house of God
go up, they said to me.
2 Jerusalem, within thy gates our feet shall standing be.
3 Jerusalem as a city is compactly built together, 4 Unto that place the tribes go up,
the tribes of God go thither,
To Israels testimony, there
to Gods Name thanks to pay.
5 For thrones of judgement ev'n the of Davids house there stay (thrones) 6 Pray that Jerusalem may have peace and felicity:
Let them that love thee and thy peace,
have full prosperitie.
7 Therefore, I wish that peace may fill

And ever may thy palaces prosperitie retain.
8 Now for my friends, and brethrens peace be in thee, I'll say: (sake, 9 And for the house of God, our Lord,
I'll seek thy good alway.

PSALM CXXIII.

O Thou that dwellest in the heav'ns
I lift mine eyes to thee.
2 Behold, as servants eyes do look their masters hand to see,
As hand-maids eyes her mistress fo do our eyes attend, (hand, Upon the Lord our God, untill to us he mercy send.
3 O Lord, be gracious to us, unto us gracious be:
Because replenish't with contempt exceedingly are we.
4 Our soul is fill'd with scorn of those that at their ease abide,
And with the insolent contempt
of those that swell in pride.

PSALM CXXIV.

H Ad not y Lord been on our side,
may Israel now say:
2 Had not the Lord been on our side,
when men rose us to slay: (as 3 They had us swallow'd quick, when their wrath gain'd: us did flame:
4 Waters had cover'd us, our soul
had sunk beneath the stream.
5 Then had the waters, swelling high,
even our soul made way.
6 Blest be y Lord, who to their teeth
us gave not for a prey.
7 Our soul's escaped, as a bird
out of the fowlers snare:
The snare asunder broken is,
and we escaped are.
8 Our sure, and all sufficient help is in Jehovahs Name:
His Name, who did the heav'n create,
and who the earth did frame.

Another of the same.

N Ow Israel
may say, and that truly,
If that the Lord
had not our cause maintain'd:
2 If that the Lord
had not our right sustain'd When cruell men against us furiously
Rose up in wrath,
to make of us their prey.
3 Then certainly they had devour'd us all,

And swallow'd quick,
for ought that we could deem:
Such was their rage,
as we might well esteem:
4 And as fierce floods
before them all things drown,
So had they brought
our soul to death quite down.
5 The raging streams,
with their proud swelling waves,
Had then our soul
o'whelmed in the deep:
6 But blest be God,
who doth us safely keep:
And hath not given us for a living prey Unto their teeth
and bloody cruelty.
7 Even as a bird
out of the fowlers snare Escapes away,
so is our soul set free:
Broke are their nets,
and thus escaped we.
8 Therefore our help
is in the Lords great Name, Who heav'n and earth
by his great pow'r did frame.

PSALM CXXV.

T Hey, in the Lord that firmly trust,
shall be like Zion hill,
Which at no time can be remov'd,
but standeth ever still.
2 As round about Jerusalem
the mountains stand alway,
The Lord his folk doth compass so from henceforth and for ay.
3 For ill mens rod upon the lot

thy goodness, Lord, impart,
And do thou good to those that are

after their crooked way,
God shall lead forth with wicked men,
on Israel peace shall stay.

PSALM CXXVI.

PSALM CXXVII.

Except the Lord do build the house,
the builders lose their pain:
Except the Lord the city keep,
the watchmen watch in vain.
2 It is vain for you to rise betimes,
or late from rest to keep,
To feed on sorrows bread, so gives
He his beloved sleep.
3 Lo, children are Gods heritage,
the wombs-fruit his reward.
4 The sons of youth as arrows are,
for strong mens hands prepar'd.
5 O happy is that man that hath his quiver fill'd with those:
They unshamed, in the gate

PSALM CXXVIII.

