THE

PREFACE.

God in his Church, we are employ'd in that Part of Worship, which of all others is the nearest a-kin to Heaven; and 'tis pity that this, of all others, should be perform'd the worst The Gospel brings us nearer to upon Earth. the heavenly State than all the former Dispensa-tions of God amongst Men: And in these last Days of the Gospel we are brought almost within fight of the Kingdom of our Lord; yet we are very much unacquainted with the Songs of the New Jerusalem, and unpractis'd in the Work of Praise. To see the dull Indisference, the negligent and the thoughtless Air, that sits upon the Faces of a whole Assembly, while the Psalm is on their Lips, might tempt even a charitable Obferver to suspect the Fervency of inward Religion; and 'tis much to be fear'd, that the Minds of most of the Worshippers are absent or unconcern'd. Perhaps the Modes of Preaching in the best Churches, still want some Degrees of Resormation; nor are the Methods of Prayer so perfect. A 2

fect, as to frand in need of no Correction or Improvement: But of all our Religious Solemnities, Pfalmedy is the most unhappily managed: That every Action, which should elevate us to the most delightful and divine Sensations, doth not only flat our Devotion, but too often awaken our Regnet, and touches all the Springs of Uncasi-neis within us.

I have been long convinc'd, that one great Occasion of this Evil arises from the Matter and Words to which we confine all our Songs. Some of them are almost opposite to the Spirit of the Gofpel: Many of them foreign to the State of the New Testament, and widely different from the prefent Circumstances of Christians. it comes to pass, that when spiritual Affections are excited within us, and our Souls are rais'd a little above this Earth in the Beginning of a Pfalm, we are check'd on a fudden in our Afcent toward Heaven, by some Expressions that are more suited to the Days of Carnal Ordinances, and fit only to be fung in the Worldly Sanctuary. When we are just entring into an Evangelick Frame, by some of the Glories of the Gospel presented in the brightest Figures of Judaism, yet the very next Line perhaps which the Clerk parcels out unto us, hath fomething in it so extremely Jewish and cloudy, that darkens our Sight of God the Savi-Thus, by keeping too close to David in the House of God, the Vail of Moses is thrown over While we are kindling into Divine Love by the Meditations of the loving Kindness of God, and the Multitude of his tender Mercies, ·within within a few Verses some dreadful Curse against Men is propos'd to our Lips; That God would add Iniquity unto their Iniquity, nor let them come into his Righteousness, but blot them out of the Book of the Living, Pfal. lxix 26, 27, 28. which is fo contrary to the New Commandment of loving our Enemies; and even under the Old Testament is best accounted for, by referring it to the Spirit of Prophetick Vengeance. Some Sentences of the Pfalmist, that are expressive of the Temper of our own Hearts, and the Circumstances of our Lives, may compose our Spirits to Seriousness, and allure us to a fweet Retirement within our felves; but we meet with a following Line, which fo peculiarly belongs but to one Action or Hour of the Life of David or of Alaph, that breaks off our Song in the midft; our Consciences are affrighted, left we should speak a Falshood unto God: Thus the Powers of our Souls are shock'd on a fudden, and our Spirits ruffled, before we have Time to reflect that this may be fung only as a History of ancient Saints; and, perhaps, in fome Instances, that Salvo is hardly sufficient neither: Besides, it almost always spoils the Devo-tion, by breaking the uniform Thread of it: For while our Lips and our Hearts run on sweetly together, applying the Words to our own Case, there is fomething of Divine Delight in it; but at once we are forced to turn off the Application abruptly, and our Lips speak nothing but the Heart of David. Thus our own Hearts are as it were forbid the Pursuit of the Song, and then the Han-A 3 mony mony and the Worship grow dull of meer Necessity.

Many Ministers, and many private Christians, have long groan'd under this Inconvenience, and have wish'd, rather than attempted a Reformation: At their importunate and repeated Requests I have for some Years past devoted many Hours of Leifure to this Service. Far be it from my Thoughts to lay afide the Book of Psalms in publick Worship; few can pretend so great a Value for them as my self: It is the most Artful, most Devotional and Divine Collection of Poefy; and nothing can be suppos'd more proper to raise a pious Soul to Heaven than some Parts of that Book: never was a Piece of experimental Divinity fo nobly written, and so justly reverenced and admired: But it must be acknowledged still, that there are a thousand Lines in it which were not made for a Church in our Days, to assume as its own: There are also many Desiciencies of Light and Glory, which our Lord Jesus and his Apostles have supply'd in the Writings of the New Testament; and with this Advantage I have compos'd these Spiritual Songs, which are now presented to the World. Nor is the Attempt vain-glorious or prefuming; for in respect of clear Evangelical Knowledge, The least in the Kingdom of Heaven is greater than all the Jewish Prophets, Matt. xi. 11.

Now let me give a short Account of the following Composures.

The

The greatest Part of them are suited to the general State of the Gospel, and the most common Affairs of Christians: I hope there will be very few found but what may properly be used in a religious Affembly, and not one of them but may well be adapted to some Seasons, either of private or of publick Worship. The most frequent Tempers and Changes of our Spirit, and Conditions of our Life, are here copied, and the Breathings of our Piety express'd according to the Variety of our Passions, our Love, our Fear, our Hope, our Defire, our Sorrow, our Wonder, and our Joy, as they are refined into Devotion, and act under the Influence and Conduct of the Bleffed Spirit; all converfing with God the Father by the new and living. Way of Access to the Throne, even the Person and the Mediation of our Lord Jesus Christ. To him also, even to the Lamb that was flain and now lives, I have address'd many a Song; for thus doth the Holy Scripture instruct and teach us to worship, in the various short Patterns of Christian Psalmody described in the Revelations. I have avoided the more obscure and controverted Points of Christis anity, that we might all obey the Direction of the Word of God, and fing his Praises with Understanding, Psal. xlvii. 7. The Contentions and distinguishing Words of Sects and Parties are fecluded, that whole Assemblies might assist at the Harmony, and different Churches join in the fame Worship without Offence.

If any Expressions occur to the Reader that fayour of an Opinion different from his own, yet A 4 he may observe, these are generally such as are capable of an extensive Sense, and may be used with a charitable Latitude. I think 'tis most agreeable, that what is provided for publick Singing, should give to sincere Consciences as little Disturbance as possible. However, where any unpleasing Word is found, he that leads the Worship may substitute a better; for (blessed be God) we are not confined to the Words of any Man in our publick Solemnities.

The whole Book is written in four Sorts of Metre, and fitted to the most common Tunes. I have feldom permitted a Stop in the middle of a Line, and seldom left the End of a Line without one, to comport a little with the unhappy Mixture of Reading and Singing, which cannot presently be reformed. The Metaphors are gemerally funk to the Level of vulgar Capacities. I have aim'd at Eafe of Numbers and Smoothnote of Sound, and endeavoured to make the Senfe plain and obvious. If the Verse appears so gentle and flowing as to incur the Cenfure of Feebleness, I may honestly affirm, that fometimes it coff me Labour to make it io: Some of the Beauties of Poety are neglected, and fome wilfully defac'd: I have thrown out the Lines that were too Tonorous, and have given an Allay to the Verfe, lest a more exalted Turn of Thought or Lawguage should darken or disturb the Devotion of The weakest Souls. But hence it comes to pass, that I have been forc'd to lay afide many Hymns after they were finish'd, and utterly exclude them from this Volume, because of the bolder Figures of Speech that crouded themselves into the Verse, and a more unconfin'd Variety of Number, which

I could not eafily restrain.

These, with many other Divine and Moral Composures, are now Printed in a Second Edition of the Poems, entitled, Hore Lyrice; for as in that Book I have endeavour'd to please and profit the politer Part of Mankind, without offending the plainer sort of Christians, so in this it has been my Labour to promote the pious Entertainments of Souls truly serious, even of the meanest Capacity, and at the same Time (if possible) not to give disgust to Persons of richer Sense, and nicer Education; and I hope, in the present Volume this End will appear to be pursu'd with much greater Happiness than in the first Impression of it, though the World assures me the former has not much reason to complain.

The whole is divided into three Books.

In the First, I have borrow'd the Sense and much of the Form of the Song from some particular Portions of Scripture, and have paraphrased most of the Doxologies in the New Testament, that contain any thing in them peculiarly Evangelical; and many Parts of the Old Testament also, that have a Reference to the Times of the Messale. In these I expect to be often censur'd for a too religious Observance of the Words of Scripture, whereby the Verse is weaken'd and debas'd, according to the Judgment of the Criticks: But as my whole Design was to aid the Devotion of Christians, so more especially in this Part: And I am satisfy'd I shall hereby attain two Ends, (viz.) Affift the Worship of all ferious Minds, to whom the Expressions of Scripture are ever dear and delightful, and Gratify the Taste and Inclination of those who think nothing must be sung unto God but the Translations of his own Word. Yet you will always find in this Paraphrase dark Expressions enlighten'd, and the Levitical Ceremonies and Hebrew Forms of Speech chang'd into the Worship of the Gospel, and explain'd in the Language of our Time and Nation; and what would not bear fuch an Alteration, is omitted and laid aside. After this Manner should I rejoice to see a good Part of the Book of Psalms fitted for the Use of our Churches, and David converted into a Christian: But because I cannot persuade others to attempt this glorious Work, I have fuffered my felf to be persuaded to begin it, and have, through Divine Goodness, already proceeded half way through.

The Second Part confifts of Hymns, whose Form is of mere Human Composure; but I hope the Sense and Materials will always appear Divine. I might have brought some Text or other, and apply'd it to the Margin of every Verse, if this Method had been as useful as it was easy. If there be any Poems in the Book that are capable of giving Delight to Persons of a more refin'd Taste and polite Education, perhaps they may be found in this Part; but except they lay aside the Humour of Criticism, and enter into a devout Frame, every Ode here already despairs of pleasing. I consess my self to have been too often tempted away from the more Spiritual Designs I propos'd,

propos'd, by some gay and slowery Expressions that gratify'd the Fancy; the bright Images too often prevail'd above the Fire of Divine Affection; and the Light exceeded the Heat: Yet, I hope, in many of them the Reader will find, that Devotion dictated the Song, and the Head and Hand were nothing but Interpreters and Secretaries to the Heart: Nor is the Magnisscence or Boldness of the Figures comparable to that Divine Licence which is found in the Eighteenth and Sixty-Eighth Psalms, several Chapters of Jab, and other Poetical Parts of Scripture: And in this Respect I may hope to escape the Reproof of those who pay a facred Reverence to the Holy Bible.

I have prepared the Third Part only for the Celebration of the Lord's Supper, that, in Imitation of our Bleffed Saviour, we might fing an Hymn after we have partaken of the Bread and Wine. Here you will find some Paraphrases of Scripture, and some other Compositions. There are above an Hundred Hymns in the Two sormer Parts, that may very properly be used in this Ordinance, and sometimes perhaps appear more suitable than any of these last: But there are Expressions generally used in these, which confine 'emonly to the Table of the Lord; and therefore I have distinguish'd and set 'em by themselves.

If the Lord, who inhabits the Praises of Ifrael, shall refuse to smile upon this Attempt for the Reformation of Psalmody amongst the Churches, yet I humbly hope that his Blessed Spirit will make these Composures useful to private

wate Christians; and if they may but attain the Honour of being esteem'd pious Meditations, to assist the devout and the retir'd Soul in the Exercises of Love, Faith, and Joy, 'twill be a valuable Compensation of my Labours: My Heart shall rejoice at the Notice of it, and my God shall receive the Glory. This was my Hope and Vow in the first Publication; and 'tis now my Duty to acknowledge to him, with Thankfulness, how useful he has made these Compositions already, to the Comfort and Ediscation of Societies, and of private Persons: And upon the same Grounds I have a better Prospect, and a bigger Hope of much more Service to the Church, by the large Improvements of this Edition, if the Lord who dwells in Zion shall saveur it with his continu'd Blessing.

Adver-

Advertisements concerning the Second Edition.

THERE are almost 150 new Hymns added, and one or more suited to every Theme and Subject in Divinity. Having found by Converse with Christians, what Words or Lines in the former made them less useful, I have not only made various Corrections in them, but have endeavour'd to avoid the same Mistakes in all the new Composures. And whereas many of the former were too particularly adapted to special Frames and Seasons of the Christian Life, almost all that are added have a more general and extensive Sense, and may be assumed and sung by most Persons in a worthipping Congregation.

2. About 14 or 15 Pfalms that were translated

2. About 14 or 15 Pfalms that were translated in the first Edition, are left out in this, because I intend (if God afford Life and Assistance) to convert the biggest Part of the Book of Pfalms into Spiritual Songs for the Use of Christians; yet the same Numbers are still apply'd to the Hymns, that there might be no Consusion between the first and second Edition.

3. In all the longer Hymns, and in some of the shorter, there are several Stanza's included in Crotchets, thus, []; which Stanza's may be left out in Singing, without disturbing the Sense. Those Parts are also included in such Crotchets, which contain Words too Poetical for meaner Understandings, or too particular for whole Congregations to sing. But after all, its best in publick Psalmody for the Minister to chuse the particular cular cular Parts and Verses of the Psalm or Hymn that is to be sung, rather than leave it to the Judgment or casual Determination of him that leads the Tune.

4. The Essay concerning the Improvement of Psalmody, by the Use of Evangelical Hymns, which took up many Pages of the last Edition, is quite lest out here, partly lest the Bulk should swell too much, but chiesly because I intend a more compleat Treatise of Psalmody, in which the Substance of that Essay will be interspers'd, and I hope with fuller Evidence of the Duty of singing new Songs to Him that sits upon the Throne, since the Lamb is ascended thither too.

April, 1709.

Note, Since the Sixth Edition of this Book the Author has finished what he had so long promis'd, (viz.) The Pfalms of David imitated in the Language of the New Testament; which the World seems to have received with Approbation, by the Sale of some Thousands in a Year's Time. There the Reader will find those Psalms, which were lest out of all the latter Editions of these Hymns, inserted in their proper Places. It is presumed that that Book, in Conjunction with this, may appear to be such a sufficient Provision for Psalmody, as to answer most Occasions of the Christian Life: And, if an Author's own Opinion may be taken, he esteems it the greatest Work that ever he has publish'd, or ever hopes to do, for the Use of the Churches.

Spiritual Songs.

BOOKI

Collected from the Holy Scriptures,

- I. A New Song to the Lamb that was flain, Rev. v. 6, 8, 9, 10, 12.
- Ehold the Glories of the Lamb Amidst his Father's Throne: Prepare new Honours for his Name, And Songs before unknown.
- 2 Let Elders worship at his Feet, The Church adore around, With Vials full of Odours sweet, And Harps of sweeter Sound.
- Those are the Prayers of the Saints, And these the Hymns they raise:

Tejus

B. I.

Jesus is kind to our Complaints, He loves to hear our Praise.

[4 Eternal Father, who shall look
Into thy fecret Will?
Who but the Son should take that Book,
And open ev'ry Seal?

5 He shall sulfil thy great Decrees,
The Son deserves it well;
Lo, in his Hand the Sovereign Keys
Of Heav'n, and Death, and Hell!

- 6 Now to the Lamb, that once was flain, Be endless Bleffings paid; Salvation, Glory, Joy remain For ever on thy Head.
- 7 Thou hast redeem'd our Souls with Blood, Hast fet the Pris'ners free, Hast made us Kings and Priests to God, And we shall reign with thee.
- 8 The Worlds of Nature and of Grace Are put beneath thy Pow'r; Then shorten these delaying Days, And bring the promis'd Hour.
- II. The Deity and Humanity of Christ, John i. 1, 3, 14. and Col. i. 16. and Eph. iii. 9, 10.
- E'ER the blue Heav'ns were stretch'd abroad, From Everlasting was the Word;

With God he was; the Word was God, And must divinely be ador'd.

- 2 By his own Pow'r were all Things made; By him supported all Things stand; He is the whole Creation's Head, And Angels sly at his Command.
- 3 E'er Sin was born, or Satan fell, He led the Host of Morning-Stars; (Thy Generation who can tell; Or count the Number of thy Years?)
- 4 But lo, he leaves those Heavenly Forms, The Word descends and dwells in Clay, That he may hold Converse with Worms, Dress'd in such feeble Flesh as they.
- 5 Mortals with Joy beheld his Face, Th' Eternal Father's only Son; How full of Truth! how full of Grace! When thro' his Eyes the Godhead shone!
- 6 Arch-Angels leave their high Abode, To learn new Mystries here, and tell The Loves of our descending God, The Glories of Emanuel.
- III. The Nativity of Christ, Luke i. 30, &c. Luke ii. 10, &c.
- The Promise is sulfill'd;

 Mary the Wond'rous Virgin bears,

 And Jesus is the Child.

[2 The

The Lord, the Highest God,
 Calls him his only Son;
 He bids him rule the Lands abroad,
 And gives him David's Throne.

3 O'er Jacob shall he reign With a peculiar Sway;

The Nations shall his Grace obtain, His Kingdom ne'er decay.]

4 To bring the glorious News,
A heavenly Form appears;
He tells the Shepherds of their Joys,
And banishes their Fears.

5 Go, humble Swains, said he, To David's City fly; The promis'd Infant, born to Day, Doth in a Manger lie.

6 With Looks and Hearts ferene Go visit Christ your King; And strait a slaming Troop was seen: The Shepherds heard them sing,

7 Glory to God on High!
And heavenly Peace on Earth,
Good-will to Men, to Angels Joy,
At the Redeemer's Birth!

[8 In Worship so Divine

Let Saints employ their Tongues,

With the Celestial Host we join,

And loud repeat their Songs;

9 Glory to God on High!

And heavenly Peace on Earth,

Good-will to Men, to Angels Joy, At our Redeemer's Birth!]

IV. Referr'd to the 2d Pfalms.

V. Submission to Afflictive Providences, Job i. 21.

- And crept to Life at first,
 We to the Earth return again,
 And mingle with our Dust.
- 2 The dear Delights we here enjoy, And fondly call our own, Are but short Favours borrow'd Now, To be repaid Anon.
- 3 'Tis God that lifts our Comforts high, Or finks them in the Grave, He gives, and (bleffed be his Name!) He takes but what he gave.
- 4 Peace, all our angry Passions then, Let each rebellious Sigh Be silent at his Sovereign Will, And ev'ry Murmur die.
- 5 If smiling Mercy crown our Lives, Its Praises shall be spread, And we'll adore the Justice too That strikes our Comforts dead.

VI. Tri-

VI. Triumph over Death, Job xix. 25, 26 27.

- Reat God, I own the Sentence just,
 And Nature must decay;
 I yield my Body to the Dust,
 To dwell with Fellow-Clay.
- 2 Yet Faith may triumph o'er the Grave, And trample on the Tombs: My Jesus, my Redeemer lives, My God, my Saviour, comes.
- The mighty Conqu'ror shall appear High on a Royal Seat, And Death, the last of all his Foes, Lie vanquish'd at his Feet.
- 4 Tho' greedy Worms devour my Skin, And gnaw my wasting Flesh, When God shall build my Bones again, He clothes'em all afresh:
- 5 Then shall I see thy lovely Face With strong immortal Eyes, And feast upon thy unknown Grace With Pleasure and Surprize.
- VII. The Invitation of the Gospel: Or, spiritual Food and Cloathing, Isa. lv. 1, 2, &c.
- ET ev'ry mortal Ear attend, And ev'ry Heart rejoice,

The Trumpet of the Gospel founds With an inviting Voice.

- 2 Ho! all ye hungry starving Souls,
 That feed upon the Wind,
 And vainly strive with earthly Toys
 To fill an empty Mind;
- 3 Eternal Wisdom has prepar'd A Soul-reviving Feast, And bids your longing Appetites. The rich Provision taste.
- 4 Ho! ye that pant for living Streams,
 And pine away and die;
 Here you may quench your raging Thirst
 With Springs that never dry.
- 5 Rivers of Love and Mercy here
 In a rich Ocean join;
 Salvation in abundance flows,
 Like Floods of Milk and Wine;
- [6 Ye perishing and naked Poor,
 Who work with mighty Pain,
 To weave a Garment of your own,
 That will not hide your Sin;
- 7 Come naked, and adorn your Souls In Robes prepar'd by God, Wrought by the Labours of his Son, And dy'd in his own Blood.]
- 8 Dear God! the Treasures of thy Love-Are everlasting Mines, Deep as our helples Miseries are, And boundless as our Sins!

9 The happy Gates of Gospel-Grace Stand open Night and Day: Lord, we are come to seek Supplies, And drive our Wants away.

VIII. The Safety and Protection of the Church, Isa. xxvi. 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6.

HOW honourable is the Place
Where we adoring fland,
Zion, the Glory of the Earth,
And Beauty of the Land!

2 Bulwarks of mighty Grace defend The City where we dwell; The Walls, of strong Salvation made, Defy th' Assaults of Hell.

The Doors wide open fling;
Enter ye Nations, that obey
The Statutes of our King.

4 Here shall you taste unmingled Joys, And live in persect Peace; You that have known Jebovah's Name, And ventur'd on his Grace.

5 Trust in the Lord, for ever trust, And banish all your Fears: Strength in the Lord Jebevah dwells, Eternal as his Years.

6 What tho' the Rebels dwell on high,
His Arm shall bring them low;
Low as the Caverns of the Grave
Their lofty Heads shall bow.

- 7 On Babylon our Feet shall tread, In that rejoicing Hour; The Ruins of her Walls shall spread A Pavement for the Poor.
- IX. The Promises of the Covenant of Grace, Isa. lv. 1, 2. Zech. xiii. 1. Mich. vii. 19. Ezek. xxxvi. 25, &c.
 - I N vain we lavish out our Lives,
 To gather empty Wind;
 The choicest Blessings Earth can yield
 Will starve a hungry Mind.
 - 2 Come, and the Lord shall feed our Souls With more substantial Meat, With such as Saints in Glory love, With such as Angels eat.
 - Our God will ev'ry Want supply, And fill our Hearts with Peace; He gives by Cov'nant and by Oath The Riches of his Grace.
 - And wash away our Stains

 In the dear Fountain that his Son

 Pour'd from his dying Veins.
 - [5 Our Guilt shall vanish all away, Tho' black as Hell before; Our Sins shall fink beneath the Sea, And shall be found no more.
 - 6 And lest Pollution should o'erspread Our inward Pow'rs again,

His

His Spirit shall bedew our Souls Like purifying Rain.]

- 7 Our Heart, that flinty stubborn Thing, That Terrors cannot move, That fears no Threatnings of his Wrath, Shall be diffolv'd by Love:
- 8 Or he can take the Flint away That would not be refin'd. And from the Treasures of his Grace Bestow a softer Mind.
- 9 There shall his facred Spirit dwell, And deep engrave his Law, And ev'ry Metion of our Souls To swift Obedience draw.
- Thus will He pour Salvation down And we shall render Praise: We the dear People of his Love, And He our God of Grace.
- X. The Blessedness of Gospel-Times: Or, The Revelation of Christ to Tews and Gentiles, Ifa. v. 2, 7, 8, 9, 10. Matt. xiii. 16, 17.
- HOW beauteous are their Feet Who stand on Zion's Hill, Who bring Salvation on their Tongues, And Words of Peace reveal!
 - 2 How charming is their Voice! How fweet the Tidings are !

" Zion,

" Zion, behold thy Saviour King,
" He reigns and triumphs here.

3 How happy are our Ears,
That hear this joyful Sound,
Which Kings and Prophets waited for,
And fought, but never found!

4 How bleffed are our Eyes,
That fee this Heav'nly Light;
Prophets and Kings defir'd it long,
But dy'd without the Sight!

5 The Watchmen join their Voice, And tuneful Notes employ; Ferufalem breaks forth in Songs, And Defarts learn the Joy.

6 The Lord makes bare his Arm Thro' all the Earth abroad; Let ev'ry Nation now behold Their Saviour and their God.

XI. The Humble enlightened, and Carnal Reason humbled: Or, The Sovereignty of Grace, Luke x. 21, 22.

Here was an Hour when Christ rejoic'd, And spoke his Joy in Words of Praise; "Father, I thank thee, mighty God,

" Lord of the Earth, and Heavens and Seas.

I thank thy Sov'reign Pow'r and Love,
 That crowns my Doctrine with Success;

... And

- "And makes the Babes in Knowledge learn
 "The Heights, and Breadths, and Lengths of Grace.
- 3 "But all this Glory lies conceal'd From Men of Prudence and of Wit;
 - "The Prince of Darkness blinds their Eyes,
 - " And their own Pride refists the Light.
- 4 " Father, 'tis thus, because thy Will
 - " Chose and ordain'd it should be so;
 - "Tis thy Delight t'abase the Proud,
 - " And lay the haughty Scorner low.
- 5 "There's none can know the Father right,
 - "But those who learn it from the Son;
 - " Nor can the Son be well receiv'd,
 " But where the Father makes him known."
- 6 Then let our Souls adore our God, That deals his Graces as he please; Nor gives to Mortals an Account Or of his Actions, or Decrees.

XII. Free Grace in revealing Christ, Luke x, 21.

- JEsus the Man of constant Grief,
 A Mourner all his Days;
 His Spirit once rejoic'd aloud,
 And turn'd his Joy to Praise.
- 2 Father, I thank thy wond rous Love, That hath reveal d thy Son To Men unlearned; and to Babes Has made thy Gospel known.

3 The

- 3 The Myst'ries of Redeeming Grace.
 Are hidden from the Wise,
 While Pride and carnal Reas'nings join
 To swell and blind their Eyes.
- 4 Thus doth the Lord of Heav'n and Earth
 His great Decrees fulfil,
 And orders all his Works of Grace
 By his own Sov'reign Will.
 - XIII. The Son of God incarnate: Or, The Titles and the Kingdom of Christ, Isa. ix. 2, 6, 7.
- THE Lands that long in Darkness lay, Now have beheld a heav'nly Light; Nations that sat in Death's cold Shade Are bless'd with Beams divinely bright,
- 2 The Virgin's promis'd Son is born; Behold th' expected Child appear: What shall his Names or Titles be? The Wonderful, The Counsellor.
- [3 This Infant is the Mighty God, Come to be fuckled and ador'd; Th' Eternal Father, Prince of Peace, The Son of David, and his Lord.]
- 4 The Government of Earth and Seas Upon his Shoulders shall be laid; His wide Dominions shall increase, And Honours to his Name be paid.
- 5 Jesus the holy Child shall sit High on his Father David's Throne,

Shall

Shall crush his Foes beneath his Feet, And reign to Ages yet unknown.

- XIV. The Triumph of Faith: Or, Christ's unchangeable Love, Rom. viii. 33, &c.
- HO shall the Lord's Elect condemn? 'Tis God that justifies their Souls, And Mercy, like a mighty Stream, O'er all their Sins divinely rolls.
- Who shall adjudge the Saints to Hell? 'Tis Christ that suffer'd in their stead; And the Salvation to sulfil, Behold him rising from the Dead.
- 3 He lives! he lives! and fits Above, For ever interceding there: Who shall divide us from his Love, Or what should tempt us to despair?
- 4 Shall Persecution, or Distress,
 Famine, or Sword, or Nakedness?
 He that hath lov'd us, bears us thro',
 And makes us more than Conqu'rors too.
- 5 Faith hath an overcoming Power, It triumphs in the dying Hour: Christ is our Life, our Joy, our Hope, Nor can we fink with such a Prop.
- 6 Not all that Men on Earth can do, Nor Pow'rs on high, nor Pow'rs below, Shall cause his Mercy to remove, Or wean our Hearts from Christ, our Love.

- XV. Our own Weakness, and Christ our Strength, 2 Cor. xii. 7, 9, 10.
- ET me but hear my Saviour say, Strength shall be equal to the Day; Then I rejoice in deep Distress, Leaning on all-sufficient Grace.
- I glory in Infirmity,
 That Christ's own Pow'r may rest on me:
 When I am weak, then am I strong,
 Grace is my Shield, and Christ my Song.
- 3 I can do all Things, or can bear All Suff'rings, if my Lord be there; Sweet Pleasures mingle with the Pains, While his Lest-hand my Head sustains.
- 4 But if the Lord be once withdrawn, And we attempt the Work alone, When new Temptations spring and rise, We find how great our Weakness is.
- 5 So Sampson, when his Hair was lost, Met the Philistines to his Cost; Shook his vain Limbs with fad Surprize, Made feeble Fight, and lost his Eyes.
- XVI. Hosanna to Christ, Matt. xxi. 9. Luke xix. 38, 40.
- I HOsanna to the Royal Son Of David's ancient Line!

His

.His Nature's Two, his Person One, Mysterious and Divine.

- 2 The Root of David here we find, And Off-spring is the same; Eternity and Time are join'd In our Emanuel's Name.
- 3 Bless'd He that comes to wretched Men With peaceful News from Heav'n!

 Hosanna's of the highest Strain
 To Christ the Lord be giv'n!
- Th' Hosana on their Tongues,
 Their Silence into Songs.

XVII. Victory over Death, 1 Cor. xv. 55, &c.

- For an over-coming Faith
 To chear my dying Hours,
 To triumph o'er the Monster Death,
 And all his frightful Pow'rs!
- 2 Joyful, with all the Strength I have, My quiv'ring Lips should sing, Where is thy boasted Vist'ry, Grave? And where the Monster's Sting?
- Jeath hath no Sting befide;
 The Law gives Sin its damning Pow'r;
 But Chrift, my Ransom, dy'd.

4 Now to the God of Victory
Immortal Thanks be paid,
Who makes us Conqu'rors while we die,
Through Christ our living Head.

XVIII. Blessed are the Dead that die in the Lord, Rev. xiv. 13.

- For all the pious Dead, (claims Sweet is the Savour of their Names, And foft their fleeping Bed.
- They die in Jesus, and are bles'd; How kind their Slumbers are! From Suff'rings and from Sins releas'd, And freed from ev'ry Snare.
- 3 Far from this World of Toil and Strife, They're present with the Lord; The Labours of their Mortal Life End in a large Reward.

XIX. The Song of Simeon: Or, Death made defirable, Luke i. 27, &c.

- I ORD, at thy Temple we appear,
 As happy Simeon came,
 And hope to meet our Saviour here;
 O make our Joys the same!
- 2 With what divine and vast Delight The good old Man was fill'd,

When

- When fondly in his wither'd Arms
 He clasp'd the holy Child!
- 3 Now I can leave this World, he cry'd,
 Behold thy Servant dies;
 I've feen thy great Salvation, Lord,
 And close my peaceful Eyes.
- 4 This is the Light prepar'd to shine
 Upon the Gentile Lands,
 Thine Israel's Glory, and their Hope,
 To break their slavish Bands.
- [5 Jesus! the Vision of thy Face
 Hath over-pow'ring Charms;
 Scarce shall I seel Death's cold Embrace,
 If Christ be in my Arms.
- Then will ye hear my Heart-strings break,
 How sweet my Minutes roll!
 A mortal Paleness on my Cheek,
 And Glory in my Soul.]
- XX. Spiritual Apparel (viz.) The Robe of Righteousness, and Garments of Salvation, Isa. lxi. 10.
- A Wake my Heart, arise my Tongue, Prepare a tuneful Voice; In God, the Life of all my Joys, Aloud will I rejoice.
- 2 'Tis He adorn'd my naked Soul,
 And made Salvation mine;
 Upon a poor polluted Worm
 He makes his Graces shine.

3 And

- 3 And left the Shadow of a Spot Should on my Soul be found, He took the Robe the Saviour wrought, And cast it all around.
- 4 How far the heav'nly Robe exceeds
 What earthly Princes wear!
 These Ornaments, how bright they shine!
 How white the Garments are!
 - 5 The Spirit wrought my Faith and Love, And Hope, and ev'ry Grace; But Jesus spent his Life, to work The Robe of Righteousness.
 - 6 Strangely, my Soul, art thou array'd By the Great Sacred Three! In fweetest Harmony of Praise Let all thy Pow'rs agree.
 - XXI. A Vision of the Kingdom of Christ among Men, Rev. xxi. 1, 2, 3, 4.
 - To our believing Eyes!
 The Earth and Seas are pass'd away,
 And the old rolling Skies.
 - 2 From the third Heav'n, where God refides, That holy, happy Place, The New Jerusalem comes down Adorn'd with shining Grace.
 - 3 Attending Angels shout for Joy, And the bright Armies sing,

Mor-

Mortals, behold the facred Seat Of your descending King.

- 4 The God of Glory down to Men Removes his bless'd Abode; Men the dear Objects of his Grace, And He the loving God.
- 5 His own foft Hand shall wipe the Tears
 From ev'ry weeping Eye,
 And Pains, and Groans, and Griefs, and Fears,
 And Death itself shall die.
- 6 How long, dear Saviour, O how long!
 Shall this bright Hour delay?
 Fly fwifter round ye Wheels of Time,
 And bring the welcome Day.

XXII, and XXIII. Referr'd to the 125th Pfalm.

XXIV. The rich Sinner dying, Pfal. xlix. 6, 9. Eccl. viii. 8. Job iii. 14,15.

- IN vain the wealthy Mortals toil,
 And heap their shining Dust in wain,
 Look down and scorn the humble Poor,
 And boast their losty Hills of Gain.
- Their Golden Cordials cannot eafe Their pained Hearts or aching Heads, Nor fright, nor bribe, approaching Death From glittering Roofs and downy Beds.
- 3 The lingring, the unwilling Soul, The dismal Summons must obey,

And

And bid a long, a fad Farewel, To the pale Lumps of lifeless Clay.

4 Thence they are huddled to the Grave, Where Kings and Slaves have equal Thrones: Their Bones without Diffinction lie Amongst the Heap of meaner Bones.

The rest referr'd to the 49th Psalm.

XXV. A Vision of the Lamb, Rev. v. 6, 7, 8, 9.

- L L Mortal Vanities be gone,
 Nor tempt my Eyes, nor tire my Ears:
 Behold amidst th' eternal Throne
 A Vision of the Lamb appears.
- [2 Glory his fleecy Robe adorns, Mark'd with the bloody Death he bore; Sev'n are his Eyes, and Sev'n his Horns, To speak his Wisdom and his Pow'r.
- 3 Lo, he receives a sealed Book
 From Him that fits upon the Throne;
 Jefus, my Lord, prevails to look
 On dark Decrees, and Things unknown.
- 4 All the affembling Saints around Fall worshipping before the Lamb, And in new Songs of Gospel-sound Address their Honours to his Name.
- [5 The Joy, the Shout, the Harmony Flies o'er the Everlasting Hills;

Worthy

Worthy art thou alone (they cry) To read the Book, to loose the Seals.]

- 6 Our Voices join the heav'nly Strain, And with transporting Pleasure fing, Worthy the Lamb that once was slain, To be our Teacher and our King!
- 7 His Words of Prophecy reveal
 Eternal Counsels, deep Designs;
 His Grace and Vengeance shall sulfil
 The peaceful and the dreadful Lines:
- With thine invaluable Bood;
 And Wretches that did once rebel,
 Are now made Fav'rites of their God.
- Worthy for ever is the Lord, That dy'd for Treasons not his own, By ev'ry Tongue to be ador'd, And dwell upon his Father's Throne!

XXVI. Hope of Heaven by the Resurrection of Christ, 1 Pet. i. 3, 4, 5.

- The Father of our Lord;
 Be his abounding Mercy prais'd,
 His Majesty ador'd.
- When from the Dead he rais'd his Son,
 And call'd him to the Sky,
 He gave our Souls a lively Hope
 That they should never die.

3 What

- What the our inbred Sins require Our Flesh to see the Dust, Yet as the Lord our Saviour rose, So all his Followers must.
- 4 There's an Inheritance Divine Referv'd against that Day; 'Tis uncorrupted, undefil'd, And cannot waste away,
- 5 Saints by the Pow'r of God are kept 'Till the Salvation come; We walk by Faith, as Strangers here, 'Till Christ shall call us home.
- XXVII. Assurance of Heaven: Or, a Saint prepar'd to die, 2 Tim. iv. 6, 7, 8, 18.
- Eath may diffolve my Body now,

 Nor my Salvation come?
- with heav'nly Weapons I have fought The Battles of the Lord, Finish'd my Course, and kept the Faith, And wait the sure Reward.]
- 3 God has laid up in Heav'n for me A Crown which cannot fade; The Righteous Judge at that great Day Shall place it on my Head.
- 4 Nor hath the King of Grace decreed
 This Prize for me alone;

But

But all that love, and long to fee Th' Appearance of his Son.

- 5 Jesus, the Lord, shall guard me safe From ev'ry ill Design; And to his heav'nly Kingdom keep This seeble Soul of mine.
- 6 God is my everlafting Aid,
 And Hell shall rage in vain;
 To him be highest Glory paid,
 And endless Praise. Amen.
- XXVIII. The Triumph of Christ over the Enemies of his Church, Isa. lxiii. ... 1, 2, 3, &c.

 The Circuit of his Race begins,
 And without Weariness or Rest
 Round the whole Earth he slies and shines.
- 3 Oh, like the Sun, may I fulfil
 Th' appointed Duties of the Day,
 With ready Mind and active Will
 March on and keep my heav'nly Way.
- [4 But I shall rove and lose the Race, If God, my Sun, should disappear, And leave me in this World's wild Maze To follow ev'ry wand'ring Star.

- 3 Pure are the Joys above the Sky, And all the Region Peace; No wanton Lips nor envious Eye Can fee or taste the Blifs.
- 4 Those holy Gates for ever bar Pollution, Sin, and Shame; None shall obtain Admittance there But Foll'wers of the Lamb.
- 5 He keeps the Father's Book of Life, There all their Names are found; The Hypocrite in vain shall strive To tread the heav'nly Ground.

CVI. Dead to Sin by the Cross of Christ, Rom. vi. 1, 2, 6.

SHALL we go on to fin, Because thy Grace abounds, Or crucify the Lord again, And open all his Wounds?

2 Forbid it, mighty God!
Nor let it e'er be faid, '
That we whose Sins are crucify'd,
Should raise them from the Dead.

3 We will be Slaves no more, Since Christ has made us free, Has nail our Tyrants to his Cross, And bought our Liberty.

- CVII. The Fall and Recovery of Man: Or, Christ and Satan at Enmity, Gen. iii. 1, 15, 17. Gal. iv. 4. Col. ii. 15.
- Eceiv'd by fubtle Snares of Hell,

 Adam our Head, our Father, fell,

 When Satan in the Serpent hid,

 Propos'd the Fruit that God forbid.
- 2 Death was the Threatning: Death began To take Possession of the Man; His unborn Race received the Wound, And heavy Curses smote the Ground.
- 3 But Satan found a worse Reward; Thus saith the Vengeance of the Lord, Let everlasting Hatred be Betwint the Woman's Seed and Thee,
- 4 The Woman's Seed shall be my Son, He shall destroy what thou hast done; Shall break thy Head, and only feel Thy Malice raging at his Heel.
- [5 He spake; and bid four Thousand Years Roll on; at length his Son appears; Angels with Joy descend to Earth, And fing the young Redeemer's Birth.
- 6' Lo, by the Sons of Hell he dies;
 But as he hung 'twixt Earth and Skies,
 He gave their Prince a fatal Blow,
 And triumph'd o'er the Pow'rs below.]

CVIII. Christ unseen and beloved, 1 Pet. i. 8.

Have we beheld the Lord,
Yet we rejoice to hear his Name,
And love him in his Word.

2. On Earth we want the Sight
Of our Redeemer's Face,
Yet, Lord, our inmost Thoughts delight
To dwell upon thy Grace.

3 And when we tafte thy Love, Our Joys divinely grow Unspeakable, like those above, And Heav'n begins below.

CIX. The Value of Christ, and his Righteousness, Phil. iii. 7, 8, 9.

- Of all the Duties I have done;
 I quit the Hopes I held before
 To trust the Merits of thy Son.
- 2 Now for the Love I bear his Name, What was my Gain I count my Loss; My former Pride I call my Shame, And nail my Glory to his Crois.

 All Things but Loss for Jesus' sake:
 O may my Soul be found in him,
 And of his Righteousness partake!

4 The best Obedience of my Hands
Dares not appear before thy Throne;
But Faith can answer thy Demands,
By pleading what my Lord has done.

CX. Death and immediate Glory, 2 Cor. v. 1, 5—8.

- There is a House not made with Hands, Eternal, and on high, And here my Spirit waiting stands
 Till God shall bid it sly.
- 2 Shortly this Prison of my Clay
 Must be dissolv'd and fall;
 Then, O my Soul, with Joy obey
 Thy heav'nly Father's Call.
- 3 'Tis He, by his Almighty Grace, That forms thee fit for Heav'n; And, as an Earnest of the Place, Has his own Spirit giv'n.
- 4 We walk by Faith of Joys to come, Faith lives upon his Word; But while the Body is our Home We're absent from the Lord.
- 5 'Tis pleasant to believe thy Grace,
 But we had rather see;
 We would be absent from the Flesh,
 And present, Lord, with Thee.

CXI. Salvation by Grace, Titus iii. 3—7.

 How great our Guilt has been!
 Foolish and vain were all our Thoughts,
 And all our Lives were Sin.
- 2 But, O my Soul, for ever praise,
 For ever love his Name,
 Who turns thy Feet from dang rous Ways,
 Of Folly, Sin, and Shame.]
- [3 'Tis not by Works of Righteourness Which our own Hands have done; But we are fav'd by Sov'reign Grace, Abounding thro' his Son.]
- 4 'Tis from the Mercy of our God
 That all our Hopes begin;
 'Tis by the Water and the Blood
 Our Souls are wash'd from Sin.
 - 5 'Tis through the Purchase of his Death, Who hung upon the Tree, The Spirit is sent down to breathe On such dry Bones as we.
 - 6 Rais'd from the Dead we live anew; And justify'd by Grace, We shall appear in Glory too, And see our Father's Face.

- CXII. The Brazen Serpent: Or, Looking to Jesus, 3 John, ver. 14-16.
- S O did the Hebrew Prophet raise The brazen Serpent high; The Wounded felt immediate Ease, The Camp forbore to die.
- 2 Look upward in the dying Hour, And live, the Prophet cries; But Christ performs a nobler Cure, When Faith lifts up her Eyes.
- 3 High on the Cross the Saviour hung,
 High on the Heav'ns he reigns:
 Here Sinners, by th' old Serpent stung,
 Look, and forget their Pains.
- 4 When God's own Son is lifted up,
 A dying World revives;
 The few beholds the glorious Hope,
 Th' expiring Gentile lives.

CXIV. The same, Rom. xi. 16, 17.

- 2 With the same Bleffings Grace bestows The Gentile and the Jew; If pure and holy be the Root, Such are the Branches too.

- 4 Thus to the Parents and their Seed Shall thy Salvation come, And num'rous Housholds meet at last In one eternal Home.

CXV. Conviction of Sin by the Law, Rom. vii. 8, 9, 14, 24.

- I ORD, how secure my Conscience was,
 And felt no inward Dread!
 I was alive without the Law,
 And thought my Sins were dead.
- 2 My Hopes of Heav'n were firm and bright; But fince the Precept came With a convincing Pow'r and Light, I find how vile I am.
- [3 My Guilt appear'd but small before, 'Till terribly I saw How Persect, Holy, Just and Pure Was thine eternal Law.
- 4 Then felt my Soul the heavy Load, My Sins reviv'd again, I had provok'd a dreadful God, And all my Hopes were flain.]
- 5 I'm like a helples Captive sold, Under the Pow'r of Sin; I cannot do the Good I would, Nor keep my Conscience clean.
- 6 My God, I cry with ev'ry Breath For fome kind Pow'r to fave, To break the Yoke of Sin and Death, And thus redeem the Slave.

CXVI.

" Then shall thy Neighbour next in Place

" Share thine Affections and Esteem. " And let thy Kindness to thy self

- " Measure and rule thy Love to him."
- 3 This is the Sense that Moses spoke, This did the Prophets preach and prove; For want of this the Law is broke, And the whole Law's fulfill'd by Love.
- 4 But oh! how base our Passions are! How cold our Charity and Zeal! Lord, fill our Souls with heav'nly Fire, Or we shall ne'er perform thy Will.

And mould it for a nobler End, And which to leave for viler Use?]

- 3 May not the Sov'reign Lord on high Dispense his Favours as he will, Chuse some to Life, while others die, And yet be just and gracious still?
- [4 What if to make his Terror known, He lets his Patience long endure, Suff'ring vile Rebels to go on, And feal their own Destruction fure?
- 5 What if he means to show his Grace, And his electing Love employs To mark out some of mortal Race, And forms them fit for heav'nly Joys?
- 6 Shall Man reply against the Lord, And call his Maker's Ways unjust, The Thunder of whose dreadful Word Can crush a thousand Worlds to Dust?
- 7 But, O my Soul, if Truth so bright Should dazzle and confound thy Sight, Yet still his written Will obey, And wait the Great decisive Day.
- 8 Then shall he make his Justice known, And the whole World, before his Throne, With Joy, or Terror, shall confess The Glory of his Righteousness.

CXVIII.

CXVIII. Moses and Christ: Or, Sins against the Law and Gospel, John i. 17. Heb. iii. 3, 5, 6. and x. 28, 29.

HE Law by Moses came, But Peace, and Truth, and Love, Were brought by Christ (a nobler Name) Descending from above.

2 Amidst the House of God Their diff'rent Works were done : Moles a faithful Servant stood, But Christ a faithful Son.

3 Then to his new Commands Be firict Obedience paid; O'er all his Father's House he stands The Sov'reign and the Head.

4 The Man that durst despise The Law that Moses brought; Behold! how terribly he dies For his prefumptuous Fault.

5 But forer Vengeance falls On that rebellious Race, Who hate to hear when Fefus calls, And dare relist his Grace.

CXIX. The different Success of the Gospel, 1 Cor. i. 23, 24. 2 Cor. ii. 16. 1 Cor. iii. 6, 7.

- The Mystries that we speak
 Are Scandal in the Jews Esteem,
 And Folly to the Greek:
- But Souls enlighten'd from above
 With Joy receive the Word;
 They fee what Wisdom, Pow'r, and Love Shines in their dying Lord.
- The Vital Savour of his Name Restores their fainting Breath; But Unbelief perverts the same To Guilt, Despair, and Death.
- 4 'Till God diffuse his Graces down, Like Show'rs of heav'nly Rain, In vain Apollos sows the Ground, And Paul may plant in vain.

 Of Things beyond our Sight,
 Breaks thro' the Clouds of Flesh and Sense,
 And dwells in heav'nly Light.
 F 2 It

- 2 It sets Times past in present View, Brings distant Prospects home, Of Things a thousand Years ago, Or thousand Years to come.
- 3 By Faith we know the Worlds were made By God's Almighty Word; Abra'm, to unknown Countries led, By Faith obey'd the Lord.
- 4 He fought a City fair and high,
 Built by th' eternal Hands;
 And Faith affures us, tho' we die,
 That heav'nly Building stands.