Blessed is each one that fears the Lord,
and walketh in his way,
2 For of thy labour thou shalt eat,
and happy be alwaye,
3 Thy wife shall as a fruitful vine,
by thy house-sides be found,
Thy children like to olive-plants
about thy table round.
4 Behold the man that fears the Lord,
thus blessed shall he be.
5 The Lord shall out of Zion give his blessing unto thee:
Thou shalt Jerusalems good behold,
while thou on earth dost dwell.

Of did they vex me from my youth,
may Israel now declare:
2 Oft did they vex me from my youth,

3 The plowers plow'd upon my back,
they long their furrows drew.
4 The righteous Lord did cut the cords of the ungodly crue.
5 Let Zions haters all be turn'd back with confusion.
6 As grass in the house-tops be they,
which fades ere it be grown:

the mower cannot find:
Nor can the man his bofome fill,
whose work is, sheaves to bind.
8 Neither say they who do go by,
Gods blessing, on you rest,
We, in the Name of God, the Lord,
do with you to be blest.

PSALM CXXX.

Lord, from the depths to thee I (cri'd,
2 My voice, Lord, do thou hear:
Unto my supplications voice,
give an attentive ear.
3 Lord, who shalt stand, if thou, O Lord
shouldst it mark iniquitie?
4 But yet with thee forgiveness is,
that fear'd thou mayest be.
5 I wait for God, my soul doth wait,
my hope is in his word.

I say, more then they that do watch
the morning-light to see.
7 Let Israel hope in the Lord
for with him mercies be,
And plenteous redemption
is ever found with him.
8 And from all his iniquities
he Israel shall redeem.

PSALM CXXXI.

My heart not haughty is, O Lord,
mine eyes not lofty be:
Nor do I deal in matters great,
or things for me too hie.
2 I surely have my self behav'd with quiet spirit and minde.
As child of mother wean'd: my soul,
is like a weaned child.
3 Upon the Lord let all the hope of Israel rely,
Ev'n from the time that present is unto eternity.

PSALM CXXXII.

David, and his affliction all,
O Lord, do thou think on:
2 How unto God he swa're, and vow'd to Jacobs mighty One.
3 I will not come within my house,
nor rest in bed at all:
4 Nor shall mine eyes take any sleep,
nor eye-lids slumber shall,
5 Till for the Lord a place I finde,
where he may make abode:
A place of habitation
for Jacobs mighty God.

And we did finde it in the fields

9 O let thy Priests be clothed, Lord,
with truth and righteousness;
And let all those that are thy saints
shout loud for joyfulness.
10 For thine own servant Davids sake,
do not deny thy grace,
Nor of thine own anointed One

He will not turn from it,

PSALM CXXXIII.

Behold, how good a thing it is,

Together such as brethren are in unitie to dwell.

7 About the graves devouring mouth, our bones are scatt' red round. As wood, which men do cut & cleave, lies scattered on the ground.

8 But unto thee, O God the Lord, mine eyes uplifted be, My soul do not leave desicute, my trust is set on thee.

9 Lord, keep me safely from the snare, which they for me prepare, And from the subtle gins of them, that wicked workers are.

10 Let workers of iniquity into their own nets fall, Whilst I do by thine help escape the danger of them all.

PSALM CXLII.
I With my voice cry'd to the Lord, with it made my request :

2 Pour'd out to him my plaint, to him my trouble I express. (sp'rit,

3 When in me was o'rwhelm'd my thea wcl thou knew'st my way : Where I did walk, a snare for me they privily did lay.

4 I look'd on my right hand, & view'd, but none to know me were ; All refuge failed me, no man did for my soul take care.

5 I cry'd to thee, I said, thou art my refuge, Lord, alone ; And in the land of those that live thou art my portion.

6 Because I am brought very low, attend unto my cry ; Not from my persecuters save, who stronger are then I.

7 From prison bring my soul, that I thy Name may glorifie : The just shall compass me, when thou with me death bounteously.

PSALM CXLIII.
Lord, hear my pray'r, attend my and in thy faithfulness (sute

Give thou an answer unto me, and in thy rightousnesse.