I'll bless thy num'rous Race, and they Shall be a Seed for me.

- Abra'm believ'd the promis'd Grace,
 And gave his Sons to God;
 But Water feals the Bleffing now,
 That once was feal'd with Blood.
- Thus Lydia fanctify'd her House, When she receiv'd the Word; Thus the believing Jailor gave His Houshold to the Lord.
- 4 Thus later Saints, eternal King, Thine ancient Truth embrace;

To

To thee their Infant-Offspring bring, And humbly claim the Grace.

CXXII. Believers buried with Christ in Baptism, Rom. vi. 3, 4, &c.

- That we are bury'd with the Lord;
 Baptiz'd into his Death, and then
 Put off the Body of our Sin?
- 2 Our Souls receive diviner Breath, Rais'd from Corruption, Guilt and Death: So from the Grave did Christ arise, And lives to God above the Skies.
- 3 No more let Sin or Satan reign Over our mortal Flesh again; The various Lusts we serv'd before Shall have Dominion now no more.

CXXIII. The Repenting Prodigal, Luke xv. 13, &c.

- BEhold the Wretch whose Lust and Wine Had wasted his Estate,
 He begs a Share amongst the Swine,
 To taste the Husks they eat!
- 2 I die with Hunger, here, he cries, I starve in foreign Lands; My Father's House has large Supplies, And bounteous are his Hands.

3 I'll

Fall down before his Face;
Father, I've done thy Justice wrong,
Nor can deserve thy Grace.

He faid, and haften'd to his Home, To feek his Father's Love; The Father faw the Rebel come, And all his Bowels move.

5 He ran, and fell upon his Neck, Embrac'd and kiss'd his Son; The Rebel's Heart with Sorrow brake For Follies he had done.

6 Take off his Cloaths of Shame and Sin, (The Father gives Command) Dress him in Garments white and clean, With Rings adorn his Hand.

7 A Day of Feafting I ordain, Let Mirth and Joy abound; My Son was dead, and lives again, Was loft, and now is found.

CXXIV. The First and Second Adam, Rom. v. 12, &c.

Whence sprung our Nature and our Shame!

 Who join'd our Nature to his own:
 Adam the Second from the Dust
 Raises the Ruins of the First.
- [5] By the Rebellion of one Man Thro' all his Seed the Mischief ran; And by one Man's Obedience now Are all his Seed made righteous too.

 His Bowels melt with Love.

 He knows what fore Temptations mean,

 For he has felt the fame.

 The Great Redeemer stood,
 While Satan's fiery Darts he bore,
 And did resist to Blood.

 Pour'd out his Cries and Tears,
 And in his Measure feels afresh
 What ev'ry Member bears.
- [5 He'll never quench the smoaking Flax, But raise it to a Flame; The bruised Reed he never breaks, Nor scorns the meanest Name.]

 The Lord displays deliving Pow'r;
 The Mount of Danger is the Place
 Where we shall see surprizing Grace.

- 2 Clamour and Wrath and War be gone, Envy and Spite for ever cease, Let bitter Words no more be known Amongst the Saints, the Sons of Peace.
- 3 The Spirit, like a peaceful Dove, Flies from the Realms of. Noise and Strife; Why should we vex and grieve his Love, Who seals our Souls to heav'nly Life?
- Tender and kind be all our Thoughts, Thro' all our Lives let Mercy-run: So God forgives our num'rous Faults. For the dear take of Christ his Son.

CXXXI. The Pharisee and Publican, Luke xviii. 10, &c.

- The Publican and Pharifee!
 One doth his Righteousness proclaim,
 The other owns his Guilt and Shame.
- 2 This Man at humble Distance stands, And cries for Grace with listed Hands; That boldly rises near the Throne, And talks of Duties he has done,
- The Lord their diff'rent Language knows, And diff'rent Answers he bestows; The humble Soul with Grace he crowns, Whilst on the Proud his Anger frowns.
- 4 Dear Father, let me never be Join'd with the boasting Pharisee; I have no Merits of my own, But plead the Suff'rings of thy Son.

CXXXII. Holiness and Grace, Tit. ii.

- O let our Lips and Lives express
 The Holy Gospel we proses;
 So let our Works and Virtues shine,
 To prove the Doctsine all Divine.
 - Thus shall we best proclaim abroad The Honours of our Saviour God; When the Salvation reigns within, And Grace subdues the Pow'r of Sin.

3 Our

 Passion and Envy, Lust and Pride;
 Whilst Justice, Temp'rance, Truth and Love,
 Our inward Piety approve.
- 4 Religion bears our Spirits up,
 While we expect that bleffed Hope,
 The bright Appearance of the Lord,
 And Faith stands leaning on his Word.

And hald his Honours long.

CXLIII. Characters of the Children of God, from several Scriptures.

So Saints with Joy the Gospel taste, And by the Gospel live.

[2 With inward Gust their Heart approves
All that the World relates;
They love the Men their Father loves,
And hate the Works he hates.]

[3 Not all the flatt'ring Baits on Earth
Can make them Slaves to Lust;
They can't forget their heav'nly Birth,
Nor grovel in the Dust.

4 Not all the Chains that Tyrants use
Shall bind their Souls to Vice:
Faith, like a Conqu'ror, can produce
A thousand Victories.]

[5 Grace,

[5 Grace, like an uncorrupted Seed,
Abides and reigns within;
Immortal Principles forbid
The Sons of God to fin.]

- [6 Not by the Terrors of a Slave
 Do they perform his Will,
 But with the noblest Pow'rs they have
 His fweet Commands fulfil.]
- 7 They find Access at ev'ry Hour To God within the Vale; Hence they derive a quick'ning Pow'r, And Joys that never fail.
- 8 O happy Souls! O glorious State
 Of over-flowing Grace!
 To dwell fo near their Father's Seat,
 And fee his lovely Face!
- 9 Lord, I address thy heav'nly Throne; Call me a Child of thine, Send down the Spirit of thy Son To form my Heart Divine.
- And make my Comforts strong;
 Then shall I say, My Father, God,
 With an unway ring Tongue.
- CXLIV. The Witnessing and Sealing Spirit, Rom. viii. 14, 16. Eph.i. 13, 14.

Great Comforter, descend and bring Some Tokens of thy Grace.

- 2 Doft thou not dwell in all the Saints, And feal the Heirs of Heav'n? When wilt thou banish my Complaints, And show my Sins forgiv'n?
- 3 Assure my Conscience of her Part In the Redeemer's Blood; And bear thy Witness with my Heart, That I am born of God.
- Thou art the Earnest of his Love,
 The Pledge of Joys to come;
 And thy soft Wings, Celestial Dove,
 Will safe convey me home.

CXLV. Christ and Aaron, taken from Heb. vii. and ix.

- JESUS, in thee our Eyes behold A thousand Glories more Than the rich Gems and polish'd Gold The Sons of Aaron wore.
- They first their own Burnt-Off rings brought,
 To purge themselves from Sin;
 Thy Life was pure without a Spot,
 And all thy Nature clean.
- [3 Fresh Blood, as constant as the Day,
 Was on their Altar spilt;
 But thy one Off ring takes away
 For ever all our Guilt.]

[4 Their

- [4 Their Priefthood ran thro' fev'ral Hands,
 For mortal was their Race;
 Thy never-changing Office ftands,
 Eternal as thy Days.]
- [5 Once in the Circuit of a Year,
 With Blood, but not his own,
 Aaron within the Vale appears;
 Before the Golden Throne.
- 6 But Christ by his own pow'rful Blood Ascends above the Skies, And, in the Presence of our God, Shows his own Sacrifice.
- 7 Jesus, The King of Glory, reigns On Sion's heav'nly Hill; Looks like a Lamb that has been slain, And wears his Priesthood still.
- 8 He ever lives to intercede
 Before his Father's Face:
 Give him, my Soul, thy Caufe to plead,
 Nor doubt the Father's Grace.
- CXLVI. Characters of Christ, borrowed from inanimate Things in Scripture.
- G O, worship at Immanuel's Feet, See in his Face what Wonders meet! Earth is too narrow to express His Worth, his Glory, or his Grace.
- [2 The whole Creation can afford But fome faint Shadows of my Lord;

Nature, to make his Beauties known, Must mingle Colours not her own.]

- [3 Is he compar'd to Wine or Bread?

 Dear Lord, our Souls would thus be fed:

 That Flesh, that dying Blood of thine,
 Is Bread of Life, is heav'nly Wine.]
- [4 Is he a Tree? The World receives
 Salvation from his healing Leaves:
 That righteous Branch, that ffuitful Bough,
 Is David's Root and Offspring too.]
- [5 Is he a Rose? Not Sharon yields Such Fragrancy in all her Fields: Or if the Lilly he affume, The Vallies bless the rich Persume.]
- [6 Is he a Vine? His heav'nly Root
 Supplies the Boughs with Life and Fruit:
 O let a lasting Union join
 My Soul to Christ the living Vine!]
- [7 Is he the Head? Each Member lives, And owns the vital Pow'rs he gives; The Saints below, and Saints above, Join'd by his Spirit and his Love.]
- [8 Is he a Fountain? There I bathe, And heal the Plague of Sin and Death: These Waters all my Soul renew, And cleanse my spotted Garments too.]
- [9 Is he a Fire? He'll purge my Dross:
 But the true Gold sustains no Loss:
 Like a Refiner shall he sit,
 And tread the Resuse with his Feet.]

- [11 Is he a Way? He leads to God, The Path is drawn in Lines of Blood; There would I walk with Hope and Zeal, 'Till I arrive at Sion's Hill.]
- [12 Is he a Door? I'll enter in; Behold the Pastures large and green; A Paradise divinely fair, None but the Sheep have Freedom there.]
- [13] Is he defign'd a Corner-Stone,
 For Men to build their Heav'n upon?
 I'll make him my Foundation too,
 Nor fear the Plots of Hell below.]
- [14 Is he a Temple? I adore
 Th' indwelling Majesty and Pow'r;
 And still to his most holy Place
 Whene'er I pray, I turn my Face.]
- [15 Is he a Star? He breaks the Night, Piercing the Shades with dawning Light; I know his Glories from afar, I know the bright, the Morning-Star.]
- [16 Is he a Sun? His Beams are Grace, His Course is Joy and Righteousness: Nations rejoice when he appears To chase their Clouds, and dry their Tears.
 - 17 O let me climb those higher Skies,
 Where Storms and Darkness never rise!
 There

There he displays his Pow'rs abroad, And shines and reigns th' Incarnate God.]

Nor Earth, nor Seas, nor Sun, nor Stars, Nor Heav'n his full Resemblance bears; His Beauties we can never trace, Till we behold him Face to Face.

CXLVII. The Names and Titles of Christ, from several Scriptures.

- I I S from the Treasures of his Word I borrow Titles for my Lord;
 Nor Art nor Nature can supply Sufficient Forms of Majesty.
- 2 Bright Image of the Father's Face, Shining with undiminish'd Rays; Th' Eternal God's Eternal Son, The Heir and Partner of his Throne.]
- The King of Kings, the Lord most high, Writes his own Name upon his Thigh: He wears a Garment dipp'd in Blood, And breaks the Nations with his Rod.
- 4 Where Grace can neither melt nor move, The Lamb refents his injur'd Love, Awakes his Wrath without Delay, And Judah's Lion tears the Prey.
- 5 But when for Works of Peace he comes, What winning Titles he assumes? Light of the World, and Life of Men; Nor bears those Characters in vain.

BOOK II.

Composed on Divine Subjects.

- 1. A Song in Praise to God from Great-Britain.
 - Ature with all her Pow'rs shall sing God the Creator and the King:
 Nor Air, nor Earth, nor Skies, nor Deny the Tribute of their Praise. (Seas,
- [2 Begin to make his Glories known, Ye Seraphs that fit near his Throne; Tune your Harps high, and spread the Sound To the Creation's utmost Bound.]

[3 All

- [3 All mortal Things of meaner Frame, Exert your Force, and own his Name; Whilst with our Souls and with our Voice We fing his Honours and our Joys.]
- [4 To him be facred all we have, From the young Cradle to the Grave: Our Lips shall his loud Wonders tell, And ev'ry Word a Miracle.]
- [5 This Northern Isle, our native Land, Lies safe in th' Almighty's Hand: Our Foes of Vict'ry dream in vain, And wear the captivating Chain.
- 6 He builds and guards the British Throne,
 And makes it gracious like his own;
 Makes our fuccessive Princes kind;
 And gives our Dangers to the Wind.]
- 7 Raise monumental Praises high To him that thunders thro' the Sky, And with an awful Nod or Frown Shakes an aspiring Tyrant down.
- [8 Pillars of Latting Brate proclaim
 The Triumphs of the Eternal Name;
 While trembling Nations read from fat
 The Honours of the God of War.]
- Our lostiest Thoughts and loudest Songs;
 Britain pronounce with warnest Joy
 Hosanna from ten thousand Tongues.

10 Yet,

Attempts in vain to reach thy Name;
The strongest Notes that Angels raise,
Faint in the Worship and the Praise.

II. The Death of a Sinner.

- MY Thoughts on awful Subjects roll,
 Damnation and the Dead;
 What Horrors feize the guilty Soul
 Upon a dying Bed.
- 2 Lingring about these mortal Shores She makes a long Delay, Till, like a Flood with rapid Force, Death sweeps the Wretch away.
- Then fwift and dreadful she descends

 Down to the fiery Coast,

 Amongst abominable Fiends,

 Her self a frighted Ghost.
- 4 There endless Crowds of Sinners lie, And Darkness makes their Chains; Tortur'd with keen Despair their cry, Yet wait for fiercer Pains.
- 5 Not all their Anguish and their Blood For their old Guilt attones, Nor the Compassion of a God Shall hearken to their Groans.
- 6 Amazing Grace, that kept my Breath, Nor bid my Soul remove, Till I had learn'd my Saviour's Death, And well infur'd his Love!

III. The Death and Burial of a Saint.

Or shake at Death's Alarms?
Tis but the Voice that Fesus sends
To call them to his Arms.

Are we not tending upward too
As fast as Time can move?
Nor would we wish the Hours more flow
To keep us from our Love.

3 Why should we tremble to convey Their Bodies to the Tomb?
There the dear Flesh of Jesus lay, And left a long Persume.

4 The Graves of all his Saints he bles'd, And softned every Bed: Where should the dying Members rest, But with the dying Head?

Thence he arofe, ascending high, And shew'd our Feet the Way: Up to the Lord our Flesh shall sty, At the Great Rising Day.

6 Then let the last loud Trumpet sound, And bid our Kindred rise; Awake, ye Nations, under Ground,

We Saints, aftend the Skies.

Awake, ye Nations, under Ground,

Ye Saints, aftend the Skies.

IV. Salvation in the Cross.

- ERE at thy Cross, my dying God, I lay my Soul beneath thy Love Beneath the Droppings of thy Blood, Jesus, nor shall it e'er remove.
- Not all the Tyrants think or fay, With Rage and Lightning in their Eyes, Nor Hell shall fright my Heart away, Should Hell with all its Legions rife.
- 3 Should Worlds conspire to drive me thence, Moveless and firm this Heart should lie; Resolv'd (for that's my last Desence) If I must perish, there to die.
- Am I not fafe beneath thy Shade?

 Thy Vengeance will not strike me here;
 Nor Satan dares my Soul invade.
- 5 Yes, I'm secure beneath thy Blood, And all my Foes shall lose their Aim: Hosanna to my dying God, And my best Honours to his Name.

V. Longing to praise Chift better.

ORD, when my Thoughts with Wonder
O'er the sharp Sorrows of thy Soul,
And read my Maker's broken Laws,
Repair'd and honour'd by thy Cross;
2 When

- When I behold Death, Hell, and Sin, Vanquish'd by that dear Blood of thine, And see the Man that groan'd and dy'd, Sit glorious by his Father's Side,
- 3 My Passions rise and soar Above, I'm wing'd with Faith, and fir'd with Love; Fain would I reach eternal Things, And learn the Notes that Gabriel sings.
- 4 But my Heart fails, my Tongue complains,
 For want of their immortal Strains;
 And in such humble Notes as these Must fall below thy Victories.
- Well, the kind Minute must appear When we shall leave these Bodies here; These Clogs of Clay, and mount on high, To join the Songs above the Sky.

VI. A Morning Song.

- NCE more, my Soul, the rifing Day
 Salutes thy waking Eyes;
 Once more, my Voice, thy Tribute pay
 To him that rolls the Skies.
- 2 Night unto Night his Name repeats,
 The Day renews the Sound,
 Wide as the Heav'n on which he fats,
 To turn the Seafons round.
- 3 'Tis he supports my mortal France, My Tongue shall speak his Praise;

My

My Sins would rouze his Wrath to Flame, And yet his Wrath delays.

[4 On a poor Worm thy Pow'r might tread, And I could ne'er withstand: Thy Justice might have crush'd me dead, But Mercy held thine Hand.

5 A thousand wretched Souls are fled Since the last setting Sun, And yet thou lengthnest out my Thread, And yet my Moments run.]

6 Dear God, let all my Hours be thine, Whilft I enjoy the Light; Then shall my Sun in Smiles decline, And bring a pleasant Night.

VII. An Evening Song.

Read Sov reign, let my Evening Song.
Like holy Incense rise;
Affist the Offerings of my Tongue
To reach the lofty Skies.

Through all the Dangers of the Day
Thy Hand was still my Guard,
And still to drive my Wants away
Thy Mercy stood prepar'd.]

Incompass me around,
But O how few Returns of Love Hath my Creator found had a first

4 What have I done for him that dy'd?

How

How are my Follies multiply'd, Fast as my Minutes roll!

5 Lord, with this guilty Heart of mine To thy dear Crofs I flee, And to thy Grace my Soul refign,

And to thy Grace my boul refined To be renew'd by Thee.

6 Sprinkled afresh with pard'ning Blood
I lay me down to rest,
As in th' Embraces of my God,
Or on my Saviour's Breast.

VIII. A Hymn for Morning or Even-

To God's upholding Hand;
To Housand Snares attend us round,
And yet secure we stand.

That was a most amazing Power
That rais'd us with a Word,
And every Day and every Hour
We lean upon the Lord.

The Evening rests our weary Head, And Angels guard the Room; We wake, and we admire the Bed That was not made our Tomb.

The rifing Morning can't affure
That we shall end the Day;
For Death stands ready at the Door
To seize our Lives away.

5 Our

- our Breath is forfetted by Sin To God's revenging Law; We own thy Grace, Immortal King, In ev'ry Galp we draw.
- 6 God is our Sun, whose daily Light Our Joy and Safety brings; Our feeble Flesh lies safe at Night Beneath his shady Wings.

IX. Godly Sorrow arifing from the Sufferings of Christ.

- ALAS! and did my Saviour bleed!
 And did my Sov'reign die!
 Would he devote that facred Head
 For such a Worm as I?
- [2 Thy Body flain, fweet Fefus, thine,
 And bath'd in its own Blood,
 While all expos'd to Wrath divine,
 The glorious Suff'rer stood!]
- Was it for Crimes that I had done
 He groan'd upon the Tree?
 Amazing Pity! Grace unknown!
 And Love beyond Degree!
- 4 Well might the Sun in Darkness hide, And shut his Glories in, When God the mighty Maker dy'd For Man the Creature's Sin.
- 5 Thus might I hide my blufting Face While his dear Oross appears,

Dif-

Dissolve my Heart in Thankfulness, And melt my Eyes to Teass.

6 But Drops of Grief can ne'er repay
The Debt of Love I owe;
Here, Lord, I give my felf away,
'Tis all that I can do.

X. Parting with Carnal Joys.

MY Soul forfakes her vain Delight, And bids the World farewel; Base as the Dirt beneath my Feet, And mischievous as Hell.

No longer will I ask your Love,
Nor seek your Friendship more;
The Happiness that I approve
Is not within your Pow'r.

There's nothing round this spacious Earth
That futts my large Defire;
To boundless Joy and solid Mirth
My nobler Thoughts aspire.

[4 Where Pleasure rolls its living Flood, From Sin and Dross refin'd, Still springing from the Throne of God, And fit to chear the Mind.

Th' Almighty Ruler of the Sphere, The Glorious and the Great, Brings his own All-fufficience there, To make our Blifs compleat.]

6 Had I the Pinions of a Dove,
I'd climb the heav'nly Road;

There

There fits my Saviour dress'd in Love, And there my imiling God.

XI. The same.

- Send the Joys of Earth away,
 Away ye Tempters of the Mind;
 Falfe as the smooth deceitful Sea,
 And empty as the whistling Wind.
- 2 Your Streams were floating me along Down to the Gulf of black Delpair; And whilft I liften'd to your Song, Your Streams had e'en convey'd me there.
- That warn'd me of that dark Abyls;
 That drew me from those treach rous Seas,
 And bid me seek superior Bliss.
- 4 Now to the shining Realms above
 I stretch my Hands, and glance mine Eyes;
 O for the Pinions of a Dove,
 To bear me to the upper Skies!
- 5 There from the Bosom of my God Oceans of endless Pleasures roll; There would I fix my last Abode, And drown the Sorrows of my Soul.
- XII. Christ is the Substance of the Levitical Priesthood.
- The Types are all withdrawn: So fly the Shadows and the Stars Before the rifing Dawn.

z No

- 2 No fmoaking Sweets, nor bleeding Lambs, Nor Kid, nor Bullock flain; Incense and Spice of costly Names Would all be burnt in vain.
- 3 Aaron must lay his Robes away,
 His Mitre and his Vest,
 When God himself comes down to be
 'The Off'ring and the Priest.
- 4 He took our mortal Flesh, to show The Wonders of his Love; For us he paid his Life below, And prays for us above.
- 5 Father, he cries, forgive their Sins,
 For I my felf have dy'd;
 And then he shows his open'd Veins,
 And pleads his wounded Side.
- XIII. The Creation, Preservation, Dissolution, and Restoration of this World.
- ING to the Lord, that built the Skies, The Lord that rear'd this stately Frame; Let half the Nations found his Praise, And Lands unknown repeat his Name.
- 2 He form'd the Seas, and form'd the Hills, Made ev'ry Drop, and ev'ry Duft, Nature and Time, with all their Wheels, And push'd them into Motion first.

3 Now, from his High Imperial Throne, He looks far down upon the Spheres; He bids the shining Orbs roll on, And round he turns the hasty Years.

4 Thus shall this moving Engine last
Till all his Saints are gather'd in,
Then for the Trumper's dreadful Blast
To shake it all to Dust again!

5 Yet, when the Sound shall tear the Skies, And Lightning burn the Globe below, Saints, you may lift your joyful Eyes, There's a new Heav'n and Earth for you.

XIV. The Lord's Day: Or, Delight in Ordinances.

That faw the Lord arise;
Welcome to this reviving Breast,
And these rejoicing Eyes!

2 The King himself comes near, And feasts his Saints to Day; Here we may sit, and see him here, And loga, and praise, and pray.

3 One Day amidit the Place
Where my dear God hath been,
Is sweeter than Ten Thousand Days
Off pleasurable Sin

4 My willing Soul would flay In such a Frame as this, And fit, and fing her felf away To everlasting Bliss. B. 11.

XV. The Enjoyment of Christ: Or, Delight in Worship.

- AR from my Thoughts, vain World, be Let my religious Hours alone: (gone, Fain would my Eyes my Saviour see, I wait a Visit, Lord, from thee.
- 2 My Heart grows warm with holy Fire, And kindles with a pure Defire: Come, my dear Jesus, from Above, And feed my Soul with heav'nly Love.
- [3 The Trees of Life immortal stand In flourishing Rows at thy Right Hand, And in sweet Murmurs by their Side, Rivers of Bliss perpetual glide.
- 4 Haste then, but with a smiling Face, And spread a Table of thy Grace: Bring down a Taste of Truth Divine, And chear my Heart with sacred Wine.]
- 5 Bless'd Jasus, what delicious Fare!
 How sweet thy Entertainments are!
 Never did Angels taste above
 Redeeming Grace, and dying Love.
- 6 Hail, Great Immanuel, all Divine! In Thee thy Father's Glories shine: Thou brightest, sweetest, fairest One, That Eyes have seen, or Angels known.

XVI.

B.II.

XVI. Part the Second.

- 7 ORD, what a Heav'n of faving Grace
 Shines thro' the Beauties of thy Face,
 And lights our Passions to a Flame!
 - And lights our Pattions to a Flame!

 Lord, how we love thy charming Name!
- 8 When I can fay, My God is mine, When I can feel thy Glories shine, I tread the World beneath my Feet, And all that Earth calls Good or Great.
- 9 While fuch a Scene of facred Joys Our raptur'd Eyes and Souls employs, Here we could fit, and gaze away, A long, an everlasting Day.
 - To the fair Coasts of perfect Light;
 Then shall our joyful Senses rove
 O'er the dear Object of our Love.
- [11 There shall we drink sull Draughts of Bliss, And pluck new Life from heavinly Trees! Yet now and then, dear Lord, bestow A Drop of Heavin on Worms below.
 - 12 Send Comforts down from thy right Hand, While we pass thro' this barren Land, And in thy Temple let us see A Glimpse of Love, a Glimpse of Thee.]

XVII. God's Eternity.

- RISE, rife my Soul, and leave the Ground,
 Stretch all my Thoughts abroad,
 And roufe up ev'ry tuneful Sound
 To praise th' eternal God.
- 2 Long e'er the lofty Skies were spread, Jehovah fill'd his Throne;
 Or Adam form'd, or Angels made,
 The Maker liv'd'alone.
- 3 His boundless Years can ne'er decrease, But still maintain their Prime; Eternity's his Dwelling-place, And Ever is his Time.
- 4 While like a Tide our Minutes flow, The present and the past, He fills his own Immortal NOW, And sees our Ages waste.
- The Sea and Sky must perish too,
 And vast Destruction come;
 The Creatures, look, how old they grow,
 And wait their fiery Doom!
- 6-Well, let the Sea shrink all away, And Flame melt down the Skies, My God shall live an endless Day, When th' old Creation dies,

XVIII. The Ministry of Angels.

- I HIGH on a Hill of dazling Light
 The King of Glory spreads his Seat, And Troops of Angels, stretch'd for Flight, Stand waiting round his awful Feet.
- 2 * Go, faith the Lord, my Gabriel, go, Salute the Virgin's fruitful Womb; b Make haste, ye Cherubs, down below, Sing and proclaim the Saviour come.
- 3 c Here a bright Squadron leaves the Skies, And thick around Elisba stands; Anon a heav'nly Soldjer flies, d And breaks the Chains from Peter's Hands.
- 4 Thy winged Troops, O God of Hosts, Wait on thy wand'ring Church below; Here we are failing to thy Coasts, Let Angels be our Convoy too.
- 5 Are they not all thy Servants, Lord? At thy Command they go and come; With chearful Haste obey thy Word, And guard thy Children to their Home.

XIX. Our frail Bodies, and God our Preserver.

- Nor Death, nor Danger fear;
 But we'll confess, O Lord, to thee,
 What feeble Things we are.
- 2 Fresh as the Grass our Bodies stand, And slourish bright and gay; A blasting Wind sweeps o'er the Land, And sades the Grass away.
- 3 Our Life contains a thousand Springs, And dies if one be gone: Strange! that a Harp of thousand Strings Should keep in Tune so long.

 The God that built us first;
 Salvation to th' Almighty Name
 That rear'd us from the Dust.
- [5 He spoke, and strait our Hearts and Brains In all their Motions rose; Let Blood, said he, flow roand the Veins, And round the Veins it flows.
- 6 While we have Breath, or use our Tongues, Our Maker we'll adore; His Spirit moves our heaving Lungs, Or they would breathe no more.]

XX. Backslidings and Returns; Or, The Inconstancy of our Love.

HY is my Heart so far from thee, My God, my chief Delight? Why are my Thoughts no more by Day With thee, no more by Night?

[2 Why should my foolish Passions rove? Where can such Sweetness be, As I have tasted in thy Love, As I have found in the?]

- 3 When my forgetful Soul renews The Savour of thy Grace, My Heart prefumes I cannot lofe The Relish all my Days.
- 4 But e'er some fleeting Hour is pass'd,
 The flatt'ring World employs
 Some sensual Bait to selze my Taste,
 And to pollute my Joys.
- [5 Trifles of Nature or of Art
 With fair deceitful Charms
 Intrude into my thoughtless Heart,
 And thrust me from thy Arms.]
- 6 Then I repent and vex my Soul
 That I should leave thee so;
 Where will those wild Affections roll
 That let a Saviour go?
- [7 Sin's promis'd Joys are turn'd to Pain, And I am drown'd in Grief;

But my dear Lord returns again, He flies to my Relief;

8 Seizing my Soul with fweet Surprize, He draws with loving Bands; Divine Compassion in his Eyes, And Pardon in his Hands.]

[9 Wretch that I am, to wander thus In chase of salse Delight! Let me be sasten'd to thy Cross,

Let me be fasten'd to thy Cross,
Rather than lose thy Sight.]

[10 Make hafte, my Days, to reach the Goal, And bring my Heart to rest On the dear Centre of my Soul, My God, my Saviour's Breast.]

XXI. A Song of Praise to God the Redeemer.

But the sweet Theme that moves my Tongue, Is my Redeemer and his Love.

2 Behold a God descends and dies, To save my Soul from gaping Hell; How the black Gulph where Satan lies, Yawn'd to receive me when I fell!

3 How Justice frown'd, and Vengeance stood To drive me down to endless Pain 4 and But the Great Son propos'd his Blood, And heav'nly Wrath grew mild again.

3 . 4 In-

A Infinite Lover, gracious Lord,
To thee be endless Honours given;
Thy wond'rous Name shall be ador'd,
Round the wide Earth, and wider Heaven.

XXII. With God is terrible Majesty.

- TErrible God, that reign'st on high, How awful is thy thund'ring Hand!
 Thy fiery Bolts, how fierce they fly!
 Nor can all Earth or Hell withstand.
- This the old Rebel Angels knew,
 And Satan fell beneath thy Frown:
 Thine Arrows ftruck the Traitor through,
 And weighty Vengeance funk him down.
- This Sodom felt, and feels it still,
 And roars beneath th' eternal Load:
 With endless Burnings who can dwell,
 Or bear the Fury of a God?
- 4 Tremble, ye Sinners, and submit, Throw down your Arms before his Throne, Bend your Heads low beneath his Feet, Or his strong Hand shall crush you down.
- 5 And yé, bles'd Saints, that love him too, With Rev'rence bow before his Name; Thus all his heav'nly Servants do: God is a bright and burning Flame.

XXIII.

XXIII. The Sight of God and Christ in Heaven.

- Escend from Heav'n, immortal Dove, Stoop down and take us on thy Wings, And mount and bear us far above The Reach of these inserior Things.
- 2 Beyond, beyond this lower Sky, Up where eternal Ages roll, Where folid Pleasures never die, And Fruits immortal feast the Soul.
- O for a Sight, a pleasing Sight
 Of our Almighty Father's Throne!
 There sits our Saviour crown'd with Light,
 Cloath'd in a Body like our own.
- 4 Adoring Saints around him stand, And Thrones and Pow'rs before him fall; The God shines gracious thro' the Man, And sheds sweet Glories on them all!
- O what amazing Joys they feel, While to their golden Harps they fing, And fit on ev'ry heav'nly Hill, And spread the Triumphs of their King!
- 6 When shall the Day, dear Lord, appear That I shall mount to dwell above, And stand and bow amongst em there, And view thy Face, and sing, and love?

XXIV.

XXIV. The Evil of Sin visible in the Fall of Angels and Men.

- HEN the Great Builder arch'd the Skies,
 And form'd all Nature with a Word,
 The joyful Cherubs tun'd his Praife,
 And ev'ry bending Throne ador'd.
- 2 High in the midst of all the Throng Satan, a tall Arch-Angel, sate, * Amongst the Morning-Stars he sung, 'Tis Sin destroy'd his heav'nly State.
- [3 'Twas Sin that hurl'd him from his Throne; Grov'ling in Fire the Rebel lies:
 † How art theu funk in Darkness dawn,
 Son of the Morning, from the Skies!]
- 4 And thus our two first Parents stood,
 'Till Sin defil'd the happy Place;
 They lost their Garden and their God,
 And ruin'd all their unborn Race.
- [5 So fprung the Plague from Adam's Bower, And spread Destruction all abroad, Sin, the curs'd Name, that in one Hour Spoil'd fix Days Labour of a God.]
- Tremble, my Soul, and mourn for Grief, That such a Foe should seize thy Breast; Fly to thy Lord for quick Relief: Oh! may he slay this treach rous Guest.

† Isa, xiv. 12.

^{*} Job xxxviii. 7.

7 Then to thy Throne, Victorious King,
Then to thy Throne our Shouts thall rife,
Thine everlating Arm we fing,
For Sin, the Monster, bleeds and dies.

 To glance a Thought half-way to God.
- 2 Infinite Leagues beyond the Sky
 The Great Eternal reigns alone,
 Where neither Wings nor Souls can fly,
 Nor Angels climb the toples Throne.
- The Lord of Glory builds his Seat Of Gems infufferably bright, And lays beneath his facred Feet Substantial Beams of gloomy Night.

- 5 Speak (for you feel his burning Love)
 What Zeal it spreads thro' all your Frame;
 That facred Fire dwells all above,
 For we on Earth have lost the Name.

 That infinite Right Hand of his,
 That vanquish'd Satan and his Crew,
 And Thunder drove them down from Bliss.]

XXVIII. Death and Eternity.

Toop down, my Thoughts, that use to rise,
Converse a while with Death:
Think how a gasping Mortal lies,
And pants away his Breath.

z His quiv'ring Lip hangs feeble down, His Pulles faint and few,
Then, speechless, with a doleful Grean,
He bids the World adieu.

But, oh, the Soul that never dies!
At once it leaves the Clay!
Ye Thoughts, purfue it where it flies,
And track its wond'rous Way.

4 Up to the Courts where Angels dwell-It mounts triumphing there; Or Devils plange it down to Hell, In infinite Despair.

And must my Body faint and die?
And must this Soul remove?
Oh, for some Guardian-Angel nigh,
To bear it fafe above!

6 Jefus, to thy dear faithful Hand My naked Soul I trust;
And my Flesh waits for thy Command, To drop into my Dust.

JESUS, with all thy Saints above, My Tongue would bear her Part, Would found aloud thy faving Love, And fing thy bleeding Heart.

Bleis'd be the Lamb, my dearest Lord, Who bought me with his Blood, And quench'd his Father's staming Sword In his own vital Flood.

The Lamb that freed my Captive Soul From Saton's heavy Chains, And fent the Lion down to houl Where Hell and Horror reigns.

All Glory to the dying Lamb,
And never ceasing Praise,
While Angels live to know his Name,
Or Saints to feel his Grace.

And thus surround the Throne.

5 This awful God is ours, Our Father and our Love, He shall send down his heav'nly Powers

To carry us above.

6 There shall we see his Face,
And never, never sin;

There from the Rivers of his Grace Drink endless Pleasures in.

7 Yes, and before we rife To that immortal State,

The Thoughts of fuch amazing Blife Should constant Joys create.

[8 The Men of Grace have found Glory begun below,

Or walk the golden Streets.

XXXI. Christ's Presence makes Death easy.

- What tim'rous Worms we Mortals
 Death is the Gate of endless Joy,
 And yet we dread to enter there.
- 2 The Pains, the Groans, and dying Strife
 Fright our approaching Souls away;
 Still we shrink back again to Life,
 Fond of our Prison and our Clay.
- My Soul should stretch her Wings in haste,
 Fly fearless thro' Death's Iron Gate,
 Nor feel the Terrors as she pass'd.
- 4 Jesus can make a dying Bed Feel soft as downy Pillows are, While on his Breast I lean my Head, And breathe my Life out sweetly there.

XXXII. Frailty and Folly.

- HOW short and hasty is our Life!
 How vast our Souls Affairs!
 Yet senseles Mortals vainly strive
 To lavish out their Years.
- 2 Our Days run thoughtlefly along, Without a Moment's Stay;

Just

Just like a Story, or a Song, and from We pass our Liver away.

3 God from on High invites us Home, But we march heedless on 11

And ever hast'ning to the Tomb, Stoop downwards as we run.

4 How we deferve the deepest Mell, ? That slight the Joys above! ??

What Chains of Mengeance should we feel That break such Cords of Love!

5 Draw us, @ God, ewith Sov!rain Grace, And lift our Thoughts on high, our That we may end this mortal Race, And fee Salvation nigh.

XXXIII. The bleffed Society in Heaven.

R Aife thee, my Soul, fly up and run Thro' ev'ry heav'nly Street, And fay, There's nought below the Sun That's worthy of thy Feet.

[2 Thus will we mount on facred Wings, And tread the Courts above: Nor Earth, nor all her mightiest Things, Shall tempt our meanest Love.]

There on a high majertick Throne The Almighty Father reigns, And sheds his glorious Goodness down On all the blissful Plains.

And spreads zternal Noona

Behold the sacred Dove,
While banish'd Sin and Sorrow slies

From all the Realms of Love.

6 The glorious Tenants of the Place

Stand bending round the Throne; And Saints and Seraphs fing and praise The Infinite Three-One.

[7 But, oh, what Beams of heav'nly Grace Transport them all the while!

Ten Thousand Smiles from Jesus' Face,

And Love in ev'ry Smile!]

8 Jesus, and when shall that dear Day,
That joyful Hour, appear,
When I shall leave this House of Clay,
To dwell amongst 'em there?

XXXIV. Breathing after the Holy Spirit: Or, Fervency of Devotion desired.

Come, Holy Spirit, Heav'nly Dove, With all thy quick'ning Pow's Kindle a Flame of facred Love In these cold Hearts of ours.

2 Look how we grovel here below,
Fond of these trissing Toys;
Our Souls can neither thy nor grow
To reach eternal Joys.

3. En

- 3 In vain we tune our formal Songs, In vain we strive to rise, Hosanna's languish on our Tongues, And our Devotion dies.
- 4 Dear Lord! and shall we ever lie
 At this poor dying rate?
 Our Love so faint, so cold to thee,
 And thine to us so great?
- 5 Come, Holy Spirit, Heav'nly Dove, With all thy quick'ning Pow'rs, Come, shed abroad a Saviour's Love, And that shall kindle ours.

XXXV. Praise to God for Creation and Redemption.

- ET them neglect thy Glory, Lord,
 Who never knew thy Grace;
 But our loud Song shall still record
 The Wonders of thy Praise.
- 2 We raise our Shouts, O God, to thee, And send them to thy Throne; All Glory to th' UNITED Three, The Undivided One.
- That form'd us by a Word;
 That form'd us by a Word;
 Tis He restores our ruin'd Frame:
 Salvation to the Lord!
- 4 Hofanna ! let the Earth and Skies Repeat the joyful Sound;

Rocks,

Rocks, Hills, and Vales reflect the Voice In one eternal Round.

XXXVI. Christ's Intercession.

To fprinkle o'er the flaming Throne
With his atoning Blood.

No fiery Vengeance now, No burning Wrath comes down:

If Justice calls for Sinners Blood, The Saviour shews his own.

3 Before his Father's Eye
Our humble Suit he moves;
The Father lays his Thunder by,
And looks, and smiles, and loves.

4 Now may our joyful Tongues Our Maker's Honour fing: Jesus, the Priest, receives our Songs, And bears'em to the King.

[5 We bow before his Face, And found his Glories high,

Hosanna to the God of Grace
That fays his Thunder by.]

6 "On Earth thy Mercy reigns, And triumphs all above:"

But, Lord, how weak are mortal Strains
To speak immortal Love!

[7 How jarring and how low Are all the Notes we fing!

Sweet

Sweet Saviour, tune our Songs anew, And they shall please the King.]

XXXVII. The same.

- IFT up your Eyes to th' heavn'ly Seats.
 Where your Redeemer flays:
 Kind Interceffor, there he fits,
 And loves, and pleads, and prays.
- 2 Twas well, my Soul, he dy'd for thee, And shed his vital Blood, Appeas'd stern Justice on the Tree, And then arose to God.
- 3 Petitions now, and Praise may rise, And Saints their Off'rings bring, The Priest with his own Sacrifice Presents them to the King.
- [4 Let Papists trust what Names they please, Their Saints and Angels boast; We've no such Advocates as these, Nor pray to th' Heav'nly Host.]
- Jesus alone shall bear my Cries
 Up to his Father's Throne:
 He (dearest Lord!) persumes my Sighs,
 And sweetens ev'ry Groan.

 - Ten thousand Thanks our Spirits bring To God and to his Christ.]

XXXVIII. Love to God.

- Appy the Heart where Graces reign, Where Love inspires the Breast:

 Love is the brightest of the Train,

 And strengthens all the rest.
- 2 Knowledge, alas! 'tis all in vain, And all in vain our Fear; Our stubborn Sins will fight and reign, If Love be absent there.
- 3 'Tis Love that makes our chearful Feet' In fwift Obedience move; The Devils know, and tremble too, But Satan cannot love.
- 4 This is the Grace that lives and fings, When Faith and Hope shall cease; 'Tis this shall strike our joyful Strings In the sweet Realms of Blis.
- 5 Before we quite forfake our Clay, Or leave this dark Abode, The Wings of Love bear us away To fee our fmiling God.

XXXIX. The Shortness and Misery of Life.

Digitized by Google

UR Days, alas! our mortal Days, Are short and wretched too;

Evil

Evil and few*, the Patriarch fays, And well the Patriarch knew.

- 2 'Tis but at best a narrow Bound
 That Heav'n allows to Men,
 And Pains and Sins run thro' the Round
 Of Threescore Years and Ten.
- Well, if ye must be sad and sew,
 Run on, my Days, in haste;
 Moments of Sin, and Months of Woe,
 Ye cannot sly too sast.
- 4 Let heav'nly Love prepare my Soul, And call her to the Skies, Where Years of long Salvation roll, And Glory never dies.

XL. Our Comfort in the Covenant made with Christ.

- UR God, how firm his Promise stands, Ev'n when he hides his Face! He trusts in our Redeemer's Hands, His Glory, and his Grace.
- Then why, my Soul, these sad Complaints, Since Christ and we are One? Thy God is faithful to his Saints, Is faithful to his Son.
- 3 Beneath his Smiles my Heart has liv'd, And Part of Heav'n posses'd;

Gen. xlvii. 9.

I praise his Name for Grace receiv'd, And trust him for the rest.

XLI. A Sight of God mortifies us to the World.

- P to the Fields where Angels lie,
 And living Waters gently roll,
 Fain would my Thoughts leap out and fly,
 But Sin hangs heavy on my Soul.
- Thy wond'rous Blood, dear dying Christ, Can make this World of Guilt remove; And thou can'st bear me where thou sly'st, On thy kind Wings, Celestial Dove!
- 3 O might I once mount up and fee
 The Glories of th' eternal Skies,
 What little Things these Worlds would be?
 How despicable to my Eyes!]
- 4 Had I a Glance of thee, my God, Kingdoms and Men would vanish soon, Vanish, as tho' I saw 'em not, As a dim Candle dies at Noon.
- 5 Then they might fight, and rage, and rave, I should perceive the Noise no more Than we can hear a shaking Leaf While rattling Thunders round us roar.
- 6 Great All in All, Eternal King, Let me but view thy lovely Face, And all my Pow'rs shall bow and sing Thine endless Grandeur, and thy Grace.

XLII.

XLII. Delight in God.

- Y God, what endless Pleasures dwell
 Above at thy Right Hand!
 The Courts below, how amiable!
 Where all thy Graces stand!
- 2 The Swallow near thy Temple lies, And chirps a chearful Note; The Lark mounts upwards tow'rd thy Skies, And tunes her warbling Throat.
- 9 And we, when in thy Presence, Lord, We shout with joyful Tongues: Or sitting round our Father's Board, We crown the Feast with Songs.
- While Jesus shines with quick'ning Grace, We fing and mount on high; But if a Frown becloud his Face, We faint, and tire, and die.
- [5 Just as we see the lonesome Dove Bemoan her Widow'd State, Wand'ring, the slies thro' all the Grove, And mourns her loying Mate.
- 6 Just so our Thoughts from thing to thing
 In restless Circles rove;
 Just so we droop, and hang the Wing,
 When Felus hides his Love.]

XLIII.

XLIII. Christ's Sufferings and Glory.

- To Great Jehovah's Equal Son!

 Awake, my Voice, in heav'nly Lays,
 Tell the loud Wonders he hath done.
- 2 Sing, how he left the Worlds of Light, And the bright Robes he wore above; How swift and joyful was his Flight On Wings of everlasting Love.
- [3 Down to this base, this sinful Earth, He came to raise our Nature high; He came t'atone Almighty Wrath; Jesus the God was born to die.]
- [4 Hell and its Lions roar'd around,
 His precious Blood the Monsters spilt;
 While weighty Sorrows pres'd him down,
 Large as the Loads of all our Guilt.]
- 5. Deep in the Shades of gloomy Death Th' Almighty Captive Pris'ner lay; Th' Almighty Captive left the Earth, And rose to everlasting Day.
- 6 Lift up your Eyes, ye Sons of Light, Up to his Throne of thining Grace; See what immortal Glories fit Round the fweet Beauties of his Face!
- 7 Amongst a thousand Harps and Songs Fesus the God exalted reigns, His facred Name fills all their Tongues, And echoes thro' the heav'nly Plains!

XLIV.

XLIV. Hell: Or, The Vengeance of God.

- The dreadful God our Souls adore;
 Rev'rence and Awe becomes the Tongue
 That speaks the Terrors of his Pow'r.
- 2 Far in the Deep where Darkness dwells, The Land of Horror and Despair, Justice has built a dismal Hell, And laid her Stores of Vengeance there.
- [3 Eternal Plagues, and heavy Chains, Tormenting Racks, and fiery Coals, And Darts t' inflict immortal Pains, Dy'd in the Blood of damned Souls.
- 4 There Satan the first Sinner lies, And roars, and bites his Iron Bands; In vain the Rebel strives to rise, Crush'd with the Weight of both thy Hands.]
- 5 There guilty Ghosts of Adam's Race Shriek out, and howl beneath thy Rod; Once they could scorn a Saviour's Grace, But they incens'd a dreadful God.
- 6 Tremble, my Soul, and kiss the Son; Sinners, obey thy Saviour's Call; Else your Damnation hastens on, And Hell gapes wide to wait your Fall.

XLV.