2 Thy servant saith bring thou not in judgement to be tri'd : Because no living man can be in thy sight justifi'd.

3 For th'enemy hath pursu'd my soul, my life to ground down tread : In darknesse he hath made me dwell, as who have long been dead :

4 My spirit is therefore overwhelm'd in me, perplexedly : Within me is my very heart amazed wondrously.

5 I call to minde the dayes of old, to meditate I use, On all thy works : upon the deeds I, of thy hands do muse.

6 My hands to thee I stretch ; my soul thirsts, as dry land, for thee.

7 Haste, Lord, to hear, my spirit failes ; hide not thy face from me ; Left like to them I do become, that go down to the dust.

8 At morn let me thy kindnesse heare, for in thee do I trust : Teach me the way that I should walk, I lift my soul to thee.

9 Lord, free me from my foes, I fly to thee, to cover me.

10 Because thou art my God, to do thy will do me instruct : Thy spirit is good, me to the land of uprightnesse conducl.

11 Revive, and quicken me, O Lord, ev'n for thine own Names sake : And do thou, for thy rightousnesse, my soul from trouble take.

12 And of thy mercy slay my foes : let all destroyed be That do assid' my soul, for I a servant am to thee.

Another of the same.
O H, hear my prayer, Lord, And unto my desire To howe thine care accord : I humbly thee require :

And in thy faithfulness, Unto me answer make, And in thy rightousnesse Upon me pity take

2 In judgement enter not With me thy servant poor : For why, this well I wot, No sinner can endure.

The sight of thee, O God, If thou his deeds do try, He dare make none abode : Himself to justify.

- Behold the cruell foe
Me persecutes with spight,
My soul to overthrow:
Yea, he my life down quite Unto the ground hath snote.
And made me dwell low
In darknesse, as forgot,
Or men dead long ago
- Therefore my spirit much vext
O'whelm'd is me within;
My heart right fore perplext,
And desolate hath bin.
- Yet I do call to minde
What ancient dayes record,
Thy works of every kinde
I think upon, O Lord.
- Lo, I do stretch my hands
To thee my help alone,
For thou well understands
All my complaints and moane:
My thirsting soul desires,
And longeth after thee,
As thirist ground requires
With rain refreshit to be.
- Lord, let my pray'r prevail,
To answer it make speed,
For lo, my spirit doth fail:
Hide not thy face in need,
Lest I be like to those
That do in darknesse sit,
Or him that downward goes,
Into the dreadfull pit.
- Because I trust in thee,
O Lord, cause me to hear
Thy loving kindnesse free,
When morning doth appear:
Cause me to know the way
Wherein my path should be,
For why my soul on hy
I do lift up to thee.
- From my fierce enemy
In safety do me guide,
Because I fly to thee,
Lord, that thou mayest me hide.
- My God alone art thou,
Teache me thy right-ousnesse:
Thy spirits good, lead me to The land of uprightnesse.
- O Lord, for thy Names sake,
Be pleas'd to quicken me:
And for thy truth forth take My soul from miserie.
- And of thy grace desiroy
My foes, and put to shame
All whom my soul annoy:
For I thy servant am.

PSALM CXLIV.

Bless'd ever be the Lord,
who is thy strength and might,

Who doth instruct my hands to war,
my fingers teach to fight.

2 My goodnesse, fortresse, my high deliverer, and shield, [to w. r.]

In whom I trust, who under me
my people make to yeeld,

1 Lord, what is man that thou of him
doest so much knowledge take?

Or of man that thou of him,
so great account dost make?

4 Man is like vanity: his dayes,
as shadows passe away.

Lord, on a psaltery:

will praises sing to thee.

Who his own servant David doth from hurtfull sword defend.

And their right hand a right hand is,

that works deceitfully.

our garners may be fill'd: [streets

That our sheep thousands, in our ten thousands they may yeeld.

14 That strong our oxen be for work,
that not inbreaking be,

Nor going out, and that our streets
may from complaints be free.

in such a cause as this.

Yea, blessed all those people are,
whose God JEHOVAH is.