XLV. God's Condescension to our Worship.

- HY Favours, Lord, furprize our Souls;
 Will the Eternal dwell with us?
 What can'ft thou find beneath the Poles,
 To tempt thy Chariot downward thus?
- 2 Still might he fill his starry Throne, And please his Ears with Gabriel's Songs; But th' heav'nly Majesty comes down, And bows to hearken to our Tongues.
- Great God! what poor Returns we pay
 For Love so infinite as thine?
 Words are but Air, and Tongues but Clay;
 But thy Compassion's all Divine.

XLVI. God's Condescension to Humane Affairs.

- P to the Lord, that reigns on high, And views the Nations from afar, Let everlasting Praises fly, And tell how large his Bounties are.
- [2 He that can shake the Worlds he made, Or with his Word, or with his Rod, His Goodness, how amazing Great! And what a condescending God!]
- [3 God, that must stoop to view the Skies, And bow to see what Angels do,

Down

Down to our Earth he cast his Eyes, And bends his Footsteps downwards too.

- 4 He over-rules all mortal Things, And manages our mean Affairs; On humble Souls the King of Kings Bestows his Counsels and his Cares.
- Our Sorrows and our Tears we pour Into the Bosom of our God; He hears us in the mournful Hour, And helps us bear the heavy Load.
- 6 In vain might lofty Princes try.
 Such Condescention to perform;
 For Worms were never rais'd so high
 Above their meanest Fellow-Worm.
- 7 Oh! could our thankful Hearts device: A Tribute equal to thy Grace, To th' third Heav'n our Songs should rife, And teach the golden Harps thy Praise.

XLVII. Glory and Grace in the Person of Christ.

- OW to the Lord's noble Song!

 Awake, my Soul; awake, my Fongue;

 Hofanna to the eternal Name,

 And all his boundless Love proclaim.
- 2 See where it shines in Jesus Face, The brightest Image of his Grace; God, in the Person of his Son, Has all his mightiest Works outdone.

- 3 The spacious Earth, and spreading Flood, Proclaim the Wise and Pow'rful God, And thy rich Glories from asar Sparkle in ev'ry rolling Star.
- 4 But in his Looks a Glory stands,
 The noblest Labour of thine Hands:
 The pleasing Lustre of his Eyes
 Outshines the Wonders of the Skies.
- 5 Grace! 'tis a sweet, a charming Theme's
 My Thoughts rejoice at Jesus' Name!
 Ye Angels dwell upon the Sound;
 Ye Heav'ns reslect it to the Ground!
- 6 Oh, may I live to reach the Place
 Where he unveils his lovely Face!
 Where all his Beauties you behold,
 And fing his Name to Harps of Gold!

XLVIII. Love to the Greatures is dangerous.

- HOW vain are all Things here below!

 How false, and yet how fair!

 Each Pleasure hath its Poison too;

 And ev'ry Sweet a Snare.
- 2 The brightest Things below the Sky Give but a start ring Light; We should suspect some Danger nigh, Where we possess Delight.
- 3 Our dearest Joys, and nearest Friends, The Partners of our Blood,

How

How they divide our wav'ring Minds, And leave but half for God!

- 4 The Fondness of a Creature's Love, How strong it strikes the Sense! Thither the warm Affections move, Nor can we call 'em thence.
- Dear Saviour, let thy Beauties be My Soul's eternal Food;
 And Grace command my Heart away
 From all created Good.

XLIX. Moses dying in the Embraces of God.

- If God be with us there;
 We may walk through our darkest Shade,
 And never yield to Fear.
- 2 I could renounce my All below,
 If my Creator bid;
 And run, if I were call'd to go,
 And die as Moses did.
 - Might I but climb to Piscah's Top, And view the Promis'd Land, My Flesh itself should long to drop, And pray for the Command.
 - 4 Class'd in my heav'nly Father's Arms, I would forget my Breath, And lose my Life among the Charms Of so divine a Death.

L. Com-

L. Comforts under Sorrows and Pains.

- NOW let the Lord my Saviour smile, And shew my Name upon his Heart; I would forget my Pains awhile, And in the Pleasure lose the Smart.
- 2 But, oh! it fwells my Sorrows high, To fee my bleffed fefus frown; My Spirits fink, my Comforts die, And all the Springs of Life are down.
- 3 Yet why, my Soul, why these Complaints? Still while he frowns, his Bowels move; Still on his Heart he bears his Saints, And feels their Sorrows, and his Love.
- 4. My Name is printed on his Breast;
 His Book of Life contains my Name:
 I'd rather have it there impress'd,
 Than in the bright Records of Fame.
- 5 When the last Fire burns all Things here, Those Letters shall securely stand, And in the Lamb's fair Book appear, Writ by th' Eternal Father's Hand.
- 6 Now shall my Minutes smoothly run, Whilst here I wait my Father's Will; My Rising and my Setting Sun Roll gently up and down the Hill.

LI. God the Son equal with the Father.

- Bright King of Glory, dreadful God!
 Our Spirits bow before thy Seat;
 To Thee we lift an humble Thought,
 And worthip at thine awful Feet.
- [2 Thy Pow'r hath form'd, thy Wisdom sways All Nature with a sov'reign Word:
 And the bright World of Stars obeys
 The Will of their superior Lord.]
- [3 Mercy and Truth unite in one, And imiling fit at thy Right Hand; Eternal Justice guards thy Throne, And Vengeance waits thy dread Command.]
- A thousand Scraphs strong and bright Stand round the glorious Desty; But who, amongst the Sons of Light, Pretends Comparison with thee?
- 5 Yet there is one of human Framo, fefus, array'd in Flesh and Blood, Thinks it no Robbery to claim A full Equality with God.
- Their Glory things with equal Beams;
 Their Essence is for ever one,
 Tho' they are known by diffrent Maines,
 The Father God, and God the Son.
- 7 Then let the Name of Christ our King With equal Honours be ador'd;

His

His Praise let ev'ry Angel sing, And all the Nations own the Lord.

LII. Death dreadful, or delightful,

- To those that have no God,
 When the poor Soul is forc'd away
 To feek her last Abode.
- z In vain to Heav'n fire lifts her Eyes;
 But Guilt, a heavy Chain,
 Still drags her downward from the Skies
 To Darkness, Fire, and Pain.
- Awake and mourn, ye Heirs of Hell,
 Let stubborn Sinners fear;
 You must be driv'n from Earth, and dwell;
 A long For Ever there.
- And flashes in your Face;
 And thou, my Soul, look downwards too,
 And fing recov'ring Grace:
- That promis'd Heav'n to me,
 And taught my Thoughts to foar above,
 Where happy Spirits be.
- 6 Prepare me, Lord, for thy Right Hand, Then come the joyful Day; Come, Death, and some celestial Band, To bear my Soul away.

LIIL

LIII. The Pilgrimage of the Saints: Or, Earth and Heaven.

- That yields us no Supply,
 No chearing Fruits, no wholfome Trees,
 Nor Streams of living Joy?
- 2 But pricking Thorns thro' all the Ground, And mortal Poisons grow, And all the Rivers that are found, With dang'rous Waters flow.
- 3 Yet the dear Path to thine Abode Lies thro' this horrid Land: Lord! we would keep the heav'nly Road, And run at thy Command.
- [4 Our Souls shall tread the Defart thro' With undiverted Feet;
 And Faith and flaming Zeal subdue
 The Terrors that we meet.]
- [5 A thousand savage Beasts of Prey Around the Forest roam; But Judah's Lion guards the Way, And guides the Strangers home.]
- [6 Long Nights and Darkness dwell below, With scarce a twinkling Ray; But the bright World to which we go, Is everlasting Day.]
- [7 By glimm'ring Hopes, and gloomy Fears We trace the facred Road,

Thro'

Thro' dismal Deeps, and dang'rous Snares, We make our Way to God.]

- 8 Our Journey is a thorny Maze,
 But we march upward still;
 Forget these Troubles of the Ways,
 And reach at Zion's Hill.
- [9 See the kind Angels at the Gates, Inviting us to come! There Jefus the Forerunner waits To welcome Trav'llers home.]
- Our weary Souls shall sit,

 And with transporting Joys recount

 The Labours of our Feet.
- [11 No vain Discourse shall fill our Tongue, Nor Trisles yex our Ear; Infinite Grace shall fill our Song, And God rejoice to hear.]
- That brought us fafely through;
 Our Tongues shall never cease to sing,
 And endless Praise renew.

LIV. God's Presence is Light in Darkness.

1 MY God, the Spring of all my Joys, The Life of my Delights, The Glory of my brightest Days, And Comfort of my Nights!

2 In

- 2 In darkeit Shades if he appear,
 My Dawning is begun!
 He is my Soul's fweet Morning Star,
 And he my Rifing Sun.
 - The opining Heavins around me shine With Beams of facred Bliss,
 While Jesus shews his Heart is mine,
 And whispers, I am his.
 - At that transporting Word,
 Run up with Joy the shining Way
 T' embrace my descrift Lord.
 - 5 Fearless of Hell and ghaftly Death, I'd break thro' ev'ry Foe;
 The Wings of Love, and Arms of Faith, Should bear me Conqu'ror thro'.

LV. Frail Life, and fucceeding Eternity.

- HEE we adore, Eternal Name,
 And humbly own to Thee,
 How feeble is our mortal Frame,
 What dying Worms are we!
- 12 Our wasting Lives grow shorter still,
 As Months and Days increase;
 And ev'ry beating Pulse we tell,
 Leaves but the Number less.
- 3 The Year rolls round, and steals away.

 The Breath that first it gave;

What

Whate'er we do, where e'er we be, We're traviling to the Grave.]

- A Dangers stand thick thro all the Ground,
 To push us to the Tomb;
 And sierce Diseases wait around,
 To hurry Mortals home.
- 5 Good God! on what a flender Thread Hang everlasting Things! The eternal States of all the Dead Upon Life's feeble Strings.
- 6 Infinite Joy or endless Work
 Attends on ev'ry Breath;
 And yet how unconcern'd we go
 Upon the Brink of Death!
- 7 Waken, O Lord, our drowfy Sense, To walk this dang'rous Road; And if our Souls are hurry'd hence, May they be found with God.

LVI. The Misery of being without God in this World: Or, Vain Prosperity.

- Tho' they increase their Golden Store,
 And rise to wond rous Height.
- They take of all the Joys that grow
 Upon this earthly Clod!
 Well, they may fearch the Creature thre,
 For they have ne'er a God.

3 Shake

- 3 Shake off the Thoughts of dying too,
 And think your Life your own;
 But Death comes halt ning on to you,
 To mow your Glory down.
- 4 Yes, you must bow your stately Head,
 Away your Spirit slies,
 And no kind Angel near your Bed,
 To bear it to the Skies.
- Go now, and boast of all your Stores, And tell how bright you shine.
 Your Heaps of glitt ring Dust are your's
 And my Redeemer's mine.

LVII. The Pleasures of a good Conscience.

- LORD, how secure and bless'd are they Who seel the Joys of pardon'd Sin! Should Storms of Wrath shake Earth and Sea, Their Minds have Heav'n and Peace within.
- The Day glides fwiftly o'er their Heads, Made up of Innocence and Love; And foft and filent as the Shades Their nightly Minutes gently move.
- [3 Quick as their Thoughts their Joys come on, But fly not half so swift away; Their Souls are ever bright as Noon, And calm as Summer Evenings be.
- 4 How oft they look to th' heav'nly Hills, Where Groves of living Pleasure grow,

And longing Hopes and chearful Smiles. Sit undisturbed upon their Brow.

- 5 They fcorn to feek our golden Toys, But spend the Day, and share the Night, In numb'ring o'er the richer Joys That Heav'n prepares for their Delight.
- 6 While wretched we, like Worms and Moles, Lie grov'ling in the Dust below, Almighty Grace renew our Souls, And we'll aspire to Glory too.

LVIII: The Shortness of Life, and the Goodness of God.

- I TIME! what an empty Vapour 'tis!
 And Days how fwift they are!
 Swift as an Indian Arrow flies,
 Or like a shooting Star.
- [2 The present Moments just appear, Then slide away in haste, That we can never say, They're here, But only say, They're past.]
- [3 Our Life is ever on the Wing, And Death is ever nigh; The Moment when our Lives begin, We all begin to die.]
- 4 Yet, mighty God! our fleeting Days
 Thy lasting Favours share,
 Yet with the Bounties of thy Grace
 Thou load'st the rolling Year.

5 'Tis

5 'Tis Sov'reign Mercy finds us Food, And we are cloath'd with Love; While Grace stands pointing out the Road, That leads our Souls above.

6 His Goodness runs an endless Round;
All Glory to the Lord!
His Mercy never knows a Bound;
And he his Name ador'd!

7 Thus we begin the lafting Song; And when we close our Eyes, Let the next Age thy Praise prolong. 'Till Time and Nature dies.

LIX. Paradise on Earth.

- Lory to God that walks the Sky, And fends his Bleffings thro; That tells his Saints of Joys on high, And gives a Taste below.
- [2 Glory to God that stoops his Throne, That Dust and Worms may see't, And brings a Glimpse of Glory down Around his facred Feet.
- When Chrift, with all his Graces crown'd, Sheds his kind Beams abroad,
 Tis a young Heav'n on earthly Ground,
 And Glory in the Bud.
- A blooming Paradife of Joy
 In this wild Defart fprings,
 And ev'ry Senfe I strait employ
 On fweet celestial Things.

4 White

- 5 White Lillies all around appear,
 And each his Glory thows;
 The Rose of Sharon blostoms here,
 The fairest Flow'r that blows.
- 6 Chearful I feast on heavinly Fruit, And drink the Pleasures down, Pleasures that flow hard by the Foot Of the eternal Throne.]
- 7 But, ah! how foon my Joys decay, How foon my Sins arise, And snatch th' heav'nly Scene away From these lamenting Eyes!
- 8 When shall the Time, dear Jefus, when The shining Day appear,
 That I shall leave those Clouds of Sin,
 And Guilt and Darkness here?
- 9 Up to the Fields above the Skies My hafty Feet would go, There everlafting Flow're arifu, And Joys unwith'ring grow.

LX. The Truth of God the Promiser: Or, The Promises are our Security.

- Praise, excitating Praise, be paid
 To him that Earth's Foundation laid:
 Praise to the God whose strong Decrees
 Sway the Creation as he please.
- Praise to the Goodness of the Lord, Who rules his People by his Word,

And

And there as strong as his Decrees, He sets his kindest Promises.

- [3 Firm are the Words his Prophets give, Sweet Words, on which his Children live; Each of them is the Voice of God, Who spoke, and spread the Skies abroad.
- 4 Each of them pow'rful as that Sound
 That bid the new-made World go round;
 And stronger than the solid Poles
 On which the Wheel of Nature rolls.
- 5 Whence then should Doubts and Fears arise? Why trickling Sorrows drown our Eyes? Slowly, alas, our Mind receives
 The Comforts that our Maker gives.
- 6 Oh, for a strong; a lasting Faith, To credit what th' Almighty saith! T'embrace the Message of his Son, And call the Joys of Heav'n our own.
- 7 Then should the Earth's old Pillars shake, And all the Wheels of Nature break; Our steady Souls should fear no more Than solid Rocks when Billows roar.
- 8 Our everlasting Hopes arise
 Above the ruinable Skies,
 Where the eternal Builder reigns,
 And his own Courts his Pow'r sustains.

LXI.

LXI. A Thought of Death and Glory.

- Y Soul, come, meditate the Day, And think how near it stands, When thou must quit this House of Clay, And sly to unknown Lands.
- [2 And you, mine Eyes, look down and view
 The hollow gaping Tomb;
 This gloomy Prifon waits for you,
 Whene'er the Summons come.]
- 3 Oh! could we die with those that die, And place us in their Stead; Then would our Spirits learn to fly, And converse with the Dead:
- 4 Then should we see the Saints above
 In their own glorious Forms,
 And wonder why our Souls should love
 To dwell with mortal Worms:
- [5 How we should scorn these Cloaths of Flesh, These Fetters, and this Load; And long for Ev'ning, to undress, That we may rest with God.]
- 6 We should almost for fake our Clay Before the Summons come, And pray and wish our Souls away To their eternal Home.

LXII.

LXII. God the Thunderer: ---- Or, The last Judgment, and Hell*.

- Ing to the Lord, ye heav'nly Hofts,
 And thou, O Earth, adore:
 Let Death and Hell thro' all their Coafts
 Stand trembling at his Pow'r.
- 2 His founding Chariot shakes the Sky, He makes the Clouds his Throne; There all his Stores of Lightning lie, 'Till Vengeance darts them down.
- 3 His Nostrils breathe out fiery Streams,
 And from his awful Tongue
 A sov'reign Voice divides the Flames,
 And Thunder roars along.
- 4 Think, O my Soul, the dreadful Day When this incenfed God Shall rend the Sky, and burn the Sea, And fling his Wrath abroad!
- 5 What shall the Wretch the Sinner do?

 He once defy'd the Lord:

 But he shall dread the Thund'rer nows

 And fink beneath his Word.
- 6 Tempelts of angry Fire thall roll, To blaft the Rebel Worm, And beat upon his naked Soul In one eternal Storm.

Made in a great fudden Storm of Thunder, August the 20th, 1697.

LXIII. A Funeral Thought.

HAR! from the Tombs a doleful Sound, My Ears attend the Cry,

"Ye living Men, come view the Ground, "Where you must shortly lie.

- 2 "Princes, this Clay must be your Bod, "In spite of all your Tow'rs;
 - "The Tall, the Wife, the Rev'rend Head Must lie as low as ours."
- 3 Great God! is this our certain Doom?
 And are we still secure!
 Still walking downward to our Tomb,
 And yet prepare no more!
- 4 Grant us the Pow'rs of quick'ning Grace,
 To fit our Souls to fly';
 Then, when we drop this dying; Flesh,
 We'll rife above the Sky.

LXIV. God the Glory and the Defence of Sion.

- HAppy the Church, thou facred Place,
 The Seat of thy Creator's Grace,
 Thine holy Courts are his Abode;
 Thou earthly Palace of our God.
- Thy Walls are Strength, and at thy Gates
 A Guard of heav'nly Warriors waits;
 Nor shall thy deep Foundations move,
 Fix'd on his Counsels and his Love.

3 Thy

- Thy Foes in vain Designs engage, Against his Throne in vain they rage; Like rising Waves with angry Roar, That dash and die upon the Shore.
- 4 Then let our Souls in Zion dwell,
 Nor fear the Wrath of Rome and Hell:
 His Arms embrace this happy Ground,
 Like brazen Bulwarks built around.
- 5 God is our Shield, and God our Sun; Swift as the fleeting Moments run, On us he sheds new Beams of Grace, And we restect his brightest Praise.

LXV. The Hopes of Heaven our Support under Trials on Earth.

- HEN I can read my Title clear
 To Mansions in the Skies,
 I bid farewel to ev'ry Fear,
 And wipe my weeping Eyes.
- 2 Should Earth against my Soul engage, And hellish Darts be hurl'd, Then I can smile at Satan's Rage, And sace a frowning World.
- 3 Let Cares like a wild Deluge come, And Storms of Sorrow fall; May I but fafely reach my Home, My God, my Heav'n, my all:
- 4 There shall I bathe my weary Soul In Seas of heav'nly Rest,

And

And not a Wave of Trouble roll
Across my peaceful Breast.

LXVI. A Prospect of Heaven makes Death easy.

THERE is a Land of pure Delight,
Where Saints immortal reign;
Infinite Day excludes the Night,
And Pleasures banish Pain.

- There everlasting Spring abides, And never-with ring Flow'rs: Death, like a narrow Sea, divides This heav'nly Land from ours.
- [3 Sweet Fields beyond the swelling Flood Stand dress'd in living Green:
 So to the Jews old Canaan stood,
 While Jordan roll'd between.
- 4 But tim'rous Mortals start and shrink, To cross this narrow Sea, And linger, shiv'ring on the Brink, And fear to launch away.]
- 5 Oh! could we make our Doubts remove, Those gloomy Doubts that rise, And see the Canaan that we love, With unbeclouded Eyes!
- 6 Could we but climb where Moses stood, And view the Landskip o'er, Not Fordan's Stream, nor Death's cold Flood, Should fright us from the Shore.

LXVII. God's Eternal Dominion.

- Reat God! how infinite art Thou!
 What worthless Worms are we!
 Let the whole Race of Creatures bow,
 And pay their Praise to Thee.
- 2 Thy Throne eternal Ages stood, E'er Seas or Stars were made; Thou art the Ever-living God, Were all the Nations dead.
- 3 Nature and Time quite naked lie To thine immense Survey, From the Formation of the Sky To the Great Burning-Day.
- 4 Eternity, with all its Years,
 Stands present in thy View;
 To thee there's nothing Old appears;
 Great God! there's nothing New.
- 5 Our Lives thro' various Scenes are drawn, And vex'd with trifling Cares, While thine eternal Thought moves on Thine undiffurb'd Affairs.
- Great God! how infinite art Thou!
 What worthless Worms are we!
 Let the whole Race of Creatures bow,
 And pay their Praise to Thee.

LXVIII.

LXVIII. The humble Worship of Heaven.

The Place of thine Abode;
I'd leave thy earthly Courts, and flee
Up to thy Seat, my God!

2 Here I behold thy distant Face, And 'tis a pleasing Sight; But to abide in thine Embrace, Is infinite Delight.

3 I'd part with all the Joys of Sense, To gaze upon thy Throne; Pleasure springs fresh for ever thence, Unspeakable, Unknown.

[4 There all the heav'nly Hofts are feen, In shining Ranks they move, And drink immortal Vigour in With Wonder, and with Love.

5 Then at thy Feet with awful Fear Th' adoring Armies fall; With Joy they shrink to NOTHING there, Before th' Eternal All.

6 There I would vie with all the Host
In Duty and in Blis;

While Less THAN NOTHING I could boaft,

* And VANITY confess,

Ifa. xl. 17.

7 The more thy Glories strike mine Eyes,
The humbler I shall lie;
Thus while I fink, my Joys shall rise
Unmeasurably high.

LXIX. The Faithfulness of God, in the Promises.

Begin, my Tongue, some heav'nly Theme,
And speak some boundless Thing,
The mighty Works, or mightier Name,
Of our Eternal King.

2 Tell of his wond'rous Faithfulness, And found his Pow'r abroad, Sing the sweet Promise of his Grace, And the performing God.

3 Proclaim Salvation from the Lord For wretched dying Men; His Hand has writ the facred Word With an immortal Pen.

4 Engrav'd as in eternal Brass
The mighty Promise shines;
Nor can the Pow'rs of Darkness rase
Those everlasting Lines.]

[5] He that can dash whole Worlds to Death,
And make them when he please,
He speaks, and that Almighty Breath
Fulfils his great Decrees.

6 His very Word of Grace is frong As that which built the Skies;

The

The Voice that rolls the Stars along Speaks all the Promifes.

7 He said, Let the wide Heav'n be spread, And Heav'n was stretch'd abroad; Abrah'm, I'll be thy God, he said, And He was Abrah'm's God.

8 Oh, might I hear thine heav'nly Tongue
But whifper, Thou art mine!
Those gentle Words should raise my Song
To Notes almost divine.

9 How would my leaping Heart rejoice, And think my Heav'n fecure! I trust the All-creating Voice, And Faith defires no more.]

LXX. God's Dominion over the Sea. Psal. cvii. 23, &c.

- OD of the Seas, thy thund'ring Voice Makes all the roaring Waves rejoice!
 And one foft Word of thy Command
 Can fink them filent in the Sand.
- If but a Moses wave thy Rod,
 The Sea divides, and owns its God;
 The stormy Floods their Maker knew,
 And let his chosen Armies through.
- The scaly Flocks amidst the Sea
 To thee, their Lord, a Tribute pay;
 The meanest Fish that swims the Flood
 Leaps up, and means a Praise to God.

[4 The

- 5 If God his Voice of Tempest rears, Leviathan lies still, and fears; Anon he lists his Nostrils high, And spouts the Ocean to the Sky.]
- 6 How is thy glorious Pow'r ador'd Amidst these wat'ry Nations, Lord! Yet the bold Men that trace the Seas, Bold Men, resuse their Maker's Praise.
- [7 What Scenes of Miracles they fee, And nevertune a Song to thee! While on the Flood they fafely ride, They curfe the Hand that smooths the Tide.
- 8 Anon they plunge in wat'ry Graves,
 And fome drink Death among the Waves:
 Yet the furviving Crew blaspheme,
 Nor own the God that rescu'd them:
- o Oh, for fome Signal of thine Hand Shake all the Seas, Lord, shake the Land: Great Judge, descend, lest Men deny That there's a God that rules the Sky.

LXXI. Praise to God from all Creatures.

THE Glories of my Maker, God, My joyful Voice shall sing, And call the Nations to adore Their Former and their King.

- 2 'Twas his Right-Hand that shap'd our Clay,
 And wrought this human Frame;
 But from his own immediate Breath
 Our nobler Spirits came.
- 3 We bring our mortal Powers to God, And worship with our Tongues; We claim some Kindred with the Skies, And join th' Angelic Songs.
- And Fowls of ev'ry Wing,
 And Rocks, and Trees, and Fires, and Seas,
 Their various Tribute bring.
- 5 Ye Planets, to his Honour shine, And Wheels of Nature roll, Praise him in your unweary'd Course Around the steady Pole.
- 6 The Brightness of our Maker's Name
 The wide Creation fills,
 And his unbounded Grandeur flies
 Beyond the heav'nly Hills.

LXXII. The Lord's Day: Or, The Resurrection of Christ.

- Behold our rifing God; (Rays)
 That faw him triumph o'er the Dust,
 And leave his last Abode.
- In the cold Prison of a Tomb
 The dead Redeemer lay,
 Till the revolving Skies had brought
 The Third, th' appointed Day.
- 3 Hell and the Grave unite their Force
 To hold our God in vain;
 The fleeping Conqueror arose,
 And burk their feeble Chain.
- To thy Great Name, Almighty Lord,
 These facred Hours we pay,
 And loud Hosanna's shall proclaim
 The Triumph of the Day.
- [5 Salvation and immortal Praise
 To our victorious King;
 Let Heav'n, and Earth, and Rocks, and Seas,
 With glad Hosanna's ring.]

LXXVI. The Resurrection and Ascension of Christ.

That cloath'd himself in Clay post the Brist of Death,
And tore the Bars away.

Since our Emanuel rose;
He took the Tyrant's Sting away,

LXXVIII. Redemption by Christ.

 And the Infection of their Sin
 Had tainted all our Blood,

 Of the eternal Som;
 Descending from the heav'nly Court,

 His most Divine Array,
 And wrapp'd his Godhead in a Veil
 Of our inferior Clay.

- To thee, dear Lord, our Flesh and Sould We joyfully refign;
 Bless'd Jesus, take us for thy own,
 For we are doubly thine.
- 6 Thine Honour shall for ever be
 The Business of our Days,
 For ever shall our thankful Tongues
 Speak thy deserved Praise.

LXXIX. Praise to the Redeemer.

PLung'd in a Gulph of dark Despair
We wretched Sinners lay,
Without one chearful Beam of Hope,
Or Spark of glimm'ring Day.

With pitying Eyes the Prince of Grace
Beheld our helples Grief;
He saw, and (O amazing Love!)
He ran to our Relief.

Enter'd the Grave in mortal Flesh, And dwelt among the Dead.

His curfed Projects tries;

We that were doom'd his endless Slaves,

Their lafting Silence break,
And all harmonious human Tongues

The Saviour's Praises speak.

Our Souls are all on Flame;
Hosana round the spacious Earth
To thine adored Name.

[4 The Waves of swelling Grief Did o'er his Bosom roll,

And

And Mountains of Almighty Wrath Lay heavy on his Soul.]

5 Down to the Shades of Death He bow'd his awful Head;

Yet he arose to live and reign When Death itself is dead.

6 No more the bloody Spear,
The Cross and Nails no more;
For Hell itself shakes at his Name,
And all the Heav'ns adore.

7 There the Redeemer fits
High on the Father's Throne;
The Father lays his Vengeance by,
And fmiles upon his Son.

8 There his full Glories shine With uncreated Rays,
And bless his Saints and Angels Eyes
To everlasting Days.

LXXXV. Sufficiency of Pardon.

Those mournful Colours wear?
What Doubts are these that waste your Faish,
And nourish your Despair?

What tho' your num'rous Sins exceed The Stars that fill the Skies, And, aiming at th' eternal Throne, Like pointed Mountains rife:

3 What tho your mighty Guilt beyond The wide Creation swell,

And

And as its curs'd Foundations laid Low as the Deeps of Hell.

- 4 See here an endless Ocean flows
 Of never-failing Grace;
 Behold a dying Saviour's Veins
 The sacred Flood increase:
- 5 It rises high, and drowns the Hills,
 'T has neither Shore nor Bound:
 Now, if we search to find our Sins,
 Our Sins can ne'er be found.
- 6 Awake, our Hearts, adore the Grace
 That buries all our Faults,
 And pard'ning Blood, that fwells above
 Our Follies, and our Thoughts.

LXXXVI. Freedom from Sin and Misery in Heaven.

- UR Sins, alas! how strong they be?
 And, like a vi'lent Sea,
 They break our Duty, Lord, to thee,
 And hurry us away.
- The Waves of Trouble, how they rise!

 How loud the Tempests roar!

 But Death shall land our weary Souls

 Safe on the heav'nly Shore.
- There, to fulfil his sweet Commands,
 Our speedy Feet shall move;
 No Sin shall clog our winged Zeal,
 Or cool our burning Love.

4 There

- There shall we fit and sing, and tell
 The Wonders of his Grace,
 'Till heav'nly Raptures fire our Hearts,
 And smile in ev'ry Face.
- 5 For ever his dear facred Name
 Shall dwell upon our Tongue,
 And Jesus and Salvation be
 The Close of evry Song.

LXXXVII. The Divine Glories above our Reason.

- Must our Creator be, (Bright, Who dwells amidst the dazzling Light Of vast Infinity!
- Our foaring Spirits upwards rife
 Tow'rd the celestial Throne:
 Fain would we see the Blessed Three,
 And the Almighty One.
- 3 Our Reason stretches all its Wings, And climbs above the Skies; But still how far beneath thy Feet Our grov'ling Reason lies!
- [4 Lord, here we bend our humble Souls,
 And awfully adore:
 For the weak Pinions of our Mind
 Can stretch a Thought no more.]
- 5 Thy Glories infinitely rife
 Above our lab'ring Tongue;

In vain the highest Seraph tries, To form an equal Song.

[6 In humble Notes our Faith adores
The Great Mysterious King,
While Angels strain their nobler Pow'rs,
And sweep th' immortal String.]

LXXXVIII. Salvation.

- SAlvation! Oh, the joyful Sound;
 'Tis Pleasure to our Ears;
 A sov'reign Balm for ev'ry Wound,
 A Cordial for our Fears.
- 2 Bury'd in Sorrow and in Sin, At Hell's dark Door we lay; But we arife, by Grace divine, To fee a heav'nly Day.
- 3 Salvation! Let the Echo fly
 The spacious Earth around,
 While all the Armies of the Sky
 Conspire to raise the Sound.

LXXXIX. Christ's Victory over Satan.

- The Prince of Darkness flies,
 His Troops rush headlong down to Hell,
 Like Lightning from the Skies.
- There, bound in Chains, the Lions roar, And fright the refould Sheep;

But

But heavy Bars confine their Pow'r And Malice to the Deep.

3 Hosanna to our Conqu'ring King, All hail, incarnate Love! Ten thousand Songs and Glories wait To crown thy Head above.

4 Thy Niceries and thy deathless Fame
Thro' the wide World shall run,
And everlasting Ages sing
The Triumphs thou hast won.

XC. Faith in Christ, for Pardon and Sanctification.

THOW fad our State by Nature is!

Our Sin, how deep it flains!

And Satan binds our captive Minds

Fast in his slavish Chains.

2 But there's a Voice of fov'reign Grace
Sounds from the facred Word;
Ho! ye despairing Sinners, come,
And trust upon the Lord.

My Soul obeys th' Almighty Call,
And runs to this Relief;
I would believe thy Promife, Lord;
Oh! help my Unbelief.

[4 To the dear Fountain of thy Blood, Incarnate God, I fly; Here let me wash my spotted Scal From Crimes of deeper Dyc.

5 Stretch

B. II.

- 5 Stretch out thine Arm, victorious King, My reigning Sins subdue; Drive the old Dragon from his Seat, With all his hellish Crew.
- 6 A guilty, weak, and helpless Worm
 On thy kind Arms I fall:
 Be thou my Strength and Righteousness,
 My Jesus, and my All.

XCI. The Glory of Christ in Heaven.

- The Glories of the Place
 Where Jesus sheds the brightest Beams
 Of his o'erflowing Grace!
- 2 Sweet Majesty and awful Love Sit smiling on his Brow, And all the Glorious Ranks above At humble Distance bow.
- [3 Princes to his Imperial Name
 Bend their bright Sceptres down;
 Dominions, Thrones, and Pow'rs rejoice
 To see him wear the Crown.
- 4 Archangels found his lofty Praife
 Thro' ev'ry heav'nly Street,
 And lay their highest Honours down
 Submissive at his Feet.
- 5 Those soft, those blessed Feet of his, That once rude Iron tore,

High

- High on a Throne of Light they stand, And all the Saints adore.
- 6 His Head, the dear Majestick Head, That cruel Thorns did wound, See what immortal Glories shine, And circle it around!
- 7 This is the Man, th' exalted Man, Whom we, unseen, adore: But when our Eyes behold his Face, Our Hearts shall love him more.
- [8 Lord, how our Souls are all on fire To fee thy bless'd Abode; Our Tongues rejoice in Tunes of Praise To our incarnate God!
- 9 And while our Faith enjoys this Sight, We long to leave our Clay; And wish thy fiery Chariots, Lord, To fetch our Souls away.]

XCII. The Church faved, and her Enemies disappointed.

Composed the 5th of November, 1694.

- SHout to the Lord, and let our Joys
 Thro' the whole Nation run;
 Ye British Skies, resound the Noise
 Beyond the rifing Sun.
- Thee, Mighty God, our Souls admire, Thee our glad Voices fing,

And

And join with the celestial Choir, To praise th' Eternal King.

- 3 Thy Pow'r the whole Creation rules.
 And on the starry Skies
 Sits smiling at the weak Defigns
 Thine envious Foes device.
- 4 Thy Scorn derides their feeble Rage, And, with an awful Frown, Flings wast Confusion on their Plots, And shakes their Babel down.
- [5 Their fecret Fires in Caverns lay,
 And we the Sacrifice:
 But gloomy Caverns strove in vain
 To scape All-searching Eyes.
- 6 Their dark Defigns were all reveal'd,
 Their Treasons all betray'd:
 Praise to the Lord, that broke the Snare
 Their cursed Hands had laid.]
- 7 In vain the bufy Sons of Hell Still new Rebellions try, Their Souls shall pine with envious Rage, And vex away, and die.
- 8 Almighty Grace defends our Land From their malicious Pow'r: Let Britain with united Songs Almighty Grace adore:

XÇIU.

XCIII. God all, and in all. Pial. lxxiii. 25.

1 M Y God, my Life, my Love, To thee, to thee I call;

I cannot live, if thou remove, For thou art All in all.

[2 Thy shining Grace can cheer This Dungeon where I dwell: 'Tis Paradise when thou art here; If thou depart, 'tis Hell.]

[3 The Smilings of thy Face, How amiable they are! 'Tis Heav'n to rest in thine Embrace, And no where else but there.]

[4 To thee, and thee alone,
The Angels owe their Blis;
They fit around thy gracious Throne,
And dwell where Jesus is.]

[5 Not all the Harps above
Can make a heav'nly Place,
If God his Residence remove,
Or but conceal his Face.]

6 Nor Earth, nor all the Sky, Can one Delight afford; No, not a Drop of real Joy, Without thy Prefence, Lord.

7 Thou art the Sea of Love,
Where all my Pleafures roll;
The Circle where my Passions move,
And Centre of my Soul.

[8 To

[8 To thee my Spirits fly
With infinite Defire;
And yet, how far from thee I lie!
Dear Jesus raise me higher.]

XCIV. God my only Happiness. Psal. lxxiii. 25.

Y God, my Portion, and my Love,
My everlating All,
I've none but thee in Heav'n above,
Or on this earthly Ball.

[2 What empty Things are all the Skies, And this inferiour Clod? There's nothing here deserves my Joys, There's nothing like my God.]

[3 In vain the bright, the burning Sun Scatters his feeble Light: 'Tis thy fweet Beams create my Noon; If thou withdraw, 'tis Night.

4 And whilst upon my restless Bed Amongst the Shades I roll, If my Redeemer shews his Head, 'Tis Morning with my Soul.]

5 To thee we owe our Wealth and Friends, And Health and fafe Abode:
Thanks to thy Name for meaner Things,
But they are not my God.

6 How vain a Toy is glitt'ring Wealth,

If once compar'd to Thee?

Or

Or what's my Safety, or my Health, Or all my Friends, to me?

7' Were I Possession of the Earth, And call'd the Stars my own; Without thy Graces, and thy Self, I were a Wretch undone.

8 Let others firetch their Arms like Seas, And grasp in all the Shore, Grant me the Visits of thy Face, And I defire no more.

XCV. Look on him whom they pierced, and mourn.

I Nfinite Grief! amazing Woe!
Behold my bleeding Lord:
Hell and the Yews conspir'd his Death,
And us'd the Roman Sword.

2 Oh, the sharp Pangs of smarting Pain My dear Redeemer bore, When knotty Whips, and ragged Thorns, His sacred Body tore!

3 But knotty Whips, and ragged Thorns, In vain do I accuse; In vain I blame the Roman Bands, And the more spiteful Yews.

4 'Twere you, my Sins, my cruel Sins, His chief Tormentors were; Each of my Crimes became a Nail, And Unbelief the Spear.

· L 2 Digitized by Goog & 'Twen

5 'Twere you that pull'd the Vengeance down Upon his guiltless Head: Break, break, my Heart, oh, burst mine Eyes, And let my Sorrows bleed.

6 Strike, mighty Grace, my flinty Soul, 'Till melting Waters flow,

And deep Repentance drown mine Eyes In undiffembled Woe.

XCVI. Distinguishing Love; or, Angels punish'd, and Man saved.

- The Rebel-Angels fell,
 And Thunder-bolts of flaming Wrath
 Pursu'd them deep to Hell.
- 2 Down from the Top of earthly Bliss Rebellious Man was hurl'd; And Jesus stoop'd beneath the Grave, To reach a finking World.
- 3 Oh, Love of infinite Degrees!
 Unmeasurable Grace!
 Must Heav'n's eternal Darling die,
 To save a trait'rous Race?
- 4 Must Angels fink for ever down,
 And burn in quenchless Fire,
 While God forsakes his shining Throne,
 To raise us Wretches higher?
 - Oh, for this Love, let Earth and Skies With Hallelujah's ring,

And

And the full Choir of human Tongues All Hallelujah's fing.

XCVII. The same.

- Rom Heav'n the finning Angels fell, And Wrath and Darkness chain'd them But Man, vile Man, forsook his Bliss, (down; And Mercy lifts him to a Crown.
- To thee, to thee, Almighty Love,
 Our Souls, our Selves, our All we pay:
 Millions of Tongues shall found thy Praise
 On the bright Hills of heav'nly Day.

XCVIII. Hardness of Heart complain'd of.

- Y Heart, how dreadful hard it is!

 How heavy here it lies;

 Heavy and cold within my Breast,

 Just like a Rock of Ice!
- 2 Sin, like a raging Tyrant, fits
 Upon this flinty Throne,
 And every Grace lies bury'd deep
 Beneath this Heart of Stone.
- 3 How seldom do I rise to God, Or taste the Joys above? • L 3

This

This Mountain preffes down my Faith, And chills my flaming Love.

- When smiling Mercy courts my Soul With all its heav'nly Charms,
 This stubborn, this relentless Thing
 Would thrust it from my Arms.
- Rebellious I have stood;
 My Heart, it shakes not at the Wrath
 And Terrors of a God.
 - 6 Dear Saviour, steep this Rock of mine In thine own crimson Sea! None but a Bath of Blood divine Can melt the Flint away.

XCIX. The Book of God's Decrees.

- ET the whole Race of Creatures lie
 Abas'd before their God:
 Whate'er his Sov'reign Voice has form'd,
 He governs with a Nod.
- [2 Ten thousand Ages e'er the Skies
 Were into Motion brought;
 All the long Years and Worlds to come
 Stood present to his Thought.
- 3 There's not a Sparrow, or a Worm, But's found in his Decrees; He raifes, Monarchs to their Throne, And finks them as he pleafe.]
- 4 If Light attends the Course I run, 'Tis He provides those Rays;

And

And 'tis his Hand that hides my Sun,
If Darkness cloud my Days.

5 Yet I would not be much concern'd, Nor vainly long to fee The Volumes of his deep Decrees,

What Months are writ for me.

6 When he reveals the Book of Life, Oh, may I read my Name Amongst the Chosen of his Love, The Foll'wers of the Lamb!

C. The Presence of Christ is the Life of my Soul.

I OW full of Anguish is the Thought,
How it distracts and tears my Heart,
If God at last, my Sov reign Judge,
Should frown, and bid my Soul Depart !

Where shall I sly but to thy Breast?

For I have sought no other Home;

For I have learn'd no other Rest.

Without fome Glimpses of thy Face;
And Heav'n, without thy Presence there,
Will be a dark and tiresome Place.

4 When earthly Cares ingross the Day, And hold my Thoughts aside from thee, The shining Hours of chearful Light Are long and tedious Years to me.

L₄ 5 And

- 5 And if no Evining Vifit's paid
 Between my Saviour and my Soul,
 How dull the Night! how fad the Shade!
 How mournfully the Minutes roll!
- This Flesh of mine might learn as soon. To live, yet part with all my Blood;
 To breathe, when vital Air is gone,
 Or thrive and grow without my Food.
- [7 Christ is my Light, my Life, my Care, My bleffed Hope, my heavinly Prize; Dearer than all my Passions are, My Limbs, my Bowels, or my Eyes.
- The Strings that twine about my Heart,
 Tortures and Racks may tear them off;
 But they can never, never part
 With their dear Hold of Christ my Love.]
- [9 My God! and can a humble Child, I That loves thee with a Flame so high, Be ever from thy Face exil'd, Without the Pity of thine Eye?
- Have two my Heart fo fast to thee, And in thy Book the Promise stands, That where thou art, thy Friends must be.]

CI. The World's Three thief Temptations.

We look on Things below,
Honour,

Digitized by Google

Honour, and Gold, and fenfual Joy, How vain and dang'rous too!

[2 Honour's a Puff of noify Breath; Yet Men expose their Blood, And venture everlasting Death, To gain that airy Good.

3 Whilst others starve the nobler Mind, And feed on shining Dust, They rob the Serpent of his Food, T'indulge a sordid Lust.]

- 4 The Pleasures that allure our Sense Are dang'rous Snares to Souls; There's but a Drop of Flatt'ring sweet, And dash'd with bitter Bowls.
 - 5 God is mine All-fufficient Good, My Portion and my Choice, In Him my vast Defires are fill'd, And all my Pow'rs rejoice.
 - 6 In vain the World accosts my Ear,
 And tempts my Heart anew;
 I cannot buy your Bliss so dear,
 Nor part with Heav'n for you.

CII. A Happy Resurrection.

O, I'll repine at Death no more,
But, with a chearful Gasp, resign
To the cold Dungeon of the Grave
These dying, with ring Limbs of mine.

2 Let Worms devour my wasting Flesh, And crumble all my Bones to Duft,

My

My God shall raise my Frame anew At the Revival of the Just.

- Break, facred Morning, thro' the Skies, Bring that delightful, dreadful Day, Cut fhort the Hours, dear Lord, and come; Thy ling'ring Wheels, how long they stay!
- [4 Our, weary Spirits faint to see The Light of thy returning Face, And hear the Language of those Lips Where God has shed his richest Grace.]
- [5 Haste then upon the Wings of Love, Rouze all the pious sleeping Clay, That we may join in heav'nly Joys, And sing the Triumph of the Day.]

CIII. Christ's Commission. John iii. ver. 16, 17.

- C O M E, happy Souls, approach your God, With new melodious Songs;
 Come, tender to Almighty Grace
 The Tributes of your Tongues.
- So ftrange, fo boundless was the Love
 That pity'd dying Men,
 The Father fent his equal Son
 To give them Life again.
- Thy Hands, dear Jefus, were not arm'd ... With a revenging Rod,
 No hard Commission to perform The Vengeance of a God.

4 But

- 4 But all was Mercy, all was mild,
 And Wrath forfook the Throne,
 When Christ on the kind Errand came,
 And brought Salvation down.
- 5 Here, Sinners, you may heal your Wounds, And wipe your Sorrows dry; Trust in the mighty Saviour's Name, And you shall never die.
 - 6 See, dearest Lord, our willing Souls
 Accept thine offer'd Grace;
 We bless the Great Redeemer's Love,
 And give the Father Praise.

CIV. The fame.

To an immortal Tune,

Let the wide Earth refound the Deeds
Celefial Grace has done.

2 Sing how Eternal Love Its chief Beloved chose, And bid him raise our wretched Race From their Abyss of Woes.

3 His Hand no Thunder bears, Nor Terror cloaths his Brow; No Bolts to drive our guilty Souls To fiercer Flames below.

4. Twas Mercy fill'd the Throne, And Wrath stood filent by, When Christ was sent with Pardons down To Rebels doom'd to die.

5 Now,

5 Now, Sinners, dry your Tears, Let hopeless Sorrow cease; Bow to the Sceptre of his Love, And take the offer'd Peace.

6 Lord, we obey thy Call;
We lay an humble Claim
To the Salvation thou hast brought,
And love and praise thy Name.

CV. Repentance flowing from the Patience of God.

- And do we yet rebel?
 Tis boundless, 'tis amazing Love,
 That bears us up from Hell!
- 2 The Burden of our weighty Guilt Would fink us down to Flames, And threat'ning Vengeance rolls above, To crush our feeble Frames.
- 3 Almighty Goodness cries, Forbear, And strait the Thunder stays: And dare we now provoke his Wrath, And weary out his Grace?
- Too long indulg'd our Sin,
 Our aking Hearts e'en bleed, to see
 What Rebels we have been.
- No more, ye Lusts, shall ye command, No more will we obey; Stretch out, O God, thy conqu'ring Hand, And drive thy Foes away.

·CVI. Repentance at the Cross.

- H, if my Soul was form'd for Woe.

 How would I vent my Sighs!

 Repentance should like Rivers flow

 From both my streaming Eyes.
- 2 'Twas for my Sins my dearest Lord' Hung on the cursed Tree, And groan'd away a dying Life For thee, my Soul, for thee.
- 3 Oh, how I hate those Lusts of mine
 That crucify'd my God,
 Those Sins that pierc'd and nail'd his Flesh
 Fast to the fatal Wood!
- 4 Yes, my Redeemer, they shall die, My Heart has so decreed; Nor will I spare the guilty Things That made my Saviour bleed.
- 5 Whilst with a melting broken Heart My murder'd Lord I view, I'll raise Revenge against my Sins, And slay the Murd'rers too.

CVII. The everlasting Absence of God intolerable.

- That awful Day will furely come, Th' appointed Hour makes hafte, When I must stand before my Judge, And pass the folemn Test.
- 2 Thou levely Chief of all my Joys, Thou Sov'reign of my Heart,

How

How could I bear to hear the Voice Pronounce the Sound, Depart?

[3 The Thunder of that difmal Word Would so torment my Ear,
'Twould tear my Soul assunder, Lord,
With most tormenting Fear.]

[4 What, to be banish'd for my Life, And yet forbid to die? To linger in eternal Pain, Yet Death for ever fly?]

5 Oh! wretched State of deep Despair, To see my God remove, And fix my doleful Station where I must not taste his Love.

6 Fefus, I throw my Arms around, And hang upon thy Breast; Without a gracious Smile from thee My Spirit cannot rest.

7 Oh! tell me that my worthless Name Is graven on thy Hands; Shew me some Promise, in thy Book, Where my Salvation stands!

[8 Give me one kind, assuring Word, To fink my Fears again, And chearfully my Soul shall wait Her threescore Years and ten.]

CVIII. Access to the Throne of Grace by a Mediator.

COme, let us lift our joyful Eyes
Up to the Courts above,

And

And finile to fee our Father there Upon a Throne of Love.

B. II.

- 2 Once 'twas a Seat of dreadful Wrath, And shot devouring Flame; Our God appear'd consuming Fire, And Vengeance was his Name.
- 3 Rich were the Drops of Jesus' Blood
 That calm'd his frowning Face,
 That sprinkled o'er the burning Throne,
 And turn'd the Wrath to Grace.
- And venture near the Lord;
 No fiery Cherub guards his Seat,
 Nor double-flaming Sword.
- 5 The peaceful Gates of heav'nly Blifs Are open'd by the Son; High let us raise our Notes of Praise, And reach th' Almighty Throne.
- 6 To thee ten thousand Thanks we bring, Great Advocate on high; And Glory to th' Eternal King, That lays his Fury by.

CIX. The Darkness of Providence.

- Too deep to view with feeble Sense.
- 2 Now thou array'st thine awful Face In angry Frowns, without a Smile:

We,

We, thro' the Cloud, believe thy Grace, Secure of thy Compassion still.

- Thro' Seas and Storms of deep Diftress We fail by Faith, and not by Sight; Faith guides us in the Wilderness, Thro' all the Briars, and the Night.
- 4 Dear Father, if thy lifted Rod Resolve to scourge us here below, Still we must lean upon our God, Thine Arm shall bear us safely thro'.

CX. Triumph over Death, in Hope of the Resurrection.

This mortal Frame decay?

And must these active Limbs of mine
Lie mould'ring in the Clay?

- 2 Corruption, Earth, and Worms
 Shall but refine this Flesh,
 Till my triumphant Spirit comes,
 To put it on afresh.
- 3 God my Redeemer lives, And often from the Skies Looks down, and watches all my Duft, 'Till he shall bid it rife.
- 4 Array'd in glorious Grace, Shall these vile Bodies shine, And ev'ry Shape, and ev'ry Face, Look heav'nly and divine,

5 Thefe

5 These lively Hopes we owe To Fesus' dying Love; We would adore his Grace below, And fing his Pow'r above.

6 Dear Lord, accept the Praise Of these our humble Songs, Till Tunes of nobler Sound we mise With our immortal Tongues.

CXI. Thank/giving for Victory: Or, God's Dominion, and our Deliverance.

Z 10 N rejoice, and Judah fing, The Lord assumes his Throne: Let Britain own the heav'nly King, And make his Glories known.

From their high Seats are hurl'd;

Febovah rides upon a Cloud,

And thunders thro' the World.

He reigns upon th' eternal Hill,
Distributes mortal Crowns;
Empires are fix'd beneath his Smiles,
And totter at his Frowns.

Are vanquish'd by his Breath,
And Legions, arm'd with Pow'r and Pride,
Descend to wat'ry Death.

5 Let Tyrants make no more Pretence To vex our happy Land; Jebovah's Name is our Defence, Our Buckler is his Hand.

[6 Long

[6 Long may the King, our Sov'reign, live. To rule us by his Word; And all the Honours he can give, Be offer'd to the Lord.

CXII. Angels ministring to Christ and Saints.

- Reat God! to what a glorious Height
 Hast thou advanc'd the Lord thy Son?
 Angels, in all their Robes of Light,
 Are made the Servants of his Throne.
- Before his Feet thine Armies wait, And swift as Flames of Fire they move, To manage his Affairs of State In Works of Vengeance, and of Love.
- 3 His Orders run through all the Hosts, Legions descend at his Command, To shield and guard the British Coasts, When foreign Rage invades our Land.
- 4 Now they are fent to guide our Feet Up to the Gates of thine Abode, Thro' all the Dangers that we meet In travelling the heav'nly Road.
- 5 Lord, when I leave this mortal Ground, And thou shalt bid me rife, and come, Send a beloved Angel down, Safe to conduct my Spirit home.

CXIII

CXIII. The same.

- THE Majesty of Solomon,
 How glorious to behold
 The Servants waiting round his Throne,
 The Iv'ry, and the Gold!
- 2 But, mighty God! thy Palace shines With far superior Beams; Thine Angel-Guards are swift as Winds, Thy Ministers are Flames.
- [3 Soon as thine only Son had made His Entrance on the Earth, A fining Army downward fled, To celebrate his Birth.
- 4 And, when oppress'd with Pains and Fears,
 On the cold Ground he lies,
 Behold, a heav'nly Form appears,
 T'allay his Agonies.]
- 5 Now to the Hands of Christ, our King, Are all their Legions giv'n; They wait upon his Saints, and bring His chosen Heirs to Heav'n.
- 6 Pleasure and Praise run through their Host, To see a Sinner turn; Then Satan has a Captive lost, And Christ a Subject born.
- 7 But there's an Hour of brighter Joy,
 When He his Angels fends,
 Obstinate Rebels to destroy,
 And gather in his Friends.

8 Oh!

There shall my Soul be found,
Then let the Great Arch-Angel shout,
And the last Trumpet sound.

CXIV. Christ's Death, Victory and Dominion.

- I Sing my Saviour's wond'rous Death;
 He conquer'd when he fell:
 'Tis finish'd, said his dying Breath,
 And shook the Gates of Hell.
- 2 'Tis finish'd, our Emanuel cries,
 The dreadful Work is done;
 Hence shall his Sov'reign Throne arise,
 His Kingdom is begun.
- His Cross a fure Foundation laid
 For Glory and Renown,
 When thro' the Regions of the Dead
 He pass'd to reach the Crown.
- 4 Exalted at his Father's Side Sits our victorious Lord; To Heav'n and Hell his Hands divide The Vengeance or Reward.
- 5 The Saints, 'from his propitious Eyes'
 Await their feveral Crowns,
 And all the Sons of Darkness fly
 The T'error of his Frowns.

CXV.

CXV. God the Avenger of his Saints: Or, His Kingdom Supreme.

- I I GH as the Heav'ns above the Ground,
 Reigns the Creator, God;
 Wide as the whole Creation's Bound,
 Extends his awful Rod.
- 2 Let Princes of exalted State To him ascribe their Crown, Render their Homage at his Feet, And cast their Glories down.
- 3 Know that his Kingdom is supreme, Your losty Thoughts are vain; He calls you Gods, that awful Name, But ye must die like Men.
- 4 Then let the Sov'reigns of the Globe Not dare to vex the Just; He puts on Vengeance like a Robe! And treads the Worms to Dust.
- 5 Ye Judges of the Earth, be wife, And think of Heav'n with Fear; The meanest Saint that you despise Has an Avenger there.

CXVI. Mercies and Thanks.

1 HOW can I fink with such a Prop As my eternal God, Who bears the Earth's huge Pillars up, And spreads the Heav'ns abroad?

- 2 How can I die while Jesus lives, Who rose and lest the Dead? Pardon and Grace my Soul receives From mine exalted Head.
- 3 All that I am, and all I have, Shall be for ever thine; Whate'er my Duty bids me give, My chearful Hands refign.
- 4 Yet if I might make some Reserve, And Duty did not call, I love my God with Zeal so great, That I should give him All.

CXVII. Living and dying with God present.

- I Cannot bear this Absence, Lord,
 My Life expires if thou depart:
 Be thou, my Heart, still near my God,
 And thou, my God, be near my Heart.
- 2 I was not born for Earth or Sin, Nor can I live on Things fo vile; Yet I will stay my Father's Time, And hope, and wait for Heav'n awhile.
- 3 Then, dearest Lord, in thine Embrace Let me resign my sleeting Breath, And, with a Smile upon my Face, Pass the important Hour of Death.

CXVIII.

CXVIII. The Priesthood of Christ.

- BLood has a Voice to pierce the Skies, Revenge, the Blood of Abel cries: But the dear Stream, when Christ was slain, Speaks Peace as loud from ev'ry Vein.
- 2 Pardon and Peace from God on high; Behold, he lays his Vengeance by; And Rebels that deferve his Sword, Become the Fav'rites of the Lord.
- 3 To Jesus let our Praises rise, Who gave his Lise a Sacrifice; Now he appears before his God, And, for our Pardon, pleads his Blood.

CXIX. The Holy Scriptures.

- Aden with Guilt, and full of Fears,
 I fly to thee, my Lord,
 And not a Glimpse of Hope appears,
 But in thy written Word.
- 2 The Volume of my Father's Grace Does all my Grief affwage: Here I behold my Saviour's Face Almost in ev'ry Page.
- [3 This is the Field where hidden lies
 The Pearl of Price unknown;
 That Merchant is divinely wife,
 Who makes the Pearl his own.

Here

- 4 Here consecrated Water flows,
 To quench my Thirst of Sin;
 Here the fair Tree of Knowledge grows,
 Nor Danger dwells therein.]
- 5 This is the Judge that ends the Strife, Where Wit and Reason fail; My Guide to everlasting Life, Thro' all this gloomy Vale.
- 6 Oh! may thy Counfels, mighty God, My roving Feet command; Nor I for fake the happy Road That leads to thy Right Hand.

  "Hell waits you with her Iron Bands;
  - "Ye shall lie down in Sorrow there,

CLV. Christ our Passover.

- To Pharach's stubborn Land!
  The Pride and Flow'r of Egypt dies
  By his windictive Hand.
- 2' He past'd the Tents of Jacob e'er, Nor pour'd the Wrath divine; He saw the Blood on ev'ry Door, And Hess'd the peaceful Sign.
- 3. Thus the appointed Lamb must bleed, To break th' Egyption Yoke;
  Thus Ifrael is from Bondage fre'd,
- And 'scapes the Angel's Stroke.
- 4 Lord, if my Heart were sprinkled too With Blood so rich as thine,

Justice

Justice no longer would pursue.

This guilty Soul of mine.

5 Jesus our Passover was slain, And has at once procur'd Freedom from Satan's heavy Chain, And God's avenging Sword.

CLVI. Presumption and Despair: Or, Satan's various Temptations.

I Hate the Tempter and his Charms,
I hate his flattring Breath;
The Serpent takes a thousand Forms,
To cheat our Souls to Death.

2 He feeds our Hopes with airy Dreams, Or kills with flavish Fear; And holds us still in wide Extremes, Presumption, or Despair.

3 Now he persuades, how easy 'tis

To walk the Road to Heav'n;

Anon he swells our Sins, and cries,

They cannot be forgiv'n.

[4 He bids young Sinners, yet forbear To think of God, or Death; For Prayer and Devotion are But melanthely Breath.

5 He tells the Aged, they must die, And 'tis too late to pray; In vain for Mercy now they cry, For they have lost their Day.]

6 Thus

B. II.

Thus he supports his cruel Throne
By Mischief and Deceit,
And drags the Sons of Adam down
To Darkness and the Pit.

7 Almighty God, cut short his Pow'r, Let him in Darkness dwell; And, that he vex the Earth no more, Confine him down to Hell.

CLVII. The same.

- OW: Saton comes with dreadful Roar,
  And threatens to deftroy;
  He worries whom he can't devour
  With a malicious Joy.
- 2 Ye Sons of God, oppose his Rage, Resist, and he'll be gone; Thus did our dearest Lord engage And vanquish him alone.
- 3 Now he appears almost Divine, Like Innocence and Love; But the old Serpent lurks within, When he assumes the Dove.
- Ye Sons of Adam, fly;
  Our Parents found the Snare too strong,
  Nor should the Children try,

CLVIII.

CLVIII. Few faved: Or, The almost Christian, the Hypocrite, and Apofate.

- PRoad is the Road that leads to Death,
  And Thousands walk together there;
  But Wisdom shews a narrower Path,
  With here and there a Traveller.
- 2 Deny thy Self, and take thy Cross, Is the Redeemer's great Command! Nature must count her Gold but Dross, If she would gain this heav'nly Land.
- 3 The fearful Soul that tries and faints, And walks the Ways of God no more, Is but efteem'd almost a Saint, And makes his own Destruction sure.
- 4 Lord, let not all my Hopes be vain, Create my Heart entirely new; Which Hypocrites could ne'er attain, Which false Apostates never knew.

CLIX. An Unconverted State: Ot, Converting Grace.

[1 GReat King of Glory and of Grace! We own, with humble Shame,
How vile is our degen'rate Race,
And our first Father's Name.]
N 4

2 From

- 2 From Adam flows our tainted Blood, The Poison reigns within, Makes us averse to all that's Good, And willing Slaves to Sin.
- [3 Daily we break thy holy Laws, And then reject thy Grace; Engag'd in the old Serpent's Cause, Against our Maker's Face.]
- 4 We live estrang'd ast from God, And love the Distance well; With Haste we run the dang'rous Road That leads to Death and Hell.
- 5 And can fuch Rebels be reftor'd! Such Natures made divine! Let Sinners fee thy Glory, Lord, And feel this Pow'r of thine.
- We raife our Father's Name on high, Who his own Spirit fends To bring rebellious Strangers nigh, And turn his Foes to Friends.

CLX. Custom in Sin.

- Let T the wild Leopards of the Wood
  Put off the Spots that Nature gives,
  Then may the Wicked turn to God,
  And change their Tempers, and their Lives.
- 2 As well might Ethiopian Slaves
  Wash out the Darkness of their Skin;

The

The Dead as well may leave their Graves, As old Transgressors cease to fin.

- 3 Where Vice has held its Empire long, 'T will not endure the least Controul; None but a Pow'r divinely strong Can turn the Current of the Soul.
- 4 Great God! I own thy Pow'r Divine,
  That works to change this Heart of mine;
  I would be form'd anew, and bless
  The Wonders of Creating Grace.

CLXI. Christian Virtues: Ot, The Difficulty of Conversion.

- Trait is the Way, the Door is strait,
  That leads to Joys on high;
  'Tis but a few that find the Gate,
  While Crowds mistake, and die.
  - 2 Beloved Self must be deny'd, The Mind and Will renew'd, Passion suppress'd, and Patience try'd, And vain Desires subdu'd.
- [3 Flesh is a dang'rous Foe to Grace,
  Where it prevails and rules;
  Flesh must be humbled, Fride abas'd,
  Lest they destroy our Souls.
- 4 The Love of Gold be banish'd hence,
  (That ville Idolatry)

And ev'ry Member, ev'ry Sense, In sweet Subjection lie.]

5 The Tongue, that most unruly Pow'r, Requires a strong Restraint: We must be watchful ev'ry Hour, And pray, but never faint.

6 Lord! Can a feeble, helples Worm
Fulfil a Task so hard?
Thy Grace must all my Work perform,
And give the free Reward.

CLXII. Meditation of Heaven: Or, The Joy of Faith.

- Y Thoughts furmount these lower Skies,
  And look within the Veil;
  There Springs of endless Pleasure rise,
  The Waters never fail.
- There I behold, with fweet Delight, The bleffed Three in One; And ftrong Affections fix my Sight On God's incarnate Son.
- 3 His Promise stands for ever firm, His Grace shall ne'er depart; He binds my Name upon his Arm, And seals it on his Heart.
- 4 Light are the Pains that Nature brings; How fhort our Sorrows are, When with Eternal, Future Things, The Present we compare!
- 5 I would not be a Stranger still
  To that celestial Place.

Where

Where I for ever hope to dwell Near my Redeemer's Face.

CLXIII. Complaint of Desertion and 'Temptations.

DEar Lord! behold our fore Distress;
Our Sins attempt to reign;
Stretch out thine Arm of conqu'ring Grace,
And let thy Foes be slain.

[2 The Lion with his dreadful Roar Affrights thy feeble Sheep: Reveal the Glory of thy Pow'r, And chain him to the Deep.

3 Must we indulge a long Despair?
Shall our Petitions die?
Our Mournings never reach thine Ear,
Nor Tears affect thine Eye?]

4 If thou despise a mortal Groan, Yet hear a Saviour's Blood; An Advocate so near the Throne Pleads and prevails with God.

5 He brought the Spirit's pow'rful Sword, To flay our deadly Foes: Our Sins shall die beneath thy Word, And Hell in vain oppose.

6 How boundless is our Father's Grace, In Height, and Depth, and Length! He makes his Son our Righteousness, His Spirit is our Strength.

CLXIV.

CLXIV. The End of the World.

- Why should this Earth delight us so?
  Why should we fix our Eyes
  On these low Grounds where Sorrows grow,
  And ev'ry Pleasure dies?
- While Time his sharpest Teeth prepares Our Comforts to devour, There is a Land above the Stars, And Joys above his Pow'r.
- 3 Nature shall be dissolved and die,
  The Sun must end his Race,
  The Earth and Sea for ever sly
  Before my Saviour's Face.
- 4 When will that glorious Morning rise?
  When the last Trumpet sound,
  And call the Nations to the Skies,
  From underneath the Ground?

CLXV. Unfruitfulness, Ignorance, and unsantify'd Affections.

- I ONG have I fate beneath the Sound
  Of thy Salvation, Lord;
  But still how weak my Faith is found;
  And Knowledge of thy Word!
- And hear almost in vain:

  How small a Portion of the Grace
  My Mem'ry can retain!

[3 My

[3 My dear Almighty, and my God, How little art thou known By all the Judgments of thy Rod, And Bleffings of thy Throne!]

[4 How cold and feeble is my Love! How negligent my Fear! How low my Hope of Joys above! How few Affections there!]

Great God! thy Sov'reign Pow'r impart,
To give thy Word Success;
Write thy Salvation in my Heart,
And make me learn thy Grace.

[6 Shew my forgetful Feet the Way
That leads to Joys on high;
There Knowledge grows without Decay,
And Love thall never die.]

CLXVL The Divine Perfections.

That Infinite Unknown?
Who can aftend his high Abode,
Or venture near his Throne?

[2 The Great Invisible! He dwells
Conceal'd in dazling Light;
But his All-fearching Eye reveals
The Secrets of the Night.

- 3 Those watchful Eyes, that never sleep, Survey the World around; His Wisdom is a boundless Deep, Where all our Thoughts are drown'd.]
- [4 Speak we of Strength? His Arm is strong,
  To fave or to destroy;
  Infinite Years his Life prolong,
  And endless is his Joy.]
- [5 He knows no Shadow of a Change,'
  Nor alters his Decrees;
  Firm as a Rock his Truth remains,
  To guard his Promifes.]
- [6 Sinners before his Presence die: How Holy is his Name! His Anger and his Jeasousy Burn like devouring Flame.]
- 7 Justice upon a dreadful Throne Maintains the Rights of God, While Mercy sends her Pardons down, Bought with a Saviour's Blood.
- 8 Now to my Soul, Immortal King,
  Speak fome forgiving Word;
  Then 'twill be double Joy to fing
  The Glories of my Lord.

CLXVII:

CLXVII. The Divine Perfections.

- Reat God! thy Glories shall employ My holy Fear, my humble Joy; My Lips, in Songs of Honour, bring Their Tribute to th' Eternal King.
- [2 Earth and the Stars, and Worlds unknown, Depend precarious on his Throne; All Nature hangs upon his Word, And Grace and Glory own their Lord.]
- [3 His Sov'reign Pow'r what Mortal knows? If he command, who dares oppose? With Strength he girds himself around, And treads the Rebels to the Ground.]
- [4 Who shall pretend to teach him Skill, Or guide the Counsels of his Will? His Wisdom, like a Sea divine, Flows deep and high beyond our Line.]
- [5 His Name is Holy, and his Eye Burns with immortal Jealousy; He hates the Sons of Pride, and sheds His fiery Vengeance on their Heads.]
- [6 The Beamings of his piercing Sight Bring dark Hypocrity to Light; Death and Destruction naked lie, And Hell uncover'd to his Eye.]
- [7 Th' eternal Law before him stands; His Justice, with impartial Hands,

Divides

Divides to all their due Reward, Or by the Sceptre, or the Sword.]

- [8 His Mercy, like a boundless Sea, Washes our Load of Guilt away; While his own Son came down and dy'd, T' engage his Justice on our Side.]
- [9 Each of his Words demands my Faith, My Soul can rest on all he faith; His Truth inviolably keeps The largest Promise of his Lips.]
- Then art my God, and I'll rejoice!
  Fill'd with thy Love, I dare proclaim
  The brightest Honours of thy Name.

CLXVIIL The same.

- JEbeuah reigns, his Throne is high, J His Robes are Light and Majesty; His Glory shines with Beams so bright, No Mortal can sustain the Sight.
- 2 His Terrors keep the World in Awe, His Justice guards his holy Law, His Love reveals a smiling Face, His Truth and Promise seal the Grace.
- Thro' all his Works his Wildom shines, And bassles Saton's deep Designs; His Pow'r is Sov'reign to sulfil The noblest Counsels of his Will.
- 4 And will this glorious Lord descend To be my Father, and my Friend?

Then

Then let my Songs with Angels join; Heav'n is secure, if God be mine.

CLXIX. The fame as the culvilith

- THE Lord Jehovah reigns,
  His Throne is built on high;
  The Garments he assumes,
  Are Light and Majesty;
  His Glories shine
  With Beams so bright,
  No mortal Eye
  Can bear the Sight.
- The Thunders of his Hand Keep the wide World in Awe; His Wrath and Justice stand To guard his holy Law; And where his Love Resolves to bless, His Truth confirms And seals the Grace.
- 3 Thro' all his ancient Works
  Surprizing Wisdom shines,
  Consounds the Pow'rs of Hell,
  And breaks their curs'd Defigns:
  Strong is his Arm,
  And shall sulfil
  His Great Diecrees,
  His Sov'mign Will.
- 4 And can this Mighty King
  Of Glory condescend?

And

And will he write his Name,

My Father and my Friend?

I love his Name,

I love his Word;

Join all my Pow'rs,

And praise the Lord.

CLXX. God Incomprehensible and Sovereign.

- [1* CAN Creatures, to Perfection, find Th' Eternal, Uncreated Mind? Or can the largest Stretch of Thought Measure and search his Nature out?
- 2 'Tis high as Heav'n, 'tis deep as Hell; And what can Mortals know, or tell! His Glory spreads beyond the Sky, And all the shining Worlds on high.
- But Man, vain Man, would fain be wife, Born, like a wild young Colt, he flies Thro' all the Follies of his Mind, And swells and snuffs the empty Wind.]
- 4 God is a King of Pow'r unknown, Firm are the Orders of his Throne: If he refolve, who dare oppose, Or ask him why, or what he does?
- 5 He wounds the Heart, and he makes whole; He calms the Tempest of the Soul:

^{*} Job xi. 7, &c.

When he shuts up in long Despair, Who can remove the heavy Bar?

- 7 He gave the vaulted Heav'n its Form, The crooked Serpent, and the Worm & He breaks the Billows with his Breath, And smites the Sons of Pride to Death.
- 8 These are a Portion of his Ways;
  But who shall dare describe his Face?
  Who can endure his Light? or stand
  To hear the Thunders of his Hand?

Prepared for the Holy Ordinance of the LORD'S SUPPER.

I. The Lord's Supper Instituted. 1 Cor. xi. 23, &c.

Was on that dark, that doleful Night,
When Pow'rs of Earth and Hell arose
Against the Son of God's Delight,
And Friends betray'd him to his Foes:

2 Before the mournful Scene began, He took the Bread, and blefs'd, and brake: What

What Love thro' all his Actions ran!
What wond'rous Words of Grace he spake!

- 3 This is my Body, broke for Sin, Receive and eat the living Food: Then took the Cup, and bless'd the Wine; 'Tis the New Cov'nant in my Blood.
- [4 For us his Flesh with Nails was torn, He bore the Scourge, he selt the Thorn; And Justice pour'd upon his Head Its heavy Vengeance, in our Stead.
- 5 For us his vital Blood was foilt,
  To buy the Pardon of our Guilt;
  When, for black Crimes of biggest Size,
  He gave his Soul a Sacrifice.]
- 6 Do this (he cry'd) 'till Time shall end, In Mem'ry of your dying Friend; Meet at my Table, and record The Love of your departed Lord,
- [7 Jesus, thy Feast we celebrate, We shew thy Death, we sing thy Name, 'Till thou return, and we shall eat The Marriage-Supper of the Lamb.]

II. Com-

II. Communion with Christ, and with Saints. 1 Cor. x. 16, 17.

In JESUS invites his Saints
To meet around his Board;
Here pardon'd Rebels fit and hold
Communion with their Lord.

- 2 For Food he gives his Flesh;
  He bids us drink his Blood:
  Amazing Favour! matchles Grace
- Amazing Favour! matchless Grace Of our descending God!]
- 3 This holy Bread and Wine Maintains our fainting Breath, By Union with our living Lord, And Int'rest in his Death.
- 4 Our heav'nly Father calls

  Christ and his Members one;

  We the young Children of his Love,

  And he the first-born Son.
- 5 We are but fev'ral Parts
  Of the same broken Bread;
  One Body hath its sev'ral Limbs,
  But Jesus is the Head.
- 6 Let all our Pow'rs be join'd, His glorious Name to raise; Pleasure and Love fill ev'ry Mind, And ev'ry Voice be Praise.

III. The

- III. The New Testament in the Blood of Christ: Or, The New Covenant sealed.
- THE Promise of my Father's Love Shall stand for ever good: He said, and gave his Soul to Death, And seal'd the Grace with Blood.
- 2 To this dear Cov'nant of thy Word I fet my worthless Name;
  I feal th' Engagement to my Lord, And make my humble Claim.
- 3 The Light, and Strength, and pard'ning Grace, And Glory, shall be mine; My Life and Soul, my Heart and Flesh, And all my Pow'rs are thine.
- 4 I call that Legacy my own
  Which Jesus did bequeath;
  'Twas purchas'd with a dying Groan,
  And ratify'd in Death.
- 5 Sweet is the Mem'ry of his Name Who bless'd us in his Will, And to his Testament of Love Made his own Life the Seal.
  - IV. Christ's dying Love: Or, Our Pardon bought at a dear Price.
- HOW condescending, and how kind, Was God's Eternal Son!

Our Mis'ry reach'd his heav'nly Mind, And Pity brought him down.

[2 When Juffice, by our Sins provok'd, Drew forth its dreadful Sword, He gave his Soul up to the Stroke, Without a murm'ring Word.]

[3 He funk beneath our heavy Woes, To raise us to his Throne: There's ne'er a Gist his Hand bestows, But cost his Heart a Groan.]

4 This was Compassion like a God,
That when the Saviour knew
The Price of Pardon was his Blood,
His Pity ne'er withdrew.

5 Now tho' he reigns exalted high,
His Love is still as great:
Well he remembers Calvary,
Nor lets his Saints forget.

[6 Here we behold his Bowels roll As kind as when he dy'd, And fee the Sorrows of his Soul Bleed theo' his wounded Side.]

[7 Here we receive repeated Seals
Of Jesus' dying Love:
Hard is the Wretch that never seels
One soft Affection move.]

While we his Death record,
And, with our Joy for pardon'd Guilt,
Mourn that we pierc'd the Lord.

V. Christ the Bread of Life. John vi.

- Thou art our living Stream, O Lord,
  And thou th' immortal Bread.
- [2 The Manna came from lower Skies, But Jesus from above, Where the fresh Springs of Pleasure rise, And Rivers flow with Love.
- The Jews, the Fathers, dy'd at last, Who eat that heav'nly Bread; But these Provisions which we taste, Can raise us from the Dead.]
- 4 Bless'd be the Lord, that gives his Flesh
  To nourish dying Men;
  And often spreads his Table fresh,
  Lest we should faint again.
- 5 Our Souls shall draw their heavinly Breath, Whilst Jesus finds Supplies;
  Nor shall our Graces sink to Death,
  For Jesus never dies.
- [6 Daily our mortal Flesh decays, But Christ our Life shall come; His unresisted Pow'r shall raise Our Bodies from the Tomb.]

VI. 776

- VI. The Memorial of our absent Lord. John xvi. 16. Luke xxii. 19. John xiv. 3.
- JESUS is gone above the Skies,
  Where our weak Senses reach him not;
  And carnal Objects court our Eyes,
  To thrust our Saviour from our Thought.
- 2 He knows what wand'ring Hearts we have, Apt to forget his lovely Face; And, to refresh our Minds, he gave These kind Memorials of his Grace.
- 3 The Lord of Life this Table spread With his own Flesh and dying Blood, We on the rich Provision feed, And take the Wine, and bless the God.
- 4 Let finful Sweets be all forgot, And Earth grow less in our Esteem; Christ and his Love fill ev'ry Thought, And Faith and Hope be fix'd on him.
- 'Tis to prepare our Souls a Place,
  That we may dwell in heav'nly Light,
  And live for ever near his Face.
- [6 Our Eyes look upwards to the Hills Whence our returning Lord shall come; We wait thy Chariot's awful Wheels, To fetch our longing Spirits home.]

VII. Crucifixion to the World, by the Cross of Christ. Gal. vi. 14.

- on which the Prince of Glory dy'd,
  My richest Gain I count but Loss,
  And pour Contempt on all my Pride:
- 2 Forbid it, Lord, that I should boast, Save in the Death of Christ my God: All the vain Things that charm me most, I sacrifice them to his Blood.
- 3 See from his Head, his Hands, his Feet, Sorrow and Love flow mingled down!
  Did e'er such Love and Sorrow meet?
  Or Thorns compose so rich a Crown!
- [4 His dying Crimfon, like a Robe, Spreads o'er his Body on the Tree; Then am I dead to all the Globe, And all the Globe is dead to me.]
  - Were the whole Realm of Nature mine, That were a Present far too small: Love so amazing, so divine, Demands my Soul, my Life, my All.

VIII. The Tree of Life.

[i COme, let us join a joyful Tune To our exalted Lord,

Ye

Ye Saints on high around his Throne, And we around his Board.

- While once upon this lower Ground Weary and faint ye flood, What dear Refreshment here ye found From this immortal Food!
- The Tree of Life, that near the Throne
  In Heav'ns high Garden grows,
  Laden with Grace, bends gently down
  Its ever-fmiling Boughs.
- [4 Hov'ring amongst the Leaves, there stands
  The sweet Celestial Dove,
  And Jesus on the Branches hangs

The Banner of his Love.]

- [5 'Tis a young Heav'n of strange Delight While in his Shade we sit;
  His Fruit is pleasing to the Sight,
  And to the Taste as sweet.
- 6 New Life it spreads thro' dying Hearts, And chears the drooping Mind; Vigour and Joy the Juice imparts, Without a Sting behind.]
- 7 Now let the flaming Weapon stand, And guard all Eden's Trees: There's ne'er a Plant in all that Land That bears such Fruit as these.
- 8 Infinite Grace our Souls adore,
  Whose wond'rous Hand has made
  This living Branch of Sov'reign Pow'r
  To raise and heal the Dead.

IX. The Spirit, the Water, and the Blood. I John v. 6.

ET all our Tongues be one, To praise our God on high, Who from his Bosom sent his Son, To fetch us Strangers nigh.

2 Nor let our Voices cease To fing the Saviour's Name; Jesus, the Emballador of Peace, How chearfully he came!

3 It cost him Cries and Tears To bring us near to God; Great was our Debt, and he appears To make the Payment good:

14 My Saviour's pierced Side Pour'd out a double Flood: By Water we are purify'd, And pardon'd by the Blood.

Infinite was our Guilt, But He, our Priest, atones; On the cold Ground his Life was spilt, And offer'd with his Groans,]

6 Look up, my Soul, to Him Whose Death was thy Desert, And humbly view the living Stream Flow from his breaking Heart.

7 There, on the curfed Tree, In dying Pangs he lies, Fulfils

Fulfils his Father's Great Decree, And all our Wants supplies.

8 Thus the Redeemer came, By Water, and by Blood: And when the Spirit speaks the same; We feel his Witness good.

9 While the Eternal Three
Bear their Record above,
Here I believe He dy'd for me,
And feal'd my Saviour's Love.

[10 Lord, cleanse my Soul from Sin, Nor let thy Grace depart; Great Comforter! abide within, And witness to my Heart.]

X. Christ Crucify'd; the Wisdom and Power of God.

- To fpread her Maker's Praise abroad;
  And ev'ry Labour of his Hands
  Shews something worthy of a God:
- 2 But in the Grace that rescu'd Man, His brightest Form of Glory shines; Here, on the Cross, 'tis fairest drawn In precious Blood, and Crimson Lines.
- [3 Here his whole Name appears complete;
  Nor Wit can guess, nor Reason prove,
  Which of the Letters best is writ,
  The Pow'r, the Wisdom, or the Love.]

  4 Here

- 4 Here I behold his impost Heart,
  Where Grace and Vengeance strangely join,
  Piercing his Son with sharpest Smart,
  To make the purchas d Pleasures mine.
- O! the fweet Wonders of that Cross Where God the Saviour lov'd, and dy'd! Her noblest Life my Spirit draws From his dear Wounds, and bleeding Side.
- 6 I would for ever speak his Name In Sounds to mortal Ears unknown, With Angels join to praise the Lamb, And worship at his Father's Throne.

XI. Pardon brought to our Senses.

- I ORD, how divine thy Comforts are!
  How heavinly is the Place
  Where Jesus spreads the sacred Feast
  Of his redeeming Grace!
- There the rich Bounties of our God, And sweetest Glories shine; There fests says, that I am bis, And my Belqued's mine.
- 3 Here, (says the kind redeeming Lord, And shews his wounded Side) See here the Spring of all your Joys, That open'd when I dy'd!
- [4 He smiles, and chears my mountful Heart, And tells of all his Pain:

All this, fays he, I bore for thee, And then he smiles again.]

5 What shall we pay our heav'nly King For Grace so vast as this?

He brings our Pardon to our Eyes, And leads it with a Kiss.

[6 Let fuch amazing Loves as these Be sounded all abroad; Such Favours are beyond Degrees, And worthy of a God.]

[7 To Him that wash'd us in his Blood Be everlasting Praise,
Salvation, Honour, Glory, Pow'r,
Eternal as his Days.]

XII. The Gospel-Feast. Luke xiv.

The Fruits of Life o'erfpread the Board,
The Cup o'erflows with heav'nly Love.

Thine ancient Family, the Jews,
Were first invited to the Feast:
We hambly take what they refuse,
And Gentiles thy Salvation taste.

3 We are the Poor, the Blind, the Lame, And Help was far, and Death was nigh! But, at the Goipel-Call, we came, And every Want received Supply.

4 From

- 4 From the Highway that leads to Hell, From Paths of Darkness and Despair, Lord, we are come with thee to dwell, Glad to enjoy thy Presence here.
- That left the Heav'n of his Abode,
  And to this wretched Earth came down,
  To bring us Wand'rers back to God!
  - 6 It cost him Death, to save our Lives; To buy our Souls, it cost his own; And all the unknown Joys he gives, Were bought with Agonies unknown.
  - 7 Our everlasting Love is due To Him that ransom'd Sinners lost; And pity'd Rebels, when he knew The vast Expence his Love would cost.]
  - XIII. Divine Love making a Feast, and calling in the Guests. Luke xiv. 17, 22, 23.
  - THOW sweet and awful is the Place, With Christ within the Doors, While everlasting Love displays.

    The choicest of her Stores!
  - Here ev'ry Bowel of our God
     With foft Compassion rolls;
     Here Peace and Pardon bought with Blood,
     Is Food for dying Souls.
  - [3 While all our Hearts and all our Songs

Each of us cry, with thankful Tongues, "Lord, Why was I'a Gueft!

4 "Why was I made to hear thy Voice, "And enter while there's Room;

"When thousands make a wretched Choice,
"And rather starve than come?"]

That sweetly forc'd us in;
Else we had still refus'd to taste,

And perish'd in our Sin.

[6 Pity the Nations, O our God,
Constrain the Earth to come;
Send thy victorious Word abroad,
And bring the Strangers home.

7 We long to fee thy Churches full,
That all the chofen Race
May with one Voice, and Heart, and Soul,
Sing thy redeeming Grace.]

XIV. The Song of Simeon, Luke ii. 28: Or, A Sight of Christ makes Death easy.

We would forget all earthly Charms,
And wish to die, as Simeon wou'd
With his young Saviour in his Arms.

a Our Lips should learn that joyful Song, Were but our Hearts prepar'd like his; "Our Souls till willing to be gone,

"And, at the Word, depart in Peace.

XV. Our Lord Jesus at his own Table.

- [1 THE Mem'ry of our dying Lord:
  Awakes a thankful Tongue:
  How rich he foread his Royal Board,
  And blefe'd the Food, and fung.
- 2 Happy the Men that eat this Bread, But double-bless d was he That gently bow'd his loving Flead, And lean'd it, Lord, on Thee.

XVI. The Agonies of Christ.

Our Hearts no more repine; Our Suff'rings are not worth a Thought, When, Lord, compar'd with thine,

In lively Figures here we fee The bleeding Prince of Love; Each of the hope, He dy'd for me, And then our Griefs remove.

[3 Our humble Faith here takes her Rife, While fitting round his Board; And back to Calvary the flies, To view her groaning Lord.

And made his Triumph there,]

The Wonders of that Day:
No mortal Tongue, nor mortal Thought

Can equal Thanks repay.

7 Our Hymns should sound like those above, A. Could we our Voices raise;
Yet, Lord, our Hearts shall all be Love,
And all our Lives be Praise.

XVII. Incomparable Food: Or, The Flesh and Blood of Christ.

In E fing the amazing Deeds
That Grace divine performs;
The Eternal God comes down, and bleeds,
To nourish dying Worms.

This Soul-reviving Wine,
 Dear Saviour, 'tis thy Blood;
 We thank that facred Flesh of thine,
 For this immortal Food.]

Is made of heav'nly Things;

As our Redeemer brings.

And fearch'd his Garden round;
For there was no fuch bleffed Fruit
In all the happy Ground.

5 Th' Angelick Host above Can never taste this Food;

They feast upon their Maker's Love, But not a Saviour's Blood.

6 On us the Almighty Lord Bestows this matchless Grace, And muce us with some chearing Word

With Pleafure in his Page.

7 Come, all ye drooping Saints,
And banquet with the King;
This Wine will drown your fad Complaints,
And tune your Voice to fing.

8 Salvation to the Name Of our Adored Christ:

Thro' the wide Earth his Grace proclaim. His Glory in the High'ft.

XVIII. The same,

JESUS! we bow before thy Feet!
Thy Table is divinely dor'd;
Thy facted Fleth our Souls have eat,
Tis living Bread; we thank thee, Lord!

And here we drink our Saviour's Blood;
We thank thee, Lord; 'tis gen'rous Wine,
Mingled with Love, the Fountain flow'd
From that dear bleeding Heart of thine.

- 3 On Earth is no fuch Sweetness found, For the Lamb's Flesh is heav'nly Food: In vain we search the Globe around For Bread so fine, or Wine so good.
- Gives Life Eternal to the Dead.
- 5 Joy to the Master of the Feast,
  His Name our Souls for ever bless;
  To God the King and God the Priest
  A loud Holanna round the Place.

XIX. Glory in the Gross: Or, Not assumed of Christ Crucified.

- A T thy Command, our dearest Lord, Here we attend thy dying Feast;
  Thy Blood, like Wine, adorns thy Board, And thine own Fielh feeds ev'ry Guest.
- 2 Our Faith adores thy bleeding Love, And trufts for Life in one that dy'd; We hope for heav'nly Crowns above, From a Redeemer Crucify'd.
- And fling their Scandals on the Caufe;
  We come to boast our Saviour's Name,
  And make our Triumphs in his Cross.
- 4 With Joy we tell the scoffing Age, He that was dead has left his Tomb,

He

He lives above their utmost Rage, And we are waiting till he come.

- XX. The Provisions for the Table of our Lord: Or, The Tree of Life, and River of Love.
- ORD, we adore thy bounteous Hand,
  And fing the folemn Feast
  Where sweet celeftial Dainties stand
  For ev'ry willing Guest.
- [2 The Tree of Life adorns the Board: With rich immortal Fruit, And ne'er an angry flaming Sword To guard the Paffage to 't.
- The Cup stands crown'd with living Juice;
  The Fountain slows above,
  And runs down streaming, for our Use,
  In Rivulets of Love.]
- 4 The Food's prepar'd by heav'nly Art,
  The Pleasure's well refin'd;
  They spread new Life thro' ev'ry Heart,
  And chear the drooping Mind.
- 5 Shout and proclaim the Saviour's Love, Ye Saints that tafte his Wine; Join with your Kindred Saints above, In loud Hofanna's join.
- 6 A thousand Glories to the God That gives such Joy as this; Hosanna! let it sound abroad, And reach where Jesus is.

XXI. The Triumphal Feast for Christ's Victory over Sin, and Death, and Hell.

[1 COME, let us lift our Voices high, High as our Joys arife, And Join the Songs above the Sky, Where Pleasure never dies. 2 Jesus, the God that fought and bled,

And conquer'd when he fell,

That fore, and at his Chariot-Wheels

Dragged all the Pow's of Hell.]

To this triumphal Feast,
And brings immortal Biesling down
For each redeemed Quest.]

How kind his Smiles appear!

And oh! what melting Words he kys

To ev'ry humble Ear!

- 12 We give thee, Lord, our highest Praise, The Tribute of our Tongues But Themes so infinite as these Exceed our noblest Songs.

XXII. The Compassion of a dying

UR Spirits join t'adore the Lamb; Oh, that our feeble Lips could move In Strains immortal as his Name, And melting as his dying Love!

- The Prince of Heav'n religns his Breath,
  And pours his Life out on the Ground,
  To ransom guilty Worms from Death.
- [3 Rebels, we broke our Maker's Laws; He from the Threatning fet us free, Bore the full Vengeance on his Cross, And nail'd the Curfes to the Tree.]
- [4 The Law proclaims no Terror now, And Sinai's Thunder roars no more; From all his Wounds new Bleffings flow, A Sea of Joy without a Shore.
- 5 Here we have wash'd our deepest Stains,
  And heal'd our Wounds with heav'nly Blood's
  Bless'd Fountain! springing from the Veins
  Of Jesus, our incarnate God.]
- To speak Compassion so divine:
  Had we a thousand Lives to give,
  A thousand Lives should all be thine.

XXIII. Grace and Glory by the Death of Christ.

[1 Sitting around our Father's Board, We raise our tuneful Breath; Our Faith beholds her dying Lord, And doors our Sins to Death.]

2 We

- We see the Blood of Fesus shed,
  Whence all our Pardons rise;
  The Sinner views th' Atonement made,
  And loves the Sacrifice.
- Thy cruel Thorns, thy shameful Cross,
  Procure us heavinly Crowns:
  Our highest Gain springs from thy Loss;
  Our Healing, from thy Wounds;
- 4 Oh! 'tis impossible that we,
  Who dwell in feeble Clay,
  Should equal Suff'rings bear for Thee,
  Or equal Thanks repay.

XXIV. Pardon and Strength from Christ.

- To fee thy Glories thine;
  The Lord will his own Table bless,
  And make the Feast divine.
- We touch, we taste the heav'nly Bread,
  We drink the sacred Cup;
  With outward Forms our Sense is fed,
  Our Souls rejoice in Hope.
- We shall appear before the Throne
  Of our forgiving God,
  Dress'd in the Garments of his Son,
  And sprinkled with his Blood.
- 4 We shall be strong to run the Race, And climb the upper Sky;

Cbrift

Christ will provide our Souls with Grace,
He bought a large Supply.

[5 Let us indulge a chearful Frame,
For Joy becomes a Feaft;
We love the Mem'ry of his Name,
More than the Wine we tafte.]

XXV. Divine Glories and Graces.

- Great God! how bright they shine, While, at thy Word, we break the Bread, And pour the flowing Wine!
- 2 Here thy revenging Justice stands, And pleads its dreadful Cause; Here saving Mercy spreads her Hands Like Jesus on the Cross.
- Thy Saints attend with ev'ry Grace
  On this great Sacrifice;
  And Love appears with chearful Face,
  And Faith with fixed Eyes.
- 4 Our Hope in waiting Posture fits, To Heav'n directs her Sight; Here ev'ry warmer Passion meets, And warmer Pow'rs unite.
- 5 Zeal and Revenge perform their Part, And rifing Sin destroy; Repentance comes with aking Heart, Yet not forbids the Joy.

6 Dear

6 Dear Saviour, change our Faith to Sight, Let Sin for ever die; Then shall our Souls be all Delight, And ev'ry Tear be dry.

I Gannot persuade myself to put a full Period to these Divine Hymns, till I have address d a special Song of Glory to God the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit. The the Latin Name of it, Gloria Patri, be retained in our Nation from the Roman Church; and the' there may be some Excesses of Superstitious Honour paid to the Words of it, which may have wrought some unhappy Prejudices in weaker Christians, yet I believe it still to be one of the noblest Parts of Christian Worship. The Subject of it is the Doctrine of the Trinity, which is that peculiar Glory of the Divine Nature, that our Lord Jesus Christ has so clearly revealed unto Men, and is so necessary to true Christianity. The Action is Praise, which is one of the most complete and exalted Parts of heavenly Worship. I bave cast the Song Linto a Variety of Forms, and have fitted it in a: plain Version, or a larger Paraphrase, to be sung either alone, or at the Conclusion of another Hymn. I have added also a few Hosanna's, or Ascriptions of Salvation to Chtift, in the same Manner, and for the same End.
